In response to the invitation of the state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Mrs. J. E. Bell, the visiting daughters of the United States, who are in St. Paul, attending the biennial the General Federation of Women's clubs, went to Mrs. Bell's charming summer home on Gideon's Bay, Lake Minnetonka, this afternoon. The reception hours were from 3 to 5 o'clock, and on the arrival of the motor cars, the steamer Victor took the party on board and after a pleasant tour around Big Island landed at the Bell country home. Mrs. Bell received her guests assisted by the regent of the Minneapolis and St. Paul chapters—Mrs. R. F. Goodwin of Minneapolis chapter, Mrs. C. Johnson of Colonial chapter, Mrs. E. W. W. of Mount Vernon chapter, Miss Olive May Brooks of Keewaydin chapter, Minneapolis, Mrs. J. B. Baird of St. Paul chapter, Mrs. Hall of Nathan Hale chapter, and Miss Beaumont of Mifflin chapter. The officers of the chapters are Mrs. J. E. Minor and Mrs. Frank B. Stone.

Charming decorations marked the event. Having a greeting from the hostess, the party entered the dining room, where a huge flag in the national colors, and after a walk thru arcades of trees and budding flowers the guests were greeted by a group of assisting women on the piazza, and later were received in the reception room by the hostess. The decorations were beautiful and the sweet fragrance of spires, dog wood and blackberry vines filled the room; oak boughs, snowballs and the tender green of birch and columbine made a charming setting. A color scheme of green and white was used throughout the house, and in the dining room, where refreshments were served, snowballs and bridal wreath made a delicate ornament. Among the prominent guests were Mrs. Charlotte Emerson Main, the vice president general in charge of organization of the chapters of the D. A. R., of Washington; Mrs. Richards, former vice president general of Iowa; Mrs. Perry of New York, secretary of the Continental Hall committee; Mrs. A. T. Bigelow, state vice regent; Mrs. S. R. Van Sant, state treasurer; Mrs. Denis Follett, state secretary; Mrs. M. M. Ingber, state registrar; and Mrs. W. M. Liggett.

Several hundred guests called, for the D. A. R. makes a strong following in the G. F. W. C., many of the club women being of revolutionary lineage. The young women of Keewaydin chapter assisted in the rooms, and a group of matrons, Mrs. Ell Torrison, Mrs. W. H. Garlock, Mrs. Minor and Mrs. Stone, presided at the table in the dining room.

Wayne Ferris Browning of Hammond, Ind., arrived yesterday morning and is visiting at the lake. The Browning-Bladon marriage will take place Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock in Trinity Baptist church and will be followed by a wedding reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown on Colfax avenue S. Yesterday afternoon Robert Reynolds entertained at a family party on his new launch on a tour into the upper lake, and this evening Ralph Mitchell will entertain the bridal party at a theater party at the Metropolitan. The bride, Miss Mitchell, will be a bridal dinner at Donaldson's tearoom, following the rehearsal at the church. Mr. Browning's parents are to come from Chicago Wednesday morning to be guests at the wedding of their son.

Miss Nellie Van Rieckley of 706 University avenue entertained a group of university society members at a party day evening at a parcel shower in honor of Miss Kittybelle Mason, a June bride. The affair marked the end of the senior examinations week. Games and white carried out a pretty color effect in the rooms, and massive bunches of snowballs filled the bowls and vases. A musical contest furnished amusement, and during the afternoon a doll carriage, wreathed with vines and with a large bow of white ribbon, was wheeled into the living room, and from it dainty parcels were presented to the bride. Miss Mildred Morgan, who is to be the maid of honor, will entertain next Friday for Miss Mason. Wednesday afternoon, June 1st, Mrs. James Donaldson, assisted by her daughter, Miss Hazel Donaldson, will be hostess at a parcel shower.

The fair weather of yesterday gave many lovers of the lake their first opportunity of the season to visit their favorite resorts at Lake Minnetonka, and as a result Hotel Buena Vista at Mound was the temporary home of several parties of guests. In one party were Dr. and Mrs. Macnie, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Percival of Minneapolis and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Oakes of Windsor, Vt. In another party were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Strickler, Marion Strickler, Beatrice Strickler and James Strickler of Minneapolis, and Miss Hazel Donaldson, who is to be the maid of honor, will entertain next Friday for Miss Mason. Wednesday afternoon, June 1st, Mrs. James Donaldson, assisted by her daughter, Miss Hazel Donaldson, will be hostess at a parcel shower.

In honor of the visiting members of the Delta Gamma, who will be in the city for the grand convocation of the Minnesota chapter, and who will be guests at the sorority house, a number of social affairs have been planned. Wednesday evening a reception will be given at the home of Miss Rose Holsholt for the active and alumnae chapter; Thursday afternoon an informal tea will be given at the Delta Gamma house for the sorority girls of the university and for the wives of the members of the faculty. Friday the council will be entertained as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bell at Lake Minnetonka, where a supper will be served after touring the Mound and a box party will be given at the senior class play Saturday evening.

The marriage of Robert L. Haddock and Miss Florence E. Hedberg took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the future home of the couple, 908 Seventh street S. Rev. A. B. Marshall read the service.
