

City News

THE WEATHER

The Forecast. Minnesota—Generally fair tonight and Saturday, except possibly snow flurries in west portion; slowly rising temperature; fresh easterly wind.

Weather Conditions.

The "high" over the Missouri valley and middle Mississippi valley yesterday now extends from northern Minnesota to New Jersey and Maryland, with a moderate gradient to the south over the north Pacific coast.

Weather Now and Then.

Today, maximum 21, minimum 4 degrees; a year ago, maximum 50, minimum 36 degrees.

AROUND THE TOWN

Frat Boys Banquet.—The active and alumni members of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity will hold their annual banquet at the West hotel tonight.

Solenberger Speaks.—E. D. Solenberger, manager of the Associated Charities, addressed the political economy students of the state university on "Some Causes of Poverty," this afternoon.

Fix Date of Meeting.—Wednesday evening has been set as the date for the student mass meeting called by undergraduate students to be held in regard to college athletics.

Go to Workhouse.—Frank Loftus, alias "Bumfoot," well known to the police, was sent to the workhouse today for ninety days on a charge of vagrancy.

School Alumni to Meet.—The annual meeting of the South High School Alumni association will be held at the high school Thursday evening, April 29.

Engineers' Meeting.—The Minneapolis branch of the National Association of Stationary Engineers will hold an open meeting Saturday evening at their hall, 17 Seventh street S.

Mayor Having Fine Time.—Mayor David P. Jones is in New York this week and, according to letters received in this city, is enjoying his sojourn from official cares most thoroughly.

Linde Has Enough.—H. J. Linde has resigned the captaincy of the university baseball team and he will be a candidate for the varsity team this year.

Stewart Will Speak.—Oliver W. Stewart, the temperance orator, will speak in Tollefson's hall, Franklin and Fifteenth avenues, this evening at 8 o'clock.

Foul of New Code.—Tim Sullivan, John Sullivan and Edward Van Epps, the men who assaulted Frank Quinn, municipal court officer, when he attempted to serve a writ of replevin on them, are to be tried today.

NECROLOGIC

SYLVANUS T. MARSH died Thursday evening at the residence of S. E. Barker, 19 Oakley avenue, Merriam Park. He was 80 years old and had been sick with paralysis for five years.

DUNCAN CLARK died at his residence, 1114 Chestnut avenue, Thursday. The funeral will take place from the Church of the Immaculate Conception Saturday at 9 a.m.

AUTO DRIVEWAY TO CONNECT CITIES

CITY MAY HAVE HELP OF AUTO-MOBILE OWNERS.

Directors of Club Discuss Feasibility of Plan to Improve Minnehaha and Talmage Avenues to Fort Snelling—Organization Has Important Business on for Spring Activity.

Important measures were discussed and recommended at a meeting of the directors of the Minneapolis Automobile club held at the Plaza yesterday afternoon.

Before taking any action on the plan for renting rooms at the Plaza the directors made a thorough inspection of the quarters, and made all arrangements possible prior to final action by the club.

To Employ Secretary.

In addition to maintaining the club room, the plan is to select a secretary in charge from June 1 to Oct. 1. It will be the duty of this secretary to collect roadmaps and information for the benefit of club members who are planning trips about the city or tours thru the state.

May Enlarge Organization.

There was also some discussion of the formation of a state association, testing the license provision in the new code, and ways and means of increasing the club membership.

ONLY FEARED BIG STICK

ITASCA COUNTY COMMISSIONERS RECONSIDERED AS SOON AS KERST'S BACK WAS TURNED.

Public Examiner Kerst has returned from Grand Rapids to find that the Itasca county commissioners failed to stay and after his interview with them Tuesday they took action then to resume investigation of the books of C. O. Miller, former treasurer, but Thursday they again rescinded their resolution, passing another to have the examination go on under their direction.

WILL TELL OF JAPAN

Martin E. Tew Will Lecture Before Men's Club, First Unitarian Church.

Martin E. Tew has been secured by the Men's club to give his lecture, "Japan, the Wonderland in Peace and War," Tuesday evening, March 27, at the First Unitarian church.

Since his visit to the flowery kingdom, Mr. Tew has been an ardent student of the religious, history and customs of the little brown men. In his lecture he shows how Shinto, Buddhist and Confucian doctrines have influenced the thought, and consequently the customs of the people.

ST. PAUL PASTOR RESIGNS.

Rev. T. G. Sykes, pastor of Arlington Hills Presbyterian church, case and Edgar street, St. Paul, has tendered his resignation to his congregation.

STATE FAIR VS. SCHOOL

Fall Term Will Open Regardless of Big Exposition.

A suggestion that the public schools be not opened until Sept. 10, in order that the children may have a holiday during fall week does not meet with the approval of the school directors.

O'BRIEN IDEAS GO INTO AMES BILL

CODE DRAFTED AT CHICAGO HAS NEW FEATURES.

Minnesota Commissioner Makes Important Contributions to Insurance Bill Congress Will Wrestle With—District of Columbia to Make Examinations of States When Desired.

Thomas D. O'Brien, state insurance commissioner, returned today from a three days' session of the coming of a uniform insurance laws in Chicago. He is chairman of the committee, which succeeded in drafting a model insurance code for the District of Columbia.

Commissioner Drake of the District of Columbia is a member of the committee, and strongly favors the scheme. The next thing is the framing of a uniform code to be adopted by state legislatures, following in the main the line of the one drafted for the Ames bill.

DULUTH BOARD ANSWERS DENIES THAT IT HAS EXCLUDED FARMERS' EXCHANGE FROM DULUTH MARKET.

The Duluth Board of Trade has made answer to the suit of Attorney General Young, to forfeit its charter for violation of the state antitrust law, on its own behalf.

The answer denies that the board of trade has a monopoly of the grain trade at the head of the lakes, and says that the Minnesota Farmers' exchange is not a member of the board.

FIRE SCARS REMOVED IN "NEW" WEST HOTEL

Had the "Divine Sarah" Bernhardt deterred her Minneapolis appearance next week, she would be just in time to help initiate the two new lifts of the West hotel that will replace those destroyed by the fire of Jan. 10.

PLAN FOR NATIONAL WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS OFFICERS ARRANGE FOR CONVENTION HERE.

Mrs. Abbie Adams, the national president of the National Relief Corps, Mrs. Ida K. Martin, the newly elected department president of Minnesota, Mrs. Ludusky J. Taylor of La Sueur, past national president, Mrs. Perry Starkweather, chief of the department, Mrs. Wallace G. Nye and Al Guild have been busy this morning making plans for the annual national convention of the Women's Relief Corps in this city next August.

LADIES OF G. A. R. CLOSE WITH USUAL COURTESY TO PAST OFFICERS.

Mrs. Mary Pheasant of Jordan, Minn., was chosen department president of the Ladies of the G. A. R. yesterday morning at the Minneapolis meeting.

LAMPREY DID GOOD WORK MAN WHO HAS JUST DIED IN ST. PAUL WAS FATHER OF STATE GAME LAWS.

The funeral of Uri L. Lamprey, father of Minnesota's game and fish laws, who died yesterday in St. Paul, will take place tomorrow. Services will be held at the residence of his son-in-law, Eugene A. Towle, 763 Dayton avenue, at 9 a.m., followed by mass at St. Luke's church at 9:30.

MARCH 100 GOLD FOR THE VETERANS

ENCAMPMENTS HEREAFTER WILL BE HELD IN JUNE.

Grand Army Cleans Up Odds and Ends of Business and Adjourns to Come Again Next August—Department Commander and Staff Will Attend Memorial to General Joe Wheeler.

Minneapolis is no longer the camping ground of the state G. A. R. Yesterday afternoon the veterans finished the last odds and ends of business and departed for the 1906 encampment at an end.

The question of changing the date of the 1906 encampment was not taken up and it was decided to hold all future gatherings between May 15 and June 15 in order to avoid all possibility of encountering such weather as marked this gathering.

ASK MEMORIAL TO COLVILL.

A resolution asking the governor to recommend to the legislature the erection of a suitable monument to Colonel William Colvill at Snodgrass Falls was adopted, as were resolutions thanking the people of Minneapolis for courtesies extended to the encampment.

TWO REAPPOINTED.

Commander Longfellow announced the reappointment of Orton S. Clark as assistant department general, and E. N. Leavens as department commander.

RECONSIDERED AS SOON AS KERST'S BACK WAS TURNED.

Public Examiner Kerst has returned from Grand Rapids to find that the Itasca county commissioners failed to stay and after his interview with them Tuesday they took action then to resume investigation of the books of C. O. Miller, former treasurer, but Thursday they again rescinded their resolution, passing another to have the examination go on under their direction.

WILL TELL OF JAPAN

Martin E. Tew Will Lecture Before Men's Club, First Unitarian Church.

Martin E. Tew has been secured by the Men's club to give his lecture, "Japan, the Wonderland in Peace and War," Tuesday evening, March 27, at the First Unitarian church.

ST. PAUL PASTOR RESIGNS.

Rev. T. G. Sykes, pastor of Arlington Hills Presbyterian church, case and Edgar street, St. Paul, has tendered his resignation to his congregation.

STATE FAIR VS. SCHOOL

Fall Term Will Open Regardless of Big Exposition.

A suggestion that the public schools be not opened until Sept. 10, in order that the children may have a holiday during fall week does not meet with the approval of the school directors.

LADIES OF G. A. R. CLOSE WITH USUAL COURTESY TO PAST OFFICERS.

Mrs. Mary Pheasant of Jordan, Minn., was chosen department president of the Ladies of the G. A. R. yesterday morning at the Minneapolis meeting.

LAMPREY DID GOOD WORK MAN WHO HAS JUST DIED IN ST. PAUL WAS FATHER OF STATE GAME LAWS.

The funeral of Uri L. Lamprey, father of Minnesota's game and fish laws, who died yesterday in St. Paul, will take place tomorrow. Services will be held at the residence of his son-in-law, Eugene A. Towle, 763 Dayton avenue, at 9 a.m., followed by mass at St. Luke's church at 9:30.

or and three years ago she organized her home circle, Jordan No. 60, and was its president for two years.

Mrs. Clara Ellsworth of Minneapolis was chosen senior vice president; Mrs. Elsie Bailey of Duluth, junior vice president; Mrs. Eunice Floyd, Austin, treasurer; Mrs. M. E. Collins, Clearwater, chaplain.

Mrs. Lizzie Fisher of Stillwater was elected delegate at large to the national convention and Mrs. Z. McAllister of Minneapolis, alternate. Mrs. Fisher appointed Mrs. Jane Trowbridge of St. Paul, her secretary.

The officers were installed by Mrs. Marian B. Mullen of Wabasha, past department commander. The new department commander of the G. A. R. Levi Longfellow, and his staff, visited the convention in the evening.

Mrs. Catherine Hoyt, the retiring department president, was presented with a handsome gold watch and chain from an arraigned circle, of which she is a member.

The home board of the Ladies of the G. A. R. held its annual meeting this morning at the Nicollet hotel and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. Marian B. Mullen of Wabasha; vice president, Mrs. Sarah Webster of Duluth; Mary Banker of Minneapolis; Lizzie Page of Anoka; secretary, Mrs. Lila Sanders, St. Paul; treasurer, Mrs. Louise Buckham, Anoka; superintendent of colleges, Mrs. Zella McAllister, Minneapolis; Mmes. Banker, Page and Webster were the three new members elected to the board.

The next officers of the Ladies of the G. A. R. spent a busy morning at the Nicollet hotel, auditing bills and signing checks. Many of the delegates left for home this morning.

The funeral of Uri L. Lamprey, father of Minnesota's game and fish laws, who died yesterday in St. Paul, will take place tomorrow. Services will be held at the residence of his son-in-law, Eugene A. Towle, 763 Dayton avenue, at 9 a.m., followed by mass at St. Luke's church at 9:30.

Mr. Lamprey is survived by his wife, three daughters and one son—Lillian, wife of Francis H. Murray; Jeanette, wife of Eugene A. Towle; Uri Locke Lamprey, Jr., and Elsa C. Lamprey.

Partner wanted at Royal Inn, 40 Third street S. Good investment for any man.

Men's Furnishings are the conspicuous part of a man's outfit. They must be smart, stylish and in good taste.

All the Leading Styles in Spring Hats are here awaiting your approval.

BARNABY'S Nicollet and Fourth St. "If it comes from Barnaby's it must be good."

SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY. POPPED RICE. Regular price 30c per lb. For tomorrow only, 15c per lb. Limit of 1 pound to a customer.

Ladies of G. A. R. Close With Usual Courtesy to Past Officers. Mrs. Mary Pheasant of Jordan, Minn., was chosen department president of the Ladies of the G. A. R. yesterday morning at the Minneapolis meeting.

NICKEL PLATE

307 Nicollet Avenue. Double Amount S. & H. Stamps Saturday.

New Boots and Oxfords. The largest assortment of nobby new spring boots in the northwest.

New Gun Metals, new Patent Colts, new Vici Boots, Button, Lace and Bluchers. Stylish lasts at $3.50 and $4.00

OUR OXFORDS. The finest show of Jaunty New Ties and Low Shoes ever shown by one house.

NEW PATENT COLTS FOR MEN. Nobby new Patent Colt Button and Bluchers. Stylish new spring lasts; large variety at $3.50 $4.00

Gamossi Glove and Umbrella News. WOMEN'S SILK LINED KID AND MOCHA GLOVES GREATLY REDUCED.

Half Pique Kid and Mocha Gloves, silk lined, worth $1.75 pair. On sale at, pair, $1.29. Full Pique Kid, Cape and Mocha Gloves, plaid silk lining, worth $2.25. On sale at, pair, $1.69.

LONG GLOVES. Kayser Patent Tip Silk Gloves, 12-button length, pair, worth $1.00. Fine quality French Suede, pongee color, $2.00 value, pair, $1.10.

WHITE LINEN PARASOLS. Plain and embroidered White Linen Parasols on sale $1 $1.50 $1.95 $2.25 $2.45 and $2.65.

GAMOSSİ GLOVE EXTENSIONS. Black and White Glove Kid Sleeves, when worn with short gloves have every appearance of a 16-button length glove.

GAMOSSİ UMBRELLA HOSPITAL. Umbrellas repaired and re-covered. Best workmanship. Most reasonable prices.

S. JACOBS & COMPANY Diamond Importers Gold and Silver Smiths. A Saturday Sale of Watches.

Ladies' O-s 20 year guaranteed filled case with jeweled Elgin or Waltham movement, regular $12.00, special $10.90. Gents' 18-s 20 year guaranteed filled case, full jewel Waltham movement. The best bargain in the city. For this sale, $9.40.

WE PAY CASH FOR OLD GOLD AND SILVER. 518-520 Nicollet Avenue.

A Piano Bargain! 75 new pianos going at about half their value. They were purchased at a great sacrifice. The big saving you can make at this sale will surprise you. Easy payments of $6.00, $7.00 and $8.00 a month. Representatives for the Knabe-Angelus Piano. FOSTER & WALDO, 36 5th Street South, Cor. Nicollet Avenue