The Plymouth

MERCHANTS OF FINE CLOTHES.

First Complete Showing of

Millinery for Spring

Commencing Tuesday, March 13, we will show a complete line of spring millinery.

The superb collection of French model hats is more varied than upon any previous display.

Georgette, Charlotte, Virot, Ether Meyer, Mme. Tore, Roboux, Maison Lerois, Lays Seours and others being extensively represented.

Copies and adaptations may be secured at much lower prices.

In conjunction with the above we offer a full line of untrimmed dress shapes, whose hats are bought and trimmed by Paris' foremost milliners, as named above.

Our new Veiling Department is the most complete in the city. Your patronage is solicited.

The Left-Overs of Saturday's Great Sale

Women's Furnishings of Many Kinds at Half and Less Than Half Price

After the many unqualified successful sales of the past few weeks there remain many odd and straggling pieces, broken lines and slightly soiled articles of ready-to-wear fixings for women that will be sold regardless of former cost and selling price.

For instance:

- Women's $1.00 Silk-lined Gloves for 25c.
- Women's 50c Silk-embroidered Collar and Cuff Sets for 8c.
- Women's Patent Leather Belts, gilt-trimmed, for 10c.
- Women's Rembrandt-ribbed lisle thread, Hosiery for 19c.
- Women's 35c fleece-lined and cashmere Hosiery for 15c.
- Women's $1.00 and $2.00 Sample Belts for 50c.
- Children's 50c Golf Gloves for 10c.
- Children's 50c Union Suits for 10c.

200 pieces women's slightly soiled kimonos, muslin and knit underwear will be sold at just HALF former price.

For striking, strong bargains visit this department. It will pay you well.

Our Greatest Sale of STERLING SILVER

This is an opportunity for those who desire to complete their sets and fill in with Dessert Spoons and Forks, Table Spoons and Forks and Tea Spoons. Nothing like this sale ever occurred before and it may never occur here again.

95c per ounce for discontinued designs in Sterling Flatware. We weigh the dozens and half dozens on the scales and sell by actual weight—this is the way to get the most for your money. In our stock are many designs in Forks and Spoons which we do not carry in a full open stock of everything that completes a family service or chest of silver—these odd patterns are the ones on which we are cutting the price. We quote this price (95c an ounce) in the face of a 10 per cent advance last month—it is a most unusual and extraordinary thing to do—we will quickly sell our odd lots—do not delay.

AT A CUT PRICE are also Cream Ladles, Sugar and Jelly Spoons, Bon Bon Spoons, Butter Picks, Olive and Sardine Forks, Pin Trays, Bon Bon Dishes, Bread Trays and Berry Bowls, Preserve Dishes and Small Bowls and Hand Pierced Vases.

Tuesday, March 20, has been chosen by a group of the dancing set for a party to be given in Mrs. Noble's ball room. The affair is one of a series planned by some of the men, who have formed a nameless club, with O. O. Wilson as president. At the close of each party a committee is appointed and the affair next Tuesday will be in charge of Dr. F. T. Gercke, George W. Burwell and L. P. Chute.

A pleasant affair for St. Patrick's evening will be a dancing party to be given by the married set to celebrate that twelfth anniversary of the May I O U Home club, and Lieutenant and Mrs. Allen Keyes will be the guests of honor. The party will be given at Mrs. Noble's ballroom on Hennepin avenue, and Lester Daniel and George Wheaton are in charge of the arrangements. The members of the club are connected with the university and the annual reunions have always proved delightful.

Saturday morning the two children's dancing classes which have been meeting during the winter at the homes of Mrs. James Fullerton on Clifton avenue and Mrs. Louis Long on Groveland avenue, will unite in giving a charming St. Patrick's party in Mrs. Noble's ballroom on Hennepin avenue. The affair is to be very prettily arranged with favors in the Irish colors and St. Patrick souvenirs, and the refreshments which will be served will be in the same color. A group of the older girls, Misses Audrey Walton, Dorothy Daggett, Williamina Donaldson, Katherine Dwinell and Georgia Fullerton, will assist Mrs. Noble.

A party of sixteen young people, members of the Alpha Dancing club of St. Paul, will form a theater party at the Orpheum Friday evening. This is the last of the series of parties to be given at the Orpheum in the past seven days.

Miss Ethel Smith of Pillsbury avenue entertained at an informal dancing party last week. The guests were Misses Flossie Allen, Mae Eads, Bell Fininger, Esther Smith, Messrs. Lamb, Donely, Macdonald, Thompson and Brown.

Mrs. O. C. Olsen entertained Saturday evening at a birthday party in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Maebelle Tharalson, of Cottonwood, Minn. Her husband, 1719 Eleventh avenue S. The table was decorated in pink and white, and covers were laid for twenty. During the evening vocal solos were given by Miss Olive Olsen and Miss Maebelle Tharalson. Mrs. Tharalson will leave this evening for her home in Cottonwood, Minn., after having spent several days in the city visiting friends.

A group of friends celebrated the birthday anniversary of Miss Vina Rudell Friday evening at her home, 2708 Garfield avenue. Games and music and recitations by Miss Olga Jones were followed by light refreshments. There were twenty-eight guests and Miss Rudell received many handsome gifts.

The marriage of Miss Gurene Dokken and Lars Esty of Kenyon, Minn., took place at high noon Saturday at 2015 Fifth street S. Rev. Mr. Thredt officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Esty left on the evening train for a wedding trip thru the southern part of the state and will be at home after March 25 at Kenyon, Minn.

Mrs. Otto Langum of Seventh avenue was pleasantly surprised on Tuesday by a group of her friends. Present were Mrs. Charles A. Tibburs, Will Starrett, John Jones, W. S. Stranahan, Robert McClaskey, W. Berg, W. T. Jenkins and Frank Plumley.

Mrs. Hans Jordee of 2920 Thirtieth avenue S. entertained a small group of children yesterday in honor of the birthday anniversary of her little son Melvin. Games were played and a luncheon served. The small guests were Helen and Roy Anderson, Harold and Charles Mory, Olgot and Augusta Swanson.

The marriage of Miss Minnetta E. Marks and Charles C. Lyndalok took place at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the new home of the bride and bridegroom in the Laurel flats. Rev. G. L. Morrill read the service in the presence of a group of immediate friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Oberhofer will give a box party at the Metropolitan theater for the performance of "The Valkyrie" by the Savage Opera company this evening. Tomorrow evening Mr. and Mrs. Oberhofer will have a second box party for "Rigoletto."

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

F. H. Carpenter is at the Auditorium Annex, Chicago.

Minneapolis Grove No. 11, W. C. will give a card party in Moran post hall, 807 Nicollet avenue, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Longue have returned from a five weeks' trip to Mexico City and San Antonio, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Thomson and son Ralf have just returned from a tour to visit Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Campbell.
