ARM TORN FROM BODY, IOWAN BRAVELY DIES

Special to The Journal.
Sveamore, Iowa, April 27.—While adjusting the oil cup on a big water pump, Frank Rollins, engineer for the Sveamore-De Kalb company, caught his sleeve in the cogwheels. His arm was drawn into the wheels and so badly mangled that it hung to his body by a mere shred. He was alone at the time and in order to free himself, chewed off the fragment of skin and started for a nearby drug store for medical treatment. Before he reached it, however, he died from loss of blood.

FEARED WIFE WOULD BEAT SUICIDE CLUB

Journal Special Service.
Logansport, Ind., April 27.—Edward W. Gates, president of the Logansport Suicide club, an organization which has a membership of five, but now is reduced to two, has filed suit for divorce, alleging that his wife tried to kill him, and failing in the attempt, deserted him. He says that his wife made frequent threats to slay him and on three occasions tried to carry them into effect. In his complaint he says he objects to being killed by his wife, as he has reserved that duty for himself.

SCORCHING AND DRINK GRAVING SAME, HE SAYS

Special to The Journal.
London, April 27.—The British Medical Journal quotes Dr. Lee Howard as saying the delight in fast automobiling and craving for strong drink, ethnologically, are the same thing. The feature of the present age is an increasing tendency towards explosions of psychic energy, the objective symptom of which is the mania for high speed, the drug mania and alcohol mania.

SHIP SUNK BY CRASH
Havana Goes Down, Ramm'd by the Steamer Strathcona.

Halifax, N. S., April 27.—The coasting steamer Strathcona, Captain Reid, collided with and sank the British steamer Havana, Captain J. A. Farquhar, in Halifax harbor last night. No lives were lost. The Strathcona was bound out of the harbor and when off Point Pleasant she crashed into the Havana, which was at anchor. With the exception of the watch on deck, the Havana's captain and crew of five men were below aboard, but they rushed to the deck and aboard of the Strathcona. Within ten minutes the Havana disappeared.

FAMOUS GAMBLER IS DEAD IN NEW YORK

Journal Special Service.
New York, April 27.—John Daly, well-known as a horseman and an proprietor of several of the most expensive gambling houses in the east, died today at his home after a lingering illness. Daly was 68 years old. His notoriety came thru his proprietorship of the Pennsylvania club at Long Branch, N. J.
He planned to make the Monte Carlo of America. He erected a handsome cottage, fitted with the finest of furnishings, and indulged his taste for rare pictures and costly curios. The gambling house was one of the main attractions of Long Branch until 1901, when the Monmouth county authorities started a crusade that caused Daly to leave. He started life as an iron moulder.

AMATEURS STILL IN RACE MEET QUARREL

Journal Special Service.
Chicago, April 27.—There is to be another chapter in the protest of the university mile relay race run at the new Illinois Athletic club charity meet last month. This time it is Chicago that makes the kick. At the time the race was run the Illinois Athletic club company at the Mutual Life Insurance company at the quarterly meeting showed a shrinkage in new business of nearly 50 per cent from the amount written in the corresponding period of 1904. Foreign business, it was stated, had not fallen off nearly as much as the domestic.
President Peabody stated after the meeting that he understood all of the records of the company in the building at San Francisco were a total loss, and the insured most likely had also lost their policies in the fire.

BODY FLOATING IN HARBOR
Skull So Crushed that Identification of Remains is Impossible.

Superior, Wis., April 27.—A floating body of a man was picked in the Superior bay this morning. The body was entirely without clothing and the skull was crushed so badly that identification is impossible. It is thought the remains are those of one of the Mattafa sailors, nine of whom were drowned at the entrance to the bay last winter.

PRIEST TO BUILD CHURCH
Earnings from Wireless Telegraphy Invention Devoted to Congregation.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 27.—With the money he had earned with his invention of a system of wireless telegraphy, Father Joseph Murgas of this city is about to build a fine new church for his Slavish Roman Catholic congregation.
The church will be of marble and Indiana limestone, the parochial residence of the same, and he will make the present church into a school and the parochial residence into a convent.

FALLS OFF 50 PER CENT
Mutual Life Trustees Find Heavy Shrinkage in New Business.

Journal Special Service.
New York, April 27.—Reports presented today to the trustees of the Mutual Life Insurance company at the quarterly meeting showed a shrinkage in new business of nearly 50 per cent from the amount written in the corresponding period of 1904. Foreign business, it was stated, had not fallen off nearly as much as the domestic.
President Peabody stated after the meeting that he understood all of the records of the company in the building at San Francisco were a total loss, and the insured most likely had also lost their policies in the fire.

GOING TO COURT
Nasty Muddle Ahead for the Baseball Governors.

Special to The Journal.
Milwaukee, April 27.—C. B. Whitney, representing the Victor company of Springfield, Mass., was advised today by Judge Timlin of the supreme court, to begin an action against the National baseball commission to enjoin it from interfering with the American association from fulfilling its contract with the Victor people. Accordingly Mr. Whitney started for New York today to begin the suit in the United States court there against Harry Palliam and August Hermann. Following the injunction a suit for damages will be commenced.

SCHAEFER IN FORM
High Runs the Rule in Billiard Play with Daly.

Journal Special Service.
New York, April 27.—High runs were the feature of Jacob Schaefer's play in his exhibition games with John Daly of Chicago yesterday at McGraw & Sloan's billiard academy. Both men played the 15-ball two shots in ball-line game. In the evening the Chicago expert showed good form, defeating his opponent handsily by a score of 300 points to 50. In the afternoon game Schaefer ran away from Daly from the start, winning by 220 to 112. The former made the highest run, 126, of the game on his eleventh turn at the table.

LAWRENCE TEAM WORKING
Appleton, Wis., April 27.—The Lawrence university baseball team and the Oshkosh city league club will play a series of two games here next Monday and Tuesday. Koehler reports the Methodists as being a stronger team than last year, at least weak at the bat. He expects the games with that company will strengthen that part before the northern trip next month.

FRANK FARRELL INJURED.
New York, April 27.—While returning with a friend from the Agnes-Edwards Frank Farrell, owner of many thousands, owner of the New York baseball club and an automobile enthusiast, met with a painful accident, resulting from the wrecking of his automobile. The accident occurred in Thompson avenue, Long Island City.

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

DOPE OF THE DAY
WILLIE MAINS has again signed with Syracuse.
NEALON HAS already earned his salary for the season.
REYNOLD of the Athletics made nine hits in four days last week.
CATCHER TOM LEAHY will add much to the strength of Kansas City.
LYNCH WILL never be able to get a job with the Pennsylvania Railroad company. He issues too many passes.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.
THAT 10 VICTORY of Worcester over Providence was a great thing for the former, and well showed the strength of the New England league recruit.
JESS BURKETT is still on the payroll of the Boston Americans, but has not yet been ordered to report for duty, the holding himself in readiness to do so.
PITCHER MCINLEY of last season's Haverhill and Catcher Arthur McCona of last season's Boston Americans have signed with Toronto. Another former New England leaguer, Pitcher Arthur McCarthy, also is with Toronto.
LITTLE FIGHTING taking at Philadelphia Saturday night was declared out at third by Umpire Evans. It was a close decision and Manager Griffith created a scene by running into the field and jostling the umpire several times. The police interfered and it looked for a time as if there would be serious trouble, but Griffith finally subsided and was allowed to take his place on the bench.
AT THE AMERICAN league opening in Philadelphia, as the championship pennant and the American flags fluttered on high, a shower of tiny balloons dropped from their folds and lighted the night sky. These were emblematic of the night cities in the league. To each was attached a ticket that will entitle the lucky holder to an entrance to the ball game.
CONROY MADE one of the most sensational catches ever witnessed in Philadelphia Saturday, when he pulled down Harry Davis' hard drive in right center field. Conroy started with the crack of the bat, and as the ball was sailing over his head he made a flying leap and grasped the soaring sphere with his gloved hand. The impetus carried him off his feet, and he turned a complete somersault, but held tightly to the ball and the crowd cheered him liberally as he got upon his feet.
MAYOR GEORGE GUTHRIE of Pittsburgh refused to accept a session pass to the ball games, saying it's graft. Maybe the mayor doesn't care for baseball, anyway.
THEY SAY in Washington that Rube Waddell is rather quiet this year. Rube is probably worried for fear someone will ask him about the kink in his arm last fall.
GUS RUTLAND, the Akron giant, states that after his fight with Tommy Burns he is going out west, where he thinks there is more money in the fight game than in the east.
MANY BADLY needed signs boards will be erected in the vicinity of New York this year. At a meeting of its board of governors, held on Thursday of last week, the Automobile club of America appropriated $2,000 to place signs leading to Boston and Philadelphia. Already a special bill has been introduced in the Massachusetts legislature authorizing the same assistance. These signs on telegraph and telephone poles.
YOUNG JAY GOULD, the "indoor" tennis champion of America, in an interview says that in his belief indoor tennis will never quite eclipse baseball. Young Jay Gould is very broad-minded.
REBEKAH THE Cleveland players will not ride in buses. They will be driven to and from the grounds in carriages, closed ones at that. Larry says his men catch cold on top of buses.

HAMLIN TRIES OUT ATHLETES
Interclass Meet This Afternoon to Select Track Team.

An interclass track meet is in progress on Norton field, at Hamline university, this afternoon. While the meet is to demonstrate the relative athletic standing of the four classes, it will also serve to give Coach Hollister a line on his track material and help him select the team which will compete with Lawrence on May 11.
This Lawrence meet is the first arranged with a team out of the state by the Hamline athletes, and has aroused so much enthusiasm that negotiations with the South Dakota School of Agriculture for a meet at Brookings, S. D., about the middle of May, are in progress.
Track work is rapidly coming to the front at Hamline, as it has received a great impetus from the superior training facilities offered by Norton field. A hard male will keep Captain Arthur W. Mannel out of the game today, but he will be in shape in time to enter the distance events against Lawrence. The events and entries of today are:
100 and 200-Yard Dash—Young, Willing, Drew, Quarstrom, Brown and Moore.
Quarter-mile Run—Mackin, Moore, Kidder and Young.
Half-mile and Mile Runs—Peston, Nickerson, Mackin, Kidder and Almer.
Pole Vault—Moore and Drew.
High and Broad Jumps—Ellory, Drew, Rasey and Lyons.
Hurdles—Squires, Radcliffe, Giberson, Stenberg and Wilson.
NEW ULM WINS OUT.
New Ulm, Minn., April 27.—The New Ulm high school team defeated Springfield high 4 to 2. Mueller for New Ulm struck out six-time men. New Ulm is out for the championship of southern Minnesota, and is looking for games. For names address Manager R. H. McCool, New Ulm, Minn.

SAINTS TO PLAY MACALESTER
Leading Teams of College League at St. Thomas Tomorrow.

What promises to be the most important game in the intercollegiate series will be played by St. Thomas and Macalester on the former's grounds tomorrow at 3 p.m. The contesting teams are conceded to be the strongest in the league, and the outcome of tomorrow's game, while not deciding, will at least forecast the championship.
By the addition of four veterans in the past week the saints have been materially strengthened, and from the showing made against Hamline, Wednesday, it would seem that the saints have a bunch which will make a stiff fight for the pennant. Miller, Schurz and Leutge make a strong pitching staff, and the support behind them is excellent.
Macalester has a good twirler in Bond, formerly of Mechanical Arts and of the university. They have had little difficulty in winning their games so far. Both teams will be supported by a determined roster brigade.
SHOOTING FOR CHARITY.
The St. Paul Rod and Gun club will donate the entire receipts of club shoots Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning to the fund. The club requests all members to be present, and invites all lovers of the sport to shoot. The club-house is on West Seventh street, near Fort Snelling.
BOER TO MEET DANE.
Captain Charles Miller, an officer of the Boer army, and heavyweight Greco-Roman champion wrestler of South Africa, is to wrestle at the Dewey tomorrow night, when he will meet Carl Mattson in a handicap match. He has agreed to throw Mattson in fifteen minutes or forfeit $50, and from his appearance, should be able to win his match.

FAMISHING REFUGEES SEARCH RUINS FOR FOOD

This scene of last Friday tells of conditions now in a measure relieved. The men in this picture are digging in the debris of a wholesale grocery to find canned goods.
