

A Great Magazine

With Teague's complete exposure of the sneaking Bucket-Shop thieves; with the first really vivid story of the San Francisco disaster, and Bailey's beautiful pencil sketches of the city, finished only a few days before the catastrophe; with Russell's scathing arraignment of British rule in India; with Eugene Wood's powerful appeal to the people to protect themselves against Consumption; with Lawson's dramatic and magnificently eloquent fact-story of High Finance and the Courts; with absorbing Fiction-Stories and Pictures of quality; and with its live Departments on current matters—

Everybody's for June is a magazine to buy, read, think over and remember.

Gobble, Gobble,
Gobble never made a healthy man or woman. It is the proper selection of food that counts.

If you go around with pale cheeks, if you lack strength, vitality and the sparkle of radiating health, you are not selecting your food wisely. Eighty per cent of the people starve their blood—the one great vitalizing element of the body—they give it too little iron. Your system needs iron, demands it.

supplies the iron, and gives you strength and energy in doing it. Apizezo meets the needs of all, the healthy, romping child, the rapidly growing boy or girl, the delicate invalid suffering from inattention, the trained athlete or the brain-taxed business man.
There's health and strength in every Apizezo Biscuit—snap and go—bone and sinew. Thirty days' use will prove it.

Golden Wedding Day of Minneapolis Couple

"There is no gown or garment that would become a woman than that she will be wiss."—Luther.

Miss Pansy King of 3108 Stevens avenue gave a thimble bee this afternoon in honor of Miss Mabel Lane of Excelsior. Eighteen young women had been invited and spent the afternoon sewing for the bride-to-be. The rooms were prettily decorated in blue and a luncheon was served later in the afternoon.

Miss Florence Bohri and Miss Ruth Whistler, the newly pledged members of the Phi Beta sorority of Stanley hall, were the honor guests at a luncheon at Donaldson's tearooms this afternoon. The sorority colors, blue and white, were used in the table decorations, and covers were laid for fourteen. Miss Brown and Miss Furniss acted as hostesses. Other guests included the Misses Tessie Jones, Della Hawk, Gertrude Ellis, Margaret Clemens, Marie Pinner, Ruth Shepherd, Cora Dorsey, Kathleen Crane, Pauline Hosper, Blanche Kelle, Josephine Davton and Luella Bender. Friday evening a tally-ho ride will be given by the sorority for Miss Brown and Miss Furniss.

Professor and Mrs. John N. Greer gave a reception last evening at their home, 2629 Pleasant avenue, in honor of Mme. Leone Hatcheck, who will retire from the faculty of the Central high school this spring. After many years of service in the Minneapolis public schools, the decorations were charmingly carried out with spring flowers and bunches of lilacs and apple blossoms filled the vases and the low mounds on the tables. A group of the high-school teachers assisted Professor and Mrs. Greer in receiving, and Miss Grace Williams was aided by a second group of teachers in the dining room. About one hundred guests called to bid adieu to Mme. Hatcheck.

The Eta Epsilon sorority gave a dancing party last evening in Mrs. Noble's ballroom on Hennepin avenue. About fifty guests danced. Mr. and Mrs. J. Atwater and Mrs. Conkey chaperoned the party.

The teachers and pupils of Graham Hall enjoyed a delightful picnic at Edina Friday. About eighty were in the party, which left the school at 11:30 a.m. for a delightful drive to a charming spot along the banks of the Minnehaha creek. Luncheon was served and after a frolic in the country the picnickers returned to the city in time for supper.

A wedding of Wednesday was that of Miss Louise Quarris and Louis Anderson, which took place at 913 Eighteenth-and-a-Half avenue NE. A group of friends witnessed the service which was read by Rev. G. L. Morrill. The bride wore white mulle trimmed with lace and carried bride roses. The attendants were Miss Isabelle McFarlane, George McFarlane and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Anderson. An elaborate wedding dinner was served at the table decked with red and white roses. Palms, ferns and violets furnished the decorations in the parlors.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude K. Sauer and Charles T. E. Vanstrum took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sauer, 1927 Adams street NE. A large gathering of friends and relatives witnessed the service. Miss Mabel Vanstrum played the Mendelssohn march. Miss Pearl Sauer was the maid of honor and Joseph Vanstrum was the best man. Mr. and Mrs. Vanstrum have gone to their new home, at 1510 Adams street NE. Mrs. N. M. Vanstrum entertained at a paroled shower last week in honor of the bride, at her home, 1714 Fourth avenue S. Twenty-five guests were present.

Mrs. Zehner entertained at luncheon Wednesday for Mrs. Scotten of Portland, Ore.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.
Miss Blanche H. Wells has gone to Monticello to spend Sunday.
Mrs. Frank Mannen is home from a six weeks' visit in Kentucky and Virginia.
Mrs. H. H. Barber of Irving avenue S left this morning for Brainerd to visit her mother, Mrs. Lyman P. White.
Mr. and Mrs. David C. Bell have returned home after some months spent in Saratoga, Cal., and are at the Hampshire Arms.
Minneapolis arrivals at Holland house, New York, for the week were: E. W. Goldard, Mrs. A. M. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hood.
Minneapolis people at New York hotels are as follows: Hotel Astor, W. B. Chandler, J. H. H. Mueller; York, F. J. Splitstoe; Hoffman, E. E. Conney; Astor, H. Yerxa, S. S. Thorpe; Imperial, H. R. Holmes.

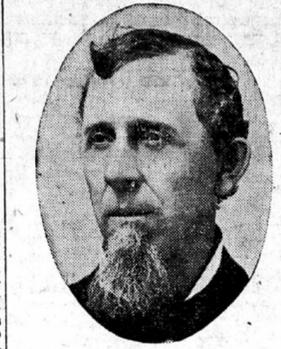

Beds, folding beds, cherry, oak and walnut; low prices Monday at closing out sale. Windsor hotel, Fifth and St. Peter streets, St. Paul.

TO SWAMPS FOR ANTIQUES
Collectors in Georgia Find Old Mahogany in Cabins of Negroes.
New York Herald.

Savannah.—Several of the curious shops in Savannah are kept by colored men. They have attained considerable success in the purchase of antiques, especially of old mahogany furniture, and they talk as glibly of Sheraton, Chippendale and colonial styles, inlay and veneer as their white competitors.
"Where do you reckon I find most of the old mahogany?" asked one of these dealers, passing in the work of repairing Queen Anne bedstead for the polish. "In negro cabins. Not the shanties in or near Savannah, nor those on the main-traveled roads. All that furniture was picked up long ago."
"Now we have to take to the swamps to find it. I frequently leave my wife in charge of the shop while I go off on a collecting trip for several days. I walk across the woods and fields, and I find a little old shanty somewhere off in a pine clearing where the children have but one garment apiece and sleep out night in white cotton bedsteads."
"Once I happened at such a cabin just in time to keep a clawfoot bedstead from destruction. It was a chilly evening in spring, there was no firewood at hand and the man of the house was just taking one of the posts of a splendid colonial bed, which was in disuse in a shed, to the chopping block. A moment later it would have been on top of the crackling, fat, pine kindlings in the smoky fireplace."
"The darkies know nothing of the value of mahogany. It came to them from their owners, who put it away for newer pieces of walnut and maple. It went out of fashion and so into the attics or the quarters, but the servants came in possession of most of it when the old homes were broken up after the war."
"Any of this generation of negroes would rather have an up-to-date dress of pine wood brightly varnished or a white iron bedstead."

"Indeed, altho Savannah is full of old mahogany, silver and porcelain there is very little of it for sale, and what there is the owners know how to value. I count, however, that I make about 700 per cent on the pieces that I pick up in the negro cabins in the interior."

Golden Wedding Day of Minneapolis Couple

A. G. MILLER.

MRS. A. G. MILLER.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Miller celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday for their home, 4408 Washburn avenue S. Sixty relatives and intimate friends had been invited for the reception, and they presented the bride couple with numerous beautiful souvenirs of the day. White and red made an appropriate setting in the rooms. Spring flowers were arranged in great profusion in the parlors and in the living room, and in the dining room a great canopy white and red blossoms was built over the table, and suspended from the center was a huge Japanese lantern, its soft light accentuating the pretty decorative scheme.

Fifty years ago Mr. and Mrs. Miller were married in Lafayette, Ind. They came west the same year and located in St. Peter. In 1881 they removed to Grand Forks, where they lived until they came to Minneapolis in 1887. Their four daughters, Mrs. C. S. Lindner, Mrs. Mollie E. Webster, Miss Nettie Miller and Miss Dottie Miller, and their son, Harry A. Miller, and their only grandson, Howard Lindner, were all present at the golden wedding celebration last evening. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Miller were Mrs. R. T.

Beebe, Mrs. Webster and Harry A. Miller. Mrs. Lindner, the Misses Miller and Mrs. Frank E. Hopwood presided in the dining room, and Miss Lydia Beebe was at the frappe table in the library.

Captain J. C. Donahower of St. Paul read the letter of regrets from outside friends of the couple who were prevented from attending the anniversary. One of the letters came from Henry Moll, judge of the probate court of Nicollet county, St. Peter, Minn., which included a mock certificate of marriage "uniting in the holy bonds of matrimony A. G. Miller and Mrs. Miller, on the 16th day of the year 1906."

Among the guests were Messrs. and Meses. Thomas Downs, Frank Hopwood, John Chase, Charles Whipp, H. M. Frev, S. B. Chandler, Charles Oliver, R. T. Beebe, E. M. Brooks, Minneapolis; E. R. Moore, Charles Benham, M. G. Evanson, Merriam Park; Major and Mrs. T. Montgomery, Hamline; Captain and Mrs. J. C. Donahower, and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Willard, St. Paul; Misses Florence Chandler, Jeannette Mattice, Nellie Beebe, Lilla Hays, Alberta Benedict, Mmes. Gussie King, M. H. Frost and E. A. Hays, Minneapolis, and James Clark, St. Peter.

CLUBS AND CHARITIES

A Kindergarten Banquet.
The second annual banquet of the Minneapolis Kindergarten Alumnae association was held this afternoon in Donaldson's tearooms. Covers were laid for fifty guests, and the room, which had been reserved for the occasion, was charmingly decorated with clusters of lilac. Purple was the chosen color and in the center of the large table was a huge bunch of flowers surrounded by crystal candleholders with green tapers.

Mrs. Russell Lawrence, president of the association, St. Paul; Mrs. Eugene De Haven, vice president, Minneapolis; Miss Edith Marsh, treasurer, Minneapolis, and Miss Ella Suidman, secretary, St. Paul, were present. Mrs. Lawrence was the toastmistress, and she gave the address of the president, outlining the work of the association as it had progressed during the past year. Miss Helen Hewitt responded to the toast, "The Kindergarten Idea from the Teacher's Standpoint"; Mrs. F. G. Howard spoke on "The Kindergarten Idea from the Mother's Standpoint," and Mrs. F. Farrar's toast was "Our Husbands."

Miss Stella Louise Wood, director of the Minneapolis Kindergarten Normal school, gave an interesting report of the National Kindergarten convention held in Milwaukee. Vocal selections were given by Mrs. A. A. Crane, Mrs. W. L. Waldron, Miss Margaret Jones and Miss Edith Marsh. An orchestra played a program of pleasing music, while the banquet was served.

Omaha Begins Ballasting.
Special to the Journal.

Salem, S. D., May 18.—The Omaha road has opened a gravel pit, two miles west of Salem, where the steamshovel and a large crew of men are at work getting out gravel for ballasting the route between Mitchell and Humboldt, west of Sioux Falls. Twelve miles of this road was ballasted last season, and the job is to be completed at this time.

Next Sunday a new timetable is to go into effect on this division on the North-Western. One of the changes is the running on thru to the city of Aberdeen from Salem and Sioux Falls. Another change is the coming up from Sioux Falls on the Omaha to connect with this train, which will arrive here on the evening, returning at 5:50 the next morning.

Tourists Entertained.
Mrs. A. H. Kenyon entertained the Tourists Wednesday afternoon at her home on Thirteenth street S. It was a social and business gathering, as the program for the next year on French art, prepared by Mrs. Martha C. Wells, was read and accepted. Mrs. J. E. Engstad, a new member, read some interesting extracts from a journal she kept on a recent trip around the world. As the club has been studying Russia, the extracts chosen were descriptive of Moscow, St. Petersburg and Peterhof, and were illustrated with many colored photographs.

Later Mrs. Engstad served Russian tea from a samovar she brought from Russia, and the sandwiches, cakes and confections were also suggestive of Russia. Clusters of gay tapers brightened the room. The guests numbered about thirty-five.

Associates of the Thursday Musical.
The associate members of the Thursday Musical have followed the example of the student members and chosen a committee which will represent them at the meetings of the active membership. The committee includes Mmes. M. H. Boutelle, C. C. Matteson, J. A. Brant, E. L. Thayer, A. G. Moritz, H. L. Robinson, E. J. Schriver, J. S. McLean, C. E. Cotton, J. G. Ballard, G. H. Hunter, N. H. Chase, Misses Amelia Knoblach, Belle Bezzar and Franklin Stubecke. A meeting was held yesterday morning and Mrs. J. A. Brant was chosen chairman.

Hope Mothers' Club.
A Mothers' club was organized at Hope chapel, Thursday, when the mothers of the kindergarten children met for their monthly social. Mrs. H. S. Birch, chairman of the Mothers' club committee of the state federation, gave a talk and Miss Woolley sang. Mrs. A. G. Berg was chosen president of the new club; Mrs. McKenzie, vice-president; Mrs. G. Luck, secretary, and Mrs. Amelia Knoblach, treasurer.

PHYSICAL EFFECT.
"It broadens one's horizon, so to speak, does it not? Inquired the man who was studying municipal conditions, to serve the city in the capacity of alderman?"
"I don't know of that," answered the other man; "but I have noticed that it generally broadens his equator."

No More Dandruff No More Falling Hair No More Itching Scalp

IF YOU USE NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE.

An Army Officer's Report.
"For sometime past I have been troubled with dandruff, and with hair falling out. My head itched continually while my hair appeared lusterless and dead. I tried several remedies without any permanent relief, and finally I resorted to myself to premature baldness. After using a bottle of your Herpicide, I have been greatly benefited. The hair has stopped falling out, and the itching has ceased and no more dandruff forms in the scalp. My hair is coming in thick and has a fine glossy appearance."
(Signed) C. D. TOWSLEY, Lieut. U. S. Artillery (Retired), Milwaukee, Wis.

A "Square Deal" Doctor.
"I beg to state that I have used the bottle of Herpicide that your representative left me, and am thoroughly pleased with it. I have since bought two or three bottles for myself and other members of my family, and have had the very best of results. I am now prescribing it freely to my patients with full confidence in the result to be obtained. I rarely ever give a testimonial for an advertised remedy, but yours is of such merit that it is only fair that I should do so in this case."

JOURNAL CADETS HOLD DRILL AND A PICNIC

CADET WILLIAM ANDERSON, Company H, First Regiment.

JOURNAL CADET DRILLS
Tonight, 7:30, University and Twelfth avenues SE, Company D, Second regiment.
Special drill Monday night, Company A, First regiment, and officers' school for all companies, in addition to the regular drills of Company B, First regiment and Company C, Second regiment, at the armory campus.

Three hundred Journal cadets, making five provisional companies, drilled this morning at the armory campus in battalion marching movements, including the formation for dress parade. Nearly half of the boys, acting upon the suggestion of Colonel Sprague in last Sunday's Journal, took their lunches and had a good picnic during the noon hour.

There were 450 cadets in line last night for the first march. Headed by the Journal Newsboys' band, they marched out to Lake street, where they witnessed the drill of Companies A, B, F and I of the First regiment, M. N. G., under the command of Captain A. W. Langdon. Battery B also came with its band, and there were many spectators.

There will be important announcements by Colonel Sprague to the cadets in tomorrow's Journal.

IN THE SAME GENERAL LINE.

"Druggstores sell ice cream, soda water, confectionery and a lot of other things that are not medicines," said the man who complains.
"That's true," answered the pharmacist. "But most of them are likely to lead to the consumption of medicines."

You can exchange your dollars and cents with H. G. Neal for awnings and tents. 245 Hennepin avenue.

FIXES HEARING DATE
State Railway Commission Will Resume Examination on June 20.
Examination of shippers in the rate hearing which is being conducted by the state railroad commission will be taken up again June 20. The taking of testimony will consume several days' time. Following the examination attorneys for the road will have an opportunity to cross-examine, final arguments will be made and the case taken under consideration.

DOCTORS VISIT ORIENT
Northwest Practitioners Plan Extended Trip to Far East.
Several carloads of doctors and their families will make the trip to the orient over the Great Northern road and the steamship Minnesota, starting from St. Paul and Minneapolis July 21 and returning to Seattle Oct. 5. One hundred doctors who have agreed to take the trip are from the vicinity of the twin cities, but Dr. A. J. Stone of St. Paul, one of the promoters of the trip, will extend an invitation to some of the eastern physicians while he is at the American Medical association meeting in Boston, June 5 to 8.

Quits Local Business.
Beginning June 10 the North Coast limited train of the Northern Pacific road will not handle local business this side of Fargo, except from the twin cities to Detroit. The arrangement is expected to expedite the transcontinental business. On the same date a dining car service will be established on the train leaving Minneapolis at 8:50 a.m.

RAILROAD NOTES.
The St. Louis road will bring four popular-price excursions to Minneapolis tomorrow. They will come from Storm Lake, Estherville, Peoria and Muscatine.
The Canadian Northern has sent out a crew of 200 men with an outfit to Erwood to begin work on the Hudson Bay line.
Present plans call for the completion of the Keeweenaw Central road in June month. Track-laying has started at the Lac La Belle end. Grading contracts are to be completed by August.
Mileage books which will be satisfactory to both railroads and commercial interest are said to have been agreed upon by the special committee of the Western Passenger association. A report will be made at the Tuesday meeting of the association in Chicago.
