"Finesse has been given to woman to compensate for the force of man."—De Lacioc.

Mrs. W. P. Devereaux gave a large reception this afternoon at her residence, 2215 Bryant avenue S. Two hundred invitations had been issued, the cards reading from 4 to 6 o'clock, and while the guests came in a mad dash, the orchestra, stationed on the upper landing, gave a musical program. Mrs. Devereaux was assisted in receiving by her sister, Mrs. Margaret Rogers. She greeted the guests in the parlor, where pink roses and pink carnations with a tangle of ferns and smilax made a charming decoration. In the reception hall the chosen colors were red and green, and large bouquets of red roses, mounds of red tulips and banks of palms and ferns, made a very artistic setting. White and yellow were the predominant colors in the dining room where Easter lilies and jonquils were used. The table had a centerpiece of the golden blossoms, and on the buffet were tall clusters of Easter lilies, the soft light of many tapers illumined the room.

Assisting in the rooms were Meses. A. H. Wagner, Bertha Lara, Willett Anthony, Arthur F. Daggert, Ann Pairs, D. Webster and Miss N. Barnes. Meses. E. L. Welch, H. L. Hankinson and E. A. Butley and Mrs. C. J. Mead of St. Paul, alternated in serving from the tables in the dining room with Meses. Agnes Belden, Blanche King and Eleanor Regan assisting. This evening Mrs. Devereaux will give a buffet supper for the group of assisting women and an equal number of men.

Mrs. C. P. Bratnober and Mrs. H. B. Waite were hostesses at a smartly appointed luncheon given this afternoon at the Minikahda club by George B. Schmitt, which Mrs. Lou S. Cass is entertaining at her home in St. Paul. Covers were laid for twenty-one and the decorations were in pink and green. The centerpiece was a large basket filled with pink tulips resting in a bed of ferns and the high handle had a flaring bow of pink tulle. At the cover of each guest was a cluster of pink roses. In the afternoon the hostesses had provided a novel entertainment, having engaged a palmist to tell the secrets of the future. This evening Mrs. David L. Fuller will give a dinner in honor of Mrs. Cass' guests. Yesterday evening Mrs. Cass gave a unique Japanese dinner at her home on Sherburne avenue, St. Paul, for her house party. The dining room had been arranged to represent a miniature Japanese garden, where the twinkling light from many Japanese lanterns shone over appointments singularly artistic. In the center of the garden a miniature garden fountain and the clusters of fragrant hyacinths, lilies and tulips were placed in costly Japanese vases. Covers were laid for twenty-five.

Mrs. F. Collins gave an afternoon euchre and luncheon in the ivory room at Donaldson's tearooms today. The fourteen guests were Mrs. Schmitt, Mrs. Charles Lane, Tom Morrison, W. J. Boldue and T. C. Smith, at 19 Central avenue. Music and games were the amusements and a luncheon followed. The guests were Meses. and Meses. A. R. M. Albright chaperoned the party.

A delightful social gathering was held last evening in the bachelor apartments of Joe Duran and George B. Schmitt. Charles Lane, Tom Morrison, W. J. Boldue and T. C. Smith, at 19 Central avenue. Music and games were the amusements and a luncheon followed. The guests were Meses. and Meses. A. R. M. Albright chaperoned the party.

The nineteenth annual ball of North-western lodge, No. 82, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, was held last evening in Masonic temple. The presence of a number of distinguished lodge officers who had come to Minneapolis for the Hannah-Sullivan wedding added to the importance of the event. In the out-of-town party were, Timothy Shea, second vicegrand master; John F. McNamee, editor of the Locomotive Fireman's Magazine of Galesburg, Ill., and W. B. Watts, grand master of the lodge. The ball room was decorated in the colors of the order with flags and bunting showing the stars and stripes as a background. The programs were in line affairs in the form of tin tables, each dance marking the approach or the departure from some station. The arrangements for the ball were made by William E. Richmond, chairman; L. A. McMahon, Gus Ludwig, E. C. Berry, Ed Hughes, W. S. Campbell, Thomas McDonald. Arrangements—A. C. Hochstetter, chairman; J. R. Hewitt, William Delleria, A. C. Bernicke, F. J. Brandis, Floor—J. R. Hewitt, chief, C. E. Blake, William Delleria, A. C. Hochstetter, Theodore Brandis, Joe Bodin, Roy T. Brown.

A wedding was solemnized last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mulford, 3224 Blaisdell avenue, when their daughter, Genevieve, became the bride of Frederick Stevens Baker. Rev. Richard A. Vander Las read the service in the parlor, where Easter lilies and palms furnished a handsome decoration. Miss Nell Sabowitz played the wedding march, and the "Evening Star" was sounded during the reading of the service, with Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" at the close. Mrs. Baker wore white crepe de chine over white silk and chiffon, made in princess style and trimmed with Irish point lace. The full veil was fastened with a wreath of orange blossoms and her flowers were white roses. Miss May Burnside of Sioux Falls was the maid of honor. She wore white mull over green silk and carried pink carnations. Little Eugenia Young was the ringbearer and was in white. Meses. Alice Mulford and Rowena Young stretched the white ribbons. John Flint was the best man. After the service an informal reception was held, at which Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Mulford, Meses. Joy Fortier, Ethel Hiles, Marie Cox and Clara Rouek of St. Paul assisted. The library and the living room were decorated in pink with clusters of pink carnations and pink roses, and in the dining room, red and white tulips made a charming setting for the table. Mr. and Mrs. Baker left in the evening for a two weeks' tour trip. They will be at home at 3037 Pillsbury avenue after May 15.

St. Mary's church in Merriam Park was beautifully decorated for the marriage of Miss Janet McClure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McClure, of 1964 Dayton avenue, and Harry A. Hageman of St. Paul, which took place last evening at 8 o'clock. Broad-leaved palms made the background for tall Easter lilies and a tracery of smilax clustered about the woodwork of the organ and altar. Mrs. G. H. Ten Brock presided at the organ and played a program of nuptial music as the guests entered, changing to the strains of the wedding march while Miss McClure walked to the altar. Clark McKnight, Henry George, Frank Krejcie and John McClure were the ushers. Miss Louise Watkins, in white pompadour silk with trimmings of Mechlin lace and carrying pink roses, was the maid of honor, and the two little flower girls were Dorothy Hannan and Helen Clarkson, both in white and carrying sweet peas.

Mr. Hageman and his best man, Franklin Hevener of Dickinson, N. D., awaited the bride at the altar. Miss McClure wore a wedding gown of white radium silk made in princess style, with a yoke of real lace and folds of real lace as the only trimming. The veil was held with a cluster of bride roses and the bridal bouquet was of white roses. Rev. G. H. Ten Brock read the service in the presence of 250 guests. A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McClure on Dayton avenue. The house was exquisitely decorated with Easter lilies and palms, and in the dining room American flags were hung. We sell large numbers of animals, Beauty roses and ferns used. Mr. and Mrs. G. Hageman left for the east to spend two weeks. They will make their home at 292 Kent street, St. Paul, and will receive after June 1st. I will be given Friday evening, April 27, at Masonic Temple. The decorations will be carried out in the national colors and the committee is endeavoring to obtain a very beautiful arrangement.

The North High School Baseball club will give its dancing party tomorrow evening in Masonic Temple.

The South High School Alumnae association has arranged for a roller skating party for Friday, April 27, in the Casino rink, Tenth and Washington avenues N. The hours will be from 10 to 12 o'clock.

The people of Simpson M. E. church will give a reception this evening in the church parlors for Rev. John H. Miller and family, who will leave the last of the week for their old home in Pittsburg, Pa.

Miss May Swain entertained at a luncheon Tuesday afternoon at her home on E Eighteenth street for Miss Charity Jones of Duluth, who was here for several weeks. Covers were laid for six and the appointments were in red and white.

A progressive pedro party was given Monday evening by Mrs. Louis Bertrand and Miss Blanche Cone at the home of the former, 1305 Fifth avenue S., in honor of Mr. Bertrand's thirtieth birthday anniversary. Prizes were won by Mrs. A. J. VanWyck, Miss Elsie Strahn and George Delaney. Supper was served after the games and the table was decked in pink and green. Covers were placed for twenty.

Miss Hilda Olson and Emil Pittelkow were married last evening at the home of the bride's mother at 1113 Sixth street S. Only the intimate relatives and friends witnessed the service, which was read by Rev. G. L. Morrill. The bride wore a pretty gown of white lawn. Her veil was of chiffon and her flowers were bride roses.

Miss Alice Dale Stevenson and Edward M. Leighton were married Tuesday evening, at their future home, 1503 Easton avenue N. Rev. Robert Benedict officiated. The bride wore a pretty Alice blue gown and carried a large bouquet of Easter lilies. Mr. Leighton's best man was Mr. Westerman of St. Paul, and Miss Lulu Leighton, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. The bride's father gave her in marriage, and the ceremony was witnessed by palms and Easter lilies. A bank of palms with a canopy of white and green
