CZAR REMEMBERS FLOUR CITY GIFT

IT HELPED WASHBURN IN AUDIENCE WITH NICHOLAS.

The Senator Returns from His Long Trip Abroad Deeply Impressed with the Magnitude of Roosevelt's Services to the Country—Says Chicago Is in Disrepute Everywhere.

Thoroughly rejuvenated by a month at Carlsbad and the changing scenes of a six-months' continental trip, former Senator William D. Washburn returned to Minneapolis today.

Without doubt the extreme consideration shown Mr. Washburn in the immediate and long interview was due to the czar's remembrance that in the time of Russia's famine in 1892, Senator Washburn was instrumental in securing the Minneapolis gift of a shipload of flour and in the passage of an order by the senate to commission a warship to transport the flour.

In speaking of Emperor Nicholas, who accorded the interview through the agency of Russian ambassador Meyer, Senator Washburn said that he found the monarch alone, dressed in a silk working blouse. In stature he was below the standard of the Romanoff line.

"In the conversation the czar expressed a wish for the reinstatement of the old relationships with the United States," "We want American capital and we want to increase our exports," he said.

"I think the czar wants to do right," said the senator, "but he is between the devil and the deep sea. The bureaucrats want to carry out their ideas and it is likely to burst out. The situation reminds me very much of the conditions at the time of the French revolution."

Viewing the progress of history in the United States from afar, Senator Washburn's admiration for President Roosevelt has grown amazingly. "I think Roosevelt," said he, "is the greatest man living, and that his people do not know what they owe him. He has stood between anarchy and the country. The railroad, pure food and packing bills would not have become law had not been for Roosevelt. All the time I was in congress, he said, 'we were fighting for a pure food law and we have jiggled along and would never have had the legislation passed had not been for the president gotten on their backs with a club.'"

BIGGEST FOURTH IN CITY'S HISTORY

INDEPENDENCE DAY NOT SOLELY FOR YOUNG AMERICA.

Everybody Will Celebrate the Nation's Birthday Anniversary, and Thousands Are Expected to Throng the Parks and Amusement Places—Fire works and Noise on the Bills.

All signs point to the biggest Fourth of July celebration in the history of Minneapolis—the biggest because Minneapolis is bigger than it has been on previous "Fourth's" here.

There will be no observance of the kind that forty years ago would be apt to mark the day, when town or city entered into a celebration arranged for the general citizenry.

The day will furnish a great big outing for the entire community. Every lake and pleasure resort will have its quota of picnics.

Perfect weather conditions are predicted. Last year it rained at intervals from 6:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. and the day was spoiled for many.

He forbids fireworks in alloys and backyards and in cannon, guns, revolvers and other firearms, dynamite or cannon firecrackers, and placing of topedoes on street tracks.

To go into particulars on the day the union plan of the Catholic parishes of Minneapolis at Nelson's grove, at Penn avenue and Ninth avenue N., which can be reached both by the Plymouth avenue and the Sixth avenue cars, will be the most comprehensive event of the day, in point of number of people to be in attendance.

For two days the large force of people have been at work upon the preparations at the grove. Fifty tents are in place, a big grandstand has been built and other arrangements effected for entertaining.

One feature of the picnic which will occasion much interest will be the award of the prize in the voting contest. The prize is a trip to the Yellowstone park, and each parish has a candidate.

The chairman of the committee of arrangements is W. P. Devereaux; F. E. Murphy, secretary; Hubert Kelly, treasurer. James Schell, chairman of the committee on amusements; John Gerberon, transportation; Michael G. Sheehan, commissary, and John Gleason, Jr., sports.

HAYNES IN RACE FOR MAYORALTY

Republican candidates for nomination at the primaries will have little need this year to worry because of the democratic influence that in times past has been a disturbing element in the republican primary elections.

The campers at the Baptist assembly grounds near Mound City, Lake Minnetonka, and the citizens of Mound will join for an old-fashioned Independence day celebration on the assembly grounds tomorrow.

Success in the Gulf Coast Country. Every Tuesday and Saturday there will appear in the columns of this paper an example of what has been done in farming in the Gulf Coast country on the Brownsville Line. Example No. 1. 20 acres of onions that realized $10,000. Mr. Geo. Hoffman of Kingsville, Texas, planted early this Spring, 5 acres in carrots, 20 acres in onions. In March, he sold his carrots to Denny & Co. of Chicago, for $5 per crate. His net returns on 5 acres of carrots were $320 per acre. His onions averaged 2,000 lbs. per acre, for which he received 2 1/2 cents a lb. Result $500 per acre. Mr. Hoffman's land cost him $15 per acre purchased two years ago. These are facts. Mr. Hoffman is not a myth, he is a real, live, up-to-date farmer. He is healthy. He is putting away a handsome profit every year. If you will write to him he will tell you more wonderful stories about his success, and you can believe them, for he is honest. You can do the same as Mr. Hoffman.
