Miss Lora Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Wilson of Hannibal, Mo., and Paul E. von Kuster of Minneapolis were married at 9 o'clock today at the home of the bride's parents, 313 Sixth street N., Hannibal. Rev. J. H. Jackson of the South Methodist church read the service, and Miss Teresa Zimmerman played the "Lohengrin" wedding march as the processional. During the reading of the service, Schubert's "Serenade" was sounded. Miss Jeanie Brewington sang beautifully "All for You" after the vows were spoken. Miss Wilson wore a going-away gown and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Two maidens, Miss Jennie Brewington and Miss Mary King, carried large bouquets of pink roses. The rooms were decorated in green, and palms made the attractive background for the bridal party. Clusters of pink and white blossoms were used against the glossy foliage in the parlor and in the dining room. The bride is well known in Minneapolis as the wife of the visiting local physician and a number of the local and out-of-town women physicians.

Lake Minnetonka, where dinner will be served this evening. About five hundred guests attended the reception and dancing party which was given last evening in Masonic Temple in honor of the visitors. The big ballroom was handsomely decorated in white and gold, with knots of the national colors here and there. Governor Johnson had expected to share the pleasure of being an honored guest with Mayor Jones, but he was unable to be present and was represented by his secretary, Frank A. Day, who was accompanied by Mrs. Day. Dr. William Mayo of Rochester was also one of the guests of honor. After the guests had been received there was informal dancing. Frappe was served by a group of ten daughters of Minneapolis physicians. The reception was arranged by the women's committee, Dr. Mabel Ulrich, Dr. Jane Kennedy, Dr. Ada Talbot, Dr. Florence Paier, Dr. Martha Moorhead, Misses P. F. Westbrook, J. E. Bell, J. G. Cross, Frank Dodd, J. S. Macnie, A. T. Mann and Archa Wilcox.

The wives of the physicians who are in the city for the State Medical association's meeting were guests of honor at a luncheon in Donaldson's tea rooms this afternoon. Four long tables were arranged in the Japanese room and the decorations were in pink and white peonies. The 100 guests included the wives of the visiting local physicians and a number of the local and out-of-town women physicians. After luncheon the women were joined by the men for a trolley ride to

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic W. Pickard have issued cards for the marriage of their daughter, Alice Enola, to Harry Richard McKee of Los Angeles, which will take place at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 30, at their home, 607 Coronado street, Los Angeles, Cal. The announcement will be of interest to a host of Minneapolis friends of the bride and bridegroom, as both resided in Minneapolis previous to their removal to California. The marriage of Miss Pauline Louise Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.

F. Gordon, and Alix E. Lundquist of St. Louis was solemnized last evening at the home of the bride's uncle, J. R. Gordon, 200 Groveland avenue. At the 3:00 o'clock arrival of the bride and groom, the bride wore a gown of white tulle with pink roses, and the groom wore a suit of white tulle with pink roses. The bride's attendants were Ralph Baldwin and J. H. MacKnight. Mr. and Mrs. Nutter went away for a honeymoon trip to the coast at 4:40 o'clock. Dupont boulevard and 4th St. Nutter is a university man, a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and his bride is also well known in university circles.

Trinity Baptist church was the scene of a pretty wedding last evening, when Miss Sarah M. Dow became the bride of Paul C. Heard. Rev. C. M. Heard, the father of the bridegroom, assisted by Dr. L. O. Giddes of Trinity church, read the service at 8 o'clock. The church had been beautifully decorated with branches of green and wild flowers by the girls of the Sunday school class. The bride and a maid of honor, Miss Mabel Hill, and the four ushers were Ray Chase of Anoka, Elmer McMullen, Charles Briggs and Clarence Dow.

The bride wore a pretty gown of white crepe de chene with lace trimmings. Her veil was held in place with a cluster of white blossoms, and white daisies were arranged in a large shower bouquet for the bride. Miss Stella Chapman was the maid of honor. She wore white lace over white, and carried white roses. Miss Genevieve Harriet, the flower girl, scattered sweet peas in the path of the bride. Rollin N. Dow was the best man, and the four ushers were Ray Chase of Anoka, Elmer McMullen, Charles Briggs and Clarence Dow.

The following were the members of the church who gave a reception in honor of the bride and bridegroom. Miss Dow has been one of the popular members of the church, and a host of friends gathered to greet her after the marriage. The parlor was decorated with June blossoms. Mr. and Mrs. Heard have left on a trip of the Great Lakes and they will go to Montreal and Quebec. They will be absent from the city for about a month.

Miss Hazel B. Brockway and James Moughton of Sharon, Pa., were married today at high noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Brockway, 2239 Buchanan street NE. The hall was arranged with oak leaves from the tree under which the bride had been betrothed, and in the parlor, where the ceremony took place, white and green were the colors in the decorations. An altar was made in the bar window with ferns and palms and white roses. The bridesmaids were caught in a white drapery above. In the living room and dining room pink roses were combined with the green. A bouquet of the roses was in the center of the table in the dining room, and from the chandelier white, pink, and red ribbons were festooned to the corners of the room. On the smaller tables ferns and vines were on the white cloth.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Otis G. Dale sang "Beloved It Is Morning" as the wedding party approached. Miss Eva Rutan played the "Lohengrin" bride chorus, followed by Wagner's "Evening Star" during the service, which was read by Rev. Otis G. Dale. The Mendelssohn march was played at the close. Master Erwin Dale led the wedding party in carrying the ring in a white, white, and white, and wore a princess gown of shell blue peau de soie, and her only ornament was a diamond and pearl brooch, the gift of her father. A wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony, and the wedding cake came from Rochester, N. Y., from the bride's uncle, Charles Oster.

During the afternoon about seventy-five guests called to present their congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Moughton. Presiding at the frappe bowl were Mrs. Moughton and Ethel Moore. Acting as waiter and usher were Misses Blanche Saunders, Hazel Lindman, Nellie Todd, and Misses E. Hobbs, S. C. Hobbs and J. H. Saunders. Mr. and Mrs. Moughton will make a trip thru the east before going to Sharon Pa., where they will be at home after July 15. Mrs. Moughton's going-away gown is of steel gray.

The marriage of Miss Jennie Bessie Ronner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. Ronner, and Frank T. Lally took place at 10 a.m. in St. Stephen's church. On the altar were white peonies, and the bride wore a white gown with pink roses. The bride's attendants were Mrs. M. and Mrs. Myers and Rosecoe Porch, seated the guests. Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Hazel Ronner, who wore a gown of white embroidered swiss trimmed with lace, and a large white embroidered hat. Her flower girl wore pink roses. The bride's gown was of cream satin, trimmed with real lace, and her bouquet was white roses.

Her long veil in place was a cluster of white blossoms. Harry Lally was his brother's best man. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Lally, 2738 Third avenue SE. The guests were the members of the bride's party and the two families. This evening's reception will be held at the Ronner home, and the guests will number about two hundred. Mr. and Mrs. Lally will leave for an eastern trip, and upon their return will make their home at 2832 Colfax avenue. They will receive after Sept. 1.

The bride's dinner was given at the home of Mrs. Nicholas Ronner, 3536 Colfax avenue, last evening. The centerpiece was of pink and white carnations, and tapers shaded in the same colors. Among the guests were Mrs. J. L. Sturgis of Buffalo, Minn., who came to attend the wedding. Miss Grace Hall and Dr. William McDougal were married last evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. R. Gibson, 909 Twenty-third avenue NE. Miss Hall is the daughter of Mrs. W. E. Hall, 317 West Twenty-eighth street. Guests at the wedding were Miss L. Barabie presided at the organ, and as the bride's party entered played the "Lohengrin" wedding march. A bridal bouquet of ferns and June flowers was arranged over the bar window.

The bride wore point d'esprit over cream tulle silk insert with hand-embroidered bands and she carried the bride roses. Little Katherine Geddes was the flower girl and little Mercedes Lilley was the ringbearer. They wore pretty frocks of white dotted Swiss. The bridesmaids were Mrs. M. and Mrs. McDougal and the other ring in a basket of flowers. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. McDougal were Mrs. Jennie McDougal, the mother of the bridegroom, and Mrs. W. M. Mues, C. G. Gibson and F. T. Dostler assisted thru the rooms. Mr. and Mrs. McDougal will go west on their wedding trip and they will spend two weeks in Denver, Col. After Sept. 1 they will be at home at 1333 Monroe street NE.

A wedding of yesterday was that of Miss Laura Gladys and Herman Reiter which took place in the Church of the Ascension. Miss Anna Groom was maid of honor and Frank Reiter acted as best man. The bride wore a white embroidered gown, and the service was read by Rev. Father Harrington. Miss Louise Mueller and Ernest H. Taylor were married last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Taylor, 3012 Irving avenue SE. The service was read by Rev. T. W. Stout in the presence of a small group of friends. Mr.

chiffon over white tulle and carried pink roses. The bride was in sheer white French lawn over tulle, trimmed with Valenciennes lace and eye-bowed with pink roses. She carried an armful of bride roses. Mr. Nutter's attendants were Ralph Baldwin and J. H. MacKnight. Mr. and Mrs. Nutter went away for a honeymoon trip to the coast at 4:40 o'clock. Taylor and his bride will receive at 3825 Vincent avenue after July 15.

Miss Mabel S. Campbell and J. W. Martin of Kansas City, formerly of Minneapolis, were married last evening at the home of the bride's brother, Frank W. Campbell, 710 Thirteenth avenue SE. Rev. W. H. Byrde read the service. Mr. and Mrs. Martin will be at home in Kansas City after Aug. 15.

The marriage of Miss Addie Kelsey and Frank Souder was solemnized Tuesday morning at the home of Dr. Ethel Hurd on Stevens avenue. Owing to the recent severe illness of the bride, only a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. The service was read by Rev. L. H. Hallock. Mr. and Mrs. Souder left for Duluth, where they will take a boat to make a tour of the great lakes. After July 20 they will be at home at 2920 Fremont avenue S. No cards were issued.

Miss Grace May Hull was the guest of honor at a parcel shower which was given last evening at the home of Mrs. W. L. Waldron on Grand avenue S. Masters Lawrence and William Waldron bore to the bride the huge basket which was decorated with fluttering pink and white ribbons. In the parlor and living room red peonies lent their color and fragrance, and in the dining room the appointments were in white and green.

There was a quiet little wedding at the home of Mrs. A. E. Nash, 494 Thirtieth avenue S., last evening, when her sister, Mrs. Patricia Geddes Boardman of San Diego, Cal., and Levi Garlock of Walnut Grove, Minn., were wed. Rev. Mr. Heard read the service. The bride is a daughter of the late General James L. Geddes, who, as colonel of the Eighth Ohio infantry, held the position in the sunken road at the battle of Shiloh, which was known as "the hotbed of war." General French's commanding General Geddes was his hero of Shiloh. Mr. Garlock is a prominent citizen, banker and capitalist of Walnut Grove, where he has taken his bride.

Miss Florence Towle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Towle, and Winfield W. Martin were married at 8 o'clock last evening at the home of the color and fragrance, and in the dining room the appointments were in white and green.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin will be at home at 3137 Clinton avenue after July 15.

The marriage of Miss Mabel Hiller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hiller, and Bernhart Dahl took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents, 517 West Twenty-eighth street. Fifty friends and relatives were present at the service, which was read by Rev. James S. Montgomery. The bride's party stood under an arch of flowers and foliage, and peonies, roses and maidenhair ferns made an effective and maidenly touch to the wedding decoration in the rooms. Miss Ella Dahl was the maid of honor and wore white French lawn over white. The bridesmaid, Miss Mabel Brooks, was also in white lawn. The wedding dress was of white net over white silk and the bride wore a full veil. Mr. Dahl's attendants were Thorwald Midthun and Carl Hegner. Mr. and Mrs. Dahl will make their home at Lake Harriet.

Miss Clara Gehle and Herbert Dudley Jensen were married last evening at the home of Rev. G. L. Morrill, 3356 Teuth avenue S.

Rev. G. L. Morrill read the service at the marriage of Miss Nora C. Bjurstron and Charles F. Jenrich, which took place at 9 Eastman avenue last evening.

Miss Lillie A. Peterson and Abel C. Johnston were married last evening at 3208 Park avenue. Rev. G. L. Morrill read the service.

Miss Elda Cohen of Frankfort, Ind., and Rev. Francis Beisel, pastor of the M. E. church at Tower City, were married today in Minneapolis. Rev. J. S. Montgomery read the service at his home.
