plished in one brief official term as the agent of the state will be to his advantage in his municipal campaign.
Down the street comes the union tread; Sam Van Sant riding ahead.

James J. Hill is piercing the Iowa corn belt in revenge upon the Milwaukee. The cornbeaters can stand all these reverses which give them more cars and less rates.

OUT OF NEW YORK'S STREETS.—One cannot read "The Voice of the Street" without hearing the clatter and the rattle, the clatter and the clatter of New York's streets.

Member of State Committee Tells What Independent Voters Want—Buckman is Peddling St. Cloud Appointments—Legislative Gossip.

Metropolitan Opera House.—Dick Ferris has acceded to another popular demand, and next week he will produce at the Metropolitan opera house the great Mansfield success, "Old Heidelberg."

The Mayoralty Issue. The entry of Dr. U. G. Williams into the race for the mayoralty nomination makes certain a lively campaign on the republican side.

Rockefeller a Changed Man. The Hon. John D. Rockefeller has come home a changed and chastened man. He longs for association with his fellows.

WHAT OTHER PEOPLE THINK A FALSE ALARM No Hostility Towards Americans in Mexico. Having read in the issue of your paper of July 22 the press dispatch to the effect that the foreign residents in the republic of Mexico had been warned to leave that country before Sept. 15,

STORY BY MAY SINCLAIR—Superseded by May Sinclair, the author of "The Divine Fire," has been issued in this country by the publisher under the title "Two Sides of a Question."

LEGISLATIVE Gossip. The legislative situation in the thirty-second district is becoming complicated. Chicago county has three candidates for the senate, and in the race for the house, Pine and Kanabec are each entitled to one house member.

Lake Harriet Pavilion.—Extravagant praise precedes any press announcement that may be made of the success of the Liberator band and concert company, which concludes the first week of its engagement at the Lake Harriet pavilion roof garden this evening.

Wonderland Amusement Park.—The Knabenshue airship at Wonderland park, is an attraction that has aroused a great deal of interest. The prospect of seeing this dirigible balloon propelled thru the air in obedience to a rudder, has set the whole town agape.

Timber Trespass Decision. The decision of the supreme court in the matter of timber trespass, in view of the fact that the pine timber of Minnesota is nearly all gone, is a good deal like locking the stable door after the horse is stolen.

The Silence of the Country. Alluding to the approaching campaign, Speaker Cannon recently said: "After all, the people are not going to listen much to what the speakers say next fall; they will be too busy to listen."

THE CRITIC FOR AUGUST contains the following by the Lounger: "We are to have a new weekly. One of the owners of 'Everybody's' is the owner of a new venture. It is, so I am told, to be called 'Everybody's Weekly'."

THE CRITIC FOR AUGUST contains the following by the Lounger: "We are to have a new weekly. One of the owners of 'Everybody's' is the owner of a new venture. It is, so I am told, to be called 'Everybody's Weekly'."

Politics in Hennepin. Alderman A. E. Merrill is one of the eleven city council members who are candidates for reelection in the last week of the republican campaign.

Kentucky Belles. Paris, Aug. 4.—The French republic and the press are showing singular lack of gallantry in the treatment of the thirty Kentucky girls who are touring Europe and the cities of the Louisville Courier-Journal.

COMPANY B TEAM WINS AT LAKEVIEW. Highest Score in Shoot on State Range.

Personal Liberty. I quote the following from the speech of the president of the Retail Liquor Dealers' association: "We should see to it that no man is allowed to officiate who is not a staunch believer in the constitutional doctrine of personal liberty."

LET THE MAN ENJOY HIS VACATION. It remains to be seen what action President Roosevelt will take in the matter of the Tennessee colored woman to whom six babies were born a day or two ago.

THROW OUT THE LIFELINE. Study by Emerson witherto Unpublished.—In the August number of the Atlantic, as bests a midsummer number, are the following: Fiction, non-fiction, and interesting general articles.

Famous Jerseyman Coming Here. The most eccentric and at the same time most thoroughly delightful man in all New Jersey is Dr. Thomas Gordon, familiarly known as "Doc" Gordon.

AN IDEAL MESSENGER BOY. Philadelphia Telegraph. A Virginia lad has just walked out of a second-story window and fallen into the road without waking.

A LAMP IN THE WEST. Far out, far out the restless bars from a troubled sleep. What a meeting with the narrow straits! The meeting waters leap; But still that shining pathway leads Across the lonely deep.

THIS DATE IN HISTORY. AUG. 4. 1799—Cram Point, N. Y., captured from the French. 1792—Percy B. Shelley, poet, born. Died July 8, 1822. 1841—Reception of Fort Erie, Canada, begun. 1846—Russell Sage born. H. 1885—Memorial service in honor of General Grant in Westminster Abbey. 1888—Samuel A. Tilden, American statesman, died. Born Feb. 9, 1814. 1887—Collapse of the wheat syndicate in San Francisco; loss $6,000,000.

Some fellows are going to try to see how far they can travel on a gallon of gasoline today. A gallon of gasoline is a vain thing for travel. Rockefeller did not attempt to go to Europe until he had accumulated millions of barrels. This shows that you cannot go far on a gallon.

In western Kansas there is a little hamlet named Paradise, while in Missouri there is a burg which has been officially named Hades. The towns illustrate the saying that the devil is sometimes in heaven, while hell contains many people of good intentions.

Mr. Owens will apply for a Carnegie hero medal, $100,000 damages and a raise in salary. Mr. Owens is not quite a chump.

Whatever Russell Sage's fortune it will probably not shrink to the figures he was accustomed to give the assessor.

In a country neighborhood, says the Topeka Capital, when a man falls at everything else he takes the agency for a Journal Special Service. Paris, Aug. 4.—The French republic and the press are showing singular lack of gallantry in the treatment of the thirty Kentucky girls who are touring Europe and the cities of the Louisville Courier-Journal.

Journal Special Service. Sterling Ill., Aug. 4.—A pretty elopement occurred early in Morrison, the principals being prominent. The young lady in question was Miss Ruth Teller, a niece of Senator William Teller of Colorado, and the young man, Emerson Krantz, a country schoolteacher.
