

TURNED OUT BY WIFE, MAN LIVES IN TENT

Once Wealthy Citizen, Abandoned by Family, Sleeps on Vacant Lot.

Philadelphia, July 14.—Spurned by his wife and children in his old age, Charles M. Ryder is living in a little army tent on a vacant lot in Chester, beside the home, where he once maintained one of the finest establishments in that town.

PADEREWSKI, IN DARK, CHARMS HIS AUDIENCE

Pianist Has Lights Turned Down at Astor Concert—Senior Astor Is Very Feeble.

New York Herald Special Cable Service. Copyright, 1906, by the New York Herald. London, July 14.—King Edward's sister, Louise, the duchess of Argyll, attended William Waldorf Astor's second concert and her heart looked so very weary, so faded out, in fact, using two canes to get about, she made him take her arm and let her help him into the concert room.

ELECTROUTES INSECTS

Frenchman Invents Machine to Battle Troublesome Insect Pests. New York Herald Special Cable Service. Copyright, 1906, by the New York Herald. Paris, July 14.—Maurice Chaulin has declared war, electrically, on mosquitoes and gnats. He proposes to replace the old methods by electrocution.

MOTHER'S FAVORITE

For Baby's Skin & Scalp Because of its Delicate Medicinal, Emollient, Sanative, and Antiseptic Properties combined with the purest of Cleansing Ingredients and most refreshing of Flower Odors.

HOLLAND TO GLORIFY REMBRANDT'S MEMORY; THREE-DAYS' CELEBRATION WILL BEGIN TODAY

Great Artist Was Neglected When He Lived.

By Gordon Bates. Special Cable to The Journal.

AMSTERDAM, July 14.—Three hundred years ago, Rembrandt's son was born at Leyden. He achieved some fame during his life, but he died in poverty and obscurity, and so little notice did his passing attract that no contemporary chronicler makes any mention of it.

If a plebiscite were taken on the subject today it is possible that the name of Rembrandt would come out on top as the greatest artist the world ever saw. Anyhow, no Dutchman will now admit that any other painter can claim equal rank with him.

The queen will unveil a bronze statue of the man it took so little notice of when alive by a grand commemoration of the tercentenary of his birth. The "Night Watch," which many consider Rembrandt's masterpiece, there is no authentic record in existence.

In all the principal towns of Holland, committees have been formed to arrange for some sort of commemorative program, the most notable of them will take place at Leyden, where he was born, and at Amsterdam where he worked and died.

On Monday the queen, the prince consort and the queen's mother will attend the commemorative ceremonies in the town hall. After that, the queen will open the special room built in the Ryks museum to house the "Night Watch," which many consider Rembrandt's masterpiece.

The feature of the Leyden celebration will be an exhibition of pictures by Rembrandt and other masters who first saw the light in the historic old town. Many of the Rembrandt pictures that will be shown have never been exhibited before.

Sweden is anxious over the continued presence of Russian troops on Aland islands. These islands are of great strategic value as they demand not only the approach to the Gulf of Finland and Bothnia gulf, but also the approaches to Stockholm.

RUSSIAN OCCUPATION OF ALAND ISLANDS

CAUSES MUCH ANXIETY AMONG SWEDISH PEOPLE. Treaty of Paris in 1856 Bound Russia to Withdraw Troops from Islands—Some Norwegians Want Ports as Near the Swedish Frontier as the Karlestad Treaty Will Permit.

Sweden is anxious over the continued presence of Russian troops on Aland islands. These islands are of great strategic value as they demand not only the approach to the Gulf of Finland and Bothnia gulf, but also the approaches to Stockholm.

The commanding position of these islands was fully recognized by the powers in 1856 when, after the treaty of Paris, after the Crimean war, Russia was compelled to abandon the fortifications at Bomarsund on one of the islands and to agree that no military forces shall again be stationed on the islands.

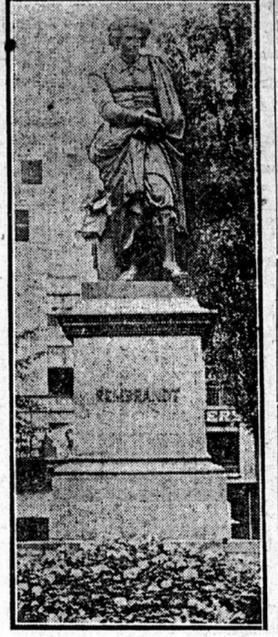

Several authorities on international law hold that the action of Russia is an open violation of the Paris treaty. This position is also taken by several Russian newspapers and members of the government in view of their military aggression, and as the islands command no other foreign country than Sweden, the people of that country have the most to fear.

IN TIMES OF PEACE

Prepare for War, Says Norwegian Defense Union. Neither arbitration nor neutral zones are as strong defensive measure, says the Norwegian Defense Union, as a line of forts and well-trained troops.

HONOR FOR BOTANIST

Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Birth of Linnaeus. The second centennial of the birth of Karl von Linnæus, the father of botany, will be celebrated next year on May 13 in an imposing manner.

THE REMBRANDT STATUE IN AMSTERDAM, AROUND WHICH THE TERCENTENARY CELEBRATIONS WILL CENTER.

A few months ago in Friesland. The exhibition will be held in the Lakenhall and the university buildings. The queen will unveil a bronze statue of the artist and a memorial tablet will be placed in the house where he was born.

Queen and Others to Pay Tardy Homage.

which we all take off our hats to the old lion, that man of hard luck could drive him to turn out "pot boilers." He would rather starve than prostitute his genius. And so he condescended to turn out pictures and sketches that made fortunes for their lucky discoverers generations afterwards.

REMBRANDT'S ART

A Master of Light and Shade, and "Prince of Etchers." By Martha C. Wells. (This is No. XXIV of Mrs. Wells' series of "Art Aids for Busy People." Copyright, 1906.)

In all the activity that surrounded Rembrandt, in his land of canals and dykes, brought to the great commercial Amsterdam from the busy continent and the extensive East India trade, he did not follow the conventionalities of his artistic predecessors of Italy or neighboring Flanders, but created a line of work so different and new that he is called the most original of all Dutch painters, and has influenced all subsequent art by his marvelous handling of light and shade.

The art of printing, diffusing general knowledge, had released the artists from the function of importing scriptural instruction for church decorations, and the spirit of national independence and wealth created a desire for pictures of Dutch scenes and Dutch people. The art of printing, diffusing general knowledge, had released the artists from the function of importing scriptural instruction for church decorations, and the spirit of national independence and wealth created a desire for pictures of Dutch scenes and Dutch people.

RUSSIAN OCCUPATION OF ALAND ISLANDS

CAUSES MUCH ANXIETY AMONG SWEDISH PEOPLE. Treaty of Paris in 1856 Bound Russia to Withdraw Troops from Islands—Some Norwegians Want Ports as Near the Swedish Frontier as the Karlestad Treaty Will Permit.

ROOSEVELT AND OSCAR

Receive Greetings from Norrköping Exposition. American day at the Norrköping exposition was a brilliant success. The whole city, including the exhibition, was decorated with American flags.

LILLESTROM HARRIED

Bad Fire Destroys More Than Fifty Houses. Lillestrom, Norway, had a bad fire on June 24, when a district a mile long was destroyed. Fifty houses and some factories were burned and many people made homeless, but suffered very little, as they found refuge with their more fortunate neighbors.

PEACE CONGRESS

Stockholm Will Send an Invitation to Milan Meeting. Frederick Bayer, president of the international peace commission, has informed the Swedish Peace association that the world's peace congress will be held in Stockholm in 1908, if an invitation is sent to the congress in Milan.

HONOR FOR BOTANIST

Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Birth of Linnaeus. The second centennial of the birth of Karl von Linnæus, the father of botany, will be celebrated next year on May 13 in an imposing manner.

Queen and Others to Pay Tardy Homage.

which we all take off our hats to the old lion, that man of hard luck could drive him to turn out "pot boilers." He would rather starve than prostitute his genius. And so he condescended to turn out pictures and sketches that made fortunes for their lucky discoverers generations afterwards.

REMBRANDT'S ART

A Master of Light and Shade, and "Prince of Etchers." By Martha C. Wells. (This is No. XXIV of Mrs. Wells' series of "Art Aids for Busy People." Copyright, 1906.)

In all the activity that surrounded Rembrandt, in his land of canals and dykes, brought to the great commercial Amsterdam from the busy continent and the extensive East India trade, he did not follow the conventionalities of his artistic predecessors of Italy or neighboring Flanders, but created a line of work so different and new that he is called the most original of all Dutch painters, and has influenced all subsequent art by his marvelous handling of light and shade.

The art of printing, diffusing general knowledge, had released the artists from the function of importing scriptural instruction for church decorations, and the spirit of national independence and wealth created a desire for pictures of Dutch scenes and Dutch people. The art of printing, diffusing general knowledge, had released the artists from the function of importing scriptural instruction for church decorations, and the spirit of national independence and wealth created a desire for pictures of Dutch scenes and Dutch people.

RUSSIAN OCCUPATION OF ALAND ISLANDS

CAUSES MUCH ANXIETY AMONG SWEDISH PEOPLE. Treaty of Paris in 1856 Bound Russia to Withdraw Troops from Islands—Some Norwegians Want Ports as Near the Swedish Frontier as the Karlestad Treaty Will Permit.

ROOSEVELT AND OSCAR

Receive Greetings from Norrköping Exposition. American day at the Norrköping exposition was a brilliant success. The whole city, including the exhibition, was decorated with American flags.

LILLESTROM HARRIED

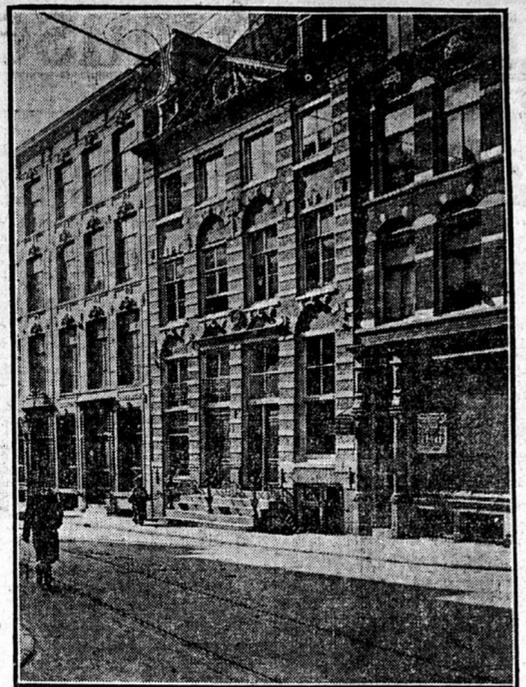

Bad Fire Destroys More Than Fifty Houses. Lillestrom, Norway, had a bad fire on June 24, when a district a mile long was destroyed. Fifty houses and some factories were burned and many people made homeless, but suffered very little, as they found refuge with their more fortunate neighbors.

PEACE CONGRESS

Stockholm Will Send an Invitation to Milan Meeting. Frederick Bayer, president of the international peace commission, has informed the Swedish Peace association that the world's peace congress will be held in Stockholm in 1908, if an invitation is sent to the congress in Milan.

HONOR FOR BOTANIST

Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Birth of Linnaeus. The second centennial of the birth of Karl von Linnæus, the father of botany, will be celebrated next year on May 13 in an imposing manner.

The House Formerly Occupied by Rembrandt in the Breestraat, Amsterdam. It has Just Been Purchased by the Municipality and Will Be Preserved as a Memorial of the Great Painter.

RUSSIAN OCCUPATION OF ALAND ISLANDS

CAUSES MUCH ANXIETY AMONG SWEDISH PEOPLE. Treaty of Paris in 1856 Bound Russia to Withdraw Troops from Islands—Some Norwegians Want Ports as Near the Swedish Frontier as the Karlestad Treaty Will Permit.

ROOSEVELT AND OSCAR

Receive Greetings from Norrköping Exposition. American day at the Norrköping exposition was a brilliant success. The whole city, including the exhibition, was decorated with American flags.

LILLESTROM HARRIED

Bad Fire Destroys More Than Fifty Houses. Lillestrom, Norway, had a bad fire on June 24, when a district a mile long was destroyed. Fifty houses and some factories were burned and many people made homeless, but suffered very little, as they found refuge with their more fortunate neighbors.

PEACE CONGRESS

Stockholm Will Send an Invitation to Milan Meeting. Frederick Bayer, president of the international peace commission, has informed the Swedish Peace association that the world's peace congress will be held in Stockholm in 1908, if an invitation is sent to the congress in Milan.

HONOR FOR BOTANIST

Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Birth of Linnaeus. The second centennial of the birth of Karl von Linnæus, the father of botany, will be celebrated next year on May 13 in an imposing manner.

WILD AND WOOLLY EAST GIVES BISON TO WEST

Skyscraper Town Furnishes Pioneer Beasts to Effete Cattle-puncher Country. Special to The Journal. New York, July 14.—As a result of the onward march of civilization, the effete west is to be supplied with bison from the wild and woolly east.

As an evidence of its desire to preserve permanently the American bison from final extinction, the zoological society offered to the government, as a gift, a herd of between fifteen and twenty buffaloes, provided the government would fence in a suitable range on the Wichita game reserve, wherein the herd could be maintained without the expense of constant feeding. This offer was favorably received.

The New York Zoological society desires it to be distinctly understood that its gift of a buffalo herd is prompted entirely by patriotic motives, and not because, as has been erroneously alleged, the buffaloes in the zoological park are not doing well. As a matter of fact, no buffaloes in captivity are in finer condition or breeding more readily than those in Bronk park, which is today the largest and finest herd on public exhibition anywhere.

It is concluded, however, by the zoological society and by all competent authorities that the American bison cannot be preserved from ultimate extinction and carried thru several centuries by breeding in the close confinement of zoological gardens and parks. This noble animal can be saved only by establishing herds on very large areas, and that the breeding of wild condition and will thereby obtain the exercise that is absolutely necessary to their permanent welfare.

BROODS OVER CHUM'S DEATH; GOES INSANE

Sequel to Brandley's Mysterious Killing Off at Bemidji—Sullivan, Insane, Threatens Lives of His Fellows. Special to The Journal. Bemidji, Minn., July 14.—Frank Sullivan, a lumberjack well-known in Bemidji for his jail record, has gone insane in Dorset, Hubbard county, from brooding over the supposed murder of Martin Brandley in this city a week ago.

Sullivan says he was a chum of Brandley and talks about his friend's death constantly. His insanity took a violent form a few days ago, when he attempted to do injury to some of his fellow workmen in a lumber camp near Dorset, and later when he accosted a resident of Dorset and his family, while they were sitting reading on their doorstep, and threatened to kill them with an ax he carried in his hand. When a show of fight was made, Sullivan withdrew and begged the woman and her son not to let her husband hurt him. He is in charge of the sheriff.

Brandley was found dying in front of a variety theater in Bemidji and several ugly looking bruises on his face pointed to murder. Evidence of foul play failed to develop, however, and the coroner declared that the man came to his death by natural causes.

RUSSIAN OCCUPATION OF ALAND ISLANDS

CAUSES MUCH ANXIETY AMONG SWEDISH PEOPLE. Treaty of Paris in 1856 Bound Russia to Withdraw Troops from Islands—Some Norwegians Want Ports as Near the Swedish Frontier as the Karlestad Treaty Will Permit.

ROOSEVELT AND OSCAR

Receive Greetings from Norrköping Exposition. American day at the Norrköping exposition was a brilliant success. The whole city, including the exhibition, was decorated with American flags.

LILLESTROM HARRIED

Bad Fire Destroys More Than Fifty Houses. Lillestrom, Norway, had a bad fire on June 24, when a district a mile long was destroyed. Fifty houses and some factories were burned and many people made homeless, but suffered very little, as they found refuge with their more fortunate neighbors.

PEACE CONGRESS

Stockholm Will Send an Invitation to Milan Meeting. Frederick Bayer, president of the international peace commission, has informed the Swedish Peace association that the world's peace congress will be held in Stockholm in 1908, if an invitation is sent to the congress in Milan.

HONOR FOR BOTANIST

Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Birth of Linnaeus. The second centennial of the birth of Karl von Linnæus, the father of botany, will be celebrated next year on May 13 in an imposing manner.

WILD AND WOOLLY EAST GIVES BISON TO WEST

Skyscraper Town Furnishes Pioneer Beasts to Effete Cattle-puncher Country. Special to The Journal. New York, July 14.—As a result of the onward march of civilization, the effete west is to be supplied with bison from the wild and woolly east.

As an evidence of its desire to preserve permanently the American bison from final extinction, the zoological society offered to the government, as a gift, a herd of between fifteen and twenty buffaloes, provided the government would fence in a suitable range on the Wichita game reserve, wherein the herd could be maintained without the expense of constant feeding. This offer was favorably received.

The New York Zoological society desires it to be distinctly understood that its gift of a buffalo herd is prompted entirely by patriotic motives, and not because, as has been erroneously alleged, the buffaloes in the zoological park are not doing well. As a matter of fact, no buffaloes in captivity are in finer condition or breeding more readily than those in Bronk park, which is today the largest and finest herd on public exhibition anywhere.

It is concluded, however, by the zoological society and by all competent authorities that the American bison cannot be preserved from ultimate extinction and carried thru several centuries by breeding in the close confinement of zoological gardens and parks. This noble animal can be saved only by establishing herds on very large areas, and that the breeding of wild condition and will thereby obtain the exercise that is absolutely necessary to their permanent welfare.

BROODS OVER CHUM'S DEATH; GOES INSANE

Sequel to Brandley's Mysterious Killing Off at Bemidji—Sullivan, Insane, Threatens Lives of His Fellows. Special to The Journal. Bemidji, Minn., July 14.—Frank Sullivan, a lumberjack well-known in Bemidji for his jail record, has gone insane in Dorset, Hubbard county, from brooding over the supposed murder of Martin Brandley in this city a week ago.

Sullivan says he was a chum of Brandley and talks about his friend's death constantly. His insanity took a violent form a few days ago, when he attempted to do injury to some of his fellow workmen in a lumber camp near Dorset, and later when he accosted a resident of Dorset and his family, while they were sitting reading on their doorstep, and threatened to kill them with an ax he carried in his hand. When a show of fight was made, Sullivan withdrew and begged the woman and her son not to let her husband hurt him. He is in charge of the sheriff.

Brandley was found dying in front of a variety theater in Bemidji and several ugly looking bruises on his face pointed to murder. Evidence of foul play failed to develop, however, and the coroner declared that the man came to his death by natural causes.

RUSSIAN OCCUPATION OF ALAND ISLANDS

CAUSES MUCH ANXIETY AMONG SWEDISH PEOPLE. Treaty of Paris in 1856 Bound Russia to Withdraw Troops from Islands—Some Norwegians Want Ports as Near the Swedish Frontier as the Karlestad Treaty Will Permit.

ROOSEVELT AND OSCAR

Receive Greetings from Norrköping Exposition. American day at the Norrköping exposition was a brilliant success. The whole city, including the exhibition, was decorated with American flags.

LILLESTROM HARRIED

Bad Fire Destroys More Than Fifty Houses. Lillestrom, Norway, had a bad fire on June 24, when a district a mile long was destroyed. Fifty houses and some factories were burned and many people made homeless, but suffered very little, as they found refuge with their more fortunate neighbors.

PEACE CONGRESS

Stockholm Will Send an Invitation to Milan Meeting. Frederick Bayer, president of the international peace commission, has informed the Swedish Peace association that the world's peace congress will be held in Stockholm in 1908, if an invitation is sent to the congress in Milan.

HONOR FOR BOTANIST

Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Birth of Linnaeus. The second centennial of the birth of Karl von Linnæus, the father of botany, will be celebrated next year on May 13 in an imposing manner.

Advertisement for 'GREAT CLOSING OUT SALE' at 'NEW STORE SHOE STOCK' by 'Knoblauch's Famous Arcade Shoe House'. Includes a list of various shoes and their prices.