

CZAR WRITES KING ASKING FOR ADVICE

Meeting of Edward VII and the Kaiser Arranged as Result of Letter.

Constitutional Democrats Being Defeated by Reactionaries in New Elections.

London, Aug. 13.—King Edward will start tomorrow for Friedrichsfort, where he will meet Emperor William, Aug. 15. The Fall Mall Gazette says that recently an autograph letter from Emperor Nicholas to King Edward was brought by special messenger to the Russian embassy here and delivered to the king personally by the ambassador and that at the same time other personal letters from the Russian emperor were received by relatives. The emperor's letter to the king is known to have been a request for advice on the situation in Russia. A reply is said to have been sent, and almost immediately afterward the meeting between King Edward and Emperor William was arranged. After the conference at Friedrichsfort a joint letter, it is expected, will be sent to Emperor Nicholas containing the advice of King Edward and Emperor William.

RUSSIANS CHANGE FRONT. Constitutional Democrats Are Being Defeated in New Elections.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 13.—Constitutional democratic leaders as candidates for re-election are going down to defeat. M. K. Skoblev, next to M. Rodicheff the most brilliant constitutional democratic orator in the outlawed parliament, has been defeated by Count Sheremetieff, notorious reactionary, and yesterday two constitutional democrats were defeated at Samara. While these results certainly indicate a reaction of sentiment against the advance in the program of constitutional democrats, it should also be pointed out that the nobility and landed proprietors have the dominant influence in zemstvo elections, and the defeat of the constitutional democrats probably represents more their hostility to the principle of the forced expropriation of land, to which the constitutional democrats are committed, than enmity toward the purely political part of their program. Nevertheless, the latter time the interests, reactionary or liberal, are uniting and lining up in favor of the government's, as against the parliament's radical agrarian program. There are strong reasons to believe that it is the intention of the Stolypin ministry, if things move normally, to support the candidates of the regenerationalists, who are expected to amalgamate with the Octoberists, whether the co-operation of the right wing of the constitutional democrats is secured or not. A significant symptom of the radical change in the situation is the rise in the number of the general strike is the fact that the majority of the social democratic leaders who, a fortnight ago, were its most active promoters, are at the moment directing their attention to the coming elections, and have already begun to canvass the situation for their candidates.

DUKE SCARED; TRAITOR SHOT. Nicholavitch Won't Command Army—Matineers Executed.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 13.—Grand Duke Nicholavitch, the Aspetated Press is informed by a member of his entourage, has declined to accept the post of commander-in-chief of all the troops of the empire "where martial law existed," which was tendered to him Aug. 4. Whether this was decided before or after the attempt on his life at Krasnoye-Selo, Aug. 10, is not known, but the ostensible reason is that Grand Duke Nicholavitch believes that such a post should not be given to a grand duke, but to a purely military man. He advocates the appointment of General Linovitch, formerly commander-in-chief of the Manchurian army. Yesterday the second birthday of the czarvitch was observed with the usual display of flags and illuminations, but there was no enthusiasm. The trial by court-martial of the Sveaborg mutineers, commenced Saturday at Helsingfors and Lieutenants Kochanovsky and Emilianoff, aged respectively 20 and 21 years, and five soldiers, were at the first sitting found guilty and condemned to death and all were shot and buried in a common grave without ceremony. Kochanovsky's father is a colonel of the guards at St. Petersburg.

BROWNS VALLEY HAS ITS MYSTERY

Foul Play, Suicide, Accident All Considered in Disappearance of W. H. Carter. Special to The Journal. Browns Valley, Minn., Aug. 13.—W. H. Carter, an old and prominent resident of this place, has been missing from his boarding house since 11 o'clock Saturday night, and it is feared he has thrown himself into the Little Minnesota river, which runs but a short distance away. His hat and cane were found on the river bank yesterday morning. It is conjectured by some that he wandered too near the water and in the darkness tumbled in. Foul play is also suspected, but no arrests have been made. Detectives will be sent for and placed on the case at once. The river was dragged yesterday and sixteen charges of dynamite exploded, but the body was not recovered. Mr. Carter had been in poor health several years and at the time of his disappearance was barely able to walk alone. He was possessed of considerable property, and in his active life had been a prominent worker in Masonic circles. He was an Englishman by birth and was about 65 years old. He had no relatives in this country.

SUICIDES ON INCREASE; ST. LOUIS HOLDS RECORD

Journal Special Service. New York, Aug. 13.—Suicide is increasing at an alarming rate in Greater New York, and from the beginning of the year the number of suicides who kill themselves will be much greater than in 1905. During the seven months just ended in 1906 there have at the time of this city 433 suicides—an average of sixty-two a month. If this average is maintained for the ensuing five months, the total number of suicides for the year would be 3,400. This is an increase of three over the year 1905. The proportion of men who commit suicide to women is three to one. For every one woman who kills herself there are three men who do so. Greater New York ranks fifth as a suicide city, being exceeded in this respect by New York, Chicago, San Francisco and Oakland, Cal., in the order named. After New York come Boston, Indianapolis and New Orleans. The city which has the fewest suicides in proportion to population is Fall River, Mass., where 2.7 per cent in 100,000 of population kill themselves.

POLICE WITH PEOPLE IN TROLLEY RIOTS

New York, Aug. 13.—As a result of the disturbances amounting in some instances almost to riots on Coney Island cars of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit at the first sitting found guilty and condemned to death and all were shot and buried in a common grave without ceremony. Kochanovsky's father is a colonel of the guards at St. Petersburg.

BARELY MISS DEATH IN BLAZING AIRSHIP

New York, Aug. 13.—Caught high in a flaming balloon, Nelson Elmqvist, a professional aeronaut, and his assistant, James Moss, had a narrow escape from death yesterday. The two men had been giving exhibitions at Bergen Beach, and it was determined to give the crowd an extra "thriller." They were to go inland, then sail over Bergen Beach, and when about half a mile out, Elmqvist was to make a drop in a parachute into the waters of Gravesend bay. Shortly after the balloon rose the aeronauts saw that the crowd was greatly excited over something. Elmqvist began looking about and saw that the silk bag of his balloon was on fire. He shouted to Moss to open the valve and let out the gas. Moss tried this, but before the balloon reached the ground he jumped out, a distance of about fifty feet. The rapid escape of the gas threw the balloon from the holes put in it by Elmqvist caused the balloon to settle. It fell directly on top of Moss, who lay stunned. The spectators pounced upon the flaming airship and soon extinguished the flames. Both aeronauts were badly burned.

MOURNING DEAD WIFE, IOWA MAN IS SUICIDE

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 13.—Wrapping a sheet about him so that his folds made a perfect shroud, J. W. Brown, an east Des Moines commission merchant, lay in his bath-room at an early hour today and asphyxiated himself. He was found dead by one of the servants. Despondency due to the death of his wife a year ago is supposed to be the cause. He was 50 years of age.

LASH FOR THE REDS, URGES BONAPARTE

Whipping Post Effective Check-mate for Anarchy, Thinks Secretary of Navy.

CHARLES J. BONAPARTE.

Cumberland, Md., Aug. 13.—Serious but rational dealing with anarchism, which he asserts is a most vicious form of evil, was recommended yesterday by Secretary of the Navy Charles Bonaparte in an address at the Allegheny Chautauqua. The proposition for a concerted effort to stem the growth and activity of the international outlaws was praised by Secretary Bonaparte as a project of vast importance, but he urged that local agencies, most clearly shows the culprit for their lawlessness. Regarding punishment, he said: "The death penalty should be unequivocally imposed by law and inflexibly executed whenever the prisoner has sought directly or indirectly to take life; for offenses of less gravity I advise a comparatively brief but very rigorous imprisonment, characterized by complete seclusion, deprivation of all comfort and of any form of distraction, and which could be, in my mind, advantageously supplemented by a severe but not public whipping. The lash, of all punishments, most clearly shows the culprit that he suffers for what his fellow citizens hold odious and disgraceful and not merely for reasons of public policy."

FIGHT FATAL DUEL AS GIRL LOOKS ON

Woer Slays His Sweetheart's Father in a Battle with Pistols. Greenville, S. C., Aug. 13.—Covering in a corner of her bedroom, Miss Nanie Drake last night saw her father, Thomas F. Drake, fight a pistol duel to the death with his sweetheart, Allen Emerson. After the exchange of several shots, Drake fell dead with a bullet thru his heart, almost at the feet of his daughter. Emerson staggered out of the room suffering from a severe but not mortal wound. The girl was found in hysterics over the corpse of her father and crying that she was guilty of his death. Drake, who was a wealthy planter, heard a noise in the night. On entering he saw his daughter and Emerson. Instantly he began shooting. Emerson sprang away from the girl, secured his pistol, which was on a table, and returned the fire. The father fired four shots, but only one took effect, striking Emerson in the thigh. After being wounded, Emerson fired a shot which killed Drake. The man killed Drake he left the house and went to Anderson, where he surrendered. When the circumstances became known, there was so much indignation against Drake that he was brought here to prevent a possible lynching. Miss Drake has fled.

REFUSES TO EXPLAIN ABSENCE OF 31 YEARS

Chicago, Aug. 13.—After an unexplained absence of thirty-one years Professor Charles H. Frye, former superintendent of the Chicago Normal school of this city, has returned home as if from the dead. One of his first acts upon arrival at his home was to hand a roll or crisp $100 bills, totaling $5,000 over to his wife with the remark, "ask me no questions." Frye was 31 years of age when he disappeared. Since that day no word has been received from him by his wife. He has settled down at home as though nothing had happened.

SLASHED ON A CAR BY MAN WITH RAZOR

New York, Aug. 13.—While a passenger on a trolley car that was proceeding along the Bowery early to-day, Preston Macthey, 41 years old, was cut and badly wounded by a razor in the hand of the man who made his escape. Macthey was accompanied by a woman who gave her name as Mary Cook. She fainted. Both the man and the woman were taken to a hospital in an unconscious condition. As Macthey and the woman were boarding the car at Rivington street a man struck Macthey with a stick and knocked him down. Macthey picked himself up and was assisted aboard a car. Soon after Macthey, a Pittsburg man, took his seat another man jumped aboard the car and rushed at Macthey with a razor. Before anyone could interfere the assailant slashed Macthey twice with the weapon, almost severing the jugular vein. After being revived Macthey told the police he did not know the name of either of his assailants.

STENSLAND DEAD BY HIS OWN HAND?

President of Wrecked Bank a Suicide, His Son Thinks.

Believes Skilful Forger Was Hired by the Looters.

Chicago, Aug. 13.—Theodore Stensland, son of the fugitive Milwaukee Avenue bank wrecker, has made a full statement of his knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the flight of his father and touching the colossal forgery fraud in the bank. In a frank narration of the manner in which the great scandal was made known to him, young Stensland not only flatly denies that he ever had knowledge of the plot before Aug. 3 last, but submitted various proofs with which he expects to substantiate his story. He declares absolutely that he was not only ignorant of the thefts perpetrated, but that he never formed in any way from them. The young man advanced the belief that his father had not fled the country, but has committed suicide. He also advanced the theory that his father could not himself have committed the forgeries of notes because of an impediment in his control of the pen in recent years. Had Expert Forger? He thinks also that Cashier Henry W. Hering could not have sufficiently disguised his handwriting to perform the imitations and that, therefore, an outside expert was employed for the purpose of copying signatures on blank checks. It became known in the evening that Stensland had late on Saturday had given to Receiver John C. Petzer, for the benefit of the bank depositors, a deed to all the Cook county real estate held by his father, who had given him power of attorney. The fugitive banker's son was found at a downtown hotel, where he is staying preparatory to surrendering himself today to the sheriff on the bench warrant for conspiracy, in which he was included with Paul O. Stensland and Cashier Hering. He had not surrendered at a late hour this afternoon, however.

Sluth Seeks Woman.

Assistant State's Attorney Olsen stated today that he had received information concerning a woman (whose identity he refused to reveal) who, he said, would impart information regarding Cashier Hering and President Stensland. A deputy was sent for the woman and, it was expected, she would be questioned later in the day. Madison, Wis., Aug. 13.—Police went today to Westport, seven miles from here, to interview David Lease, a man who is reported to have seen Paul O. Stensland, the missing president of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank of Chicago, out driving last Friday. Lease was once in the company of Stensland and claims to know Stensland.

Thinks Son Guilty.

The local police and the state's attorney's office continued their inquiries today. Inspector Shippey questioned more than a dozen of the institution's employees, seeking information from watchmen, bookkeepers, assistant tellers and other minor officials. One bookkeeper was positive that President Stensland's son was cognizant of the shaky condition of the bank previous to Aug. 3, the date on which young Stensland claims he first suspected irregularities on the part of his father. Other employees told the inspector of midnight trips to the bank by President Stensland and Cashier Hering. The information is regarded as important by the police.

Much of the drawing power of a Journal want ad depends on the way it is worded. It is always well to tell as much of the story as the reader will care to know. This brings him in closer touch with your proposition at the outset, and makes his investigation more likely.
