STATE MUSIC TEACHERS TO MEET

An event of importance to the music teachers of the state and to the musicians of the twin cities, is the approaching fifth annual meeting of the Minnesota State Music Teachers' association. directed by E. C. Lawton, formerly of the Epiphany church in Chicago, but for the past year in charge of the music at St. Paul's.

The choral work was unusually good and spoke volumes for the careful work and thorough musicianship of the new director. The "Song of the Tritons" and the "Soldiers' Chorus" from "Faust" were especially pleasing. Miss Pearce's numbers were delightful, especially "Moon and Night" and "Coven." Miss Love's readings were greatly appreciated and she was instantly endorsed. Matthew Crawford, the boy soprano of the choir, made a hit with "Rhapsody," "Victors" and "O Hear the Wild Winds Blow" very effectively.

The club will repeat Elgar's "Snow" to be sung with the two violin obligatos, which will be played as at the annual concert, by the Girls' Glee club of the University Golden. The two other numbers to be given are the arrangement of Kjerulf's "Last Night" and the "Carmina."

MINNEAPOLIS BEST LONDON HOTEL

Costliest Hostelery of British Capital Will Cater to Aristocratic Conservatives.

New York Herald Special Cable Service. Copyright, 1906, by the New York Herald.

London, May 26.—Today one of the most wonderful buildings London has yet seen opens to the public. It is the new Ritz hotel. Built on the site occupied by the Wallingham house, this new building is far and away eclipses any other hotel here in point of its luxury.

A dining room in gold is a marvel of beauty, while the vast long corridor, with Savonnerie carpet, which cost 208,000 francs, has at the center opposite the main entrance a glorious palm garden, with a fountain at the back with rarely sculptured bronze figures in pure Louis XVI style.

There will be no music. Every other hotel-restaurant in London today has music. Some people like it; others hate it. People who come to live in a hotel for a long period get terribly tired of the band day after day. Such residents are expected to form the majority of the clients of the new Ritz. They will not be forced to listen to music which they do not care about. There will be no suppers served. In other words, the management does not wish to attract that somewhat gray and giddy section of transients which rush in to feed and rush out.

The action of Carter's Little Liver Pills is pleasant, mild and natural. They gently stimulate the liver and regulate the bowels, but do not purge. They are sure to please. Try them.

Everybody wants a "Square Deal." Insist on getting a "Square Deal."
