

Officers of the association assisted the ladies of the Thursday Musical, and to the delegates and visitors at Commercial club. The Frederick W. lectures will come at 4:30 Friday afternoon, and at the close of the Saturday evening musical program. Saturday morning will be devoted to the business of the association, while Saturday afternoon will be given over to recreation.

The big feature of the convention is of course the concert Friday evening by Charles W. Clark, baritone, Miss Mary Angell, pianist. Mr. Clark is one of the three finest baritone voices in the world and his coming is an event of great importance. Miss Angell made many friends by her splendid playing here last winter, when she appeared in recital, and is sure of a warm welcome. The roof lectures will be willingly missed by any of the teachers.

BEFORE THE "BIENNIAL."

Miss Edna F. Hall will appear before the biennial Monday, June 4, at 4 p. m., at St. Agathe conservatory, 150 Exchange street, St. Paul. Miss Angell will be at the piano. Miss Hall will have the assistance of Marie von Schulz, concert pianist to her majesty queen of Rumania, who is making her second American tour in recital. Miss Schulz is a pupil of Leschetitzky and Venhagen at Weimar. She has recited at the Austrian court, Berlin, and at the court of the emperor of Rumania, at Bucharest, London and before president at Washington.

ST. OLAF'S BAND.

The St. Olaf College Brass band of 15 pieces, made up of students of the college, is an organization which has some time past had an excellent reputation in a musical sense. The members, since making their plan for a tour of Norway this summer, have not all their spare time on their instruments, and will probably astonish their warmest admirers when their concert in Minneapolis is given next Thursday evening at the Harmonium.

Their trip in Norway has not been arranged exclusively as a concert tour, but places of historical interest will be visited, as for instance, the Elidsdal building, in which the Norwegian thing met for the first time, and on July 17, 1814, framed the Norwegian constitution. A banquet will be tendered to the students at this place, and a concert will be given for all the people of the surrounding district.

The battlefield of Stiklestad, where the Helig Olaf was killed and where a monument has been erected in his honor, will be another historical point. The band will tender a free concert, and words will be said at the monument that many thousand people may be expected to attend. At Lillehammer, poet Bjornstjerne Bjornsen has missed to meet and address the band; a concert will also be given in the d'Arme on the historical fortification of Fredriksten.

German emperor is going to his summer vacation on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, around the coast of Norway, and it is expected that the band on board their chartered steamer Lofoten will meet him and play for him at Gudvangen in the Sognefjord.

Several concerts have to be given in parks, as few concert halls exist large enough for a band of such numbers. To guard against inclement weather, an American circuit tent seating 6,000 persons will be brought from this country.

On June 7, at the Auditorium concert, an American silk flag donated by General S. E. Olson, will be presented to the band, and it is hoped that Governor Johnson will make the speech of presentation.

The sale of seats opens tomorrow morning at the Metropolitan Music store.

MISS FILLMORE GRADUATES.

Margaret Fillmore of Winnetka, and pupil of Mr. Krieger of the Northwestern conservatory will give her graduating recital at Studio Arcade hall, 804 Nicollet avenue, next Tuesday evening. Miss Fillmore will be assisted by Mrs. Hartway, soprano. The following program will be given: Sonata D. (from an old MS.). Scarlatti Sonata Op. Allegro, adagio, allegretto. Miss Fillmore.

Scene and Præf. from "Der Freischuetz"..... Weber
Gavotte, Intermzzo Op. 117, No. 2..... Brahms
Scherzo..... Mendelssohn
Pezetto..... Weber
"Rosamunde"..... Chamaine
"Smashing Song"..... Grieg
"If I Were a Bird"..... Henselt
Delicate Intermzzo..... Leschetitzky
"Hark! Hark! the Lark"..... Schubert
Valse le Ball..... Rubinstein
Miss Fillmore.

MRS. GREAVES' PUPILS.

Mrs. Florence A. Greaves presented a group of her pupils in a piano recital at her home, Humboldt and Lincoln avenues S, Friday evening, May 25. The rooms, which had been charmingly decorated, were filled with the relatives and friends of the young performers, each of them won golden opinions for faithful effort and good work. Those who participated were: Misses Ruby Kreisel, Hazel Wolkow, Leone Connolly, Florence Riley, Vera Beare, Yvonne Smith, Laura McCann, Marie Marguerite A. Campbell, Annie Pederson and Gladys Wyman and Masters Ralph Kreisel, Carleton Nash, Grant Mallon, Arthur McLean, Alfred Mallon, Joe Husham and Rossie Bowling.

Miss Bessie Crane added to the enjoyment of the evening with a charming violin number and encore.

MISS WILKINS' GRADUATES.

Miss Maud Wilkins, a pupil of the Hattie A. Wolf School for Piano and study, will give her graduating recital at the Lyndale Congregational church next Wednesday evening, assisted by

FREDERIC W. ROOT.
Who Will Lecture Saturday Evening.

Miss Louise Hickey, contralto. Miss Wilkins has arranged a fine program and one well calculated to display her proficiency in the realm of piano music. The Mozart "Fantasy and Sonata" in C minor, will open the program, Miss Wolff playing the Grieg arrangement for the second piano. The Mendelssohn "Rondo" will close the evening. Miss Hickey has selected three charming songs to add to the pleasure of the evening.

POPULAR SINGING CLASSES.

Last week closed the season devoted to the popular singing classes thruout the city, which were inaugurated last fall. We had the attendance, which was large as had been hoped, the students crowded made up in earnestness and study the lack in numbers. Of the fifteen classes started, ten completed the course, with an average attendance of 70 per cent of the enrollment. The reduction in numbers was caused by consolidation, three of the instructors being obliged thru stress of circumstances, to give up the tuition.

As it is, the small tuition fee has paid the rental of the chapels and has left a small sum over for the instructors, a much smaller sum than they would engage to do the work for, from a professional standpoint, but sufficient in view of the great educational value of their labors.

The season's study has been uniform in all the schools and has been strictly a campaign in sight reading. In many cases essays were prepared under the supervision of the teacher, and the question box proved a valuable adjunct. The sessions have been devoted to hard work and the social features which were expected in many cases were conspicuous by their absence. This caused many who were sympathetic to the cause to drop out, but owing to the excellence of the results secured.

Taken as a whole, the work has been educating, not only to the public, but to the instructors as well. The work has aroused the churches to the feasibility of the scheme, and at least one large church is considering the adoption of a permanent singing school where of the past and its equipment. Willard Patten, who from the first has been sponsor for the movement, has received many letters of encouragement from pastors and citizens, and his success in carrying out his plan originally made.

MR. WILSON'S RECITAL.

F. R. Wilson, tenor, of this city, gave a well-arranged and successful program last Friday evening, at Oak hall, in St. Paul. The program consisted of songs from the works of Schumann, Schubert, Raff, Gomod, and a group of English songs, and afforded a fine treat to the audience which consisted largely of the friends of the tenor. Mr. Wilson's singing was thoroughly appreciated and reflected great credit upon him. Miss Jane Webster accompanied Mr. Wilson in a delightful manner.

JOHNSON SCHOOL GRADUATES.

Miss Jane Ann Hughes of LeSueur, and Misses Louise Smith and Melina Meland, both of this city, will give a graduation recital at the Auditorium of the Johnson school tomorrow evening, assisted by Knute Petersen, a pupil of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Smith. The program to be given will be composed of the works of Chopin, Jensen, Wieniawski, Mendelssohn, Johnson, Raff and the Liszt arrangement of Mendelssohn's "Spring March."

Misses Esther Hansen, Belle Woolly, Annie Swenson and Nephel Stearns McAllister will give their graduating recital on Friday evening at the same place, assisted by Misses Elizabeth Gerard and Lotta Gray. Schumann, Liszt, Paderewski, Liszt, Meland, Chopin, Bartlett, Mendelssohn, Leschetitzky, Schmitt, Schermer, Sapellnick and Rheincke will also contribute to the program to be rendered.

THE SWEDISH SINGERS.

The Swedish National Chorus of Y. M. C. A. of Stockholm is likely to create quite a stir by its concert at the Auditorium June 28. The Orpheus club, of this city, will probably be invited for the reception and entertainment of the singers from afar, and will call upon the Y. M. C. A. of Minneapolis to assist.

The Swedish singers at the Y. M. C. A. building, which will be thrown open for them during their stay here. The following committee has been read to appoint: On tickets—C. R. Holmen, chairman, Aaron Carlson, Nicholas Ericsson, J. J. Graaf, Cornell Lagerstrom, Knute Ekman, Miss Lydia Norrell, Harry Lund, Alfred Backdahl, J. O. Peterson, Miss Ellen Erickson, Victor Rodin, Mrs. Hilda DeGoren, E. G. Dahl, Emil Anderson, Oscar W. Vander, on reception—Governor John Lind, J. J. Graaf, C. J. Swanson, Swan Curran, C. O. Aug. J. J. Graaf, August Soterling, Carl Ekman, Rev. Olof Bengtson, C. C. Bennett, Dr. Victor Nilsson, A. J. Skoog, Rev. A. E. Skogbergh, August Carlson, Charles Hedvall, N. S. Hagner, Charles J. Johnson, Louis Gagnon, Victor A. Johnson, Ernest Bergquist, Dr. A. M. Elmquist, E. L. Mattson, Dr. C. E. Moody, A. Paulson, P. P. Quist, Dr. C. J. Birnall, A. W. Benson, Harry S. Swenson.

Further plans will be made at a conference to be held on Tuesday between the Orpheus committee and the directors of the Y. M. C. A.

MISS BUCKMAN'S PROGRAM.

The piano recital of Miss Eleanor Buckman at the Metropolitan Music store, last Monday evening, was a charming affair, displaying her progress in a satisfying manner. One of the greatest favorites was Godeard's "En Courant," which was given with a fine spirit and a technique. Another fine number was the Moszkowski "Waltz," which was given with fine rhythmic swing. Miss Buckman's work shows a bright future, and gives promise of a bright future, musically speaking.

MINNESOTA LADIES' QUARTET.

Under the able management of Mrs. H. N. K. all the Minnesotan ladies' quartet, of which she is a member, is becoming a prominent factor in the musical life of the north-west. Assisted by Mrs. Josephine Bonaparte, the quartet gave a very delightful entertainment at St. Mary's hall, Fairbairn, a week ago Friday evening. The hall was crowded and the quartet was very enthusiastically received. During the summer the quartet will be largely occupied with Chautauque engagements, and will sing in the Minnesotan appearances in the east are now pending.

WITH SINGERS AND ORCHESTRA.

And now comes the word that Leoncavallo, the great Italian composer, is coming to America next fall, when he will bring with him a company of vocalists now being selected in Italy, and the La Scala orchestra, which will direct productions of his own works, and the Minnesotan must retain the season's tournee will last but nine weeks since the orchestra must return to Milan for the opening of the operahouse season, December 20.

MISS DREW'S PUPILS.

A pleasant recital, as that given by the piano pupils of Miss Margaret M. Drew last Friday evening, at the Harmonium, was arranged that each of the participants was afforded an opportunity to demonstrate the progress in the art of music, and the proficiency attained. The fine results of Miss Drew's instruction were apparent. Those who participated were Misses Julia Zanger, Laura Carman, Ruth McDonald, Alice Henson, Edith McDonald, Marjory Hewitt, Louise De La Barre and Helen Peterson.

The vocal numbers were given by Miss Kathryn Watkins, soprano, whose artistic singing and clear, pure voice were greatly enjoyed.

CHOIR BOYS' CONCERT.

Next Thursday evening the choir boys of All Saints Episcopal church will give their annual concert at St. Mark's Parish house, and as the proceeds go to defray the expenses of the annual outing for the ladies are naturally expecting all their friends and acquaintances to rally to their support.

The choir consists of forty-five men and boys, who compose the regular vested choir, and on this occasion they will be assisted by a quartet consisting of Mrs. Smith, Miss Rice and Messrs. Ansell and Burnside. Miss Rice will also contribute two readings to the pleasure of the evening. Alfred Randall, the boy soprano, whose beautiful clear and sweet voice has delighted so many listeners, will sing a solo. The choir and Master Randall have both been trained entirely by John Lyons, director and organist at All Saints.

The entire program is as follows:

- PART I.
- "Oh Who Will Over the Downs So Free".....De Pearsall
 - Choir.
 - Quartet, "Spring Song".....Pearsall

HERE AND THERE.

Rita Newman, for two years associated with the Savanor, has been engaged as one of the vocalists of the Grand Opera company. She will study with Jean de Reszke in Paris during the summer.

Miss Emma Hansen has contracted to sing with the Metropolitan Grand Opera company next season.

The Cincinnati orchestra season has closed with a deficit of but $3,354.

Charles W. Clark, who is to sing here this week Friday evening, expects to leave for America this week, and will probably return for an extended tour next season. While in Minneapolis he will be the guest of his cousin, Miss Mamie Edson.

The last act in a pretty romance took place when Judge Skinvik united Gunder Hansen and Olette Glettum. The happy pair were lovers in Denmark twelve years ago, and decided to make America their home. Seven years ago the bridegroom came to America and has since worked hard to provide a home for his bride. A few weeks ago he sent for her and the happy marriage took place today.

The state has accepted the bond issue and proposes to loan to the city $25,000, to be used for the following purposes: $10,000 to take up outstanding warrants, $8,000 as a permanent improvement fund and $7,000 for a permanent improvement revolving fund. The last two funds will be used for the construction of a sewer system.

THE JOURNAL.

Official Paper of the City.

FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1881.

A newspaper that takes things for granted sometimes get left badly, as for instance the St. Paul Dispatch, which the other day essayed to give an account of Decoration day exercises in Minneapolis and said "The line of march as mapped out by the committees was adhered to and the walks along the route were crowded with all classes. The address by Professor Tousey was listened to with marked attention," etc., etc. The line of march was not adhered to, there was no procession, no crowds on the streets and Professor Tousey did not deliver his address until evening.

The names of District Judge Vanderburgh and William Loehren, Esq., are most frequently mentioned as successors to the late F. R. E. Cornell on the supreme bench. The bar and the people of this district would regret to lose Judge Vanderburgh from the bench, but would be gratified at his deserved promotion. All concede Mr. Loehren's qualifications, but he is a democrat and Governor Pillsbury has already appointed one democrat, Judge Mitchell of Winona, to the supreme bench.

The printing of the new testament as a supplement by the Chicago Times was a losing speculation. The scripture reading public was as suspicious of it as if it had been published by the devil.

COMMENCEMENT

The Day of Days for Class of '81 at the University.

The ninth annual commencement of the Minnesota state university, occurred yesterday morning at the chapel. Miss Margaret A. Campbell delivered the salutatory, choosing for her subject, "The Merchant of Venice."

The other graduates who read essays and their subjects were:

Samuel G. Anderson, Eden Prairie, "Character"; O. W. Baldwin, Clear Lake, "The Suspension of the Habeas Corpus"; F. L. Baldwin, Minneapolis, "The Decay of Nations"; H. H. Bannell, Hutchinson, "The Duty of Education"; Herbert Broughton, Minneapolis, "Why Burke Was Not in the Whig Cabinet"; W. C. Bryant, St. Peter, "Little Men in Large Affairs"; Dinna Burns, Minnetonka, "Nathaniel Hawthorne"; Herbert Chown, Minneapolis, "The French Revolution"; Lettie May Crane, Minneapolis, "Lessing"; Emma E. Grimes, Minnetonka, "Greatness"; George S. Grimes, Minnetonka, "Institutions"; W. E. Harrington, Hutchinson, "Organization"; Emma E. Hough, Philadelphia, "Rienzi"; Charles E. Kent, Minneapolis, "Hansel"; W. L. King, Garden City, "The Greek Revolution"; D. A. Locke, Minneapolis, "The Indian Question"; Emma E. Moes, Minneapolis, "Lady Macbeth"; Sarah E. Palmer, Shell Lake, "The House that Jack Built"; Bradley Phillips, Jr., Hudson, "American Character"; Q. J. Rowley, Oakland, "Worthiness of Wealth"; W. H. Savidge, Clear Lake, "Freedom and Slavery in America"; Fred S. Taylor, Minnetonka, "The Fall of the Bastille"; Lila Williams, Brooklyn, "The Ministry of Nature"; George B. Alton, St. Peter, "The Culture Practical."

Wednesday was the day. W. H. Savidge, class president, presented the class historian, Miss Sarah E. Palmer. On the start, she said the class numbered sixty-eight, but now is twenty-seven strong. The class measures in length, 18 1/2 feet, to 6 1/2 years old, and weighs 3,975 pounds. The oldest member is 28, and the youngest 19.

The class song, followed by W. C. Bryant in a poem, "The Silent Force," led to the address of W. L. King, the class orator. "Zum" absolved by the class, was followed by the class prophecy by Q. J. Rowley. The class had "One More River to Cross," which enabled Miss Lila Williams to make the faculty in the address of the book of orders. The president gave up the class knife, and the audience went out on the campus to plant the class tree.

The alumni elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Stephen Mahoney; vice president, A. W. Rankin; secretary, Viola Fuller; treasurer, E. C. Chaffield; toastmaster, Addison Gage, Jr.; poet, E. P. A. Nix; orator, William West.

TALK OF THE TOWN

The suspension bridge is to be replanked and repainted.

Joe Trussone is enough better to warrant the surgeon in taking him to St. Paul tomorrow.

It is expected the first train on the motor extension to Lake Minnetonka will be run into Excelsior on Fourth of July.

Frank E. Steele is going to put up another large warehouse, this time on the part of the present laymarket which the city has leased to him.

J. W. Booth has been appointed superintendent of the northwestern Western Union telegraph office, vice Le Roy Robertson.

On Friday Governor Pillsbury formally tendered to J. M. Shaw, of the firm of Shaw, Levi & Cray, a seat on the supreme bench, made vacant by the death of Judge Cornell.

The eight avenue cars are running today in all their splendid splendor. The drivers all wore button hole bouquets on account of its being opening day.

The Northwestern Foundry is about to be enlarged. The business, under the management of the proprietor, G. Menzel & Co., has outgrown its present quarters.

Winecke & Doerr have done it up brown this time. They have come out with a light delivery wagon that is being everywhere the sort in the state of Minnesota.

Cale Mauldin made 142 out of 150 at the 800, 900 and 1,000-yard ranges at Milwaukee and wears the championship medal. It is solid silver, gold lined, engraved with his name and record.

A telephone system connecting with the city will be around Lake Minnetonka this season. The St. Louis, Lake and Western and Arlington houses in the Academy of Music and Minnetonka Mills will be on the line.

Architect J. K. Wilson has prepared drawings for the proposed city hospital, which contemplates a brick structure two stories high, 37x73 feet in size. The probable cost is $2,000, but as the amount available is but $5,000, Mr. Wilson has arranged his plan so that only one-half of the building may be erected now.

Nellie McHenry, the popular leader of the old Metropolitan band, afterward united with the Zouave band, has now reorganized it under the old name of the Metropolitan, engaged the tallest drum major in the west, increased the music to a full orchestra, and will return to the band office at 225 Third street N. The displacement of Le Roy Robinson from the management of this telegraph office at Minneapolis seems like the removal of an old landmark. He has had charge of the office ever since the Northwestern company had a line here, and his uniform courtesy and faithfulness have won him a host of friends.

BOYTON'S TRIP

Will Float Over a Thousand Miles Down the Mississippi.

Captain Paul Boyton, the famous swimmer and diver, was in town yesterday shaking hands with some old friends. He is a tall, fine looking man, broad-shouldered, with black hair and a piercing eye. He was the recipient of marked attention wherever he went.

This morning shortly after 10 o'clock at St. Paul he entered upon his voyage down the Mississippi, with himself as sole craft, captain, crew, passenger, compass and steam whistle.

At 11 o'clock he fired his first signal rocket and immediately took to water and paddled down stream forced by several boats. When opposite Johnson street, Boyton fired his third rocket, then bidding adieu, started on his long voyage. He expects to make sixty miles a day until his voyage of 1,008 miles is accomplished, when he will land at Cairo. Success to him.

AMUSEMENTS

Pence Operahouse was full to its capacity last night, on the occasion of the benefit to Miss Phosa McAllister. Her Juliet in the "Hunchback" was a triumph for that triumphant actress. The singing "The Art So Near, and I So Far," volunteered by Professor Hunneman between the acts, was heartily encored.

Haverly's Mastodons played to one of the largest audiences ever gathered in the Academy of Music. The entertainment is unique and possessed the charm of newness, a combination that is seldom met with in a minstrel show.

Charley Parslow will Europe this summer.

Robert McWade and company have sailed for Australia.

Tony Pastor is to have a new theater in New York that will seat 3,000 people.

Nellie McHenry (Mrs. John Webster) has an offer of $250 a week from McKee Rankin to play a part in "49" next season.

There were 1,700 in the Academy of Music to see Haverly's Mastodons.

Frank E. Cotter, the new local actor, beyond being very stagey, is an excellent artist.

THE OLD SETTLERS

The Old Settlers' society held its annual banquet yesterday at St. Paul. The neurological report, made by General Sibley, showed that during the year Ferdinand Montel, J. C. Ramsey, St. Paul; William Burklo, Stillwater; and Franklin Steele, Minneapolis, had departed this life. The following were elected officers:

President, S. P. Folsom, St. Paul.

Vice presidents, R. Chute, Minneapolis; James Shearer, Washington county.

Secretary, A. Goodrich, St. Paul.

Treasurer, Dr. Murphy, St. Paul.

Corresponding secretary, J. P. Williams, St. Paul.

ABOUT THE STATE

The Freeman's club is the name of an organization at Lake City, whose members can quaff in quiet liquors purchased at the regular price. It has a large membership.

Professor Koling of Gustavus Adolphus college, at St. Peter, has severed his connection with that institution on account of ill health, and will go back to Virginia.
