THREE MEN IN FIGHT; COMBATANT STABBED

Charles Sundgren, 2215 Fillmore street NE, was stabbed in the abdomen yesterday, and Roy Anderson is under arrest as man who had an encounter at Central and Twenty-ninth avenues NE.

According to the story told by Anderson, he and Sundgren, with William Anderson, were going home on a street car early in the morning. They quarreled while on the way and Sundgren threatened to thrash both the Andersons. Sundgren was accompanied by a young woman, whom he asked to get off the car near her home and allow him to go to the end of the line, as he felt there was going to be trouble.

When the three men alighted there was a general fight. The motorman and the conductor say Sundgren was the aggressor. Sundgren says Roy Anderson, knowing he was too small for his antagonist, drew a knife and slashed him (Sundgren). He then ran and Sundgren was taken to the city hospital, where it is thought he will recover, as the wound is not deep.

Anderson was arrested and arraigned in police court today, charged with assault. He asked for an examination and his case was continued until Aug. 18. Bail was fixed at $8,000.

LADIES OF G. A. R. HAVE NO INSIGNIA

DENVER CONVENTION FAILED TO PROVIDE OFFICIAL BADGE.

Delegates at Sea as to Proper Emblem to Wear as Creditable—Many Candidates for National President Seek Recognition and Politics Is Expected to Grow Warm.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. are without an official badge. At the convention a year ago at Denver it was voted to make a change, but thru some oversight the new badge was not formally accepted by the convention, so that for the last year the organization has really not had an official badge.

The new badge, which many of the members confidently believe was adopted at Denver, is smaller than the old and is entirely of bronze.

Just what effect the lack of an official badge will have on the convention is a question. The badge is a most important emblem and without it a member cannot vote according to his constitution. Which badge will be accepted by the convention nobody knows and some of the members will come with old insignias from the past, but under the present conditions neither will be official. For that reason the question of a badge will be one of the first brought before the convention which opens in the First Baptist church, Thursday, Aug. 16.

Change in Ritual.

Another matter that was left over from the Denver convention to be settled in Minneapolis is the change in the ritual. It was expected that the revision would be completed in Colorado, but it was pushed aside by more important matters. Mrs. Ruth Foote, national president and the other officers without exception favor the change which will make the ritual more complete. The present form was adopted twenty-two years ago and it is rather old and it will be almost on its anniversary that it will be changed.

The council of the Ladies of the G. A. R. will be held early next week—Mrs. Foote will preside at the time when she arrives—and before that all resolutions and matters to be brought before the convention will have been sent to the committee of administration in turn and presented to them to the council for approval before they are read in the convention.

Many Seek Office.

The election promises to furnish considerable excitement, for the list of candidates for the chief office of the order is a long one. There is a candidate from Minnesota, Mrs. Julia E. F. Lohdell, whose work as a national officer has brought her this further recognition. Minnesota has had one national president, Mrs. Flora M. Davey, who served in the Keywest in 1884. Mrs. Lohdell is elected she will be the second from her state.

Pennsylvania has two candidates in the field, Mrs. Henrietta Gerwig of Philadelphia and Mrs. Ada L. Shuman of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Ella S. Jones, who wants to be re-elected national treasurer, is also from Allegheny, the state which has had the most national presidents.

The secretary is appointed by the president and must be from her state, and as three offices cannot go to one state, Pennsylvania will have to make a choice between president and treasurer.

Kansas Are Willing.

Kansas wants a national president for the third time and has presented the name of Mrs. Elma Dalton of Winfield. Michigan would like to have its department president, Mrs. Mary Jameson of Marquette, chosen to be a national officer. New York has never been represented in the list of chief executives and for this reason it is expected to have Mrs. Hannah Chamberlain of Albany elected.

ELECTION FOR SQUARE DEAL

The election will take place Friday morning, Aug. 17, but as the list of names is long it will be in the afternoon before the results can be announced.

Past Department President L. of G. A. R. Gives Wholesome Advice to Sisters.

To the Editor of The Journal.

In an article which appeared in The Journal of Sunday, July 29, an impression was conveyed that the department of Minnesota, L. of G. A. R., was being re-organized and that the name of a Minnesota woman as candidate for national president.

At the last department convention a movement was attempted to secure the endorsement of Mrs. L. of G. A. R. for national president, but receiving no encouragement, the matter was never brought before the convention for action. The department of Minnesota has no candidate.

Minnesota has already been honored with two national presidents, and would it not be selfish, indeed, for us to ask it, when there are many departments that have never had one? It is in the interest of the department of Minnesota that we should receive the endorsement of our sister departments. We have invited the Grand Army, with its kindred organizations, to our beautiful state, to partake of our hospitality, and it is in the interest of our state and of our country that we should receive the endorsement of our sister departments. We have invited them to our homes and in return ask them to confer upon us the highest office within their gift!

The members of these organizations will come hundreds and thousands of miles in response to this invitation. Millions of people deem it an honor to stand with uncovered heads in the presence of their guests, and if we give them, one and all, the most unselfish hospitality, Every Minnesota woman should lay aside her personal ambition and devote herself to the work of hospitality.

The organization known as the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic will live long after we shall have passed away. To preserve it, and make it worthy of the name, it is necessary to use it as a mere instrument for the gratification of the personal ambition of any woman. Let us give our guests the best of everything. Let us give them a square deal. Marion B. Muller, Past Department President.

SPECIAL POLICE ARE READY

Sons of Veterans Undertake Important Encampment Work.

Dr. Thomas Warham, commander of the Sons of Veterans' Red Cross corps and special police brigade, has called a meeting for the corps for Thursday evening in the mayor's reception room. Final instructions will be given at that time and those who have volunteered their services for the encampment will be sworn in as special police.

Headquarters of the Sons of Veterans for encampment week will be established at 45 Fourth street S, by the courtesy of Fillmore & Son, the official decorators, who now have the space laid out for the encampment. Benjamin F. Ward, who will act as

ALMOST READY FOR VETERANS

CHIEF OF THE SONS OF VETERANS POLICE CORPS WILL BE AT THE HEADQUARTERS FROM NEW ARRIVAL OF THE ENCAMPMENT, AND WILL ISSUE UNIFORMS TO THE VOLUNTEERS.

BAGGAGE QUESTION SOLVED

Extra Men and Increased Room Prepared for Big Week.

Facilities for handling baggage during Grand Army week have been more than doubled, so that the railroad and baggage men expect to be able to care for the baggage of 70,000 persons a day. The railroads have either built or rented additional space for this purpose. The Union station has built a temporary structure north of the steel arch bridge approach, which can hold 2,000 pieces of baggage, thus giving twice as much space as before.

The Milwaukee road will receive baggage only in the large fruit house opposite the freight yards, which provides three times the present space. The Minneapolis and St. Louis and the Great Western roads have doubled and tripled their space. These arrangements will provide for the receipt of 10,000 pieces of baggage. The usual ratio of passengers to baggage is about seven to one, so that the baggage men are able to provide for 70,000 passengers.

All the roads, have doubled their baggage force, and it is planned to employ men at the rate of one to one to dispense with all delay. The Milwaukee has added fifteen men, the Union station twenty, and the others in like proportion. No baggage will be accepted unless accompanied by claim checks, and special men will be detailed to look after this feature. This is done in order to prevent confusion.

The roads have been preparing since last summer, and specially trained men will be in charge all week. On Monday they will meet the transfer company people to decide on the arrangements for the week. All the large companies have doubled their usual forces and are confident that they can meet all needs.

FLAG BATHED IN LIGHT

Old Glory on Courthouse Tower Will Never Be Hid.

Shafts of light flashing from a score of powerful searchlights will be put to effective use every evening of encampment week to illuminate the tower. It has been found impossible to carry out some of the larger plans that have been suggested, but it is believed that the searchlight illumination will be a pleasing substitute and equally effective.

One powerful light will be placed on top of the new security bank building and will play on smaller buildings and from the tower at night. A large flag will float night and day from the tower at night. The flag will be surrounded by a halo of light from the searchlight. The effect of the flag flying in a circle of light against the sky when the tower itself is in darkness will be most striking.

The big building will be open night and day to everybody. At night all the lights in every office will be kept burning, and the tower will be illuminated in the same manner. The searchlight idea that will be used for the municipal building will be carried out generally in the business district.

ALL QUESTIONS ANSWERED

Army of Walking Cyclopedias Will Enlighten Visitors.

Strangers in Minneapolis with the Grand Army crowds will have no occasion to be lost if they will merely ask questions. A volunteer corps of question-answers, 5,000 strong, will be on duty every hour of the day and night, and will be ready to answer any question that may be asked. They will be in addition to the regular police, special information men, guides and attendants at the information booth.

The committee has provided and will distribute an "Ask me" button to be worn by the volunteer corps. The button is white, two inches in diameter, and is inscribed with the words "Minneapolis" in blue. There is a border of red and the center bears a large question mark, also in red. These buttons will be distributed by mail to members of the various commercial clubs, to police and firemen, mail carriers, and others who are thoroughly acquainted with the city and are willing to undertake the duty of answering questions about the city as often as asked.

CLEANEST IN AMERICA

Minneapolis Will Be a City Beautiful for Grand Army.

Minneapolis will be the cleanest city in America during the Grand Army encampment, and especially on the day of the parade. Before the parade starts the streets will be cleaned, thoroughly cleaned and sprinkled and will remain clean until after the parade has passed. The aldermen of the fourth and fifth wards have promised the committee that the entire street-cleaning gangs of both wards will be on duty. All streets along the first of the line of march, where the divisions of the parade will form, will be specially cleaned and ready for the parade. The city will be in its "best bib and tucker."

Decorations are rapidly appearing all over the city. The committees on arrangements and on the necessary preparation and the importance of everybody doing something. It is hoped that every house in the city, as well as every store, office and public building, will be decorated with the national colors in honor of the visiting veterans.

GIVE HOMES TO VISITORS

Two Women Move to Flat to Make Room for Guests.

By giving up their comfortable homes and moving to a small flat, two women, well known in the work of the Ladies of the G. A. R., are proving their patriotism and hospitality. They have moved into a small flat at 1213 Hennepin, where they will entertain the list of those who had accepted their invitations last week. They found that the capacity of their big two-room house would not be equal to the demands that would be made upon them. The two women were astonished, but not discouraged. They thought that they had met a woman many another, and calmly went forth and rented a small furnished flat, in which they will find shelter during encampment week, leaving the big houses to their competent servants for the guests.

RAWLINS WOMEN HOSTESSES

Courtesies Will Be Shown Columbia Post, W. R. C.

The women of Rawlins post have planned a delightful social affair for the women of Columbia post of Chicago. When the Grand Army met in that city six years ago the Rawlins post women were entertained by the Columbia post women and now the Minneapolis women have arranged this return courtesy. About thirty women are expected from Chicago on Tuesday afternoon. They will be given a tally-ride about

ALMOST READY FOR VETERANS

THE LAKES AND BOULEVARDS AFTER WHICH LUNCHEON WILL BE SERVED AT THE HOME OF MRS. ALEXANDER HUGHES OF KENWOOD.

There will be a luncheon and a pleasant feature of the luncheon hour will be music by the Misses Winman and Miss Meeker. After luncheon a committee that will take the visitors and the hostesses over to the reception at the university armory.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hughes will have as guests during the encampment Captain and Mrs. Wicks of Lincoln, Neb. Captain Wicks was captain of Company B, of the Iron Brigade, the Seventh Wisconsin, in which Mr. Hughes enlisted when he was only 14 years of age, and Mr. and Mrs. Hughes will entertain for the company during the week.

LIGHTS TO BE TURNED ON

Andrus Building Will Be Blaze of Electricity Encampment Week.

Every evening of encampment week the Andrus building, 201 Nicollet and Fifth street, will be a blaze of light. Thorpe Brothers, the agents, have notified the executive and decorations committee that all lights in the outside offices of the building will be kept lighted every evening of the encampment.

Where this method of illumination has been tried it has proved most effective, and Minneapolis is not to be outdone. The building will be decorated with flags and bunting, making it attractive in daylight and with a blaze of electric light from every window at night the building will be a landmark.

The committee hopes that this plan of illumination will be generally adopted by all owners and agents of store and office buildings.

FLAGS TO FLY EVERYWHERE

Old Glory Will Adorn Every Home Encampment Week.

The residence section as well as the business part of Minneapolis will be adorned with flags and bunting in honor of the G. A. R. The W. R. C. is taking active steps in the matter, for the members declare that the number of guests will be so large that every part of the city will be invaded and that the stars and stripes must wave a welcome to the veterans wherever they go. The W. R. C. department president, has asked every member of the W. R. C. to decorate her home and see that her neighbors follow her example until Old Glory floats from every house in Minneapolis.

TWELVE MEN, TWELVE ARMS.

Old Guard of Washington Lacks Limbs, but Nothing Else.

The Old Guard of Washington, which will act as special escort for Commander R. J. Enright of the department of the Potomac, has arranged to attract attention, for in the front rank, as color guard, will march twelve one-armed veterans. A number of these crippled soldiers served the department as commanders. The Old Guard uniform will have white facings has for its distinctive feature big bearskin caps. There will be fifty in the company, which was appointed special escort to the Potomac commander twenty years ago.

REPORTS ARE WANTED

General Committee of W. R. C. Will Meet Wednesday.

The last meeting of the general committee of the W. R. C. before the convention will be held Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. in the mayor's reception room, and every member and chairman of every committee is expected to be present to make her final report.

The meeting will follow a gathering of the hostesses' committee at 2 o'clock at the same place. Mrs. Nettie N. Norton, chairman of this committee, has returned from an extended visit to Illinois and Iowa, and will meet with her assistants for the first time.

YOUNG WOMEN TO SERVE

Baptist People Propose to Look After Ladies of G. A. R.

Mrs. Minda Barnum has appointed a special committee of young girls who will assist in the service of dinner at the First Baptist church on the days of the Ladies of the G. A. R. convention. It includes Misses Hazel Ellsworth, Ruth Higbee, Hazel Sorrell, Margaret Covington, Carrie Hill, Elsie Stevens, Manda Holmes, Lucy Henderson and Nina Hoke. They will be uniformed in white and will add considerably to the comfort and pleasure of the delegates.
