PREDICTION OF SHOWERS WEAKENS THE WHEAT MARKET—OERN OPENS STEADY. Chicago, May 12.—The wheat market became weak today shortly after the opening. The chief cause of this decline was the prediction of showers in Kansas and Nebraska and pre-talking by local agents. Commission houses were of the opinion that the decline was very active, and Chicago reported receipts of 154 cars against 198 last week and 89 one year ago.

CURB MARKET

During the First Hour the Market Is Irregular, but the Advance Is Offset by a Decline of Other Favorites. New York, May 12.—Prices of stocks changed but little during the first hour of the opening dealings today. Small gains and losses were quite evenly divided. A rise in Great Northern preferred of 1/4 and an Illinois Central of 1/2 were the only gains of any note.
