MINNEAPOLIS MAN HOME FROM ORIENT

ALBERT M. EASTHAGEN IS ACCOMPLISHED GLOBE TROTTER.

Former Member of Thirteenth Minnesota, at Present in Government Insular Service, Completes Second Circle of the Earth—Has Interesting Tales of Conditions in Far East.

After having twice circled the globe and having spent eight years in Philippine civil service, Albert M. Easthagen, son of John Easthagen, has returned to his home in Minneapolis.

Mr. Easthagen went to the Philippines as a member of Company I, Thirteenth Minnesota. For six months he has been traveling, completing his second tour around the world, returning thru China, Malay federated states, Burma, India, Ceylon, Egypt, Palestine, Greece, Asia Minor, Smyrna, Turkey, Serbia, Rumania, Hungary, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, France, Germany, Belgium, Holland, and, incidentally, dear old England.

Touched War Zone. In 1902 he made the trip by way of the Trans-Siberian railroad and thru the Japanese war zone, on to Russia, Finland, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Denmark, and then the reverse of the itinerary outlined as his second trip.

Bryan's ideas in regard to the religion, politics and government of the different countries are about such as Mr. Easthagen holds. He met Mr. Bryan several times in the orient and regards him as a great fellow to get the inside facts, as well as a close observer.

Island Laws Strict. In Manila Mr. Easthagen has had the position of city examiner or inspector in the auditor's department. The position was created on account of the tendency of officials to spend more money than they possessed, and for which offense many of them are now languishing in prison. The laws are drastic over there, he says.

He is not here to get twelve years' time. For what he would get two or three years in the states he would get twelve years over there. "The office is really that of a public examiner and the duty fell to the office of co-operating with the prosecuting attorney in beginning prosecutions for defalcation or dereliction in duty."

Favors Lawshs. Regarding the vacancy in the Philippine commission caused by the appointment of Luke E. Wright as ambassador to Japan, Mr. Easthagen, from a study of the situation at Washington, is led to believe that a public examiner, insular auditor, has the lead in favor with the authorities for the appointment.

Mr. Lawshs was deputy auditor in the Philippine islands, and in Washington when he made the investigations which disclosed the frauds in the Neely-Rathbone cases in Cuba, and has been successful in the management of his office in Manila.

Baby Son Has Record. Three years ago, in the orient, Mr. Easthagen married Miss Marion Ivell of Boston, sister of Marion Ivell, the prima donna, and he has a little boy, with the remarkable record of having gone around the world in less than 80 days.

He also has the distinction of having been baptized in the Jordan.

Mr. Easthagen and her son are now in Philadelphia, where they are in the hands of Dr. Easthagen, who is studying music and languages. Mrs. Ivell completes the family circle.

After an eight months' vacation Mr. Easthagen will resume his duties in Manila. He will spend most of his holiday in Minneapolis, where he is born and educated.

BOY DIES, CRUSHED, IN TRIBUNE ELEVATOR

Paul O'Halloran, 2104 Chicago avenue, employed in the Tribune building, was crushed to death yesterday by the heavy car coming down on him in the shaft.

The stockroom is on the second floor. It is believed that the boy, who had been employed only a few days, fell down the open shaft, and that the heavy car, descending, crushed him to death. The examination at the city hospital showed that he died as a result of internal injuries and that his chest had been crushed.

It is thought possible that the elevator may have made several trips after O'Halloran fell unconscious to the bottom of the shaft, and that each successive trip added to his injuries.

As soon as found, he was hurried to the city hospital, but was dead before he reached the hospital. He was 17 years old and lived with his parents.

DETECTIVES REWARDED

Local Sleuths Draw Premiums from Uncle Sam as Thiefcatchers. Alfred Johnson and Melvin C. Pasolot, detectives on the Minneapolis police force, have received $75 each from the postoffice department for information and capture of two men found guilty of several postoffice burglaries in the northwest.

Last fall Johnson and Pasolot increased their list of suspects to two of them, Waldorf and Day, were found to be wanted for postoffice jobs and afterwards convicted. The rewards are paid on the regular and gratification appropriation for the arrest and conviction of postoffice burglars.

BOG MAKES TROUBLE Floating Masses of Vegetation at Minnetonka Boater Engineers. A floating bog in Six-Mile creek and in Halsted's bay, Lake Minnetonka, has interfered with navigation in those waterways and has caused the commissioners much worry and work.

The bog and immense pieces of bog were cut out along the creek and piled up on the banks. This spring's high water floated all this material and is the cause of much trouble. It is so rotten that it is especially hard to get out and County Surveyor W. E. Stoopes is now trying to devise a scheme of clearing these waters.

ARRANGING FOOD FACTS. The state dairy and food commission is preparing for publication soon a pamphlet of "Food Facts." It is being compiled by Milton Trehan and Thomas Turley, and among other things it will show that adulterated foods are cheating the public out of $165,000 annually, and that 90 per cent of the people spend 50 to 60 per cent of their earnings for food.

SIMPSON CHURCH PLANS TO BUILD CHILDHOOD HOME

ACTION TAKEN WHICH MEANS NEW $40,000 STRUCTURE.

Committee Is Empowered to Select Design and It Is Hoped to Break Ground This Fall—Society Is Sixth Methodist Organization Now Building or Contemplating New House of Worship.

Hennepin Avenue, Fowler, Trinity, Joyce Memorial, Foss, Simpson. The Methodists of Minneapolis are still adding to their list of new churches. The last society to announce that its present building is inadequate to the needs of the congregation are the new Simpson church, located at First Avenue S. and Twenty-eighth street.

It was about twenty years ago that the late Dr. J. F. Chas. and a small company of Methodist churches, sacrifice and after many hard struggles, purchased a lot where the present church now stands. A church was built, but since then the society has been increasing in numbers and influence. That part of the city has grown largely in population and the church has shared to a large extent in the prosperity of the neighborhood.

New Church Necessary. For several years the church building has been considered inadequate to the needs of the congregation and its auxiliary interests. Five years ago an effort was made to remodel the building in order to secure more room, but it was soon seen that nothing short of a new church would meet the demand.

Last May the Rev. F. S. Tischer became pastor of the church. He soon saw that future growth depended largely on a new building. A committee was organized to ascertain the feeling of the membership. The progressive members of the church rallied to the proposal and a committee was appointed to prepare plans and suggest methods. That committee reported last Monday night, and the report was adopted by a unanimous rising vote.

Case of Hustle. The committee was instructed to place the tentative plan in the hands of an architect for elaboration, and there will be no pause until a beautiful modern church, equipped for institutional work, is built and paid for.

About $40,000 will be invested in the new church. The plans are so far advanced that the ground will be broken this fall. Sunday, Sept. 2, has been set apart as a grand rally day. Distinguished ministers are to be present and an appropriate program will be rendered. Special services will be given to special services at which the leading ministers of the city will be present and take part.

SHOWS ROCKETS' POWER PROFESSOR HOAG HAS SUBSTANTIAL ARGUMENT FOR PROHIBITION OF FIREWORKS.

People who eliminate the fireworks feature of the Fourth are in danger of injury so long as the use of fireworks is permitted, according to Professor William R. Hoag, physicist at the University of Minnesota.

Professor Hoag is exhibiting a piece of a skyrocket eighteen inches long and two and a half inches in diameter which crashed thru the side of a wooden building on the University campus.

The university annually puts a stop to the fireworks celebration. Not only are the operators of fireworks in danger, but the people who are celebrating in a large way are in danger. Hoag's work forms a feature of the program of the Fourth. The only remedy is to abolish fireworks altogether, and to enforce the ordinance abolishing them.

AUTOMOBLE MEN PLAN AN ECONOMY CONTEST

Plans for a general hill-climbing contest to be held next Saturday, have been abandoned by the Automobile Club of Minneapolis.

The contest is being postponed until the Saturday following there will be a Riverside hill contest between Minneapolis dealers. The contest is the result of dissatisfaction of the dealers with the results of previous contests.

"Economy" race, a new feature for Minneapolis automobilists, is being arranged for Saturday, June 28, and is expected to prove one of the most interesting features of the automobile season. Featuring that a 3,000-horsepower, 100-horsepower, 100-horsepower, 1,000-horsepower machine in covering the same distance, the official, with a gallon of gasoline, will be made at the Automobile club and the machines will run the longest distance on the allotted fuel being declared the winner.

STAY FOR MRS. YATES Woman Convicted of Arson to Seek New Trial.

Judge John Day Smith has granted a further stay of sentence in the Emma Yates arson case to give the attorneys additional time in which to prepare their arguments on a motion for a new trial. The motion will probably be heard next Wednesday.

Mrs. Yates was convicted last May of burning her store building, and was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary, but has not yet begun to serve time at the State Prison. She is now an inmate of the Hennepin county jail.

HASTINGS WANTS STATION. Residents of Hastings, Minn., have filed a petition with the state railroad and warehouse commission asking that the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road be authorized to erect a station at Hastings. The Burlington now uses the Milwaukee road's station at that point.

DICKEY IS A CANDIDATE. Charles A. Dickey, republican, of Princeton, today filed his affidavit with the secretary of state as a candidate for the house in the forty-fifth legislative district.

ST. PAUL MORE POPULOUS. According to estimates made by the publishers of the St. Paul directory, the population of the city of St. Paul, Minn., for the year 1905, was 207,000. This increase, if true, breaks all previous records for St. Paul. The largest prior increase was in 1892, when the directory showed an increase of the previous year of 7,000.

"J.P.M." VISITING

MRS. A. C. WHEELER LOOKS AGAIN ON FAMILIAR SCENES.

White of "Nym Crinkle," Who Collaborated with Her Husband in Four Nature Books, Is in Minneapolis, Her Birthplace, Seeking Local Color.

Mrs. A. C. Wheeler, her son, Master Paul Mowbray Wheeler, and her mother, Mrs. A. G. Mowbray of New York, are guests for the week at the home of Mrs. O. S. Pierce of Seventeenth street N. on their way from California to their home. Mrs. Wheeler is better known in Minneapolis by her pen name, J. P. Mowbray, who she was born in Minneapolis. She left the city when a small girl and resided in Winona until she was ready for college, when she went to Northwestern university.

Mrs. Wheeler had a talent for writing, and when she was at college she wisely planned her studies to aid her in her future work. After she was graduated she went east and was soon as busy as she could be with newspaper and magazine writing. Her work made her known to Mr. Wheeler, the dramatic critic and writer, whose pseudonym of Nym Crinkle was familiar to everybody. Their marriage followed and then the two writers collaborated in four delightful books—"A Journey to Nature," "The Making of a Country Home," "Tangled Up in Beulah Land" and "A Journey to Nature."

The latter was unfinished at the time of Mr. Wheeler's death and was later prepared for publication by Mrs. Wheeler. Short stories, special articles, plays and novels were produced by the gifted couple, and only Mrs. Wheeler knew what is her work and what was that of her husband, so harmonious in the whole.

Nine-year-old Master Paul Mowbray Wheeler has a claim to distinction all his own, for he is the original of Charles W. Wheeler in "A Journey to Nature." The book was written after the Wheelers moved out to their beautiful big country place at Monsey, N. Y., and the other tales followed in less than ten years.

Mrs. Wheeler, with her mother and son, went west in January and spent some time in travel and visiting in the west. She had had some experience during the earthquake, and while they had no harrowing experiences themselves, they witnessed many a strange incident and had sensations that will be invaluable to a writer. Their journey west was broken by two train wrecks, so that altogether this western trip has proved successful.

Mrs. Wheeler is at present at work on a fifth book, but before it is finished she plans to write a play, an international melodrama, which will have its scenes in the large cities of the world. She has had practical experience on the stage in order to prepare herself for dramatic writing, in which she is a writer with a dramatic style," she said, "dramatic in plot and style."

AUTO CLUB TO HAVE BIG FLORAL PARADE

A floral automobile parade will be given by the Minneapolis Automobile club during G. A. R. week, and cash prizes will be given to the best decorated cars.

A special vote of thanks was tendered to Guy Krumm, aged 15, of S. Spargo for excellent services rendered in managing and conducting the parade held June 29. The club appropriated $150 for giving up Superior boulevard, the work to be done under the direction of G. A. Will, chairman of the Good Roads association.

Eighteen applications for membership were received by the trustees during the past ten days and were elected to membership. They are: W. K. Morrison, 247 Nicollet avenue; Rome G. Brown, 1150 Irving street; H. E. Legg, 9428 Humboldt avenue S.; H. G. Pettengill, 1908 Kenwood parkway; John S. Dean, 2412 Nicollet avenue; D. Blackley, Chamber of Commerce; V. S. BOYS, WITHOUT MONEY, TRAVEL 33,000 MILES

Philadelphia, July 11.—"I ain't got a cent, but I'll be home in three weeks," said Guy Krumm, aged 15, of Danville, Ky., who arrived yesterday with two other boys on the American liner Friesland from a two years' tour of the world. The other two plucky specimens of young America were Otto Ford, 18 years old, of Seattle, and Glenn Howell of Atlanta, a relative of the publisher of the Atlanta Constitution.

It was in November, 1904, that the boys ran away. They met in Chicago and made their way to Seattle before shipping on the American liner of New Zealand. Ford and Howell shipped as able seamen and Krumm, owing to his youth, was accepted as cabin boy. The boys sailed about 33,000 miles without money.
