DOWIE AS MASTER OF ZION AFFAIRS

DEPOSED LEADER HAS BACKING OF STATE LAWS

Minneapolis Attorney Who Has Investigated Legal Standing of Famous Healer Declares that Insurgents Will Be Worsted Badly in Fight with "Elijah"—Everything in Muddle.

Overseer Voliva of Zion City and his party, who are pushing themselves that they have out-Dowied Dowie, are doing so some shocking surprises, according to W. H. McDonald, the Minneapolis attorney, who at the present time might be called a pessimist and an enemy of Zionism.

"As I said some time ago," said Mr. McDonald today, "firing Dowie from Zion City and its management is easier said than done. Overseer Voliva and his friends seem to think they have accomplished the feat, but when the accomplished and honorable Alexander arrives in Zion it is safe to say that many things will look different. A man looking for a fight will find plenty of opportunity to corner somebody's grief when Dowie and Voliva come together.

Creditors Have Key. "The only people who can oust Dowie from Zion and its interests are his creditors, who could force him into bankruptcy or drive the business into the hands of a receiver. His followers can do nothing, because everything they own and they even own their land and he owns their body and soul. Voliva and the others are on salary and are practically in business with Dowie, and so long as he is boss and pays them, as long as they can get their money, as to the action recently taken by Voliva and the council was based on Dowie's power of attorney given to Voliva. Zion is in a muddle at this point, and I am positive when I say that Voliva exceeded the power vested in him in making the move he did and in turning everything over to Granger Voliva. Granger Voliva was sufficient for him to sell property for cash or its equivalent, but he had no power to give away the property in Dowie's name.

All in Confusion. "Everything in Zion is in a muddle. Business of every sort is governed by Dowie's laws and at times the entire organization, including the alleged creditors, is in a muddle. The state of Illinois has any laws which can be applied even in the sanctuary of Zion. Dowie, however, is shrewd enough and has not forgotten the laws of his own state when he gets back. His own laws are good enough for him as long as they work for him. When somebody tries to 'boast' him at his own game, tho, he will be the first to back up to the law of the state. I am prepared to state positively that under the law of the state Dowie has the best of the situation and can beat Voliva and his followers.

Bank's Management Bad. "The management of the bank alone would be sufficient to break up the entire business. The lace and sugar bonds of Zion are absolutely worthless and have been declared by the United States courts. Since the decision in 1902, however, Dowie has continued to sell these same worthless stocks, a proceeding that under the law can be reached by a criminal charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. "This I have proved to the elders including Voliva in handling the claim against the organization which was put in by the Minneapolis parties. Payment was refused but an explanation of the situation and a determined promise of prosecution brought about a full settlement in cash. This never would have been done had there been any escape from the state law. The claim in question was made by former members of Dowie's faith.

ROAD SWATS THE MILLERS

NORTHERN PACIFIC CONSIDERS KNOCKING OUT PROPORTIONAL TARIFFS BETWEEN MINNEAPOLIS AND DULUTH.

The Northern Pacific is seriously considering the adoption of a policy of refusing to participate in the shipment of wheat into Minneapolis and from Minneapolis to Duluth. That is, says the Northwestern Miller, it contemplates arguing a local rate on wheat from western points on its own lines to Minneapolis, and then exacting the local rate of 7 1/2 cents a hundred pounds on flour from Minneapolis to Duluth. At present, this road exacts a proportional rate on flour from Minneapolis to Duluth of about 5 cents. The flour going to Duluth via the Northern Pacific would be for lake shipment eastward. The Northern Pacific, should it adopt this course, would do so as a retaliatory move against Minneapolis millers. This road charges that when it has plenty of rolling stock and wants flour to haul to Duluth, local millers patronize it only meagerly; that when cars are scarce and in great demand, as was the case last winter, the millers exact the Northern Pacific to contribute its quota. Should the road retaliate in this manner on Minneapolis, it would doubtless favor the outside mills on its lines and afford them such facilities as would not only assist them in competing with Minneapolis mills, but encourage their greater development.

TALK ABOUT NEW SCHOOLS

A special meeting of the board of education was held this afternoon to discuss several matters in connection with the new buildings which are to be erected this year. Plans for a four-room addition to the Roosevelt school at Nineteenth and Thirty-fourth street, have been completed, and bids will be advertised for at once. Plans for a new building in the Rosedale district are in process of preparation and the board will be held in connection with reference to the Lake Harriet school, where a four-room building will be erected. The latest addition to the matter of a site for a new laural building was discussed at some length.

WIRES ORDERED DOWN

Notices were sent by the city engineer today to the different companies maintaining overhead wires that all electric wires must be put underground or removed from the streets which are to be paved this year. Accompanying the notice was a list of the streets to be paved this season, and this list includes the downtown streets which are to be resurfaced with asphalt. There are more than ten miles of street in the list, and it is expected on the companies is a very heavy one. It will be particularly hard on them on the downtown streets, as the companies will be compelled to go thru the concrete base in order to get in the conduit system.

GREAT MEN WILL SPEAK AT RALLY

CONGREGATIONALISTS DEVOTE TOMORROW TO MISSIONS.

Plymouth Church to Be Scene of Notable Gathering at Which Members of American Board Will Speak in Behalf of "Million Dollar Campaign."

DR. ARTHUR H. SMITH, Noted Authority on Chinese History and Conditions, Who Speaks Friday.

The great missionary rally for Minneapolis, to be held at Plymouth Congregational church tomorrow, is one of a series of notable events held this spring in leading cities. It is one of the movements in the interest of the "Million Dollar Campaign" and is a preliminary to the centennial anniversary of the American Board of Foreign Missions. This anniversary will be celebrated in the 100-acre mission park at Williamstown, Mass., next October. Dr. L. H. Hallock, a corporate member of the board, will attend the anniversary celebration and the other Minneapolis men of the board, Lowell P. Jones, Mr. George R. Merrill, Lowell E. Johnson and George Rust, will probably range to go. The monument in the mission park around which the meetings will center marks the historic spot as one where 100 years ago five students, Samuel J. Mills, James Richards, Francis L. Robbins, Harvey Loomis and Bryan Green, took the first steps to plan mission work. Four years later, in 1810, the Board of Foreign Missions started on its course of activity.

At tomorrow's meeting several of the ablest speakers of the American board will appear. Notable among these is Dr. Arthur H. Smith, the celebrated author of "Chinese Characteristics" and "China in Convulsion." He is a statesman of acknowledged power at home and in China. Dr. Smith has consented to make a brief address tomorrow afternoon at an open meeting, when all will have an opportunity to hear him. His principal address will be given at the evening session, which follows the supper in the church parlor and at which session Mayor D. P. Jones will preside. The morning session, at the church is to be a session for prayer and conference. Dr. L. H. Hallock is to preside at the afternoon meeting at 3 o'clock. The Rev. Irving M. Hanson, pastor of Mesiasia, Rev. John K. Brown of Harpoot, Turkey, and Rev. Francis M. Price of Guam, Micronesia, will give addresses, as well as Edward H. Pitkin. The first named are among the ablest missionaries in the foreign field. Mr. Pitkin is of the American board and was appointed at the last annual meeting acting chairman of the special finance committee. In addition to addresses by Dr. Smith and Mayor Jones, Frank Kimball of Chicago and A. N. Hitchcock of Chicago will present the subject of the evening. Mr. Hitchcock is the secretary of the American board for the interior states and Mr. Kimball is one of the Chicago laymen and an influential worker in the mission work.

DR. MALCHOW'S FRIENDS WORK FOR HIS PARDON

Efforts are being renewed locally and at Washington, D. C., for the pardon of Dr. Charles Malchow of Minneapolis, under sentence of one year in prison, for circulating his medical work which a jury has decided is improper in character. William Henry Eustis is in Washington and yesterday had a conference with Attorney General Moody and M. D. Purdy of Minneapolis, his assistant, relative to the desired pardon. Mr. Eustis was requested to get the indorsement of Judge William Lochren and C. C. Hought, United States attorney for the Minnesota district. A letter from the department of justice to Mr. Hought was sent from Washington yesterday, asking his recommendation in the case and also that of Judge Lochren. Telegrams were also sent asking these gentlemen to take action in the matter and forward their recommendations without delay, as it is desired to bring the matter before the attorney general Friday, who, if the recommendations are favorable, will bring the matter before the president next Monday. Senator Clapp and Representative Fletcher are both busy at Washington in Dr. Malchow's interests. The papers in the case, which have been mailed to Mr. Hought, had not been received by that gentleman at an early hour this afternoon.

SUDDEN RISE IN MISSISSIPPI RIVER

The Mississippi river rose eighteen inches at the pumping station last night, and it is expected that the water on both sides of the river. Work on the improvements of the forebay at the Northeast station had to be discontinued on account of the flood. It is likely to be considerable delay in the work from the high water, but this will cause no serious inconvenience, as the Camden Place station is now in first-class running order. But it is a little more expensive to run than the Northeast station, and for that reason the waterworks authorities are anxious to get back into the new station. At Camden Place the high water, by bringing down large quantities of dirt and debris, has filled the wells from which the pumps draw their supply with stuff that should not be found in water used for culinary purposes, and the city water, on that account, is hardly to be recommended for drinking purposes unless it is distilled. The presence of all this foreign matter in the wells means the pump-house crew busy all the time in keeping the racks and sieves clean. There is no danger to either station from high water and none is expected, as the snow has about all disappeared and the chances of an unusual freshet are remote.

CHURCH GOODS STORE

In the multiplication of its industries and shops new and varied lines are constantly being added to the list of Minneapolis business establishments. The latest addition is an exclusive Catholic church goods store, which is expected to attract many buyers from the northwest to Minneapolis and to secure trade which has hitherto gone to St. Paul and Milwaukee. The store has just been opened at 311 S. Second at 612 First avenue S., the first in Minneapolis. Milwaukee has hitherto been the center of this trade, while St. Paul has an exclusive store. The Minneapolis institution will be increased in size as the business grows. It is proposed, however, to erect a new building for the supply of church goods in the northwest.

SIGMA XI HONORS MISS THE FRATS

NOT A GREEK LANDS COVERED MEMBERSHIP.

Result of Election Held This Morning Looks Queer to Varsity Men Who Were Qualified to Land Prize—Inside Students Say Everything is Regular.

Elections to Sigma Xi, the honorary scientific society at the university, were announced this morning and twenty-four senior students and six university instructors are receiving the congratulations of their friends. Not a fraternity man or a sorority girl received election to the society, and following as it does on the recent Phi Beta Kappa election, in which the Greeks did not have representative, this fact has revived campus discussion of anti-fraternity prejudice.

The six university instructors who received election are A. S. Hamilton, W. Hill, C. F. Shoop, G. Ruggie, A. D. Wilhait and H. H. Hoff. The following seniors were chosen: G. M. Albrecht, F. M. Balls, W. T. Crawford, M. Cornelius, M. Cohen, S. B. Detweiler, M. Hanauer, G. H. Harrington, E. Johnson, C. E. Johnson, B. W. Loye, P. H. Melberg, H. G. Payne, J. Partridge, W. Beck, W. Peterson, Irene Radcliffe, A. C. Riggs, J. E. Schaefer, R. H. Smith, E. Stakman, C. M. Ungerman, E. L. Weber, E. P. Weyrens. The election to Sigma Xi is conducted on lines similar to the choice to Phi Beta Kappa. Faculty members make recommendations from their departments and the society acts on the recommendations. The university standing of the candidates is ascertained, but there is no attempt to choose the candidates on a direct scholarship basis, and it is alleged by members of the fraternities that many of their number have been chosen through Phi Beta Kappa and to Sigma Xi on a scholarship basis. Members of Sigma Xi and Phi Beta Kappa state that the fact that no fraternities have been chosen this year, while the Greeks have had creditable representations in the past, is no indication that the members of the faculty are hostile to fraternities, and that the election is a matter of the faculty members of the two honorary societies are fraternity men.

Control of the Daily. Displaced with faculty assumption of control over the Minnesota Daily, the stockholders of the college publication yesterday reconsidered their recent action providing for two faculty members to be chosen to control the reorganized paper, and voted that the Daily should be managed by a board consisting solely of students. The action of the stockholders was a surprise, as it had been expected that the faculty council in giving the two faculty members of the Daily governing board power to veto any act of the board, and it was another step in the undergraduate fight against faculty control of student enterprises.

The meeting yesterday was called for the purpose of discussing the plan for dissolving the daily corporation and placing it under the control of the faculty. It developed a lively fight between two factions of stockholders, one favoring the mutualization plan and the other opposing it on the ground that the plan had been tried during the first two years of the daily's existence and had proved a disastrous failure. The matter of faculty control was also brought up and it was argued that the daily as a corporation could resist faculty interference while the paper in the hands of the subscribers would be helpless. As a result of the action taken yesterday interesting developments are looked for, as a determined effort is being made by the faculty to elect a daily staff made up of men who heretofore have had nothing to do with the daily. A caucus was held last night.

Engineers' Trip.

Arrangements have been made for the annual trip of the university junior engineering class to the state capital. The engineers will start on May 1 for Denver. The party, consisting of the members of the class and their instructors, will spend two weeks in the trip. The party will start on May 1 at New Ulm, Minn., and will spend the summer working in the Utah mines.

LORD ALVERSTONE SLATED TO SPEAK

BRITISH JURIST TO ADDRESS THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION.

Lord Chief Justice of England and Judge Alton B. Parker Will Appear at Banquet to Be Held in Auditorium Aug. 31—Other Big Lawyers Coming.

LORD ALVERSTONE, Lord Chief Justice of England, Who Will Visit Minneapolis.

The announcement was made today, thru George R. Peck, president of the American Bar association, that the annual address at the meeting of that association, to be held in St. Paul next August, will be delivered by Alton B. Parker of New York. The annual address is one of the great features of the association's meetings. Other addresses by eminent lawyers and jurists from different parts of the United States and from abroad will be given. It is expected that Lord Alverstone, lord chief justice of England, will be present and deliver an address. Both the speakers mentioned will be prominent guests at the annual banquet of the association, which will be held in the new Auditorium hall in Minneapolis on Friday evening, Aug. 31. The best talent of the bar in the country is drawn upon for speakers at the banquet, and this feature, together with the usual elaborate menu, decorations and music, will make the event the most notable of its kind that has taken place in the state.

BILLS INTRODUCED

New Insurance Code Starts on Its Way Thru Congress.

T. D. O'Brien, state insurance commissioner, has received a telegram from Commissioner Drake of the District of Columbia, informing him that their committee code of insurance laws was introduced into the house yesterday by Congressman Ames of Massachusetts, and as it has the assured backing of President Roosevelt, the chances of passing are regarded as favorable.

BURGLARIES LAID TO PINAULT THEF

WAINWRIGHT ACCUSED OF BRESLAUER AND COLLINS ROBBERIES.

Warrant Issued for Woman in the Case Weeks Ago, and She Promises to Tell All She Knows—More Loot Recovered in the East.

Thomas J. Wainwright, who has confessed to robbing the residence of Dr. J. N. Pinault, 1205 Mount Curve avenue, will also be asked to tell what he knows of several other robberies committed in the same district while he was caretaker at the mansion. During his stay there three robberies were committed within a few blocks of the Pinault home. The homes of M. Breslauer, 1766 Irving avenue S. and B. F. Collins, 1805 Fremont avenue S. were entered by a clever thief who took some valuable jewelry and silverware.

An attempt was made to rob the home of C. R. Cooley, 1775 Emerson avenue S. Police Superintendent Doyle believes these jobs were done by Wainwright while he was caretaker at the Pinault residence. He preferred diamonds to place, because they were more easily handled, and he thought he could forage about the neighborhood and pick up a few hundreds of the sparks. This may have been done before he opened the Pinault safe, evidently thinking he would find nothing but blank.

There were several other smaller robberies in that neighborhood and immediately after Wainwright left the robberies ceased. Some of the diamonds found in the man's possession may have been taken from some of the other houses. Immediately after Wainwright disappeared the police learned of the mysterious woman in the case, who had been known as Mrs. Wainwright. A warrant was issued at that time and has been ready to serve at any time. The police knew where she was, but refrained from making an arrest until compelled to do so. Frightened at the rigid search that is being conducted by the police, this woman called Police Superintendent Doyle by telephone and offered to tell all she knew. In order to keep herself out of the public eye she arranged for a private interview yesterday. She admitted that she had known Wainwright as A. W. Bartlett and that he had represented himself as a millionaire. He rented a suite of rooms at the West hotel, and appeared to be burdened with money. She knew nothing of the Pinault case and Wainwright's connection with it, she said, until long after he had left the city. She is said to be of good family and on that account Police Superintendent Doyle has promised to protect her name. Wainwright presented her with several diamonds and other beautiful pieces of jewelry. These will be turned over to the police and the woman has given her promise that she will appear and testify against Wainwright if necessary.

A telegram was received from Providence, R. I., today stating that the lace and silverware worth thousands of dollars that were stolen from the Pinault residence had been recovered there.
