LETTER CARRIER WHO WORKED OVERTIME GETS "LAY-OFF"

During Christmas Rush, John W. Higby Gladdened Hearts by Delivering Packages after Quitting Hours and Department Demands Day's Pay for Violation of Eight-Hour Law.

Working overtime is an offense against the eight-hour law governing federal employees. Because he violated this rule and stayed on his route half an hour too long...

When the holiday rush was at its height, Higby found himself near the end of his route with several packages undelivered. It was time to return to the office if he wished to "ring out" on time...

This fine is not imposed by the local authorities, but has been ordered by the department to whom Higby's time was reported with that of all other employees of the Minneapolis office.

Higby has been employed in Minneapolis for the past eight years, and in all that time has never received a reprimand. In view of the hardship and injustice which would follow the enforcement of the rule in his case...

EAST POLITICALLY IS GANG RIDDEN

W. D. WASHBURN, JR. SEES NO HOPE OF REFORM.

Interest in Ballot Reform or Primary Election Laws Is Dead or Dormant and Machine Politicians Rule Supreme—Civic Reformers are Discouraged Over Hopeless Outlook.

Convinced that the west has a better ballot system than the east, Washburn and his greater freedom from machine domination, W. D. Washburn, Jr., returned today, after attending the Civic Federation meeting in New York...

"I attended the meeting of the Civic Federation, called to consider the reformation of primary and voting laws," said Mr. Washburn. "While a large attendance was present, we really made little progress in any direction."

"There is little or no progress done towards getting a decent primary law, or in cleansing the present system of voting. I was led to believe that the politicians are not so much in favor of either a primary law or a decent ballot system."

"I gathered that many of the people of the convention were much more interested in maintaining the power of the machines than in giving the people a chance to vote. As a matter of fact, the federation refused to endorse any primary system and referred it to a committee, which may meet some time in the distant future."

Corruption Everywhere.

"In regard to reforming the ballot, the corruption in the east seems amazing to anyone, compared to our own comparatively fair system of voting. I was told of one district in New York city where 360 votes were cast while 320 were sold every election for spot cash."

"The people in the east seem discouraged and are making no progress toward the light. I was shown several ballots which were apparently arranged to deceive the voter. For instance, the Rhode Island ballot is a great sheet folded into a sort of pamphlet, and so complicated that I don't think a college professor could vote it intelligently."

"Business men and the public generally might as well realize right now," said a member of the committee, "that this is a business proposition backed by business men and there will be no letup until we know where everybody stands. Every man on the lists will have to go on record for or against, for the committee is allowing nothing to go by default."

The follow-up system will be continued until everybody is heard from. It is important, in the opinion of the committee, that the fund should represent the united generosity and patriotism of the entire city. It is also most important that the returns should be prompt. As has been specially noted before, the fund should be pledged only. A part of the pledge will be called for in May and the balance as needed. The many have already sent the full amount of their pledges to the committee. It is not necessary.

ST. PAUL WILL PUT SONS OF ERIN TO BOOSTERS ON ROAD

WILL TRY TO CUT INTO MINNEAPOLIS TRADE.

The Idea Is to Bend Every Effort Toward Bringing Jobbing Business to St. Paul—Secretary Nye Says That Publicity Work for Either City Will Help Other.

Through its new Business Men's Union, St. Paul is now giving considerable attention to the jobbing business. First steps toward the organization have already been announced, but the thorough character of the campaign is to be undertaken in St. Paul's benefit will be deeply interesting to Minneapolis business houses which have gained pre-eminence by straightforward business methods and not by co-operative strenuousness.

The St. Paul plan contemplates support of the business men's union by all business interests which shall subscribe to their business methods and means. A secretary is to be secured to direct the work. The committee is said to be in search of a high-grade man and will offer a salary of $1,000 a year on salary. Traveling men are to be sent thru the entire northwest to boost St. Paul. Tons of literature and every possible device for publicity is to be utilized. This is the roseate prospect presented by the promoters.

To Work the Lid Game.

While boosting St. Paul no opportunity to take a rap at Minneapolis is to be overlooked. The Minneapolis lid is to be presented by the ardent St. Paul boosters as a strong factor favoring St. Paul. Every sportsman, merchant and business man of the great northwest is to be told of it and invited to St. Paul, where he may have his finger unaided. The lid proposition is to be utilized. This is the roseate prospect presented by the promoters.

Good for Both Cities.

"Minneapolis should be friendly to the St. Paul organization. It will be a good thing for our sister city down here for both cities. It is pointed out that by co-operating to get after things, both cities want, much good can be done.
