PROGRAM COMPLETE FOR MEMORIAL DAY

MORNING DEVOTED TO DECORATION OF GRAVES. Parade in Afternoon Promises to Be Best in History of Custom and Will Be Participated in by Nearly Every Military and Civil Society in City—Program in Full.

Memorial Day will be beautifully celebrated in Minneapolis. As usual business and work will cease and the people will observe the day set apart to the memory of the soldiers and sailors who fought for the preservation of the union.

The morning will be devoted to services at the various cemeteries in and about the city, in which lie 1,600 veterans. Over each grave is placed a small American flag. The exercises of the day include the decoration of the grave with a wreath and flowers.

In the afternoon will be held the customary Memorial Day parade and the general service, which will be held this year at Plymouth church, Nicollet avenue and Eighth street.

The morning exercises will be held as follows: Lakewood Cemetery. Marshal of Parade, M. Kees.

Assignments as follows: George N. Morgan Post No. 4; George N. Morgan W. R. C. No. 4; John A. Reilly Post No. 129; Jacob Schaefer Post No. 163; Jacob Schaefer W. R. C. No. 36; L. P. ENCAMPMENT BRINGS UNHEARD-OF ORDERS

NEW ONE REPORTS TO EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. The A. S. U. R. F. and U. E. Stands for Circle of Nerve Fighters Who Helped to Crack Confederacy's Backbone—Many Allied Organizations Plan to Hold Annual Meeting Here.

Among the many allied and auxiliary associations of the Grand Army of the Republic that will gather in Minneapolis during encampment week for annual convocations will be a number of organizations that are seldom heard of by others than veterans and their most intimate friends. Many of these allied organizations have already reported for quarters to the executive committee, but an entirely new one was heard from yesterday. The Association of Survivors of the Mississippi Ram Fleet and Marine Brigade will hold its annual meeting here at the same time as the G. A. R.

The A. S. M. R. F. and M. B. is an organization composed of veterans who took part in the breaking of the backbone of the confederacy in the campaign of the Mississippi. The association has 500 members has national headquarters at St. Louis. The executive committee is asked to arrange for quarters and meeting places for the association during the encampment.

Great Story Tellers. Many of the most interesting stories and experiences of the encampment gatherings and camp fires will be told by members of these special organizations. All members of these special organizations are also members or eligible to membership in the G. A. R. At the encampment, however, former comrades in arms who have not seen one another for years, and in many cases since the close of the war, will meet once more and relate their common experiences in the stirring days of the war. Special ties will bind them to one another and the days of the encampment will be pleasant ones filled with memories of old associations and of comrades who have responded to "taps" for the last time. Among the allied organizations that will meet in Minneapolis during encampment week and hold sessions will be the Woman's Relief Corps, Ladies of the G. A. R., Sons of Veterans, Daughters of Veterans, National Association of Naval Veterans, National Association of Union Ex-Prisoners of War, National Association of Army Nurses, National Association of Civil War Musicians, United Veterans League, Survivors of the Battle of Shiloh, and others.

GREEDY TOMATO TRUST IS SHORN OF POWER

Merchants Contract for Summer Supply at Old Prices, and Consumers Are Assured of Abundance. Minneapolis has been saved from the greedy grasp of the so-called tomato trust by the foresight of her merchants. The attempt of the alleged stiffs of competition has been foiled, and thru the providence of Minneapolis vegetable dealers the lovers of the festive sliced tomato will be allowed to indulge their appetites during the coming summer the same as of yore.

There will be no advance in the price of the luscious fruit and the deep red slices that are so dear to epicures will be within the easy reach of dwellers in cottages as well as in palaces and will this summer, as in the past, grace the kitchen table as well as the polished mahogany.

This is true notwithstanding the fact that the tomato trust has served notice on the trade of its intention to live up to the announced plan of raising the price of standard tomatoes 2 1/2 cents on three-pound lots. The Minneapolis retailers have already contracted for their summer supply and they have contracted for them at the same price that they gave last season.

This is a relief to the worried consumers and not only will it insure the moderate price of the summer supply but it will prevent the raise of the price of the canned goods and insure the presence in even the lowliest homes of the ornamental tomato can with all its possibilities of flower pot, backyard and dog-tail utility.

In the effete east it is different. The eastern dealers have in many localities yielded to the trust influence and the price has soared in accordance. The merchants there have not the stamina or the foresight of Minneapolis distributors of the summer beauties and the result is anything but pleasant.

WISE CHABON.

Chicago News. Chabon was observed to be excited. "What now?" asked the marine reporter on the Stix. "Why," replied the ancient ferry man, "I must hurry and get out pen and paper."

WHO IS COMING?

"Delegation from Indiana. I know they are all authors."

ASHMORE CLUB'S FURNITURE FOR SALE

I have just purchased the entire furnishings of the famous Ashmore Club, which flourished for about three months in this city last fall. On Monday morning, May 28, I will put all this furniture on sale at just about one-half price. This is an opportunity that may never come to Minneapolis again. For no matter how much the authorities objected to the practices of this Club, they certainly could not object to the quality of its furniture. Most of this furniture is solid mahogany. All the chairs, davenport and couches are upholstered in heavy black leather of the richest quality. The Ashmore Club had the secret reputation of being the finest furnished place of the kind west of New York. It only ran for three months and the furniture looks brand new. Everything is here at nearly half. I have the furniture all together on my main floor. It will only take you a few minutes to come down and look it over.

HERE IS A PARTIAL LIST OF THE FURNITURE

- 25 Heavy Library Chairs, upholstered in black leather. Some of these are straight, but most of them are rockers. Just the thing for your library or den. Original price was from $50 to $55. For sale for from $25 to $50.
1 Solid Mahogany Office Table, 8 feet by 40 inches. This table is probably the finest office table ever shipped to Minneapolis. It originally cost $110. Now for sale for $55.
1 Rich Carved Sideboard, large size; cost $250; for sale for $135.
1 Colonial Buffet in oak; cost $45; for sale for $26.

I will put these all on sale Monday morning. If you want any of this furniture you must come in and see it early, for this is an opportunity that will be taken advantage of.

MORRIS TREVOR, Proprietor.

OFFICIAL PROCLAMATION

Governor Johnson Advises General Observance of Memorial Day. The following Memorial Day proclamation was yesterday issued by Governor J. A. Johnson:

More than forty years have passed since the close of the great civil war. And while the memory of the battle-scarred veterans, who by their valor and devotion to the union, bore the heaviest burden of the war, has not been forgotten, the memory of the brave men who have since that time have sacrificed their lives in defense of the nation's integrity are recalled in special services of love and reverence.

John A. Johnson, governor of the state of Minnesota, therefore set apart and do recommend and urge that all state and municipal officials, and in so far as practical business of whatever nature be laid aside for the observance of the day and its blessed memories.

Especially do I exhort as the younger generation that the day be regarded in its truest sense as one to revive the memories of our departed heroes, permitting nothing to divert the high purposes which the brave fathers dedicated to us.

John A. Johnson, Governor.

SAW MINNEAPOLIS RIGHT

New York Man Impressed with Minneapolis and its Environs. "These Journal touring cars are the best I have ever seen for sightseeing purposes," said J. K. Rose, a prominent New Yorker who was looking over Minneapolis a day or two ago. "The big, unweildy, public cars that are so numerous in New York make one feel as if he was in a circus parade. These newspaper cars are certainly luxuriously comfortable and practically private."

Mr. Rose was greatly impressed with Minneapolis, both as a business and a home city. The beautiful lakes within the corporate limits were quite a revelation to the New Yorker who saw the city from a Journal touring car.

The Love of Music is universal. All people of all times have paid tribute to the Goddess of Music. How often have we heard people say after listening to a fine performer—"I would give worlds to be able to play the piano like that." This is a thing of the past. It doesn't take worlds now, but only a reasonable number of dollars to own a Knabe-Angelus and you can play the piano as well as the artist. Truly we are living in a wonderful age. The Knabe-Angelus is the beautiful Knabe piano with the wonderful Angelus hidden away in its case. Takes up no more room than the ordinary piano. The Knabe-Angelus is pre-eminently the leader of all player pianos. We will take your old instrument as part payment and if desired time payments can be arranged for the balance. You are welcome to call and hear the Knabe-Angelus. Foster & Waldo 36 5th Street South Corner Nicollet Avenue
