"Woman's power is for rule, not for battle; and her intellect is not for invention or creation, but for sweet ordering, arrangement and decision."—Ruskin.

Mrs. Robert Jamison and Mrs. L. M. Viles were hostesses at a very informal tea this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jamison, 316 Tenth avenue SE, in honor of Miss Gertrude Satterlee. Only the friends of Miss Satterlee had been invited and a group of fifty of the younger women called between 3 and 5 o'clock. The decorations were prettily carried out in green, white and yellow and spring blossoms made a bright setting. Mrs. H. E. Carpenter and Mrs. George Gillette presided in the dining room, and Misses Louise Gillette, Beatrice Wilcox and Marion Gillette assisted in serving.

The marriage of Miss Lena De Mott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. De Mott and E. Floyd Jones has been announced for Wednesday evening, May 30, when it will take place at the home of her parents in Minn. Miss De Mott left Thursday evening to spend a few weeks at her home. Miss Carrie Dunnean of 1800 Nicollet avenue gave a dinner Wednesday evening when she entertained twenty-one of Miss De Mott's girl friends. The decorations were in pink and white and carnations were in the center of the table. The bridegroom is Mr. De Mott, 613 Second avenue S was hostess at a theater party, entertaining eight guests in honor of Miss De Mott.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Witbeck have issued invitations for the wedding of their daughter, Miss A. H. Dentsch, which will take place Wednesday evening in Kistler's hall. Rabbi A. N. Deinaud will read the service and will be assisted by Rev. M. Camel. Miss Ida Long will be the maid of honor and the bridesmaid will be Miss Kate Long. Samuel Long and Morris Fatelson will be the bridegroom's attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Dentsch will be at home May 15 at 285 Grove street, St. Paul.

Mrs. Charles E. Ballard and Mrs. Will H. Davis entertained forty friends at a dancing party Saturday evening in Malcolm's South Side academy. The decorations were in green and white, with palms and white spring blossoms to carry out the color scheme.

The university colors, maroon and gold, made the setting for the dinner given Saturday evening in Donaldson's tearoom by the members of the senior basketball team in honor of the junior team, the directors and the coaches. Covers were laid for twenty, and the table was arranged in the gold and white room. Miss Isabel Dunn was in charge of the arrangements and Miss Buttner, director, George Weisel, Ralph McRae, Charles Stachoutier and Carlisle Brown were the hosts. The Smith, Grace Ohagen, May Newton, Lou Fleming, Marie Shenley and Mabel Stocking of the junior team were present. T. H. Weld and W. C. Weld presented each of the senior girls with a tiny silver loving cup.

An interesting event of Thursday was the celebration of the thirtieth birthday anniversary of John Merrick, which took place at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. B. Latrop, 3129 Colfax avenue S. Mr. Merrick was born in Wellington, Conn., and lived for many years at Holyoke, Mass. He came to Minneapolis about twelve years ago. The day was one of many surprises for Mr. Merrick. The neighbors came in after breakfast with flowers and hearty congratulations, and all day beautiful floral offerings were received, until the house was a veritable bower. In the afternoon friends in Trinity church came to express their respect and love for a man so "halcyon, hearty and happy" when "eighty years young." An original poem by Rev. L. N. Crandall was read. In the evening the relatives gathered and while at the supper table, Rev. J. S. Clarke presented Mr. Merrick, in behalf of those present, with a beautiful Oxford Bible in three volumes. During the day eighty letters and telegrams were received from thirteen different states.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wiggins of Buffalo, N. Y., and their daughters, Carrie and Elizabeth, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Plattner of Portland Ore., Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Garret of Muncie, Ind., Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. William Ommen of Fergus Falls, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Crott of St. Peter, Mr. and Mrs. William Graf and Mr. and Mrs. August Graf of Waconia, and Mr. E. Plattner of Delano, have arrived to attend the Wegner-Graf wedding, which takes place tomorrow in Holy Rosary church.

Eighth Ward Anniversary.
There was a large attendance at the home of Mrs. Hendrix on Friday afternoon when the Eighth Ward W. C. T. U. celebrated its anniversary. Miss Francis led the devotional exercises. Mrs. Frances Neal spoke for her union, the Lucy Hayes. Its chief work has been in distributing literature and holding medal contests. Mrs. Laukhaupt represented the Frances Neal union, which has emphasized evangelistic work and made a steady gain.

Mrs. Spoor spoke for the Sunrise union which has held successful public meetings and mother's meetings. Mrs. Hoover represented the Eighth Ward union, which has made its regular meetings successful, has a large union Signal club and a large membership.
Mrs. Effie Burgan, state superintendent of work with members, Mr. Craig, state superintendent, told of the department of literature and Mrs. Hendrix, state corresponding secretary, spoke of work thru the state, reporting the reorganization of a union at Fulda, and the organization of a union at Minnetonka Beach.

Mrs. Hendrix made a plea for the Y's and a representative of the Nellie Burger Y spoke of that society's successful work. Musical numbers were by Mrs. Burgan, Miss Meta Wyberg and Master McCracken. Three new members were gained. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Shakspeare's Birthday Honored.
Today is Shakspeare's birthday and the Ladies' Shakspeare club paid it honor with a banquet at Dayton's tearoom. It was the annual banquet of the club and covers were placed for twenty-five. The decorations were in the club colors, yellow and brown, with a brown Japanese basket of yellow flowers in the center of the table and a smart ribbon bow on the handle. The place cards were in buff, lettered in brown, and the buff menu cards bore on a picture of Anne Hathaway's cottage at Shottley.

Mrs. W. H. Ritchie acted as toast mistress and the program of toasts was preceded by a piano solo by Mrs. Sackel. Mrs. Charles Pease responded to the toast "The Biennial," Mrs. Heck Merriam, "Our Future," Mrs. William Wallace, "Our Husbands," Mrs. Charles Pease, "Happy Days," Mrs. Charles Pease, "The Ladies' Shakspeare Club," Mrs. F. J. Sackett, "Shakspeare." The program was varied with vocal solos by Mrs. Ernest Colwell and Mrs. Grove gave a reading, the council scene from "Othello." Tomorrow the Ladies' Shakspeare club will hold its annual meeting with Mrs. Merriam, 3010 Humboldt avenue S.

WOMEN NOT TRUTHFUL

This Statement Has Been Unjustly Made, Because Modest Women Evade Questions Asked By Male Physicians.

An eminent physician says that "Women are not truthful; they will lie to their physician." This statement should be qualified; women do tell the truth, but not the whole truth, to a male physician, but this is only in regard to those painful and troublesome disorders peculiar to their sex.

It is a terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman to be obliged to answer certain questions when those questions are asked even by her family physician. This is especially the case with unmarried women.

Is it any wonder, then, that women continue to suffer and that doctors fail to cure female diseases when they cannot get the proper information to work on?

This is the reason why thousands and thousands of women are now corresponding with Mrs. Pinkham. To her they can and do give every symptom, so that she really knows more about the true condition of her patients, through her correspondence with them, than the physician who personally questions them.

If you suffer from any form of trouble peculiar to women, write at once to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will advise you free of charge.

The fact that this great boon, which is extended freely to women by Mrs. Pinkham, is appreciated, the thousands of letters received by her prove. Many such grateful letters as the following are constantly pouring in.
Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's Ills.
