

SOCIAL NEWS OF THE SUBURBS AND NEIGHBORING TOWNS

ST. PAUL

Mrs. Cordelia A. Severance gave a luncheon at the Town and Country club last week for Countess d'Albraccio of Rome, Italy, who is visiting her at Cedarhurst. The out-of-town guests were Misses James Sidney Peck and Mrs. George H. Noves of Milwaukee, J. L. Washburn of Duluth; Mrs. Matz, president of the woman's club of Chicago; Miss Gill of Barnard college, Mrs. W. P. Orr of Ohio, Mrs. Sara E. Hyre of Cleveland, Mrs. Berryhill of Des Moines, Mrs. Blount of Georgetown, Mrs. Turner of Pasadena, Miss Ware and Miss Wallace of New York, Mrs. William Guile Northrup and Mrs. Anson B. Jackson of Minneapolis. Five large round tables decorated with pink pennies were arranged on the veranda.

Mrs. Frank J. Savage of Laurel avenue gave a dinner Thursday evening for Miss Woolley, president of Mount Holyoke seminary, Mrs. Harrison G. Foster also entertained for Miss Woolley. Miss Woolley left for the east Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick D. Monfort gave their second at home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Emerson and Mrs. Knex Bacon received with Mr. and Mrs. Monfort, and Mrs. Oliver Dalrymple and Mrs. James Beals served coffee and ice. Miss Carpenter and Miss Sommers also assisted.

Miss Lily A. Long gave a dinner Monday evening for Miss Alice Kelly of Australia and Miss Florence Henry of New York.

Mrs. John W. Daniels gave a luncheon Thursday for Mrs. W. P. Orr of Ohio. The twenty or more guests were seated on the veranda of a round table decorated with wild flowers. Those from out of town were Mrs. Platt Decker, Miss Platt, Mrs. Benedict and Mrs. Taylor.

Mrs. Samuel G. Strickland of Holly avenue gave a small tea Friday afternoon for Miss Hibben of Cleveland.

Miss Abbott of Ashland avenue gave a tea Thursday afternoon for Miss Barnes of Philadelphia, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Granville Worrell of Ashland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Kenyon of Summit avenue gave a dinner Wednesday evening at the Town and Country club for their guest, Judge Lindsay of Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ware of Laurel avenue gave a dinner on Tuesday evening.

Miss Grace Evelyn Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Morgan, and Mark Dalgish of Duran, New York, were united in marriage Tuesday in St. Michael's church. A high nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. Michael Stanton, who also officiated at the marriage ceremony. Miss Mamie McAndrews of Minneapolis, and Miss Sue Morgan, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. The bridegroom was attended by Herman W. Eren and Ernest Peterson of the month. Bernice Van Hale Prinkle was flower-girl. The ushers were Ervin J. Morgan and John A. Murphy. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents on Concord street.

Mr. and Mrs. Dalgish left on the evening train for their future home, Duran, N. Y.

Miss Louise Mildred Elson and Benjamin M. Weil, Jr., of Milwaukee, were married Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Leo A. Guiteman, 388 Summit avenue. Dr. Isaac L. Rybins performed the ceremony at 6 o'clock in the library. The bridal couple stood under a beautiful bower of pink ramburs and ferns. The bride wore a white perfume gown, white and in a veil of tulle. She wore a diamond necklace, the gift of the bridegroom. Charles Weil of Milwaukee acted as groomsmen. The bridal couple left last evening for a month's trip in the east. After July 1 they will be at home at 286 Knapp street, Milwaukee.

Mrs. Samuel Sturgis has gone to Fort Russell to join Colonel Sturgis. Mrs. Henry B. Boardman and Miss Jessie Boardman of Ashland avenue left Wednesday evening for Princeton, N. J.

Mrs. Harry P. Ritchie of Ashland avenue will leave on Tuesday for Little Compton to spend the summer with her father, Edwin W. Winter.

Katherine Sexton entertained the members of the senior class and of the Prima D. C. Wednesday evening at their country home.

Miss Jennie Linner has returned from Two Rivers, Minn. Miss Daisy Browne has returned from Olivia, Minn., where she has been teaching.

Mrs. Daisy M. Pringle left Thursday for Coquet, Minn., where she will be a guest of Charles Dixon and family. Miss Mary Quinlan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Quinlan of South Stillwater, entertained a few young friends Monday at a birthday party.

J. F. Wilmarth went to Hamline to attend commencement exercises on Wednesday.

Mrs. Eva Patchin and children left Wednesday for a visit at Hutchinson and Brown, Minn. They were accompanied to Minneapolis by Miss Patchin's sister, Mrs. C. C. Nethaway.

The fourteenth annual banquet of the Stillwater High School Alumni association was held at the auditorium Monday evening. There were over one hundred guests. The business meeting resulted in the election of the following officers: Stephen Park, president; Miss Frank Davis, vice president; Mrs. P. F. Murphy, second vice president; Miss Julie Masterman, third vice president; Miss Katharine Eichten, recording secretary; Miss Olivia Nelson, corresponding secretary; Hollis Comfort, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Skeith, Mrs. Stella Conrad, Ned Easton and Bernard Sexton, executive board. The banquet followed and later there was dancing in the main hall, which was decorated in the high school colors, red and black. The dining-room favors were pink and white. The members of the class of '06, of which has thirty-four members. Among the out-of-town guests were: Thomas McDermott, toastmaster, St. Paul; F. E. Lammer, Mrs. W. P. Orr, Mrs. F. Morgan, Mrs. Minnie, Mrs. O'Brien, Somers, Mont., Miss Gotschall, G. R. Miller, St. Paul; E. A. Shabel Somers, Mont.; Joe Barton, LaCrosse, Wis.; Mrs. E. J. Englin and Kate, Minn.; the state university, Miss Ruth West, Miss Nora Pye, Miss Rita Kendall, J. S. Wilmarth and Darius Steward of the high school.

Mr. and Mrs. James O'Neal and daughter, Anna, Grace and Edna Claire, left Thursday for a visit to the Pacific coast.

Miss Anna Thelen and Frederick Mansfield, both of Milwaukee, Wis., were united in marriage at Waukesha, Wis., Wednesday at high noon. Miss Thelen's maid of honor was Miss May McGovern, a niece of the bridegroom, and the bridesmaid was Miss Ella Kaad, Bert L. Thelen, brother of the bride, was best man. Miss Thelen wore a traveling suit of gray chiffon with hat to match. A wedding breakfast was served to the immediate relatives and Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield left on a wedding trip east. They will return to Milwaukee and there leave for Europe to be away for a year or more. Mrs. Susanna Thelen, the bride's mother, will accompany them. The bride couple will be at home in Berlin, Germany, after Aug. 15.

The bridegroom's favorite soprano and won more admiration than ever on her visit to the bluff city last winter. She has also appeared in concert in other cities and is well known in the musical circles of the northwest. She will continue her study of music while abroad.

Misses Elizabeth Chalmers, Lenore Lammer and Walter Lammer attended commencement exercises at Shattuck Military academy, Faribault.

T. A. Whitworth has been in the Saskatchewan country for a number of days.

The graduating class of the Hopkins high school held its commencement exercises last week. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered Sunday by Rev. Donald McKenzie of Excelsior in Ogdon Hall. Monday evening, at the Anderson's opera hall, the class-day exercises were held. A Greek play was presented and the class history and prophecy given. The commencement exercises were held Tuesday evening. The hall was prettily decorated in white and green, the class colors, and several musical numbers were given by members of the class. The list of graduates includes: Thomas Shaughnessy, president; Charles Maloney, vice president; Alice McCormick, secretary; Lyell Poppleton, treasurer; Albert Frahl and Susan Graves, musicians; Caroline Chastek, Daniel Henry Emberger, Rose May Holasek, Lillian May Hosp, Matilda Sund, Pauline Estelle Graves, Myrtle Eldora Gordon, Anna Lou Edwile, Joseph McDonald, Elmer Emil George Louba, Lucie Souba and Arthur McKenzie Wade. Martha Lund was chosen for valedictorian and Marguerite Kogan as salutatorian. At the eight o'clock graduation exercises were held Wednesday afternoon. A program of fifteen numbers was given, including the valedictory and salutatory addresses by Frances Berry Charlotte Ring, Sophie Arnel, Arthur Ringham and George Feigl; the class poem by Mamie Smith and the class prophecy by Carrie Dominick, Mary Jensen, John Swenson, Louis Navratil, Irving Klapp and Edwin McDonald. The members of the class are Frances Helen Ferry, Ida Bertha Swenson, Sojourner Lillian Swenson, Elizabeth Wheeler, Hazel Marguerite Brandt, Louise Jensen, Lillian Rose Koblas, Mabel Margaret Hughes, Arthur Irving Ringham, Edna McDonald, Elmer Elmer Jorgensen, Grace Alice Romine, Emily Mary Jensen, Louis Alviz Navratil, Carrie Emma Dominick, Elmer Leander Redegren, Charlotte Mildred Ring, Myrtle Eldora Gordon, George Anton Feigl, George McCoy Burns, Bessie Florence Peterson, Mamie Cynthia Smith, Vivian Almira Bates, Irving James Klapp, Joseph Navratil, Daniel Francis Peterson, Peter Barsness and Walter Jensen, George Lawrence Teyro.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will meet Wednesday afternoon with W. Cooper. Luncheon will be served.

Saturday evening the Ladies' Aid society of Our Savior's church will give an ice cream sociable at the Oak Hill schoolhouse.

Special musical services will be held this morning in the Congregational church and the theme of Mr. Danforth's address will be "The Contentment of Godliness."

Mrs. H. C. Kinney has been entertaining during the past week, for her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clyde Lyttel of Milwaukee, Tuesday, Mrs. E. J. Parker, Miss Carrie Smith of Indianapolis will arrive, to spend the summer with Mrs. Kinney. Miss Smith is a singer of remarkable talent and has been for some time the soloist of the First Methodist church at Indianapolis. The Misses Larch and Pauline Graves will leave next week for their home in Mohall, N. D.

MINNETONKA

The Lafayette club is open and has had a number of guests. The weather has not been such as to further the social spirit of the lake much but then the large open fireplace radiates cheer and comfort and the informal gatherings, which the members of the club living around the beach have, are delightful. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fisher and their family, who are occupying a cottage at Anoka, have been spending a few days at the club. The clubmen are already playing every day on the links and the social Saturday evening affairs will be inaugurated with dinner and dancing at the club. A number of people are coming home from school now there will be a coterie of the college set and the season promises to be a jolly one.

Misses Chamberlain, Pond, Truesdell and Shevick are attending the girls who have been away all winter, and their home-coming will make a delightful break in the quiet of lake life at present.

At Brentwood the summer colony is gathering in full force and the cottages are nearly all open. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Schmidt and family, who were out of town, have a cottage there again this year. They came out Friday. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Dever have been at Brentwood since their return from abroad and will be there all summer. The Neisings are at last anticipating the summer, as Walter Neising, who has been seriously ill at the lake for two months, is convalescing. Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Kohl and family of Minnetonka, who have a cottage at Forbes cottages for the season and will arrive with their family July 1. Mr. Kohl made a reputation as a fisherman and has been the victor in several of his splendid catches. Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hughes, after having spent the winter in California, are settled at Brentwood for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. E. Frost and Mrs. Post Stone of Minneapolis were guests last Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Henderson at their Brentwood cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson were at the lake in May. Miss Nellie Roberts of Minneapolis is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Hodgkins. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sunberg are also recent arrivals at Brentwood.

Fishing continues to be the fad in and about the upper lake and the last few days have brought improved luck to the anglers. Starting from the Hotel Buena Vista, Mound, Joseph Shutz of Minneapolis and Dr. E. Wright of St. Cloud brought in fifty pounds of fish from Harrison's bay Thursday, and almost duplicated the feat Friday. The prize fish of the catch was a 54-pound bass landed by Mr. Shutz.

Dr. Frank Burton and Frank Sweet of Minneapolis also made their headquarters at the hotel. The fishing error in the hearts of the fish Thursday and Friday.

Among other guests at the Buena Vista last week were Mrs. E. W. Backus and Seymour Backus, Mrs. Maynard Crane and Miss Kathleen Crane of Cooperstown, N. D.; D. H. Hadley, Barbara Hadley and Ruth Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Swayne and Mr. and Mrs. Stallman, Minneapolis.

A feature of the week was an exhibition of legereim in the park. The exhibition was given by Charles Cote of Beatrice, Neb., and Professor James Stricker of Minneapolis before the guests of the hotel and invited friends.

During the last week a number of Minneapolis people have enjoyed the quiet and inviting spring days at Glen Morris, Christmas lake. Among the guests at the hotel were Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter of Texas, Mrs. C. J. A. Morris of St. Paul, the Misses Saunders and Albert Lindke, Jr., of St. Paul, Messrs. and Mrs. Franklin Benner Newlands, J. A. Modette, C. S. Tooker, Ross Thomas, Miss Thomas, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Aylmer, Mrs. Chadbourn and daughter, Alexander Reno, Mr. and Mrs. N. Chase and family, George F. Harding and family and Mrs. Bailey were out for over Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Snyder entertained at a bridge week Monday at the Glen, and among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Frank Pettit, De Witt Clinton, George Gillette and George R. Newell.

Mrs. Tracy McCall of Mendota, Pa., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Albert Lyman, at her home in Excelsior, was honor guest at a luncheon which Mrs. Charles Cleveland gave last week at her home in Minnetonka. Mr. and Mrs. Lyman entertained at an automobile party and at the Metropolitan theater last week in honor of their sister.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. R. C. Moore in Wayzata Tuesday afternoon, when her sister, Mrs. Nettie B. Watson of Brooklyn Center, and Harry N. Emery of Minneapolis were married. The house was prettily decorated with ferns and wild flowers. Only relatives and immediate friends witnessed the service, which was read by Rev. W. B. Clark of the Congregational church. Mr. and Mrs. Emerson left on the afternoon train for a short trip. They will be at home after July 1, 2917 Bloomington avenue, Minneapolis.

Miss Ruth Starr entertained Wednesday at her home on Vine Hill, Lake Minnetonka, for the members of the Virginia Drive chapter, D. A. R. The young women came out in the morning and games and guessing contests were pleasant features. A picnic luncheon was served at noon.

The Excelsior hotels are commencing to open and the latter part of the month will see busy days at the popular hosteries. The White house announces its opening for next Saturday. Manager Sanderson, who has been in charge of the hotel for several seasons, will again manage the hotel. The Hotel Le Paul will be managed by its owners, Dr. and Mrs. George Le Paul. Mrs. Ella Donaldson, who has been spending the winter in California, has returned and has opened the Hotel Donaldson for the season. Mrs. Le Paul's popular summer home, Bayview hotel, has been open for some time, and the Muecke place has also been patronized for several weeks by the lake visitors.

The closing of the Excelsior schools was the signal for the teachers who have out-of-town homes to pack their trunks and leave. Miss Clara Quamme has gone to her home at Kenyon, Minn. Miss Nettie Jackson left last Tuesday for Winona, Minn., to make a short visit with friends before going to her home at Mineral Post, Wis. Mrs. Thvera Crawford has gone to Bloomfield, Neb., to spend the summer, and Miss Josephine Hecker is making a short visit in Austin. Later she will go home to Postville, Iowa, for the vacation. Miss Mabel Stone left Monday for Morris, Minn.

Miss Ruth Carr entertained Wednesday evening at her home at Vine Hill for the members of the junior and senior classes of the Excelsior school. Out-of-door games and amusements were enjoyed and refreshments were served on the lantern-lit piazza. Misses Louise Suckerman, Stacie Tice, Miss Sawyer, Marie Taylor, Mosera, Gertrude Crawford, Harry Weistrand, Alfred Neising, Charles Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McBroome were the guests.

MINNETONKA

Mrs. C. G. Spickerman will entertain at her home Tuesday for the Women's Home Missionary society of the Excelsior Methodist church. A number of Minneapolis church women will enjoy on a chartered car and will enjoy a hayrack ride to the Spickerman home. A dinner will be served at 1 o'clock.

The regular Saturday evening hops at Hotel Del Otero are already enjoyed by the younger set at the lake. In addition to the hotel orchestra plays afternoon and evening programs of musical merit for the entertainment of the guests. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bousfield and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fayette Bousfield are at the hotel for the summer. Miss Mary Dunwoody has been a guest at the hotel for a few days during the week with her sister, Mrs. Bousfield.

Wayzata. Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Black are entertaining Myron Lindsey of Chicago. Mrs. Helen P. Burbridge of Minneapolis spent Wednesday in Wayzata. Miss Lida Lovelace of Worthington is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. R. C. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Sargeant of Prescott, Wis., spent part of the week with Mrs. Miles Dickey.

Mrs. Louise E. Ireland returned from the coast Tuesday afternoon as the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. Browne Barr.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nichols closed their home at Arcola Saturday, and returned to Minneapolis on Sunday. Mrs. Thomas Rutherford left Tuesday for a six-months' visit with friends and relatives in Nova Scotia. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Burnett will occupy the Rutherford house during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dean are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dean at Fernside, Wash. Mrs. Herman N. Swanson is in Seattle, Wash. Mrs. E. L. Wright and W. L. Dickey spent Sunday with friends in Excelsior.

Mrs. C. E. Smoek entertained Miss Constance Harding of Minneapolis part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Sanders entertained at home on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Paul over commencement.

Harry G. Dickey and William Bushnell left Tuesday night for North Dakota.

Mr. J. N. Davenport entertained the Royal Neighbor lodge at her home in Fernalde Saturday. Fifteen women came down on the morning train and spent the afternoon at the hotel. Lunch was served on the lawn at noon.

Mrs. G. N. Knapp entertained the Busy Workers at her home in Fernalde Thursday afternoon. Nine guests were present and the afternoon was spent in sewing. Refreshments were served. A class of three, Misses Belle Braden, Martha Linecock and William Peterson, was graduated from the high school at Excelsior Tuesday evening. The exercises were given in the town hall, which was decorated with palms and bunting, called to Farm Ridge, Ill., Wednesday, on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Diehl.

Miss Genevieve Wakefield returned Saturday from Jackson, Minn. Miss Wakefield has accepted a position in the Fergus Falls schools for next year.

AMONG THE COTTAGES. Mr. and Mrs. Royce E. Berge have taken the Godard cottage at Wildhurst and will be at the lake during Mr. and Mrs. Garland's absence in the east. Mr. and Mrs. Berge and family are occupying the Welch cottage at Wildhurst. The Dr. Simpson cottage at Wildhurst is occupied this summer by the Misses Datsy O'Brien came out to the lake Friday and will spend a week at the Frank Pettit home in Excelsior. Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Henderson of Milwaukee spent Thursday with the Greens at their upper lake cottage. The Small of Chicago was the guest of Miss Rena Stone at Excelsior last week. Mrs. Harriet Walker Ruyner and family have taken a cottage at Cottagewood for the season. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Stallman are at the Hotel Buena Vista, Mound, for the summer. Miss M. J. Betty of Boston, Mass., who came to St. Paul for the biennial, was the guest of Mrs. E. Bell at her home at Olden's bay over Sunday. Mrs. Eugene Norris of Morris, Minn., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McBroome. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clapp of Kansas City have returned to Excelsior for the summer. Mrs. E. J. Bell and her family are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Morse of Excelsior. William E. Albee is entertaining his mother and his sister, Mrs. J. H. Hill last week. Mrs. Hugh London and daughters will come out to their summer home at Excelsior next week. Mrs. L. J. Hill last week, where he expects to be the greater part of the summer. Mrs. J. H. Snell of Kansas City have been spending a few days with friends at the lake. Miss Jeanette Scott and Miss Ella Motter attended the commencement exercises at Carleton college last week. Mrs. Croxson and Miss Alice Croxson of St. Paul have been guests of Mrs. W. P. McDonald at her home at Excelsior. Mrs. Harry I. Belden has moved to Deception for the summer. Mrs. William Captain Otto Lohf, Mrs. Bertha and Martha Lohf will occupy the Weld cottage at Mound.

MINNETONKA

guest of Professor and Mrs. John Tricker. Miss Grace Door, who spent the winter with Mrs. James Door, has returned to Mankato. Mrs. Theodore Dwight of Sioux Falls, S. D., is a guest of Mrs. Charles A. Akers. Mr. and Mrs. William Weimer are in their new home on Capitol avenue. Miss Cora M. Carter has gone to Buffalo for the summer. Miss Susie Shepherd has returned from St. James, Minn. Mrs. Tripp and Miss Marion Simpson Faribault, are guests of Mrs. Thomas Sawyer, Marie Taylor, Mosera, Gertrude Crawford, Harry Weistrand, Alfred Neising, Charles Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McBroome were the guests.

Mrs. O. E. Parks has been visiting in Brainerd. Mrs. Emma Heilmann has gone to Marshall, Minn. The children's day exercises are to be given this afternoon, in Hamline Methodist church.

FORT SNELLING

Lieutenant Nathan J. Shelton of the artillery corps and Mrs. Shelton have just returned from a four months' leave spent in Baltimore. Mr. Shelton returns much improved in health, and they are again living in their old quarters in the artillery post, where they were joined on Wednesday by Mrs. Shelton's mother, Mrs. Barry, from Denver.

Captain Edward King, Second cavalry, returned Monday from several weeks' relief duty in San Francisco, where he had charge of one of the districts into which the city was divided to insure systematic relief work. Mrs. Gasser gave a luncheon Tuesday in honor of a number of delegates to the biennial from her home state, Ohio. Other guests were Misses Frick, Bullard, Allen and Sibley. After the luncheon the guests enjoyed a concert by the Twenty-eighth infantry band and battalion parade.

Captain and Mrs. Pearce entertained at dinner on Tuesday night Miss West-Loew, Mrs. Cornelia Hollinshead has returned from Boston. Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Gibson spent Sunday at Howard Lake. The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will hold an ice cream social Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jewett of Bay-les avenue.

Mrs. Georgia Blake and Miss Frances Blake will leave this week for California. Miss Kate Pettijohn is entertaining Mrs. Thorton of Glenwood. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ware are entertainng their sister, Mrs. Ware of New York. Mrs. F. Koehn of Sheboygan, Wis., is visiting Mrs. E. E. Francis. Mrs. Coates Bull and Mrs. Crosby entertained at a thimble-bee Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alvah Bull. Miss Grace Costello is visiting in Fargo. The Wah-Tah-Wahs will entertain for Miss Erelia Hacker Friday at the home of Mrs. Alvah Bull. Invitations have been received for the marriage of Miss Lulu Rule, formerly of the park, and Dr. Labby of Red Wing, which will take place Thursday.

Miss Florence Haskell, who has been the guest of Mrs. Smiley, has returned to her home in Bradford, Pa. Mrs. E. B. Brace and son left Monday evening for Oakland, Cal. Mrs. Dahlberg will entertain the Ladies' guild of the Episcopal church Tuesday afternoon. Miss Jane Miller will leave Wednesday to spend the summer in Bradford, Pa. Miss Myrtle Crane has returned from Clear Lake. Clarence Stewart of Spokane is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stewart of Commonwealth avenue. Miss May Pettijohn has returned from St. Peter.

After the Next Biennial. Boston, Niagara Falls, Saratoga, Low Excursion Rates to Eastern Points. The Minneapolis & St. Louis Railroad has on sale daily round-trip excursion tickets with limit for return to Sept. 30, 1906, to the following points: Albany, N. Y., $29.50; Boston, Mass., $31.00; Halifax, N. S., $50.80; Montreal, Que., $50.80; Portland, Me., $31.00; Quebec, Que., $32.50; Saratoga, N. Y., $29.50; Springfield, Mass., $31.00; Troy, N. Y., $29.50; Toronto, Ont., $29.50; Troy, N. Y., $29.50. Correspondingly low rates to other eastern points. For tickets and full information call on J. G. Rickel, City Ticket Agent, 424 Nicollet avenue.

"MERTI" if applied to armpits or feet, destroys odors. Tokolon Toilet Co. Mpls. Minn. at all stores or mailed by us, 25c. sample free

AMONG THE COTTAGES

Mr. and Mrs. Royce E. Berge have taken the Godard cottage at Wildhurst and will be at the lake during Mr. and Mrs. Garland's absence in the east. Mr. and Mrs. Berge and family are occupying the Welch cottage at Wildhurst. The Dr. Simpson cottage at Wildhurst is occupied this summer by the Misses Datsy O'Brien came out to the lake Friday and will spend a week at the Frank Pettit home in Excelsior. Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Henderson of Milwaukee spent Thursday with the Greens at their upper lake cottage. The Small of Chicago was the guest of Miss Rena Stone at Excelsior last week. Mrs. Harriet Walker Ruyner and family have taken a cottage at Cottagewood for the season. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Stallman are at the Hotel Buena Vista, Mound, for the summer. Miss M. J. Betty of Boston, Mass., who came to St. Paul for the biennial, was the guest of Mrs. E. Bell at her home at Olden's bay over Sunday. Mrs. Eugene Norris of Morris, Minn., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McBroome. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clapp of Kansas City have returned to Excelsior for the summer. Mrs. E. J. Bell and her family are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Morse of Excelsior. William E. Albee is entertaining his mother and his sister, Mrs. J. H. Hill last week. Mrs. Hugh London and daughters will come out to their summer home at Excelsior next week. Mrs. L. J. Hill last week, where he expects to be the greater part of the summer. Mrs. J. H. Snell of Kansas City have been spending a few days with friends at the lake. Miss Jeanette Scott and Miss Ella Motter attended the commencement exercises at Carleton college last week. Mrs. Croxson and Miss Alice Croxson of St. Paul have been guests of Mrs. W. P. McDonald at her home at Excelsior. Mrs. Harry I. Belden has moved to Deception for the summer. Mrs. William Captain Otto Lohf, Mrs. Bertha and Martha Lohf will occupy the Weld cottage at Mound.

HAMLIN

Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Akers gave a dinner Monday evening in honor of the alumnae of the University of Wisconsin, who were delegates to the biennial.

MINNETONKA

The senior class of Hamline university, accompanied by Mrs. George H. Bridgman, visited the art gallery of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hill last week. Miss Evie Winston was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. Charles Collett Friday, and a handkerchief shower Friday evening, given by Miss F. Heald of Hewitt avenue. Mrs. Morris Atchison is visiting at Pine City. Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Wheat and children were guests of Mrs. L. W. Foster on their way from Marshall, Minn., to Boston, Mass. Professor John Ylvisaker of Luther seminary, has returned from a trip to Palestine. Dr. H. G. Stub of Luther seminary leaves this week for Norway to attend the coronation ceremonies. Mrs. J. C. Munson has gone to Memphis, Tenn. Mr. and Mrs. Kendall spent part of the week at St. Croix Falls, Wis. Mrs. Charles Heines of Olvin is visiting her mother, Mrs. Frank Cole. Mrs. Larson of Minot, N. D., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ware of New York. Mrs. F. Koehn of Sheboygan, Wis., is visiting Mrs. E. E. Francis. Mrs. Coates Bull and Mrs. Crosby entertained at a thimble-bee Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alvah Bull. Miss Grace Costello is visiting in Fargo. The Wah-Tah-Wahs will entertain for Miss Erelia Hacker Friday at the home of Mrs. Alvah Bull. Invitations have been received for the marriage of Miss Lulu Rule, formerly of the park, and Dr. Labby of Red Wing, which will take place Thursday.

AMONG THE COTTAGES

Miss Florence Haskell, who has been the guest of Mrs. Smiley, has returned to her home in Bradford, Pa. Mrs. E. B. Brace and son left Monday evening for Oakland, Cal. Mrs. Dahlberg will entertain the Ladies' guild of the Episcopal church Tuesday afternoon. Miss Jane Miller will leave Wednesday to spend the summer in Bradford, Pa. Miss Myrtle Crane has returned from Clear Lake. Clarence Stewart of Spokane is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stewart of Commonwealth avenue. Miss May Pettijohn has returned from St. Peter.

After the Next Biennial. Boston, Niagara Falls, Saratoga, Low Excursion Rates to Eastern Points. The Minneapolis & St. Louis Railroad has on sale daily round-trip excursion tickets with limit for return to Sept. 30, 1906, to the following points: Albany, N. Y., $29.50; Boston, Mass., $31.00; Halifax, N. S., $50.80; Montreal, Que., $50.80; Portland, Me., $31.00; Quebec, Que., $32.50; Saratoga, N. Y., $29.50; Springfield, Mass., $31.00; Troy, N. Y., $29.50; Toronto, Ont., $29.50; Troy, N. Y., $29.50. Correspondingly low rates to other eastern points. For tickets and full information call on J. G. Rickel, City Ticket Agent, 424 Nicollet avenue.

"MERTI" if applied to armpits or feet, destroys odors. Tokolon Toilet Co. Mpls. Minn. at all stores or mailed by us, 25c. sample free

AMONG THE COTTAGES

Mr. and Mrs. Royce E. Berge have taken the Godard cottage at Wildhurst and will be at the lake during Mr. and Mrs. Garland's absence in the east. Mr. and Mrs. Berge and family are occupying the Welch cottage at Wildhurst. The Dr. Simpson cottage at Wildhurst is occupied this summer by the Misses Datsy O'Brien came out to the lake Friday and will spend a week at the Frank Pettit home in Excelsior. Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Henderson of Milwaukee spent Thursday with the Greens at their upper lake cottage. The Small of Chicago was the guest of Miss Rena Stone at Excelsior last week. Mrs. Harriet Walker Ruyner and family have taken a cottage at Cottagewood for the season. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Stallman are at the Hotel Buena Vista, Mound, for the summer. Miss M. J. Betty of Boston, Mass., who came to St. Paul for the biennial, was the guest of Mrs. E. Bell at her home at Olden's bay over Sunday. Mrs. Eugene Norris of Morris, Minn., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McBroome. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clapp of Kansas City have returned to Excelsior for the summer. Mrs. E. J. Bell and her family are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Morse of Excelsior. William E. Albee is entertaining his mother and his sister, Mrs. J. H. Hill last week. Mrs. Hugh London and daughters will come out to their summer home at Excelsior next week. Mrs. L. J. Hill last week, where he expects to be the greater part of the summer. Mrs. J. H. Snell of Kansas City have been spending a few days with friends at the lake. Miss Jeanette Scott and Miss Ella Motter attended the commencement exercises at Carleton college last week. Mrs. Croxson and Miss Alice Croxson of St. Paul have been guests of Mrs. W. P. McDonald at her home at Excelsior. Mrs. Harry I. Belden has moved to Deception for the summer. Mrs. William Captain Otto Lohf, Mrs. Bertha and Martha Lohf will occupy the Weld cottage at Mound.

HAMLIN

Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Akers gave a dinner Monday evening in honor of the alumnae of the University of Wisconsin, who were delegates to the biennial.

AMONG THE COTTAGES

Mr. and Mrs. Royce E. Berge have taken the Godard cottage at Wildhurst and will be at the lake during Mr. and Mrs. Garland's absence in the east. Mr. and Mrs. Berge and family are occupying the Welch cottage at Wildhurst. The Dr. Simpson cottage at Wildhurst is occupied this summer by the Misses Datsy O'Brien came out to the lake Friday and will spend a week at the Frank Pettit home in Excelsior. Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Henderson of Milwaukee spent Thursday with the Greens at their upper lake cottage. The Small of Chicago was the guest of Miss Rena Stone at Excelsior last week. Mrs. Harriet Walker Ruyner and family have taken a cottage at Cottagewood for the season. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Stallman are at the Hotel Buena Vista, Mound, for the summer. Miss M. J. Betty of Boston, Mass., who came to St. Paul for the biennial, was the guest of Mrs. E. Bell at her home at Olden's bay over Sunday. Mrs. Eugene Norris of Morris, Minn., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McBroome. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clapp of Kansas City have returned to Excelsior for the summer. Mrs. E. J. Bell and her family are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Morse of Excelsior. William E. Albee is entertaining his mother and his sister, Mrs. J. H. Hill last week. Mrs. Hugh London and daughters will come out to their summer home at Excelsior next week. Mrs. L. J. Hill last week, where he expects to be the greater part of the summer. Mrs. J. H. Snell of Kansas City have been spending a few days with friends at the lake. Miss Jeanette Scott and Miss Ella Motter attended the commencement exercises at Carleton college last week. Mrs. Croxson and Miss Alice Croxson of St. Paul have been guests of Mrs. W. P. McDonald at her home at Excelsior. Mrs. Harry I. Belden has moved to Deception for the summer. Mrs. William Captain Otto Lohf, Mrs. Bertha and Martha Lohf will occupy the Weld cottage at Mound.

HAMLIN

Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Akers gave a dinner Monday evening in honor of the alumnae of the University of Wisconsin, who were delegates to the biennial.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce E. Berge have taken the Godard cottage at Wildhurst and will be at the lake during Mr. and Mrs. Garland's absence in the east. Mr. and Mrs. Berge and family are occupying the Welch cottage at Wildhurst. The Dr. Simpson cottage at Wildhurst is occupied this summer by the Misses Datsy O'Brien came out to the lake Friday and will spend a week at the Frank Pettit home in Excelsior. Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Henderson of Milwaukee spent Thursday with the Greens at their upper lake cottage. The Small of Chicago was the guest of Miss Rena Stone at Excelsior last week. Mrs. Harriet Walker Ruyner and family have taken a cottage at Cottagewood for the season. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Stallman are at the Hotel Buena Vista, Mound, for the summer. Miss M. J. Betty of Boston, Mass., who came to St. Paul for the biennial, was the guest of Mrs. E. Bell at her home at Olden's bay over Sunday. Mrs. Eugene Norris of Morris, Minn., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McBroome. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clapp of Kansas City have returned to Excelsior for the summer. Mrs. E. J. Bell and her family are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Morse of Excelsior. William E. Albee is entertaining his mother and his sister, Mrs. J. H. Hill last week. Mrs. Hugh London and daughters will come out to their summer home at Excelsior next week. Mrs. L. J. Hill last week, where he expects to be the greater part of the summer. Mrs. J. H. Snell of Kansas City have been spending a few days with friends at the lake. Miss Jeanette Scott and Miss Ella Motter attended the commencement exercises at Carleton college last week. Mrs. Croxson and Miss Alice Croxson of St. Paul have been guests of Mrs. W. P. McDonald at her home at Excelsior. Mrs. Harry I. Belden has moved to Deception for the summer. Mrs. William Captain Otto Lohf, Mrs. Bertha and Martha Lohf will occupy the Weld cottage at Mound.

MINNETONKA

ton were dinner guests on Sunday of Captain and Mrs. Parker. Lieutenant and Mrs. Cooper gave a dinner on Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Smith of