PLAYS TO FULL HOUSES

Popularity of Rudolph Ganz a Measure of His Ability.

Rudolph Ganz is fast becoming one of the world's favorite as well as being one of its best pianists. When Mme. Zeisler was obliged to cancel her date in the All-Star course, no first was made for some time to fill the vacancy, hope being strong that she would later in the season be able to fill the engagement. This failing, the management determined to secure the best artist possible to fill her place. Rudolph Ganz, the Swiss pianist, was selected as the man and he will appear at the Auditorium next Wednesday evening in a program which is one of the finest that has ever been arranged for a piano recital here.

Mr. Ganz' recent appearances in the east have been a continuation of his earlier successes, and all in an ascending scale. At a recent performance in Mendelssohn hall, he was given a regular ovation. Every inch of standing room was taken, and to his artistic ideals is one of his most marked characteristics, and his playing is distinguished by a deep intelligence and abundant sentiment. His tone production is exquisite.

The sale of seats is now going on at the Metropolitan Music store.

DIES AT HIS DESK

George Weisenborn Has Attack of Heart Failure While at Work.

George Weisenborn, Minneapolis salesman for the McCormick Meat Packing company of St. Paul, dropped dead at the company's office, where he was arranging for the delivery of certain orders, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Weisenborn accompanied her husband to the office and was with him when he suddenly rose from the desk where he was at work and sank to the floor without a word.

Two weeks ago Mr. Weisenborn fell unconscious on the street in Minneapolis and a physician whom he consulted at the time informed him that he was suffering with heart disease. The coroner will investigate the case today. Mr. Weisenborn was 25 years old and had been in the employ of the McCormick company two years. He is survived by a wife and one child.

MAKE PARKS PAY OWN WAY, HE SAYS

SELF-SUPPORTING SYSTEM DR. J. W. PENBERTHY'S PLAN.

Establishment of Waterpower, Operation of Scenic Railway and Gasoline Launch Fleet Would Lift Tax Burden, Declares Dr. Penberthy—Would Join All City Lakes in Chain.

One of the most ardent supporters of the park system of Minneapolis, Dr. J. W. Penberthy, has evolved a plan for making it self-supporting, or to maintain the system without taxation. Business men who have investigated the suggestion of Dr. Penberthy pronounce it the simplest and best that has ever been submitted.

Briefly stated, the Penberthy plan provides revenue for maintenance of the park system from three sources: Sale of electric current generated from waterpower furnished at Lyndale avenue by the combined flow of Minnehaha and Bassett's creeks; operation of seven-mile scenic railroad from Minnehaha to Lake Harriet; operation of a gasoline launch fleet from Cedar lake to Minnehaha creek.

Three requisites will be necessary for the consummation of the Penberthy scheme: The diversion of Bassett's creek from the Mississippi river into Cedar lake; opening of communication from Cedar lake to Lake Harriet thru Lake of the Isles and Lake Calhoun; the erection of a dam and a power plant at Lyndale avenue.

Dr. Penberthy holds that the plan would mean the obliteration of the present park board debt, the maintenance of the park system on an enlarged scale of expenditure without taxation, and the provision of a means for the operation of the system, to say nothing of the direct pleasure afforded the public by the working out of the scenic railway and the launch project.

Dr. Penberthy says that the major portion of the annual appropriation for the park system is required to pay interest on bonds. Therefore, he is continually hampered for a lack of funds. The three-phase plan, he believes, will pay all the expenses, give sufficient annual income to make all improvements that may be desired, later, and take from the shoulders of the people a great burden of taxation.

Dr. Penberthy favors the maintenance of high lake levels. To make most of the glorious water opportunities of Minneapolis, he would take in the old swale south and southwest of Lake Harriet, forming the lake bed, and by this means extend Lake Harriet thru to Minnehaha creek.

A dam at Lyndale avenue, Mr. Penberthy believes, would furnish enough power to operate the scenic railway, and would furnish additional power for lighting purposes for which the city would pay the park board.

HELP OUT THE SOLDIERS

"Daughters" Will Make "Housewives" for Boys in Olive Drab.

Colonial chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, is the first patriotic society to take action on the recent order from the war department that requires each soldier in the regular army to be furnished with a "housewife" to take care of his laundry.

The "housewives" must be of a size to be easily carried in the soldier's pocket, and the women have devised a most practical pattern of linen, with pockets for buttons, threads and needles. Captain Powell is a former Minneapolis man and that is why the women are working for his company.

GOPHERS TO THE FRONT

Minnesota Men in Evidence at Educational Meeting in Chicago.

George B. Aiton of Minneapolis, state inspector of schools, President of the W. H. Sallmon of Carleton college, and Principal S. A. Farnsworth of St. Paul have returned from Chicago, where they attended the eleventh annual meeting of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, Friday and Saturday.

Three former Minnesotans appeared in the program of the important meeting as follows: President George E. MacLean, University of Iowa; "The Inspection and Accrediting of Colleges and Universities," Director George N. Garman, Lewis Institute, Chicago; and the report of the commission on accredited schools, acting President Harry Pratt Judson of the University of Chicago.

PRAISE DEAD LEADER

Memorial for Susan B. Anthony Held by Minneapolis Suffragists.

Services in memory of the late Susan B. Anthony were held in the Unitarian church yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Minnesota Women's Suffrage association and the Political Equality club of Minneapolis. There was a musical program and several addresses. Mrs. Florence E. Parks sang a solo with violin obligato by Miss Helga Jensen. Addresses eulogized Susan B. Anthony and her work for womanhood were made by Mrs. S. A. Stockwell, Miss Jane Long, Rev. Charles F. Hubbard, Dr. Ethel E. Lund, Rev. C. S. Davis and Rev. E. Stanton Hodgins.

FAINTS AT A MEETING

St. Paul Woman Is Overcome While Attending Religious Service.

Mrs. A. Erickson, 1019 Burns avenue, St. Paul, attended a rally of the Volunteers of America last evening and while the services were at their height she fainted and was taken to the hospital. Services stopped right there while several people tried to revive the woman. A physician was summoned and after administering restoratives he permitted her being taken home.

FALLS TO HIS DEATH

Patrick O'Laughlin Tumbles Down Stairs and Is Picked Up Dead.

Patrick O'Laughlin, 171 Nicolet street, fell down the stairs of his home early Sunday morning and was instantly killed. The fall broke his neck. It was at first announced by the police that his name was McLaughlin. His body was found by the janitor in the building who heard him fall.

MARCH IN PARADE MEANS HARD WORK

CADETS MUST HUSTLE TO BECOME PRESENTABLE.

Journal Cadets to Be Polled This Week to Find Out Whether Young Soldiers Are Willing to Do Extra Drilling for Memorial Day Turn-out.

The Journal Cadet regiments have their work cut out for them if they are to appear in the Memorial day parade, but it can be done. At this week's drill the boys will be asked to express themselves as to whether they are willing to make the extra effort that will be required.

LESSON IX.

Squad Drills—The Oblique March. For the instruction of recruits, the instructor causes the squad to face half right or half left, or to the right or left, relative positions, and explains that these are to be maintained in the oblique march.

Marching in line: 1. Right (left) oblique, 2. march. Each man steps off in a direction of forty-five degrees to the right of his right or left step, or to the side toward the right or left, as the case may be, and so regulates his steps as to make the ranks remain parallel to their original front.

The rear rank conforms to the foregoing, his leader upon resuming the original direction.

At the command halt, the men halt faced to the front.

To resume the original direction: 1. Forward, 2. march, 3. Guide (right or left).

The men half face to the left in marching and then move straight to the front. The instructor marks the whole obliquing, the oblique march is resumed by the commands: 1. Full step, 2. March.

In the oblique march the guide's line, without intermission, can turn the side toward the oblique is made. On resuming the direct march in line, the guide is announced.

RAIN NOW; SNOW LATER

Storm "Nasty," but No Serious Damage Has Been Done.

Yesterday it rained; today it is raining and tonight it will snow. This summer has been a very dry one, and the weather bureau's opinion as to what will come next.

A slight rise in temperature—six degrees since yesterday morning—has taken some of the chill out of the rain and stopped the formation of the ice sheath which made sidewalk travel hazardous, wrapped the trees in an ice blanket and threatened to overload the telephone and telegraph wires yesterday.

While the present storm is a perfect exhibition of the "nastiest" weather that Minnesota can turn out, it has done little real damage. A few telephone wires are to the bad, but had the freezing weather held, conditions would have been much worse. The frequent passage of the streets kept the tracks comparatively free from ice and no unusual delays are reported at railway stations.

What delays there are arise from the difficulty attending telegraphic communication rather than any obstruction on the track. So far as the wires are still up, but work poorly because of the mass of ice which coats them. Should a heavy wind precede the rain, the damage will be serious.

Today's opening temperature was 34 degrees, six degrees higher than that of yesterday. The total precipitation up to 8 a. m. today was .36 inch.

MASCOTTS MADE GOOD

A strong, well-balanced bill of vaudeville and burlesque acts is presented by the Mascotts at the Dewey theatre this week. More attention than usual has been paid to the writing of the burlesque and a noticeable improvement is the result. The lines are clever, void of worn-out expressions and afford a good vehicle for the comedians. The cast is unusually strong and the whole play is made to go with a dash. The chorus is good, but is not overworked as is so often the case, and their few numbers are appreciated.

Fields and Wilson have a comedy turn that gives the audience enough opportunities to laugh, and Sanford, a German comedian, reminds one of the days of Harry Morris in his favorite role. The Mascotts are an excellent successor to the late star. Lavine and Page have a rapid fire acrobatic act that takes well, and Wilbur Held, a barytone soloist, makes good in his short act. The Bartlett troupe of acrobats presents a daring act in midair. The Bachelder Sisters have an acceptable musical novelty act.

The closing burlesque entitled "A Jealous Woman," is beautifully staged, and several clever specialties crowded in.

BERT MILLERS HAVE MUCH IN COMMON

TWO MINNEAPOLIS MEN HAVE STRANGELY SIMILAR HISTORIES.

From Their Birth in Maine to Their Disappearance in Minnesota Their Records Run Almost Parallel—Coincidences of Names Confuse Relatives Who Search for Them.

Bert Miller, a former resident of Minneapolis, is in a public sanatorium at Springfield, Mo., and his relatives apparently are unaware of his condition and his abode.

The finding of Mr. Miller brings to light a rather unusual coincidence. There is another Bert Miller formerly of this city for whom a long search has been made.

Both men are about the same age, both were born in Maine, but came to Minneapolis many years ago. Both have sisters in Minneapolis by the same name and uncles in Minnesota of the same name. Both are wanderers and both have spent some time in California.

It was this strange coincidence which prompted a lady living in Springfield to visit the sanatorium to interview the man registered as Bert Miller, as she believed that he was her missing relative. Having never seen the man, she could not identify him, but the circumstances he related tallied so closely with her information that she wrote to her niece in Minneapolis that the lost had probably been found. With a hopeful heart the sister went to meet her brother, but it was only to be disappointed.

The sewer department is having considerable trouble with its catch basins. More than three hundred complaints were received last week and fully fifty today.
