Originality In Graduation Gifts

Originality should be the key note in the selection of a gift for this occasion. With this thought in view we have secured a large line which are very appropriate in Watches, Bracelets, Brooches, Pins, Etc., which we would be pleased to show you.

WELD & SONS, 524 Nicollet.

A Few Characteristics of the GIBSON MANDOLIN

Which makes it so justly popular: Artistic model—more easily held—no braces, blocks or cleats to impede vibration—no ribs to become unglued—special hand-carved bridge—so constructed as to overcome sharpening of strings in upper positions.

Come in and see our large line of latest models, which we have just received, and satisfy yourself as to the merits of this instrument before purchasing.

"A pretty woman's worth some pains to soo."—Browning.

Mrs. E. R. Barber entertained at a luncheon today at the Minnikahda club in compliment to Mrs. A. D. Mulford of Elizabeth, N. Y. who is visiting Mrs. H. H. Kimball. Mrs. Mulford resided in Minneapolis several years ago and the guests who had been invited to meet her were old-time friends. Covers were laid for eighteen and the arrangements for the luncheon included charming spring-flower decorations. After the luncheon bridge was played. Tomorrow Mrs. A. D. Mulford will be hostess in honor of Mrs. Mulford.

Tuesday a number of charming affairs were given at the Minnikahda club. Mrs. A. C. Paul entertained at an informal luncheon for eight guests, and it was followed by bridge. Mrs. W. S. Jones was hostess the same afternoon to a group of ten guests for a bridge luncheon. T. F. Wallace gave an informal dinner the evening and entertained the guests at bridge after dinner.

Mrs. E. J. Carpenter was hostess at a bridge luncheon yesterday afternoon. Covers were laid for luncheon and cards were played after luncheon.

Saturday afternoon and evening there will be music at the club and in the evening there will be the regular dinner dance. The Minnikahda club golf contingent will play the men of the Town and Country club on the latter's links in the afternoon, and a number of the men will come to the Minnikahda club in the evening to remain for dinner and dancing.

Mrs. Clarence Z. Brown gave a luncheon this afternoon at her home, 2 East Fourteenth street, in honor of Miss Lillian Bladon, whose marriage takes place early in June. Covers were laid for eight and the table was prettily arranged with clusters of spring blossoms.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. McDonald issued the invitations yesterday for the marriage of their daughter, Mabel Harriet, to John Enoch Oren, which will take place at the family residence, 1511 Eleventh avenue S., Sunday evening, June 6. Only the family and a group of college friends of the bride couple will witness the service which will be followed by a reception for a larger number of guests. Miss M. DeWalle will be her sister's maid of honor and Lawrence Holmberg will act as best man.

The marriage of Miss Verna Amelyn Huber and Christian John Whempner took place last evening at 8 o'clock in Hennepin Avenue church. Rev. Fayette L. Thompson read the service in the presence of a large gathering of friends. Professor Rhye-Herbert presided at the organ and played the "Lohengrin" wedding march as the bridal party entered. Miss Laura Green sang "Be- loved is Morn," and the recessional music was the Mendelssohn wedding march.

Miss Huber wore a gown of white chiffon, over ivory tulle, and trimmed with baby Irish lace and Valenciennes insertion. She carried a shower bouquet of iris blossoms and maidenhair ferns. Miss Mabel Hedemerk, the maid of honor, was in a pretty frock of white and blue, and Miss May Whempner and Louise Tavages were the bridesmaids. They wore white and the flowers were stately marguerites. William Lindstrom of Breckenridge was the best man, and Edward Whempner of Lake City and Lee Grove of Minneapolis were the ushers.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna F. Huber, on Highland avenue. The rooms were decorated with a mass of spring flowers and foliage, with clusters of peonies and lilacs arranged among the green ferns and vines. Miss Eva Evans, a cousin of the bride, presided at the frappe table. Mr. and Mrs. Whempner left this afternoon on an extended trip to the Pacific coast, by way of Vancouver and Victoria. They will be at home in Breckenridge after Aug. 1.

Yesterday afternoon, following the rehearsal, a luncheon was served at Dayton's tearooms. The decorations were ferns and pink tulle, and the favors were miniature photographs of the bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Whempner presented each of her maids with hand-some hats, and the little flower girl received a fan. The souvenirs which Mr. Whempner gave to his attendants were searfpins.

A pretty lake wedding took place at 6 o'clock last evening at the summer home of the bride, in Excelsior, when her daughter, Marion, became the bride of Ralph Milliken. The service was read by Rev. J. E. Bushnell of Westminster Presbyterian church in the presence of a small group of relatives. Miss Howe wore white silk, trimmed with lace, and her flowers were violets. There were no attendants. Purple lilacs and blue hydrangeas were the decoration in the living room, where the vows were exchanged. The window was banked with branches of lilacs and great clusters of lilacs formed an improvised altar. The soft light of tapers burning among the blossoms completed the simple but charming arrangement. After the service a supper was served. The decorations in the dining room were white lilac and woodbine.

Mr. and Mrs. Milliken left on a short wedding trip and they will be at home on their return, at 106 Spruce place. Mr. Milliken is a graduate of Northwestern University and formerly resided in Evanston.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Martens, daughter of Martin Martens, and George Herbert took place last evening at the home of the bride, 1208 Seventh street SE. Rev. Charles Hubbard read the service in the presence of twenty-five guests. Miss Josephine Martens officiated at the wedding music. The Mendelssohn wedding march was the professional and as the vows were spoken, Miss Martens played the "Spring Song." Miss Emma Martens was the maid of honor and Charles Hubbard was the best man. The rooms were decorated with pink roses, pink carnations, palms and ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert will be at home at 1050 Seventeenth avenue SE, after July 1.

A marriage which will bring a bride to Minneapolis took place yesterday when Miss Katherine Grant became the bride of Charles J. Moos. Mr. and Mrs. Moos have gone on an eastern wedding trip and will be at home at 2003 Commercial SE on their return.

The marriage of Miss Bessie W. Travis and Irving C. Stebbins took place last night at the home of the bride's parents, 3450 Lyndale avenue S. Rev. G. L. Morrill read the service in the presence of relatives.

Miss Hilda Turnquist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Turnquist, and Rev. N. C. Malmstedt of Ashland, Wis., married Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 2003 Commercial SE. The decorations were carried out with white and purple lilacs and ferns and the large bow window of the big room was a host of blossoms. Miss Clara Christopher was the maid of honor, and Miss Esther Gustafson was the bridesmaid. Miss Christopher wore cream net over tulle, and her flowers were pink roses. Miss Gustafson wore a princess gown of white silk with tulle and lace applique, and held a bouquet of pink roses. The gown was in princess style, with a full train and a lace bodice. Her full veil was caught with a spray of lilacs of the valley and the same flowers were in the bridal bouquet. Elmer Turnquist was the best man.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. N. Polson, 413 Knox avenue. The relatives and intimate friends, Easter lilies blossomed in the dining room and white roses and ferns were used in the living room, and in the reception room. Mr. and Mrs. Malmstedt were in charge of the arrangements.

The Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity will be entertained at dinner tomorrow at the Minnesota club in St. Paul, by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Baird.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sherer will entertain a group of St. Paul friends at dinner this evening.

The dancing party of the Sigma Chi fraternity in Mrs. Noble's ball room last evening was one of the pretty events of the season. College pennants in the fraternity colors, white and blue, made an appropriate decoration in the hall. Frappe was served from small tables in the reception room, where spring blossoms made a dainty setting. The fifty hosts and their guests were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Carnahan, St. Paul. Harold Porter and Edwin Clapp were in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. D. J. Ahern entertained Tuesday afternoon at her home, 3141 Pleasant avenue, in honor of Miss Margaret Morley of Eden Prairie, whose marriage to Frank Wren will take place June 6. Covers at the luncheon were laid for forty, and the decorations were in white and purple. The bride was presented with many dainty gifts, which were brought to her in Cupid's chariot, drawn by little Bernadette Kavanaugh and Re-saline Kelley, and driven by Alice Wren. After the luncheon, Miss Morley and Miss E. Kelley, Edward Witzig, Mrs. Kavanaugh, Miss B. McGraw and Miss Rogers.

Miss Clara Kriedman was the honor guest at a dinner last evening given by Mrs. C. Ewald at her home on Lake Harriet. The rooms were decorated with foliage and great bunches of purple lilacs. Covers were laid for twenty. The guests were Misses Clara Kriedman, Emma Miller, Pauline Schmidt, Anna Taubert, Emma Huxman, Elvse Dowidat, Olga Jack, Barbara Hirro, Elizabeth Schmidt and Eva Huxman. Misses Taubert and Huxman assisted as hostesses. Miss Krinning is one of the brides of May and after dinner she was showered with dainty gifts.

Mrs. Anna Eggers entertained Tuesday at a luncheon at her home, 2712 Bloomington avenue. Lilacs decorated parlor and library and large vases of the same flowers were in the dining room. The centerpiece for the table was also of lilacs. Mrs. C. H. Smith was the guest of honor. Covers were laid for twelve. Several musical numbers were given by Miss Eggers after luncheon.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

A District Meeting.

The twenty-seventh semi-annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Minneapolis district, was held in the Thirteenth avenue M. E. church, Tuesday. The morning session was devoted to business. The addresses of the afternoon were "A Visit to Mexico," by Mrs. George Taylor, and a description of some phases of the work in China, by Mrs. Irish, formerly a missionary in that country, now a worker in the northwestern branch. A debate on the relative opportunity for missionary work in Japan and China, by four university young people, closed the day.

Teachers' Club Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Walker entertained the members of the Teachers' club in their beautiful home last evening, opening the art galleries for their pleasure and profit. In spite of the threatening weather more than 200 guests were present. Mr. Walker escorted groups thru the galleries, adding much to the interest of the occasion by his graphic descriptions of pictures and artists. Roses lent their brightness and fragrance to dining room and halls. The guests were met by Miss Kathryn Youngs, who introduced them to the receiving party, which included Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. George Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Walker, Mrs. Gilbert Walker, Dr. and Mrs. C. M. DO YOU WASH YOUR HAIR?

To persons who wash their own hair the WANOUS SHAMPOO-BAG is a great boon—saves time, as one washing and rinsing only is required; makes shampooing pleasant, as the distinct, agreeable, refreshing, cleans more thoroughly than soap, contains no injurious ALKALI, as soap does, leaves hair delightfully soft and sweet, is a food for the hair, and makes hair grow. Price 10c each, six for 50c. If your dealer cannot supply you, will prepare any address.
