Miss Eda Richter, whose marriage to James S. Bishop takes place Wednesday, June 27, at the home of the family, was the honor guest at a charming pink and green luncheon given this afternoon by Mrs. E. B. Whitcomb at her home, 1717 Laurel avenue. Sixteen of the ed, and presented her with dainty souvenirs during the afternoon. The table was in pink and green, and candelabra holding pink tapers illuminated the appointments and deepened the pink of peonies and roses. The place cards, Richter was designated by a huge bouquet of pink peonies tied with a flaring pink bow to her chair.

Mrs. Hans Starkman of 4404 Upton avenue, gave a pretty luncheon yesterday at her home for Miss Richter. She had chosen a dainty color scheme of pink and white for the decorations, and clusters of peonies stood in the parlors and in the dining room. Covers were laid for ten, and following the luncheon Miss Richter was given a surprise parcel shower.

Many Minneapolis people will be interested in the coming marriage of Miss Elizabeth Clark Wickham to Mr. Frederick Dale Hannaford, which will take place at the bride's home near Los Angeles, Wednesday. Miss Richardson is the daughter of St. Francis, and she resides on Girard avenue S., until the removal of the family to California two years ago.

Mrs. C. H. Johnson entertained at a luncheon today at her home on Highland avenue. Covers were laid for twenty-four and the table appointments were all in pink, with clusters of sweet peas. Bridge whist followed the luncheon.

Mrs. H. W. Kismpeeler entertained a group of children this afternoon at her home, 1317 Emerson avenue N., in honor of the birthday anniversary of her daughter, Phyllis and Doris. Forty young people had been bidden and games were played on the lawn until supper time, when favors were distributed to find partners for the supper march. The dining room was prettily decorated in the bride's colors. A birthday cake, with its lighted candles, graced the center of the table. Miss Gladys Speaker assisted the young hostesses and Misses Stella Broberg and Sylvia Helwig furnished several piano numbers.

One of the weddings of last evening was that of Miss Florence Nell Cross and Charles John Patterson of Binford, N. D., which was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Cross, at her home on Calhoun boulevard. The bridal altar was arranged in the living-room of tall palms and ferns, with white carnations. In the dining-room a note of color was introduced in the decorations. The bride and groom were on the table. As Everett Allen announced the entrance of the bride party with the "Lohengrin" bridal chorus, white ribbons were drawn to the altar by Miss Yvonne and Clara Cross and Masters Theodore Knappen and Judson Knappen. Miss Leo Sophia Cross, who was maid of honor, led the bride to the altar. She wore a gown of sheer lawn and carried a large cluster of pink roses. Preceding the bride was little Madeline McCaig in silk, carrying the ring in a white rose. The bride's gown was of white Parisian lawn, trimmed with German Valenciennes lace, and the bouquet was of white carnations. Rev. Burton read the service. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson were assisted by the bridegroom's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Patterson of Binford, and Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Cross in receiving congratulations. Misses Adelaide Lang and Mayme Fortier presided over the frappe bowl and Misses Minerva Acton, Jeannette Van Biele and Camelia Waite assisted in the dining room. After spending a fortnight in Dodge Center, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson will go to Binford, where they will receive after Sept. 1.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Stanchfield was the scene of a pretty wedding last evening when Miss Ethel Stanchfield, became the bride of William H. Larsen. Only the relatives and close friends witnessed the ceremony, which was read by Rev. G. F. Scott. The bride wore a gown of white silk and carried a bank of ferns and palms in the parlor. "Hearts and Flowers" was softly sounded. The bride wore white Persian lawn with a yoke and trimmings of Valenciennes lace and carried a bank of roses. Little Elsie Woodward, in a frock of white silk, carried the ring in the heart of a white rose.

The living room was decorated with palms, ferns and wild roses and the dining room with red and white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Stanchfield, C. Smith and Leslie Woodward received with Mr. and Mrs. Larsen, Misses Emma, Nellie and Naomi Larsen of Albert Lea, sisters of the bridegroom, were among the guests. After Aug. 1 Mr. and Mrs. Larsen will be at home at 2622 Fourth street N.

The wedding of Miss Zillah Eden Waterman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Waterman of Forest Heights, to Mr. Vosburgh took place yesterday morning and was witnessed by the relatives and a few near friends. The bride's gown was of white Persian lawn made in the latest fashion and her bouquet of bridal roses was tied with satin ribbon. The service was read by Rev. George H. Taubert and was followed up with a wedding breakfast. Bride and groom were used to decorate the table. Mr. and Mrs. Vosburgh will take a trip later in the summer, returning in August when they will issue at home cards.

Rev. Mr. Sans read the service yesterday afternoon at the home of John Kraft, 1921 Third street, N., which united Miss Anna M. Kraft and Oscar L. Schultz in marriage. A bower of roses and foliage furnished an appropriate setting for the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Schultz are leaving for a wedding trip and after Aug. 15 they will be at their new residence at Thirty-third street and Oakland.

Major and Mrs. W. D. Halo entertained Wednesday afternoon and evening at their home, 1825 Third avenue S., the Union Ex-Prisoners of War association and their guests. A bower of roses and foliage furnished an appropriate setting for the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Halo will take a trip later in the summer, returning in August when they will issue at home cards.

The Misses Margaret and Maude Bowen entertained at a dinner last evening at their home in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Percy A. Wiggins of the city. The dinner was given in honor of Mrs. Wiggins' birthday. Miss Gertrude L. Hale and Miss Wood furnished a delightful musical program.

son and Mrs. Louise Brigham of this city and Miss Florence Owens of St. Paul. The decorations were carnations and roses.

The marriage of Miss Jennie Bessie Roser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Rosner, to Frank Lally, will take place Thursday at 10 o'clock in St. Stephen's church. Miss Rosner will be attended by her sister, Miss Hazel Rosner, and Harry Lally will be his brother's best man. The ushers will be Frank Meyers, Henry Rosner and Clinton Granby.

This afternoon Mrs. C. Richard and Miss Hazel Rosner entertained at cards in their sister's honor. The decorations were carried out in white and green.

Tuesday afternoon, the bride's sister, Mrs. Franklin Meyers, entertained fifteen of her friends at a thimble bee. The rooms were arranged in red and green, carnations and ferns being chosen to carry out the color scheme. During the afternoon the girls hemmed napkins for the bride.

Miss Friday Miss Hortense Laybourn, of 3105 Stevens avenue, gave a parcel shower for Miss Rosner. The twelve guests wrote toasts to the bride in the form of a booklet. The bride wore a white dress with a pink sash and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bride's gown was of white silk and carried a bank of ferns and palms in the parlor. "Hearts and Flowers" was softly sounded. The bride wore white Persian lawn with a yoke and trimmings of Valenciennes lace and carried a bank of roses. Little Elsie Woodward, in a frock of white silk, carried the ring in the heart of a white rose.

Monday afternoon Miss Gertrude Gilkerson will give a kitchen shower and the Misses Ethel and Annabelle Johnson will entertain at luncheon Tuesday.

Wednesday evening the bride's dinner will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rosner.

Miss Matilda Race and William Windahl were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Race, 122 Jackson street NE. The rooms were profusely decorated with roses, carnations and ferns.
