An attractive ad, full of information, placed in one paper will command more attention than a short and vague ad placed in every paper in Minneapolis. It will cost less. If your ad is in the want columns of The Journal it will be seen and answered.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ford of Pittsburg, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mrs. Genevieve Ford (Greaves), to Albert Eugene Hoadley, both of Minneapolis. The wedding will take place in the early fall.

Mrs. Newton S. Brown of Merriam Park announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss E. Clark, to Mr. C. Clark of this city. The wedding will take place in the late summer.

The marriage of Miss Ida Gauthier and Denis Dwyer took place today at 9 o'clock in St. Anne's church, where Rev. D. J. Richard read the service and high mass was celebrated. The bride wore a gown of Miss Grace Hammond, who wore blue, with a lace blouse. The bride wore a beautiful cream lace robe, which she has been at work on for three years, fashioned with chiffon over white tulle. Two accordion-pleated frills finished the skirt and accordion-pleated chiffon made the foundation for the bodice. She wore a veil with a sprig of lilies of the valley caught in its fastening and carried a bouquet of the same flowers. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, John Dwyer, and Little Ralph Dwan, a nephew of the bridegroom, carried the ring in a tiger lily. L. Marchessault gave his daughter in marriage and John Dwan acted in place of father.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Kaiserhof for twelve. Present were the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. L. Marchessault, Dr. Cheney, Mr. and Mrs. John Marchessault of Two Harbors, Mich.

This evening a reception will be given at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Grace Hammond, 4331 Minnehaha avenue. The lawn will be arranged with lanterns and comfortable seats. In the house will be decorations of flowers and white tulle. Mr. and Mrs. Dwan will leave this evening for a short trip. After August 15 they will be at home at Two Harbors, where Mr. Dwan is in business. Mrs. Dwan has a large circle of friends there, having been a teacher in the schools for three years.

Mrs. Byron T. Harris of 2417 Emerson avenue S was hostess at a charming luncheon today in honor of Miss Grace Enos of Denver, Col., who is her guest. The luncheon was served on the luncheon table decorated with the cool look of ferns, for everything was in delicate green, even the courses of the menu were in the refreshing tints. The centerpiece was a beautiful embroidered cloth over pale green silk, and vases and urns, filled with maidenhair ferns, stood on the table and on the mantel. The party was well-pockets and vases held the beautiful green ferns, and on the piazza the hanging baskets were filled with drooping vines. Covers were laid for six, and after luncheon five hundred was played.

Friday evening Mrs. Harris will give a bridge party for her guest, Miss Enos will return home early next week.

Miss Zella Queal entertained at luncheon today at her home on Park avenue for two visiting girls, Miss Gladys Gilbert of Superior Wis., who is the guest of Miss Edsall, and Miss Louise Gund of La Crosse, who is visiting Miss Grace Fertig. Covers were played for July 4. The party was given and bright California poppies aided in carrying out a color scheme of yellow. After luncheon Miss Queal and her guests formed a matinee party at the Metropolitan theater.

Dr. Berton J. Branton and Miss Alice Brown, whose marriage has been announced for the afternoon, will give the honor guests at a dinner which Dr. Branton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Branton of 1329 Fourth avenue S will give tonight in Duane's billiard rooms. Covers will be laid for twenty.

Miss Dymple Brown will entertain informally this evening at her home, 3013 Park avenue. Mrs. Brown has just returned from a visit in Duluth, where a number of charming affairs were given for her. Miss Frances Wells gave a luncheon for the Saturday afternoon. The decorations were in white and green and masses of daisies and ferns were used. In the center of the table was a mound of daisies, and stretched from the center to the corners of the table were bands of white and green tulle. The name-cards were in green and white and the menu corresponded with the colors. July Fourth the Bon Ami club entertained at a picnic in honor of Miss Brown on a trip down the Brule river. Miss Wardell also entertained for the Minneapolis visit and a trip to Superior to Two Harbors, Mich., and another trip down the St. Louis river to Fond du Lac were pleasant affairs which were arranged for her.

Lake Harriet cafe, with its picturesque surroundings, is one of the delightful places of entertaining, and during the warm weather months the hosts and hostesses show a decided preference for piazza luncheons and dinners on the shores of the lake.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Matson and Miss Edna Matson of 2019 Fifth avenue S were hosts at a dinner for nineteen guests. The table had a charming decoration of gardenias and maidenhair ferns. Lake Harriet is the home of some of the finest fish in the country and the affair was a tempting fish dinner. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. of St. Paul, Ala., Mrs. A. Couper and Miss Hattie Lawson of Britt, Iowa, were the guests from out of the city.

More Long Gloves

Still a Famine.

And every style indication points, to the fact that long gloves will be needed and scarcer for fall and winter.

Yet new lots of long gloves are arriving at the Plymouth right along—as usual. A lot came in from Europe last week, another lot arrived yesterday afternoon. In spite of the shortage, our prices are not excessive.
