CITIES WAR ON SMOKE NUISANCE

International Association to Aid Cleanliness Formed at Detroit.

Detroit, June 28.—A concerted movement of international scope, the first ever undertaken for the abatement of the smoke nuisance, was launched here when the International Association for the Prevention of Smoke was organized. The formation of the society, which includes both public officials and laymen who are interested in furthering the movement, means not only a centralization of the forces "fighting for the blue sky," but marks a forward step in the general struggle for municipal cleanliness. The association was organized at a convention of delegates representing nearly every section of the country. Harmony and enthusiasm were the distinctive features and throughout the day those present gave and listened to opinions on the question of checking the owners of chimneys from polluting the air. One of the most interesting contributions to the general discussion was given by S. T. Douglas of the Detroit board of health, who read a paper on "The Necessity of Legislation." Mr. Douglas not only advocated a comprehensive law, but insisted that engineers and firemen and others should be prosecuted as well as their employers.

Mr. Douglas then outlined a general plan for an effective anti-smoke campaign. An effective and workable ordinance, practically uniform in all cities. Its enforcement to be put in the hand of a non-partisan board. Every boiler plant, whether newly equipped or equipped, should comply with all the requirements of a clearly defined ordinance or code. Responsibility for violations of the smoke ordinance should not only lie with the owner, but also, in lesser degree, should include managers, yardmasters, engineers, firemen or any other employees. The knowledge of what is a proper device for any particular plant should be obtained and given to the owner, and the exact merits of every smoke device made public. Owners should be taught that the best fuel for steam purposes is the cheapest in the end. Offenders should be given a reasonable time to correct, but when they refuse the law should be rigidly enforced.

Smoke Inspector Schubert, Chicago told of the fight Chicago has made for purer air. "Until a few years ago Chicago did not work along right lines to abate the smoke nuisance," said Mr. Schubert. "In 1903 a new idea on this subject, which was warmly supported by certain newspapers and prominent citizens, resulted in the creation of the office of smoke inspector, boiler inspector and supervising engineer of boiler plants. Chicago's present mayor is a staunch supporter of the anti-smoke ordinance, and under a new ordinance, which went into effect a few months ago; we are able to do much more effective and prompt work than we did previously. It was only yesterday that we collected $320 in fines from one railroad company, and since Jan. 1 last we have prosecuted 700 suits in which defendants were fined a total of $7,000."

"I want to say that coaxing of defendants in smoke cases does not do a great deal of good in the end. Defendants find it easy to make promises, but it too often occurs that they fail to live up to them. What is most needed is persistent prosecution and the imposition of heavy fines."

Mr. Bement asserted that coal consumption in Chicago had increased 400 per cent in the last twenty years, while the amount of smoke in the downtown district had been reduced by half. The following officers were elected: President—John F. Balbriggan, Detroit; Vice President—Charles Pothke, Milwaukee; Secretary-Treasurer—R. C. Harris, Toronto, Ont.

Among cities represented at the convention are Philadelphia, Indianapolis, Rochester, N. Y.; Denver, Syracuse, Cincinnati, Toledo, Milwaukee, Cleveland and Toronto.

Little Good in Coaxing. "I want to say that coaxing of defendants in smoke cases does not do a great deal of good in the end. Defendants find it easy to make promises, but it too often occurs that they fail to live up to them. What is most needed is persistent prosecution and the imposition of heavy fines."

HONEYMOON BROKEN UP BY VISION OF DEATH

Philadelphia, June 29.—Arriving in North Wales yesterday afternoon on their wedding trip, having been married the night before, a young couple, whose names are unknown except that the man was a nephew of Thomas Jaquet of North Wales, were instantly killed at Gwynedd at 8:20 p.m. A Philadelphia & Reading round-bound excursion train from Forest Park struck their carriage at the station crossing. With them were Mr. and Mrs. Jaquet, who also met death at the same time. Both horses were killed and the carriage reduced to splinters. No one in North Wales can be found who knows who the young couple were, except that the bridegroom was Mr. Jaquet's nephew. They arrived at the Jaquet home late in the afternoon and the fatal drive was begun shortly after they reached the town. Mr. Jaquet is a substantial citizen of North Wales, having conducted an ice business for many years, in addition to owning a livery stable. FIREMEN TRAPPED IN AN ELECTRIC CRANE

East St. Louis, June 29.—Four firemen, hoisted in an electric crane twenty feet above five enormous furnaces at the American Foundry company's plant, today to fight a fire in the roof, were left stranded half an hour because the men operating the crane became frightened and left their posts. The heat from the furnaces and burning roof became unbearable, and, for half an hour, the firemen tried to be let down. At last, Fireman Mike Sullivan, in desperation, jumped to the ground between the seething flames, threw a rope to his comrades, and they descended, badly blistered, from the terrible heat endured. The fire was confined to the burning of a false roof. It is estimated that the value of the presents which Prince Arthur of Connaught brought home from Japan is no less than $250,000.

RAIN SPOILS KING'S BIRTHDAY PLANS

London, June 29.—Most of the arrangements for the public observance of King Edward's birthday were cancelled today on account of a severe rainstorm which visited this country during the early hours of the morning. Over two inches of rain fell in London in eight hours, constituting a record. Many districts were flooded, people were driven out of their houses, the underground railroads were inundated and traffic was stopped. In some of the suburbs of this city the streets were impassable to pedestrians, and the imprisoned occupants of flooded houses were rescued by firemen in boats. The king ordered the cancellation of the ceremony of trooping the colors of the horse guards, and the abandonment of the reviews of troops at Aldershot and elsewhere. The usual "rainbow dressings" of the warships at the naval ports were mostly countermanded.
