Think What This Great Sale Means to You

New High Grade Pianos $100

Cheaper Than Any Concern in Minneapolis Ever Offered a Good Piano.

FREE—$35—FREE

for every caller at our store during this sale who makes the purchase of a piano, providing they do not bring some Graft, or so-called friend or music teacher, who wants a commission. We want you to obtain the lowest possible price, but this cannot be done if we are obliged to pay commission to some friend of yours, who is looking out for his own pocketbook.

It is oftentimes hard to believe a special friend of yours would want a commission from a piano house. It would be more natural to think they would make an honest choice for you, but we have many persons every week who call on us to find out what is the most we will pay them in case they bring a friend of theirs to our store to purchase a piano. We will not tolerate this commission Graft, and if we cannot sell you a piano on its merits, and in a straightforward manner, we would rather some other dealer would make the sale, rather than pay some grafter a commission. When you buy of us you will know you have been treated right, and in the future you will know that our method means a square deal for you. You owe this investigation to yourself and we would be pleased to have you call during this sale, as we were never able to quote the prices we are during this great factory sale. It is for future protection, we do not publish the makes we offer in connection with the prices.

Open evenings until 9 o'clock during this sale.

WILL GO OUT FEET FIRST, SAYS DIETZ

Fighting Attitude of Cameron Dam "Outlaw" Approved by All the Country-side.

Special to The Journal.

Spooner, Wis., Aug. 2.—While political opponents of Governor Davidson are saying that he would send troops to capture John F. Dietz, were it not for the approaching election, and fear that the governor's cause would be harmed by such an order, citizens in this vicinity are preparing petitions asking the governor not to send troops. Sympathy for Dietz is growing hourly.

When approached by a newspaper man, Dietz yesterday inquired anxiously about the wounded man. "I hope that the fellow won't die," said he. "I don't want to kill anyone. The day he intended to come on my land, I intended to kill him for shooting my boy Clarence. He was behind a stump, however, and that's what saved him. I don't want to kill anyone, because that's the trap the boom company has been laying for me for months. They nearly succeeded several times, though. They have persecuted me for three years and are sending young fools up here, killing my cattle, stealing my dogs and daring me to come off my land. I suppose some day it will be my day, and they will get John Dietz, the outlaw, as they call me. But I'm going out of here, if I ever do, feet first to the cemetery."

BOARDMAN TO INVESTIGATE

Governor Has No Thought of Sending Troops Right Away.

Milwaukee, Aug. 2.—Governor Davidson at present will not see the Wisconsin national guard to capture Dietz, as he is not yet satisfied that conditions are serious enough to warrant the sending of a company of soldiers for the service of papers. Instead, he will send a commission to Sawyer county to investigate conditions there and learn, if possible, how a lone man and his family of four are able to hold sheriff's offices at bay.

Adjutant General Charles R. Boardman probably will head the investigating committee for the governor. It is likely the companions of Dietz at a moment's notice. I could not find a man who was not openly friendly to Dietz and who did not repudiate the idea that Dietz is an outlaw."

T. E. Brennan, in speaking of the intense feeling at Spooner and Rice Lake, said:

"I was told that there are fully 2,000 people in that part of the state willing and ready to shoulder guns and march to the defense of Dietz at a moment's notice. I could not find a man who was not openly friendly to Dietz and who did not repudiate the idea that Dietz is an outlaw."

BACKING FOR DIETZ

Friends Raise Money and Hold Mass Meetings for Him.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Aug. 2.—Moral and financial backing for John F. Dietz is being solicited through northern Wisconsin. There is talk even of enlisting the services of Dietz at a moment's notice to resist the projected military attack.

Mass meetings have been held in various towns of Chippewa, Rusk, Barron and Sawyer counties. At each one adopted resolutions of sympathy and encouragement for Dietz.

Petitions are being circulated in the towns, and contributions of money are being requested. The money, as planned, will be sent later to Governor Davidson. It sets forth Dietz's case from his own point of view and appeals to the governor not to send troops.

MAYOR JOHNSON FREED FROM COURT INJUNCTION

Journal Special Service.

Cleveland, Aug. 2.—Judge Kenefly has made a sweeping ruling in favor of Mayor Johnson in the Fulton street railway case. The court declared it would not punish city officials who knew what they were enjoined from doing without being told.

As public officials, the court said, the defendants might be served with 100 injunctions in a year, or a month, or a week.

In the dispatches handled by the Associated Press July 25, describing the controversy, the statement was made that the railway line of the Cleveland Electric Railway company on Fulton street was torn up by men acting under orders of Mayor Tom L. Johnson, and that this action was owing to the pending controversy in behalf of the Forest City railway, a 3-cent-fare line. In addition to relating the facts as to the tearing up of the rails of the Cleveland Electric Railway company, the additional statement was made that Mayor Johnson was credited with being largely interested in the municipal traction company. This statement was unwarranted and is believed to be entirely untrue, if, in its reading, it tended to create the impression that Mayor Johnson had any financial interest whatever in the Forest City company.

'REDLIGHT' WOMAN HARTJE'S ACCUSER

Alma Ross Tells of Millionaire's Alleged Visits to Her Resort.

Special to The Journal.

Pittsburg, Aug. 2.—With a series of sensations that eclipse anything the case has yet produced, the Hartje divorce trial is drawing to a close. Mrs. Hartje's testimony in rebuttal was highly sensational. On top of this came the startling announcement in court that two witnesses for the libellant had just been arrested.

The men arrested were J. A. Stabb and John A. Anderson, the divorce detectives who testified last Friday they had stolen the disputed letters in the case from the trunk of Tom Madine. They were caught as they were slipping out of the courtroom. Tom Madine, the coachman correspondent, is the complainant.

The defense had a witness on the stand, a newspaper man, who testified that John Marron, one of Hartje's attorneys, had told him as early as Feb. 2 that the libellant had a great bunch of letters written by Mrs. Hartje which would absolutely prove his case and win Hartje his divorce. The detectives had testified last Friday that they stole these letters from Madine's trunk June 18, and turned them over to the attorneys for the libellant.

Alma Ross, a woman of the red-light district, was another sensational witness of the day. She declared a woman known as Josephine Wright had rented a room from her in which to entertain her lover. The following day, she said, Augustus Hartje went to the house and was introduced by the Wright woman to Alma Ross.

When the Wright woman rented the room it is charged that she explained to Miss Ross that Hartje had been visiting her at 240 Second avenue, the building which Hartje said yesterday in court he owned. This was too near his place of business, being immediately in the rear of his paper warehouse.

Case Is Near End. It was understood today that the arguments in the Hartje divorce case would begin tomorrow and that the case would then rest with Judge Robert S. Frazer for a decision.

John A. Ball, a newspaper man, testified today to an interview had with Edward G. Hartje, brother of the libellant, on April 12, in which it was alleged that Hartje said: "We have letters to other men to show that Mrs. Hartje is a very bad woman."

John Gayer, a detective and former newspaper man, corroborated Ball. The date mentioned, April 12, was two months before the Hartje detectives said they had taken the letters from Coachman Madine's trunk.

Attorney Freeman then announced the case closed for the respondent. Edward Hartje was called to the stand by the plaintiff's counsel and denied that he had made the statement to Ball.

The Letter From Papa (Abridged from the New York News-Letter. (A play in one act.) Dramatis personae: Widowed Mother, Mrs. Bensen; Son, aged 5; Letter Carrier.

Son—Where is papa? I want him. Mother—Papa is gone. Gone away on a ship—the ship of fate—and gone very far away. He left the ship would come back and take us, and then we'd see papa soon.

S.—And won't we see papa until the ship comes back? M.—No. Not till the ship comes for us.

S.—Papa would hurry back if he knew you were crying, wouldn't he? M.—Yes, dear; he'd hurry—if he knew I was crying, and that you wanted him so very much, and that you needed him so badly, I'm sure he'd hurry. If he could see the empty grate, the bare table and the empty place; and if he could see your pinched face and your thin little legs—yes—yes—dear; I know he'd hurry then, he'd (rising)—Good God, he'd burst the grave asunder and heaven itself to reach us—to tell us that he never thought, never dreamed that we should come to this.

Letter Carrier—Letter for Mr. Ralph Bensen.

M.—(Taking letter)—Thank you. (Exit letter carrier.)

M.—(Opens letter and reads as follows): "Mr. Ralph Bensen,

"Dear Sir—The second annual premium $850 on your Policy No. 95,658, for $20,000 will be due Aug. 1, 1905. Please remit on or before that date. The dividend is $75—per enclosed dividend statement, and may be used to apply on premium or to increase policy by paid-up insurance of $175 at your option. (Signed) The State Mutual Assurance Company of Worcester, Mass."

M.—Twenty thousand dollars! (Looks at little boy.) Dearie?

S.—Yes, mamma; was that letter from papa?

M.—(Excitedly)—Yes; but wait darling, let mamma think. Twenty thousand dollars! I didn't know—he never told me—but it must be true—the company would not send a notice if it were not true—$20,000! A comfortable home—decent clothing—respectable society for both of us—and an education for my little boy!

S.—And what did papa say, mamma—what did he say?

M.—Papa says for me to take the very best care of his little boy until we meet again.

The reason why the widow received $20,000 was because her husband had a policy in THE STATE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF WORCESTER, MASS.; and the reason why she had the policy was because he didn't put off taking it for that more convenient season which never comes. If you have not sufficient insurance, see an agent of the State Mutual, and do it now! Widows and children cannot live by means of insurance which was going to be taken some other time. Any agent of the State Mutual will furnish full information on request.
