HART'S CLOUTING SHADS READY FOR WINS THIRD GAME MEET AT CHICAGO

Millers Showed Up Columbus in a See-Saw Game of Ball. Strong Team Is on the Ground Waiting to Compete Tomorrow.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS. Table with columns for Club, Won, Lost, Pct.

GAMES TODAY. Columbus at Minneapolis. Toledo at St. Paul. Louisville at Milwaukee. Indianapolis at Kansas City.

Despite Harry Day Bill Clymer's prayers, Pickering's hitting and Zekiel Wright's fanning at the bat, Columbus climbed into the lead...

The game was another one of those nip and tuck affairs, with a chance for either team to win until the last man was out. The air was balmy and the players seemed to have more pep than at any time since the opening blizzard of last Saturday.

Senators Guessing. Columbus was unable to score for three innings, it requiring that length of play for the Ohio players to get around, also in every inning they got a man safely to first. Two hits and an error permitted this, but close base play kept the four bases from getting to bat in any of the first three walk around.

Minneapolis started off with a rush and scored twice in the first inning. Denny O'Flaherty fired the sandwich wing and sped one up again with a hit.

James woke up like a hungry rattlesnake and bit it hard. It licked to the far green and Oliver Pickering, the Illinois rabbit hunter, only got one hand to Fox reach the third base start while Sullivan and James tore up a lap close to 17 seconds flat, scoring two runs. One base runner, however, was left behind by Pickering, Jack Tom Gleason ripped off his red necktie to use it for a banner, and three women in the grandstand called out "Pickering, Pickering, Pickering" as he ran.

That was the last score of the day. There was nothing doing in the next two innings and a bunch of superheated adjectives before some red hot nouns at the armpit.

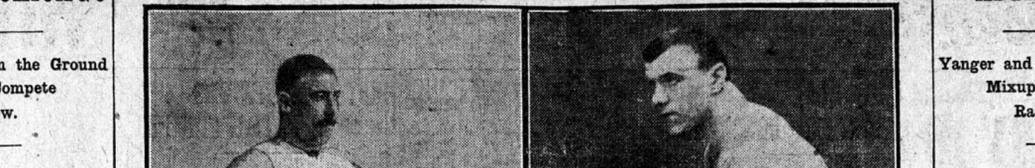

Following are the statistics: Minnesota: AB R H PO A E. Columbus: AB R H PO A E.

MINN DOWN HOISERS. Kansas City, May 11.—Kansas City won yesterday's game by a batting rally in the eighth. Swann pitched effectively and was given good support.

MUDHENS MADE MORGAN. St. Paul, Minn., May 11.—Morgan took the third straight game from St. Paul by a score of 10 to 0.

PRINCIPALS IN THE RECENT WRESTLING MATCH FOR HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE WORLD WENT TO A DRAW AFTER 10 ROUNDS

Yanger and Prendergast in Famous Football Official Goes In for the Simple Life Hereafter.

Journal Special Service. Grand Rapids, Mich., May 11.—Tom Prendergast and Benny Yanger of Chicago fought ten fast and furious rounds to a draw last night at Powers' opera-house. The decision was the only one that could be given, as the men fought so evenly that not even a hairline decision would give a shade to either man.

In the first rounds of the fighting both men fought rather cautiously, seeming to test each other's strength, but in the final periods of the contest each fighter strove valiantly to land the money punch. The odds on the battle favored Yanger, many bets being made at the Rapids at seven to five. Perhaps Yanger had a shade on the fighting, but Prendergast made up this in the outfighting, reaching Benny with some terrific right swings.
