Curb Is Sought for Officials Who Make Arrests with a High Hand.

Special to The Journal. Des Moines, Iowa, June 23.—Every police officer in the state of Iowa will be placed under bond if the legislature next winter passes a law which is now under contemplation by municipal reformers in this state.

SOLDIERS WILL TEST LAW

Special to The Journal. Clear Lake, Iowa, June 23.—The first attempt to enforce the soldiers' preference law in this county will be tried by two old soldiers of this place, John Smith and Richard Kabrick, Sr., who failed to receive appointments as street commissioner and city marshal, respectively, the they solicited the places and declared themselves amply competent to fill them.

Mr. Smith has placed the matter in the hands of Judge Cliggett of Mason City, who has prepared the plea asking for $800 damages and $2 a day for every day Smith is deprived of the office from the date of the appointment of the present incumbent. It is said that Mr. Kabrick will follow with the same pleadings.

RAILROADS, CHIEF ISSUE IN NEBRASKA

New G. O. P. Leaders Expect to Win on a Reform and Regulation Platform.

Special to The Journal. Lincoln, Neb., June 23.—Radicals and conservatives are fighting for the control of the republican party in Nebraska. The regulation of railroads is the issue. Attorney General Brown, candidate for the senate to succeed J. H. Millard, and George L. Sheldon of Nebraska, candidate for governor, have joined forces and are conducting a campaign of oratory against the conservatives.

Both men have declared that the railroads are the real political forces in the state. Both have condemned the policies of their party and declared that the state administration was railroad ridden. Sheldon, a young man scarcely more than 30, has served two terms in the state senate. Brown is a comparatively young man, a native of Iowa. He delivered his opening speech at York, while Sheldon spoke at Palmyra. Both delivered bitter invectives against the railroads, passes and the alleged domination of railway managers in politics.

Between Rosewater and Brown. Edward Rosewater, editor of the Omaha Bee, is the leading rival of Brown, who charges him with inheriting the support of the railroads. Former congressman George D. McKeljohn of Fullerton is also a senatorial candidate; also former State Senator F. M. Currie of Broken Bow, Lorenzo Brown, John L. Webster and G. W. Wattle. Senator Millard is considered an impossibility.

The fight at present seems between Rosewater and Brown. The republican state convention will endorse the lucky man and the legislature will be bound to elect him next winter in the event of republican success. The state convention will meet in Lincoln Aug. 22.

Candidates for Governor. For governor, Sheldon is opposed by Charles Weston of Hay Springs, who has served two terms as state auditor and has been on the board of regents. George L. Rouse of Hall county is another strong aspirant. He has been in the state legislature for ten years and has been speaker. John Wall of Valley county is also a candidate. Sheldon's opponents oppose passes and believe in a conservative policy in regard to railroads.

Three railway commissioners are to be elected this fall. The offices have been created by the last legislature. State Auditor Searle, Secretary of State Galusha, Land Commissioner Eaton and State Superintendent L. McBrien are candidates for renomination and expect no opposition.

Governor Mickey has purchased a farm near Missouri Valley, Iowa, and may move to Omaha and become a compromise candidate for the United States senate.

INDORSED OSLER THEORY, THEN HANGED HIMSELF

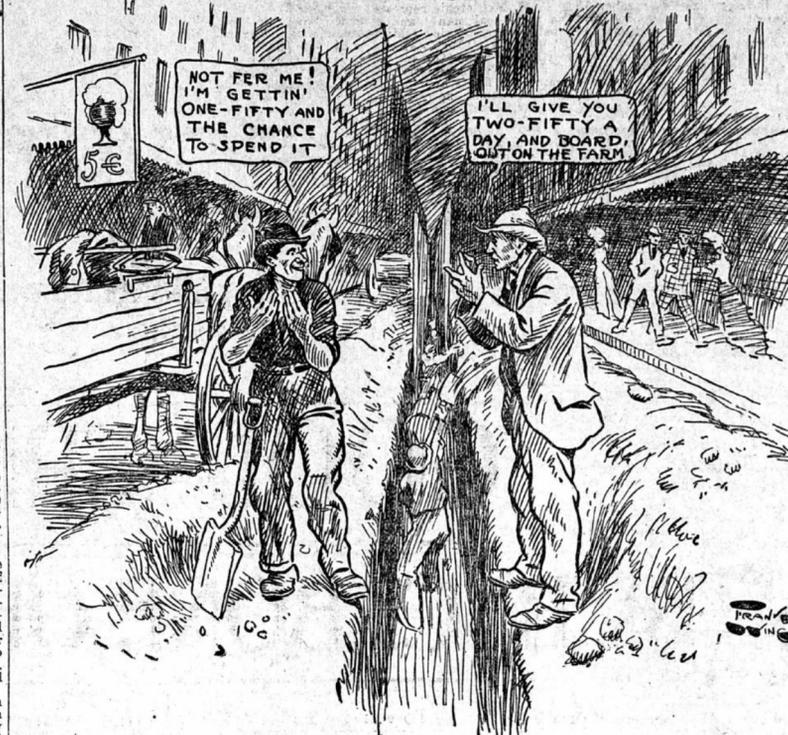

Aged Wisconsin Suicide Left Buried Cash and Relatives Will Dig Up His Farm in Search of It.

Special to The Journal. Milwaukee, Wis., June 23.—Jacob Bear, aged 60, hanged himself on his farm in Granville, near this city. A few days ago he said that Dr. Osler's theory was correct, especially in cases like his. He said he had no friend and no relatives he cared to consider. He leaves a large estate, but no one knows where it is, and his farm is likely to be dug up in the search for it.

WHAT THE FARMER IS UP AGAINST.

AMERICAN LUMBERMAN AFTER CANADIAN PINE

British Columbia Woods Said to Be Literally Swarming with Yankies.

Special to The Journal. Nelson, B. C., June 23.—Appreciation of the magnitude of the lumber trade of western Canada is growing daily. It is estimated that the mills of southern Kootenay alone will turn out over 150,000,000 feet this summer, notwithstanding the light snowfall last winter, which hindered logging.

Buyers from the United States are busy in British Columbia. G. A. Lambers and J. P. McGoldrick of Stillwater, Minn., are becoming largely interested in British Columbia logging. The former has been in Nelson and has run lines thru his limits there for logging roads and a light railway. These men are principals in the company which bought out the Fox Lumber company of Spokane, a little over a year ago. They also have areas of timber along the British Columbia coast, principally on Queen Charlotte island.

D. J. Wilson, also of Stillwater, and Thomas Wilkinson of Burlington, Iowa, have brought out the lumber business of Ross Brothers & Co. at Elkmount, B. C.

HOOVER HAS A FINE RECORD AS EDUCATOR

Fargo's New Superintendent Long Prominent in the Work in His State.

PROFESSOR W. E. HOOVER, Who is at the Head of the Largest School System in North Dakota.

Special to The Journal. Fargo, N. D., June 23.—Fargo patrons of the public schools regard themselves as particularly fortunate in having W. E. Hoover as superintendent. Mr. Hoover is recognized as one of the ablest educators of the state, and as a man who gets results.

Mr. Hoover was born in Chester county, Pennsylvania, and removed to Ohio at an early age. He was educated in the public schools and at the Ohio Northern university. He taught for a few years in the rural and graded schools in the buckeye state. Sixteen years ago he came to North Dakota. For five years he was superintendent at Larimore, three at Cassillon and eight at Park River, before being promoted to the superintendency of the Fargo schools the largest in the state.

GALIGIANS A TERROR TO THE LAW-ABIDING

Lawless Career of Band in Winnipeg Has Discredited the Race with Many.

Winnipeg, Man., June 23.—The authorities are confronted with the Galician problem. Many of this strange race have immigrated to Canada, and some of them have proved a terror to law-abiding communities. There are some 6,000 of them in this city, and ten times as many scattered throughout the northwest.

The Winnipeg Galicians have come into prominence by reason of blood-thirsty murders, several brutal stabbing affrays and innumerable smaller crimes. The police say these affairs can all be traced to eighty-four young men who came from the villages of Chorosko, Perromylo and Huvylo.

The young men in question served in the army together, and came to Canada about the same time. Arriving in Winnipeg, they took up quarters as close together as possible, and joined together in small bands for offensive and defensive work. They travel in gangs, and whenever one of their number gets into trouble, the rest come to his assistance, and between them manage to put their opponents out of business.

FIREBUG'S HAND RAISED AGAINST A LITTLE TOWN

The Entire Population of McMillan, Aroused by Frequent Incendiary Fires, Is Keeping Close Guard.

Newberry, Mich., June 23.—The close watch maintained lately by irate citizens evidently has been the means of putting at least a temporary stop to the epidemic of incendiarism experienced at McMillan.

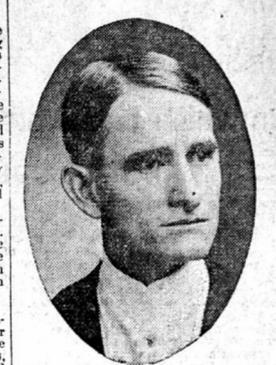

Recently the station of the South Shore railroad burned. No suspicion that the fire was accidental would have been entertained had not a bundle of rags saturated with kerosene been found afterwards at the barn of County Clerk Tait. A second attempt was made to burn the Tait barn, and the same night flames were discovered in the barn of the Northern Coopersage company. The fire in each instance was discovered almost at its inception.

The following evening the firebug made a fresh endeavor, this time at the schoolhouse, whereupon the entire population of the town resolved itself into a vigilance committee and has been on guard ever since.

WEDDED AT LINNELL. Park Rapids, Minn., June 23.—Rev. Jesse Rickel and Miss Algie Lynnburner were married at the home of the bride's parents at Linnell, Minn., by Rev. W. T. Milliken of Park Rapids. They will reside in Park Rapids.

PYTHIANS PUT BLACK AT HEAD OF ORDER

New Grand Chancellor in South Dakota Popular with All Classes.

J. H. BLACK, Sioux Falls Lodge Man Reaches First Place in Knightly Rank.

Special to The Journal. Sioux Falls, S. D., June 23.—The newly elected official head of the Knights of Pythias of South Dakota, John Harley Jenkins Black of Sioux Falls is personally very popular and numbers his warm personal friends by the hundreds. That he will make a fine record in office is not doubted by those who know him well.

He was born Sept. 5, 1866, in Henry county, Indiana. He attended the public schools until he was 14, when he moved to Le Mars, Iowa, and commenced his apprenticeship at the printer's trade. Since then he has been engaged in the printing business.

Mr. Black took up his residence in Sioux Falls on Oct. 15, 1889. He has been prominent in local and state politics and in labor circles, and for some time was editor and publisher of the Labor Gazette. He is a strong unionist.

In 1898 he was one of the republican nominees for the legislature from Minnehaha county.

THREE BISHOPS OF CHURCH TO BE THERE

Encampment of Iowa's Epworth League Will Have a Special Day for Workingmen.

Special to The Journal. Des Moines, Iowa, June 23.—Three of the greatest bishops in the Methodist Episcopal church of America will be present at the eleventh annual encampment of the Iowa Epworth League assembly, which will be at Colfax, the famous mineral-water resort, Aug. 1 to 13. These are Bishop Joseph C. Hartzell, Bishop C. C. McCabe and Bishop Joseph F. Berry.

Other prominent churchmen who will participate in the program are Dr. M. M. Parkhurst, Rev. Dr. Robert McIntyre, Rev. Sam P. Jones, Rev. Charles Stetzel, J. G. Camp, Dr. D. F. Fox and G. A. Gearhart.

Probably the most interesting feature of the big gathering will be workingmen's day on Aug. 12, when Rev. Mr. Stetzel of Chicago, who conducted the great workingmen's day at the Presbyterian General Assembly here in July, will preside. He is the superintendent of the department of church and labor of the Presbyterian church. As Colfax is in a community surrounded by miners, it is expected he will have a large audience of these men.

Another feature will be a spelling school in which all of the Jasper county schools will participate. A prize of $50 is offered the winners.

GOLDEN WEDDING DAY

Mr. and Mrs. Sellberg, Dakota Pioneers of 1868, Will Celebrate.

Special to The Journal. Elk Point, S. D., June 23.—Mr. and Mrs. John Sellberg of Sioux Valley, this county, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary tomorrow. They were married in Sweden June 24, 1856, coming to Dakota territory in 1868. They homesteaded a claim on which they are living today in competence and comfort, despite grasshoppers, Indians and pioneer experiences. In the old country Mr. Sellberg was a master carpenter, a band leader and an instructor on the violin. He represented this county in the territorial legislature of 1877, has served as school officer, assessor and road supervisor many times, and for fourteen years was president of the Union County Farmers' Mutual Fire association. He has been a life-long member of the Swedish Evangelical Lutheran church, serving as deacon for many years.

FISHING FIELDS FAIL

Special to The Journal. Marquette, Mich., June 23.—Captain John Coffee, a well-known commercial fisherman, operating in the waters out from Manistique, Lake Michigan, has decided to discontinue fishing for the summer and has laid his traps. Scarcity of fish is responsible. The fishermen operating along the south shore of Lake Superior also are complaining of poor catches, and it is likely that some of these will also temporarily suspend operations. There is little money in the business at present. Ontonagon fishermen have deserted their usual grounds, and are meeting with fair success in Minnesota waters off the north shore of Lake Superior, at the head of the lake.
