MINNEAPOLIS

SOCIETY

Mrs. A. F. Dunsmoor gave a pretty luncheon at the Lafayette club today. Covers were laid for twelve and the decorations were carried out with delicately tinted summer blossoms. Miss Esther Adams of Duluth was the guest of honor.

Mrs. F. L. Moffett entertained at luncheon yesterday at her home at Orono in compliment of Mrs. J. S. Swiss of Shenandoah, Iowa, who is her guest for a few weeks. Bright red and yellow nasturtiums were used to decorate the table, and mounds of the fragrant blossoms stood about in the center of the table, and amidst the dishes in which the courses were served. Covers were laid for twelve and among the guests were Mrs. H. W. Road, A. L. Jenks, F. M. Stowell, J. B. Moffett, W. Z. Moffett and L. O. Le Baron.

Mrs. C. T. Thompson will entertain at a dinner of fourteen covers at the Lafayette club for her sons, and for a group of the younger people.

Mmes. P. R. Colson, W. R. Gilliam of St. Paul, and G. E. Hopkins were hostesses last evening at a delightful surprise party for the guests of the Hotel Del Otero. The affair was given in the pavilion, and the guests who had been invited to the dance found their anticipations fully realized by a number of entertaining features. In the hall boughs of green and summer blossoms made a pretty midsummer setting. Suspended from the rafters were garlands of green, and clusters of nasturtiums and brilliant red poppies and made a picture of pleasing color. A tent of oak boughs hung with Navajo rugs, was in the center and in it a gypsy presided who told the weird tales of future from the palms of her visitors' hands. As the time for refreshments came four colored dances were stepped into the pavilion carrying a huge basket filled with popcorn, from which they distributed a share to each guest. The basket with streamers of brightly colored ribbon, and garlands of flowers made it an ornamental affair. The orchestra was stationed in a bower of green and the guests danced to the merrily old-time tunes of Virginia reels and other dances of grandmother fame. Guessing games were played and handsome prizes were presented to the winners. Cider was served from a large barrel.

Today Mrs. Robert Davis was hostess at a thimble bee, entertaining about thirty of the women in the Japanese tea room. Peant dolls were dressed in tiny silk kimonos and after the women had finished their sewing, Mmes. Rich of Red Wing and Hopkins poured iced tea. The hours were from 2 to 4 o'clock. Tonight there will be the regular hour at the pavilion, an event which the younger people from around the lake are greatly anticipating.

LAKE BREEZES. Wilbur Thayer and Whitman Thayer spent Wednesday with friends at the lake. Joseph Trainer has been visiting Fred Lum at Meadville Park.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Harman at Excelsior over Sunday. Miss Marguerite Fay of San Francisco is spending the summer with Mrs. James Fay at Meadville. Miss Jane Fay of St. Peter will spend two weeks at the home of Mrs. James Fay, Meadville Park.

Mrs. Edward Blake and Mrs. R. V. Hunter were guests of Mrs. F. L. Moffett at Orono Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Meyer spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyer at their summer home at Linwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell and Miss Ethel Russell spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Heiderly of Fairview.

Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Swarout of Centralia, Wash., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dickerson at Orono for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Bishop spent Sunday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Whitcomb at their Fairview summer home.

One of the pretty affairs of today was the early breakfast given by Miss Minnie Troendle and Miss Bessie Arnold of St. Paul at 8:30 a.m., at the home of Miss Troendle, 2541 Garfield avenue. Miss Laura Fleu, whose marriage to Arthur J. Atkins takes place next Wednesday, was the guest of honor. Covers were laid for thirteen and the decorations in the dining room were carried out in the original colors, green and white. The centerpieces on the table had a large basket filled with feathery feverfew blossoms, and scattered on the cloth were white daisies. Maidenhair ferns and amilax made a setting of green for the clusters of marguerites and feverfew on the mantel and sideboard. Miss Fleu's place was designated by a large white aster. Pen and ink sketches decorated the name cards, showing designs of eggs in cups, suggestive of the breakfast.

After the breakfast had been served the guests gathered in the living room and parlor and sewed white dish-holders and tea clothes for the bride's household chest. Red geraniums and poppies carried out a pretty color scheme of red in the living room and sweet peas and nasturtiums were in the parlor. Mrs. R. Troendle and Mrs. E. H. Farnel assisted their daughters, and the Misses Tessa Terwilliger and Marguerite Barber served. Present were the original members of the Theta Delta Zeta chapter, Miss Florence Fleu and Miss Troendle, who are to be the bride's attendants, Misses Effie Cole, Marion Burt, Katherine Hewson, Effie Kinney, Ethel Huck, and Blanche Vincent and two St. Paul sisters, Misses Louise Bell and Nanie O'Neil.

Among the bride's of early fall will be Miss Marion Burt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Grant, 2120 Bryant avenue S., whose marriage to Earl William Marshall will take place at the home of the family Wednesday evening, Sept. 12. After the service a large reception will be given. Miss Burt is one of the popular girls and a number of charming affairs will be given in her honor.

The women who are in Minneapolis in connection with the National Paper Dealers' association convention were entertained last evening at a charming luncheon at Donaldson's tea rooms today by the Minneapolis and St. Paul women. Luncheon was served in the gold and white room and the decorations were exquisite, carried out to suggest the season. The centerpiece was a large oval mirror set in a bed of maidenhair ferns, its glassy surface simulating a pond. On it rested a number of pond lilies among which a toy swan swam to and fro. The favors were clusters of pond lilies and as souvenirs the guests dined on fancy hat pins carrying their cards. Covers were laid for nineteen. The group of hostesses who composed the committee were Mrs. E. P. De Haven, chairman; Mrs. John Leslie and Mrs. Frederick Wurtzbach of Minneapolis, Mmes. Frederick and John Melady of St. Paul.

After luncheon a trip around the lake was made and later in the afternoon the party took cars to Lake Minnetonka. This evening the women will join the men at the banquet at the Lafayette club, which is to be given in honor of the members of the association.

It is not very often that the members of the Minkakada club enjoy such social gayeties as they did last evening. The party was given at the home of Mrs. E. P. De Haven, and the feature of the evening and the men and women of the club came out in great numbers. Tonight there will be but little doing in the way of private dinner parties, as interest centers in the golfers' dinner, which will be the most brilliantly appointed event in the history of the club. Covers will be laid for about one hundred and forty, and the decorations will be nothing short of superb.

Saturday evening will be the closing night of all the gay doings of golf week and over so many hosts are to preside over charming dinner parties. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Peavey, Miss Kate Moulton, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Herrick, Guy Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Newell, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Benner and W. H. Lee are among those who have reserved tables for the evening. George F. Pettingill will have a party of fourteen, C. S. Brackett will entertain twenty guests and a number of other large affairs have been planned.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL. Miss Corriane V. Odell is entertaining Miss Genevieve Baker of Chicago at her home on Irving avenue S.

Miss Edith Harvey of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting her relatives, Mrs. W. William, Miss E. Jassaud and Mrs. E. Tisdale.

Americans who registered in Paris this week included H. Loring, Miss J. I. Houston, St. Paul, Minn.; B. D. Morrison, Mrs. W. Morrison, Minneapolis.

Misses Boyd will leave for New York city next Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Rose Sunkind, and her uncle, H. Stolger, who formerly resided in Minneapolis.

The Ladies' Auxiliary, U. O. T., No. 68, held its first picnic Wednesday at Minnetonka Falls. The members of the women for a 6 o'clock lunch. About forty participated in the delightful event.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waterman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Velle. Forty members of the Ladies' Social circle of St. Paul Presbyterian church were entertained at a thimble bee at the home of Mrs. E. E. Day of Washburn avenue S. Wednesday afternoon. The parlors were prettily decorated with sweet peas and nasturtiums and in the living room great clusters of dahlias were used. Mrs. Jennings gave instrumental selections and Mrs. Pooler recited. The women are making arrangements for a picnic to be given at Minnetonka Falls next Wednesday.

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED BY PURSCHENG'S BROTHER. John Purscheng of Pittsburg is in St. Paul in search of his brother, August, who mysteriously disappeared from his home at White Bear July 16. The Pittsburg man offers a reward of $50 for information leading to a solution of the mystery. August was a bachelor, 40 years of age, and lived on a farm at White Bear. He was suspicious of banks and was said to have always had much money with him. For this reason foul play is feared. He was last seen when attending a meeting at White Bear village the evening of July 16.

Coarse, discolored, oily, red skin rendered fair and inviting by Ratin skin powder. 25c. GREEN ISLE, MINN.—Walter Dohney was seriously injured by falling upon a meat hook. He was painting in a meat market when the ladder slipped and he fell upon the hook, tearing his arms here to the bone.
