Thomas Conley says his brother had a large sum of money with him, and as bloodstains were found on the clothing which was sent back to Danvers, foul play is feared.

BLAKE GOES ALONE TO FINISH HIS SENTENCE
C. H. Blake, manager of the Metropolitan club, sent to the workhouse for seventy-five days for gambling, finished his sentence Wednesday, and was released. After two days of liberty he was notified that he had five days more to serve on a previous sentence, the supreme court having denied an appeal from the decision of the municipal court.
He was taken before Judge C. L. Smith, who told him he might have a few days more of liberty if he chose, but he must serve the sentence. Blake said he was willing to begin at once, and yesterday afternoon, unaccompanied, took a Camden streetcar for the workhouse in an apparently amiable frame of mind.

GOLD SHOULDER FOR ALL BOOMS

MOVEMENT FOR INDEPENDENT DELEGATION FROM HENNEPIN.

Mass Meeting Proposed in the Interests of Harmony, and to Discourage All Efforts at Capturing Hennepin for Outside Candidates for Governor—Factions to Share Equally.

In view of the fact that several outside gubernatorial aspirants are trying to break into Hennepin county in search of delegates in the county and state conventions, or, if possible, to corner an instructed delegation, some of the leading republicans are planning an independent Hennepin county movement that will take no cognizance of these personal booms. Boom work has been done quietly and has been going on for some time, but with doubtful effect. House meetings in all parts of the city have been held and other preliminary work undertaken.
Some of the best republican interests of the county desire an unattached Hennepin delegation in the state convention, and are planning to send to Duluth a delegation that will not only be representative of the republicans in the county, but one that will work for the best interests of the county. It is proposed to hold a mass meeting and make arrangements for a representative county convention, and to see that the delegates to the state convention are elected by the various wards, and not cornered and appointed by any political maneuver.
The plan is approved by a number of the wheelhorses of the party in the county. "In my opinion," said a prominent republican today, "about fifty well-known republicans representing the different wards of the county, meeting as chairman and secretary, and electing a representative of the entire county in the Fourth Ward Republican hall, or some other suitable place. The sole object of the meeting should be the selection of a representative, unpledged, unattached delegation to attend the Duluth convention."
"At that meeting an organization should be perfected to elect some square, republican chairman and secretary of the county convention. I should suggest W. W. Heffelfinger, or some good man of the same stamp, who neither holds or wants an office. At the county convention the delegates should be elected by their own delegations and both old factions should be as equally represented as possible. The platform should be short and terse, and absolutely in the interest of the county. By calling a meeting of this kind and framing things in a decent, orderly way, all trouble would be avoided."
Plans are on foot to have the meeting called in the manner suggested, and the call will be signed by representative republicans of the city and county.

By the time the model guns are provided the boys will be ready for drill in the manual of arms. Nearly all appointments of officers will be made this week, which will be announced in the Sunday Journal. Locations for outside drills are being looked for and will be decided upon shortly.
It is necessary for the officers to leave their headquarters for uniforms again at recruiting headquarters at 5 p.m.

ILLINOIS OFFICIAL HEER
NEW DAIRY AND FOOD COMMISSIONER STUDYING MINNESOTA METHODS.

H. E. Schuknecht, the new assistant dairy and food commissioner of Illinois, was in St. Paul yesterday and spent some time conferring with Commissioner Slater on enforcement of the food and dairy laws. He has been newly appointed and is starting a much-needed campaign for law enforcement in Illinois, where food laws have been a joke for years. Chicago is a headquarters for manufacture of cheap, adulterated stuff sold thru the "boxcar" merchants, and other states are interested in the more stringent measures promised there. Mr. Schuknecht also interviewed several twin-city wholesalers and manufacturers.
"I find reputable manufacturers here all favorable to law enforcement," said Mr. Schuknecht. "They always are when the question is properly framed, and the interest of the high-grade houses to have the pirates and shysters suppressed."
Mr. Schuknecht is a former Minnesotan, having spent some years in dairy work in Freeborn county.
The Del Otero Casino and bathhouse at Spring Park opens for season Saturday. Boating, bowling, lunch counter and refreshments.

INDICTMENT IS REFUSED

ATTORNEY GENERAL FINDS TROUBLE IN PROSECUTIONS FOR TRESPASS.

Attorney General Young has received word from C. S. Jelley, who went to Walker to procure the indictment of George W. Wolfe for timber trespass, that the grand jury had refused to return an indictment by a vote of 9 to 11, altho the evidence presented was ample to convict.
Wolfe, who runs a sawmill at Motley, has been in trouble before, and in this case was caught with the logs and forced to make a settlement with the state. As he paid more than the logs were worth, the grand jurors took the position that he had been punished enough and should not be held criminal.
"It is next to impossible to convict trespassers in the counties where they live," said Mr. Young today. "They have so many friends, and there is such a widespread feeling that trespass is not a crime, that the state works under a great handicap. I shall ask the next legislature to pass a law allowing indictments in such cases to be brought in other counties. That is possible now in civil actions on behalf of the state, and should be the rule in criminal cases, if the law is to be strictly enforced."

SAN FRANCISCO HOUSE PARENT OF ORPHEUMS

"The passing of the Orpheum theater in San Francisco will be of interest to any one who has ever visited that city and attended its theaters, whether they be in one of the theatrical professions," says Resident Manager G. E. Raymond of the Minneapolis Orpheum.
"The Orpheum in Frisco was the parent, the beginning of the present Orpheum circuit, and was almost a landmark in the city. It was always crowded and it was a common sight to see a line two blocks long waiting to get seats at the box office. The house seats more than 1,200 on the ground floor, and the usual evening audience consisted of ladies and gentlemen in full evening dress, often enough sitting side by side with miners, sailors, Indians and even Chinamen, such being the nature of the San Francisco citizenry."
"The company, whose central offices have always been in Frisco, have had plans for a new house two or three years and these plans will undoubtedly be followed in the immediate building of a new Orpheum there."

BUSINESS MEN AID IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE

Business men are showing a practical interest in the work of the civic committee of the Improvement League, and scarcely a day passes but suggestions for the transformation of Minneapolis into a "city beautiful" are telephoned to the women. One business man sent an urgent appeal that something be done to several down-town alleys, especially the old lock-up alley, which he declared was in a deplorable condition. Another called attention to the uncovered bins in the rear of stores, which hold all sorts of papers and refuse until a gust of wind blows them out into the street again.
The woods at Washburn Park are favorite dumping grounds and now raise almost as many tin cans as wild flowers, but the growth of tin cans is to be cut off if the suggestion of a lover of the woods is heeded.
Some one wants a drinking tank placed at Bridge Square, which is traversed by hundreds of teamsters every day. The thirsty men often stop and using their hats for cups drink from the horse troughs or else wander into one of the many saloons, and while in the habit of drinking water will enable the men to satisfy their thirst without rubbing shoulders with the horses or visiting the saloons.
All of these suggestions were discussed at the meeting of the civic committee and the committee from the city council, which was appointed to cooperate with Alderman W. E. Satterlee, Schoonmaker and Gerber. They entered heartily into the plans and it was decided to appoint committees of five men in each ward to assist the aldermen and street commissioners of the ward and to suggest needed improvements.
