MINNEAPOLIS GAS LIGHT CO. Nos. 16-18-20 So. 7th St.

The announcement of the approaching marriage of Dr. Mabel Austin, formerly of Minneapolis to Dr. Ernest Holmquist of Boston, will interest a large circle of Minneapolis friends of the bride. Dr. Austin is the daughter of the late Horace E. Austin, former governor of Minnesota. She is a university graduate, a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, and took her medical degree at Johns Hopkins university. Dr. Austin has been practicing Boston for over a year and has recently accepted the appointment of associate professor of hygiene and medical examiner at Wellesley college. Dr. Southard is a man well known in his profession. He is a social professor of neuropathology in the Harvard medical school and also pathologist for the Massachusetts state hospital.

The wedding will take place Monday at the pretty studio of Dr. Austin's sister, Miss Alice Austin in Boston. Mrs. Austin has been making her home with her daughters in Boston and the other members of the family. Her husband, Mr. Austin, Mrs. Hamlin and Herbert Austin have gone on to be present at the wedding. Dr. Southard and his bride will make their home in Boston.

The marriage of Miss Caroline Bailey and Emory Forrest Kennedy will take place tomorrow evening at the home of the bride, Mrs. Kennedy yesterday arrived from Des Moines, with his sister, Miss Gertrude Kennedy, and Mr. and Mrs. William Lighty.

The wedding evening Miss Jennie Harris entertained Miss Bailey and her friends at an old-fashioned supper. Dainty sprays blossoms were the flowers used in the decorations, and a banquet of dark caramels marked the place chosen for the bride.

Friday Miss Bailey was the honor guest at a luncheon given by Mrs. B. W. Smith at her home on Hawthorn street. The guests were Miss Bailey and their beauty for a decoration. The guests were ten of Miss Bailey's girl friends. Tuesday Mrs. Louis Yeager gave a dinner. Friends of a delicate pink centered the table.

Louis Chute and Fred Chute entertained seven friends of the bride Saturday at the Minnetonka Yacht club. The afternoon was spent on the lake, where a splendid breeze added to the pleasure of the day. After the ride the guests were taken to the Chute cottage, Northome.

The marriage of Miss Sarah Dow to Paul C. Heard will take place tomorrow evening in Trinity Baptist church. Miss Dow is the daughter of Mrs. J. Neal Dow and Mr. Heard is the son of Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Heard, and his father, assisted by Rev. L. A. Crandall, will read the service. Mr. Heard is one of the faculty of the Central high school and Miss Dow was a teacher at Bremer school. Her maid of honor will be Miss Stella Chapman and Rollin Dow will be best man. Charles Briggs, Erwin McMillan, Clarence Rowe and Ray Chase of Anoka, and the wife of Anoka Herald, will be the ushers.

Last evening Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Heard entertained a family dinner at their home, 15 West Courtland street. Covers were laid for twelve and the decorations were carried out in pink.

The Misses Annabelle and Ethel Johnson entertained at luncheon today in honor of Miss Jennie Bessie Bonner, a bride of the month. Red and white roses were arranged in a mound in the center of the table, and candles burning beneath red shades cast a pretty glow over the appointments. Covers were laid for ten. Among the guests was Miss Elizabeth Henderson of Memphis, Tenn., who is visiting Miss Johnson.

The marriage of Miss Lillian E. Meyers and Bernard N. Faber took place this afternoon at two o'clock in the parlors of the Central high school in Deidrick's hall, on Washington avenue N. As the bridal party entered an orchestra sounded the "Lohengrin" bride chorus. The bride was crowned in lavender silk, fastened with lace and pleatings. A cluster of lilies of the valley and smilax fastened her long veil in place and she carried a bouquet of bride roses. Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Emily Erickson, who was also in lavender. Her flowers were pink and white carnations. George Seibel was best man. The guests numbered about two hundred.

This evening a large wedding reception will be held in the hall. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Faber will be Mrs. Hulda Myron, mother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Faber, parents of the bridegroom. The young couple will commence housekeeping immediately at 1114 Fourth street N.

Miss Katherine Fleming and Frank E. Finnegan were married in St. Stephen's church yesterday morning in the presence of a group of seventy-five friends. Miss Anna McMahon was the maid of honor and Mrs. F. Dolphin read the best man. Rev. J. F. Dolphin read the service. The bride wore white silk null over silk and trimmed with valenciennes insertion. Her veil was held in place with a spray of lilies of the valley. She carried an armful of bride roses and a white prayerbook. Miss McMahon was in white lawn over silk and she wore a white picture hat.

After the service at wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bridegroom, 3200 Hennepin avenue. Covers were placed for the bridal party and relatives only. White peonies and carnations were used. Games were formed the centerpiece of the reception. From 2 to 5 o'clock a reception was held for which about one hundred invitations had been issued. A professor of syringa blossoms brightened the rooms, and roses and pink and white peonies carried out a dainty color scheme. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Finnegan were Miss Anna McMahon and Frank Kelley. A group of four young women, Misses Hazel Fleming, Effie Howe, Annette Foster and Gladys Chanin, attended at the frappe table. Mr. and Mrs. Finnegan left on a dining tour. They will be at home after Oct. 1 at 3200 Hennepin avenue.

Mrs. J. J. Bymal of Rochester, Minn., was the guest of honor at a wedding luncheon given by Mrs. John Curle at her home on Colfax avenue S, Saturday afternoon. Wild roses constituted the decorations of the table. Among the former residents of Rochester present were Misses John Hooks, Elliott, S. A. Ballentine, R. Morrison, E. Miller, E. Richardson, Ida C. Hill, Kate McLeod, Miss Emma Miller, Mmes. Charles Curle, Jack Curle, Charles Lee, Hesse and Miss Agnes Hesse.

A birthday party was given by Miss Esther Benjamin in honor of Miss Colla Bliss, at her home, 813 Seventeenth avenue N, Sunday evening. The rooms were decorated in pink and green, and carnations and ferns were used. Games were played and refreshments were served. The guests were Misses Esther Benjamin, Nettie Rosenblatt, Della Rosenblatt, Colla Bliss, Minnie Kirovitch, Anna Bliss, Ida Singer, Sarah Ginsberg, Jennie Levy, Alice Cohen, Rose Rosenfeld, Belle Abramowitz, Evelyn Grosby, Annie Alder, Martha Padual, Messrs L. Goldman, B. B. Bonthal, Jake Benjamin, Max Marks, Charles Benjamin, Harry Thompson, S. Morrison, Ben Mitchell, Norman Mitchell, Sam Padual, Ed Palmer, G. Goldstein, Lee Grosby, A. Bliss, N. Stien, Ben Ginsberg and Sam Adler.

Mark Graham Magnuson and his bride will arrive shortly from the east to visit Mr. Magnuson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Magnuson. The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Horton Schofield and Mr. Magnuson took place Sunday at 10 o'clock in the Central Congregational church, and was a brilliant and fashionable event. Among the bridesmaids was Miss Louise Magnuson of St. Paul and Paul B. Magnuson was his brother's best man. There was a page, half a dozen bridesmaids, an equal number of ushers and a maid of honor, the bride's sister, Miss Myra Schofield. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Lane B. Schofield. After the service there was a large reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lane B. Schofield, A. Stier, Mr. and Mrs. Magnuson will be at home at Litchfield.

The wedding of Miss Harriet B. McDowell and C. H. Vandervort, both of St. Paul, will take place Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Miss McDowell's aunt, Mrs. G. H. McDowell, 2608 Third avenue S.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Hackett will arrive in Minneapolis this week from Lone Wolf, Okla., where they were married Tuesday, June 12. Mrs. Hackett was formerly Miss Maree A. McMillan of Kansas City, Mo., and her wedding took place at the home of Dr. William McMillan at Lone Wolf, Okla. Mr. Hackett is a Minneapolis man.

Miss Zora E. Howkos and Charles T. Stevens were married last week. The Rev. L. T. Guild read the service. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will be at home at 48 1/2 Twelfth street S.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gordon will entertain at dinner this evening at their home, 317 Oak Grove street, for the bridal party of Miss Pauline Louise Gordon and Alvin E. Lindquist. Miss Muriel Allen will be the maid of honor or Charles A. Allen will be the best man. The wedding takes place tomorrow evening at the home of the bride's uncle, J. R. Gordon, 200 Groveland avenue.

Auxiliary Meets.
The Women's auxiliary to the board of the Northwestern Training school held its regular monthly meeting yesterday. Several churches have undertaken to furnish a room for the new training school since the last meeting, and give the room the name of the church. The auxiliary will have a luncheon soon at the home of Mrs. J. F. Wilson, 8128 Irving avenue, when the women and their friends will donate pieces of linen for the students' rooms of the training school. Plans are under discussion as to what the auxiliary will do at the time of the conference, which will be held on the state fair grounds from July 22 to Aug. 5.

Alumni Organize.
The alumni of Holy Angels' academy met yesterday at the school for organization. The eighty-five members present included a number from out of town, particularly from St. Paul. Rev. Father Donahue gave the benediction in the chapel and the business meeting followed. At 10 o'clock a banquet was served in the dining room, where the state flower predominated. Clusters of the pretty meocasin blossoms filled the vases and wall pockets and made the centerpieces of the tables. In the parlors June blossoms made a pretty decoration.

GLUB NOTES.
The work among the Indians will be discussed tomorrow afternoon at a meeting of the Women's Home Missionary branch of the First Baptist church.
The Mothers' club of Unity House will have their summer outing tomorrow at Minnehaha Falls.
There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than in other sections put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, cures all cases of Catarrh of the bladder, and cures all cases of Catarrh of the prostate gland, and cures all cases of Catarrh of the urethra.
