"The only true and firm friendship is that between a man and a woman, because it is the only affection exempt from actual or possible rivalry."—A. Comte.

Mrs. Nathan H. Chase of Dupont avenue was hostess at a charming flower luncheon given this afternoon at the old Morris country home, Glen Hill, Christmas. Mrs. Frank Page of Springfield, Mass., who is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Bausman, was the guest of honor, and twenty guests were at the table. The luncheon was served at 1 o'clock. The handsome old country home has been entirely renovated this spring, and the beautiful dining room was redecorated for the first time. With its furnishing of mission furniture, heavy beams of massive oak in mission finish, it made an effective setting for the huge mounds of spring blossoms, violets, marsh marigolds, plum and apple blossoms, which decked the table, and which seemed to grow out of the depth of the old-fashioned fireplace, built of heavy boulders. The guests were seated at one long table and after the luncheon a trip thru the grounds, which are in their spring glory, and a glimpse of the beautiful shores of Christmas lake proved a delightful diversion until the party returned to the city. Miss Morris and Miss McElroy, who are the hostesses at Glen Hill, assisted Mrs. Chase. The guest was Madame Snyder, Mrs. Frank Snyder, Fred Snyder, Al Green, Frank Page, Henry Little, A. L. Bausman, Mart Moulton, Tacoma, Frank Thresher, Alexander Campbell, Misses Nigh, Bausman, Snyder and Harrington.

Miss Gertrude Laddy was the guest of honor at a theater party given at the Orpheum this afternoon. The hostesses were the nine members of the original alumnae chapter of the Theta Delta Theta society of which Miss Laddy was a member. There were fourteen guests and after the performance a light luncheon was served in the Dutch room of Donaldson's tea rooms. The decorations were in pink and carnations, tapers, and ferns made the table attractive. At each cover stood a bunch of carnations, and crystal candelsticks with tapers encircled the centerpiece of pink flowers. The place of the guest of honor was marked by a large cluster of white roses tied with a large bow of white tulle.

Miss Maybelle Darrow entertained this afternoon at her home, 3033 Park avenue, in honor of Miss Cordelia Case, who is to be one of the May brides. The decorations were in yellow, and carried out in yellow, and clusters of daffodils centered the tables. Thirty-five young women were entertained. Miss Case found her favor, a dainty May basket, and a gift of a box of yellow, which contained the many pretty gifts presented by the guests. The afternoon was delightfully passed with contests and a fortune hunting game.

Mrs. Edward L. Lampman will entertain at her home in South Minneapolis Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mr. James F. McElroy, who recently returned from Texas. Cards will be played.

A musical was given this afternoon at the home of Mrs. George F. Daggett by a group of Mrs. Harriet Runyan's pupils. The program was given in a most interesting and delightful manner by the Misses Dorothy Daggett, Wilhelmina Donaldson, Grace Cobb, Frances Browne, Marjory Lyman, Geraldine Redding, Dorothy Mitchell, Jean Anderson, Grace Heywood, Anita Atkinson, Marie Murphy, Ellen Ferris, Gladys Sanders, Mrs. Edna Matcham, Sherwin, and Miss Nettie Wilson varied the program with songs. Frappe was served and clusters of bright spring flowers made an attractive setting thru the rooms.

Mrs. William E. Leonard received informally yesterday afternoon at her home, 2446 Grand avenue. The affair was Mrs. Leonard's second post-party at home, as she is receiving Fridays in May. In the evening Dr. Leonard received with her. Miss Gertrude Leonard and the Misses Elsie and Marion Leonard assisted in the afternoon and evening.

Miss Ethel Ross of 410 Fifteenth avenue SE was hostess at a handkerchief shower yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Kitty-Bele Mason, who is to be married to Charles Edholm of Duluth next month.

The rooms were decorated with wild flowers, and clusters of marsh marigolds carried out a pretty color note of yellow. The guests were thirty of Miss Mason's university friends. During the afternoon Miss Mason was showered with many dainty packages containing gifts of linen and lace. Her favorite recipes had been written by Bad Stomach Makes Bad Blood.

You can not make sweet butter in a foul, unclean churn. The stomach serves as a churn in which to agitate, work up and disintegrate our food as it is being digested. If it is weak, sluggish and foul the result will be torpid, sluggish liver and bad, impure blood.

The ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery are just such as best serve to correct the various stomach troubles. It is made up without a drop of alcohol in its composition; chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol. Now this glycerine is of itself a valuable medicine, instead of a deleterious agent like alcohol, especially in the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, and the various forms of indigestion. Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says of it:

"It is one of the best manufactured products of the present time in its action upon the system of the stomach; especially if there is ulceration or catarrh of the stomach, or inflammation of the stomach, or if it is a most efficient purgative. It will relieve many cases of pyrosis (heartburn) and excessive gastric acidity. It is useful in all cases of indigestion, dyspepsia, flatulent variety, and in certain forms of chronic constipation. It acts upon the secretory and excretory functions of the intestinal glands." When combined, in just the right proportions, with Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Queen's root, Blood-root and Mandrake root, or the extract of these, as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, there can be no doubt of its great efficacy in the cure of all stomach, liver and intestinal disorders and derangements. These several ingredients have the strongest endorsement in all such cases of such eminent medical leaders as Prof. B. Barlow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, Chicago; Eric Hobbs, M. D., M. D., of the Medical Department, University of Pennsylvania; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Medical Department, University of New York; Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Medical College, Philadelphia; and Dr. J. C. Knickerbocker, M. D., of the University of Michigan. Who can doubt the curative virtues of a medicine the ingredients of which have such a professional endorsement? Consult your doctor, or Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. One or two a dose.

MEETS GREAT COMPOSER

Harry Randall, impresario for the St. Olaf college band during its Norwegian tour this summer, arrived in the city today after completing arrangements for twenty-two concerts in Norway and five in the United States. He crossed the ocean on the steamship Oscar II, of the Scandinavian-American line, which is the boat which will convey the St. Olaf students to Norway in June. Captain Hemphill of the Oscar II, is as much interested in the tour as any one and promises the party a good time while on his boat.

Mr. Randall has met many world-famous people since he left Minneapolis last winter, including Edvard Grieg, the great composer, and Premier Michelsen, who steered Norway thru the dangerous crisis of last summer. He made a special trip to Washington to present to President Roosevelt a medal struck in honor of the American tour of the Norwegian students' chorus. This medal he presented in person and was graciously received by the president.

Edvard Grieg was much interested to learn that his famous chorus "Landkjaering" (Land Sighting) had been arranged expressly for the St. Olaf band and promised himself the pleasure of hearing it. He said that he had once heard one of the great bands in Germany play the composition, but the arrangement had not been printed as far as he knew.

Premier Michelsen predicted that the American boys would be received with open arms, not only out of gratitude for the great attention shown the Norwegian students, but for the prominent part that America had taken in securing the recognition of Norway after the dissolution with Sweden.

In addition to the concerts previously mentioned Mr. Randall has arranged for public appearances at Gjøvik and Lillehammer. At the latter place the concert will be in Sandvik's park, the great outdoor museum. It is expected that Bjornstjerne Bjornson will attend the last named concert. It is expected that the St. Olaf party will meet King Haakon at Bergen, as he will be in that city when the students arrive. It is planned to take the party on a cruise of Sogne fjord in the summer. The Emperor of Japan, Emperor William is sojourning at Gudvangen, and possibly the band may have the honor of playing before the emperor.

The first concert of the tour will be held in Minneapolis on June 7, Norway's great holiday, at the Auditorium. Concerts will also be given at Chicago and New York and two other places not yet selected. The party will sail from New York on June 21 at noon and will arrive in Norway ten days later.

Time-tired, merit-proven, wondrously healing, Satin skin cream is a standard article.
