ENGLISH LAW FAVORS REAL ESTATE AGENTS

Practically re-Anglicized, Edward S. Baring-Gould, a director in the Minnesota Debenture company, returns to Minneapolis, after an absence of three years spent in London. Mr. Baring-Gould is making a business trip of ten days, and will investigate the properties of the debenture company, in which he has a heavy personal interest.

Changes in Minneapolis since his departure to represent the Minnesota Debenture company in England, as well as to look after his personal interests, amazed Mr. Baring-Gould greatly. Three years ago both of the Walker enterprises, at Walton Park and Columbia Heights, were new and undeveloped. Today Mr. Baring-Gould finds extensive settlements in both places.

Superior tax laws in England make it possible to make more money in the real estate business there than in America, according to Mr. Baring-Gould's experience. Vacant property is "passed up" in the tax lists. Only revenue-producing property must yield tribute.

Mr. Baring-Gould left his wife, formerly Miss Lindley of Minneapolis, and family in England.

RENTED HIS NAME FOR $20 A WEEK

EDWARD A. VAUGHAN ON TRIAL IN UNITED STATES COURT.

Says, in Answer to Charge of Fraud Thru Use of Mails, that He Simply Drew a Salary of $20 a Week for the Use of His Name.

The trial of Edward A. Vaughan, on a charge of devising a scheme to defraud by the use of the United States mails, was begun before Judge Page Morris in the United States district court this morning.

Vaughan's line of defense was early apparent. He claims that he was paid a salary of $20 a week for the use of his name by a brokerage firm, which was really operated by three other men, H. F. Raymond, J. Hogan and T. Lane.

Several exhibits of printed circulars were given attention. One showed a fine stone residence in Park avenue, which was labeled, "The Residence of Edward A. Vaughan." Frank R. Chase, custodian of the Guaranty Loan building, and Otto E. Naegle, president of the Germania bank, identified the circulars as those of the Vaughan Elevator company, Minneapolis.

Testimony was introduced to show that Vaughan had advertised very extensively. The trial is expected to continue for several days.

LIBRARY GULPRIT IS DENIED PRIVILEGES

At its meeting yesterday afternoon the library board passed a motion depriving one of the culprits, who has been taking books from the library, of all rights and privileges of the library for a term of five years. Her library cards will be canceled for that time and admittance to the library will not be allowed.

PARENTS' PLEA SAVES BOY FROM THE WORKS

The intercessions of the father and mother won Judge F. C. Brooks' leniency for 18-year-old George Dumas, who appeared in court today and pleaded guilty to stealing a diamond ring and other jewelry from 1717 E Franklin avenue. The youth was sentenced to ninety days in the workhouse, but the judge felt sure that he was penitent and he was placed on probation.

WORKHOUSE FOR TREE KILLERS

DRIVERS ARE WARNED AS TO HITTING LAWS.

Judge Smith Says Workhouse Sentences and Not Fines Will Be Imposed Upon Violators—Police Will Aid Park Officer in Apprehending Offenders.

Owners and drivers of horses who are too careless to keep their animals from destroying shade trees are to be given opportunity to take an advanced course in forestry under Superintendent O'Donnell at the workhouse.

The judge then cited a branch of work at Camden Place, where a score of men are kept busy all summer keeping bugs off the trees and seeing that they grow as fast as possible. The judge thinks this would be excellent employment for those who willfully allow their horses to destroy beautiful shade trees.

CO-EDS GIVE UP BASEBALL

BOLDEST LEADER COULD NOT ENDURE THOUGHTS OF BROTHERS SEEING PRACTICE GAMES.

Unable to provide against the possibility of masculine inspection, the girl baseball enthusiasts of the university have abandoned their idea of forming a team and there will be no co-ed league on the university campus. This determination on the part of the girls came as a result of the fact that several of the university athletic board to grant a request for barred gates and canvas screens at Northrop field.

The plan for forming a co-ed baseball league originated with several of the athletic university girls and it found enthusiastic support upon one condition. This condition was that men should be barred from the bleachers during the girls' practice games. The athletic board, however, called the attention of the girls to the fact that Northrop field was in constant use and that varsity baseball and track candidates should be given the preference in the use of the field.

MAYOR ORDERS LOW DIVES CLEARED OUT

Peremptory orders were issued by Mayor David P. Jones today to clear out women of the town who inhabit old frame dwellings opposite the city hall on the Third avenue side. The women, who were ordered to leave their homes, were very prudent until lately. But now they have become unusually bold. It is understood that the offenders are recent arrivals in the city, and they have apparently been very successful where police supervision is not so strict as in Minneapolis.

PRIZES TO CHILDREN FOR KINDNESS STORIES

In the Band of Mercy Column the Results of the Jim Key Performances Are to Be Shown by the Children Themselves.

PRIZE ESSAY CONTEST AND JIM KEY

The wonderful horse, Jim Key, is the central figure in the humanitarian work which his owner, A. R. Rogers, hopes to accomplish. But the horse's benefit exhibitions are only a small part of the work.

Workers are now busy in the public schools supplementing the interest created by Jim Key's wonderful feats. These workers are forming Jim Key Bands of Mercy.

To maintain the enthusiasm and give it direction, The Journal, in co-operation with Mr. Rogers, has arranged a prize essay contest for pupils in the fourth to eighth grades, inclusive. They are asked to write brief essays based on their own observations showing how animals respond to kindness and patience.

Papers should be plainly written on one side of the paper only, and should not exceed 300 words. Each paper should bear the name, address, school and grade of the writer, and, of course, all must be original and neat. Spelling will also be a factor in the consideration.

If you have done or seen any act of kindness to any animal, just write the story simply and send it to "Uncle Bert," care of The Minneapolis Journal. This is the name by which Mr. Rogers is known to some 700,000 Band of Mercy members in the United States, and he keeps closely in touch with the writers.

Prizes will be awarded each week for the papers from each grade, each class receiving three prizes, $1.75 cents and 50 cents, respectively. After Jim Key goes, the best of these papers will be published every day for a month, by which time the Bands of Mercy will be in running order and the Jim Key Band of Mercy column will be a regular feature of The Journal.

MISS AGNETTA FLORIS, In Charge of the Band of Mercy Organization Work.

Next Monday afternoon The Journal, which will be the official organ of the Jim Key Bands of Mercy in the city, will begin its regular band of mercy column. Nearly all the children in Minneapolis have now seen the wonderful Jim Key and The Journal wishes to hear what the children have to say on the result of kindness to animals.

In the course of the month $50 in prizes will be given for the best original 300-word essays or stories written by the children. These prizes, $1.75 cents and 50 cents, respectively, will be awarded each week to pupils in grades from the fourth to the eighth, inclusive, for the best papers. The names of the writers will be published in The Journal's Band of Mercy column. The children are urged to send in their stories at once and not wait until the Easter vacation will delay this matter for a week.

How to Send Essays. Send all papers to "Uncle Bert," care of The Journal. Write on one side of paper only, and do not exceed 300 words. The stories sent in the coming week will not have so strong a competition as later when all the bands are organized, and it is expected "Uncle Bert" will receive several hundred stories a week.

The Band of Mercy column will also be glad to receive any interesting little stories of animals the children may know or any experiences with animals which would please the other children. The Band of Mercy column is expressly for the children and The Journal wishes them to regard it as their own.

Kindness, Always. Nothing but kindness has ever been shown Jim and this is manifested in his exceeding love for Dr. Key. Only once have they been separated. When Jim was in Atlantic City Dr. Key left for his old home for a few weeks' vacation. When night came and no Dr. Key, Jim began to be restless and finally paced up and down his stall, refusing to eat, drink or lie down. All night he kept this up. In the morning the groom telegraphed for Mr. Rogers, and when he arrived he found the horse in such an excited and restless condition that he feared for his health. Dr. Key was telegraphed to return at once.

When he arrived the old colored man placed his arms around his pet and cried like a child, while the affection that Jim shows for his really touching. In a few moments Jim was lying down, resting peacefully.

PINAULT ROBBERY AS POLICE CHIEF TOPIC MUCH CUMMINGS CASH GARNISHEED BY RIVAL

Thomas J. Wainwright's robbery of Dr. J. N. Pinault's residence will be one of the chief subjects of discussion at the annual meeting of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, to be held in Little Rock, Ark., early next week. Police Superintendent Doyle of Minneapolis has been asked to read a paper at the convention, and as Wainwright's haul was the largest made in America in many years, he will be asked to talk on that case also.

Superintendent Doyle's paper will deal with the work done by the police since Jan. 1, 1905. Further investigation in the Pinault case is being conducted in the east, but things are at a standstill here. The police are anxious to wait for the arrival of Detectives Howard and Lawrence and their prisoner. The requisition papers were honored by the courts this forenoon, and the trip to Minneapolis will begin tonight. Wainwright will probably be locked up in Central station Tuesday forenoon.

BUBB WILL COMMAND JOURNAL CADETS ARE DRILLED IN OPEN AIR

GENERAL APPOINTED TO HEAD DEPARTMENT OF DAKOTA ROSE FROM THE RANKS.

The military department of Dakota is to have a new commander. Since the retirement of General C. C. Carr on March 1, the department has been temporarily commanded by Colonel O. J. Stated of the Twenty-eighth infantry, stationed at Fort Snelling. Now Brigadier General John W. Bubbs, recently promoted from colonel of the Twelfth infantry to his present rank, has been formally appointed to the command by an announcement of the war department from Washington. He is now in the Philippines, but will return at once to assume his new command.

General Bubb will retire on account of age April 26, 1907, so will command the department only one year. He is a civil war graduate working his way thru the service and earning every O. promotion by active service. He enlisted at the outbreak of the civil war as a private in the Twelfth infantry, being promoted to sergeant and first sergeant. Remaining in the service, he was made second lieutenant April 24, 1866, and assigned to the Fourth infantry. He was made first lieutenant in 1868 and captain in 1872. In 1898 he became major and a year later lieutenant colonel of the Twelfth, in which he had served thru the war as a private.
