The railroad station at St. Petersburg is heavily guarded and no civilians are allowed to leave there for Krasnoye-Selo except after being fully identified.

A grand review is scheduled for Aug. 19, after which the imperial family will go to Tsarskoye-Selo instead of returning to Peterhof, although some of the papers report that it is the intention of the imperial family to immediately go by sea to Livadia, in the Crimea.

VATICAN DEFENDS FRENCH CHURCH

Issues Encyclical Condemning Cultural Associations as Prescribed by Law.

Rome, Aug. 14.—The text of the pope's long expected encyclical to the archbishops and bishops of France concerning their future conduct in view of the enactment of the laws providing for the separation of church and state, appeared in the Osservatore Romano today. It refers to the previous encyclical condemning the general principles of the law, and says the time has now arrived to indicate what should be done to defend and preserve religion in France.

"We deferred" the encyclical continues, "our decision, owing to the importance of the grave question and particularly thru a charitable feeling for the great services your nation has rendered to the church."

After approving the commendations of the French hierarchy disapproving of the law, the encyclical says:

"Concerning cultural associations such as the law prescribes, we decree absolutely that they cannot be formed without a violation of the sacred rights which are the life itself of the church."

The pope says nothing causes him greater agony than the continual menacing the church of France and therefore he hopes to find some other kind of associations not endangering divine rights.

FAMOUS MINING CASE DECIDED

Children Thrive on Grape-Nuts

A Mass. physician has found a cure for constipation in children, citing fifteen cases—by feeding them Grape-Nuts.

"Some time ago," he writes, "I became interested in your food, Grape-Nuts, as a cure for constipation in children. Having tried it in my own family, I have advised it in fifteen cases in which all suffered with constipation more or less severe. The result has been absolute relief in all."

"I write this that other children may be benefited."

How much better it is thus to bring about a healthy action in the bowels of growing children by natural means than to feed them with improper food, requiring some kind of cathartic at intervals to overcome constipation.

Grape-Nuts gives energy to the entire nervous system, including the nerves that cause the natural contraction and relaxation of the bowel muscles, that propel the food mass along.

It is predigested also, and the blood easily absorbs the food as it goes through the body, storing up vitality and force for the functions of all the organs.

Children especially should get the right start as to habits of living. They should grow into bright, strong, cheerful men and women. Grape-Nuts solves the question of the start; a wholesome appetite will do the rest.

Children's teeth are benefited by chewing Grape-Nuts also. Your dentist will tell you that a certain amount of exercise in chewing firm food is necessary to grow strong, beautiful teeth.

Teeth need exercise just the same as muscles if they are to grow strong and firm as nature intended. Grape-Nuts gives the exercise and also gives matter from which good teeth are made.

WARRIORS GATHER FOR RATE BILL WAR

Railroad Lawyers Assemble at Atlantic City to Prepare for Onslaughts.

Journal Special Service. Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 14.—Rumors of the coming railroad conference to consider the fight to be made against the railroad rate bill received strong encouragement here today when nearly a hundred lawyers, known to represent railroad interests, were reported to have arrived here to meet the score of more railroad officials who have been quietly coming into town for a week.

Great secrecy is being maintained and at the hotel where the delegation of lawyers arrived, with a multitude of stenographers and clerks, all information or names of the newcomers was refused. It is said that any meeting will be in secret.

Coney Island Fare Riots Result in Fatality—More Fighting Feared.

New York, Aug. 14.—The body of a young woman has not yet been identified, was found last night on a trestle, crossing Coney Island creek. The police think she may have met her death during the disturbances over double carfare to Coney Island.

The difficulty between the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company and its patrons was continued today. Application was made to the district judge, Clarke in Brooklyn for several warrants for the arrest of employees of the company on charges of assaulting passengers in ejecting them from the cars after they refused to pay a second fare.

The general manager of the company said today that if he were unable to collect the double carfare, he would suspend traffic on all the surface lines to Coney Island.

Plans have been made to station police under the charge of captains all along the lines where the employees of the company halt the cars to eject passengers. A resumption of the ejections and fights was expected when the rush to Coney Island begins this afternoon.

FALLS DOWN EMBANKMENT

Mississippi Man Is Victim of Serious Mishap in St. Paul.

Albert Willis, 2611 Nicollet avenue, was the victim of a serious mishap Sunday night at Hazel Park, St. Paul. Willis had spent the day in St. Paul, and about 10 o'clock boarded what he supposed was an interurban car. It was a Stillwater car, and when he discovered his mistake he got off the car on a high embankment near a trestle. He was either struck by the car or fell off the trestle, a distance of thirty feet.

He lay at the bottom of the bank all night and was discovered Monday morning by men going to work. He was taken to the St. Paul city hospital, where it was found that his collar bone was broken and his head badly bruised.

Willis is 28 years old and was employed at the National hotel.

INHERITS HER ART

Sibyl Klein Comes of a Family Prominent in Drama.

Interest in the investigation into the affairs of the suspended bank was stimulated today by anticipation of a clash between the circuit and superior courts. Judge John Gibbons, of the former tribunal yesterday appointed the Chicago Title & Trust company receiver for the bank. Preparations were made to out-receiver John C. Fetzer, acting under the authority of Judge Brentano of the superior court. Besides this complication there is not to be settled the status of Receiver W. C. Niblack, named by referee in Bankruptcy Eastman to collect the personal estate of President Paul C. Stensland.

She also appeared with Mr. Fawcett in the production of a new play entitled "A Midsummer's Eve," in which she won decided favor.

PREDICT CHEAPER COAL THRU NEW RATE LAW

Washington, Aug. 14.—The enforcement of the rate law ought to bring coal prices down. Men who have been in the business of mining and marketing coal for years say it will. With the railroads eliminated from the business except as common carriers, coal will, as a rule, it is pointed out, be marketed at the nearest available market. With the railroads eliminated in the business it has often been the rule to make consumers pay for "long haul" coal simply because the railroads could by enforcing the rule get more out of the business.

'THE SWAMI,' FREE, HAS REFORMED

Notorious 'Spirit' and Swindler Completes Term in English Prison.

Journal Special Service. London, Aug. 14.—The woman Diss Debar, under which name she was known in America, but who posed here as "The Swami," has been released from Aylesbury prison after serving her term of imprisonment on the sentence of seven years' penal servitude passed on her in 1901.

"The Swami's" revolting offenses while posing as a spirit created a tremendous sensation in England. During the sensational trial the high priestess of the occult mysteries was identified with the woman Ann Odella Diss De Bar who had been imprisoned in New York for spiritualistic frauds. Her present husband, Francis Jackson, is still undergoing a sentence of fifteen years' imprisonment for similar offenses.

"The Swami" was committed to London from the women's convict prison at Aylesbury, where Mrs. Maybrick was also confined. She is allowed her liberty under the ticket-of-leave system for good conduct during her imprisonment, but must report herself periodically during the unexpired term of her sentence.

Her hair is now snow white. The over 50 years of age, she still is a striking figure. She wore a plain black dress, contrasting strangely with the Grecian robes familiar in the trial here and in the United States. She obtained the maximum reduction of her sentence possible for good conduct and is said to be now a reformed character. She hopes to return to America if the police permit.

JOSEPH RAMSEY, JR., Ousted President of Washash, Who Plans Giant Competitor of That and Other Important Chicago-New York Lines.

CRAWFORD MEN BUY A NEWSPAPER

Deny the Assertions of the "Machine" that Their Chief Is After a Toga.

Special to The Journal. Huron, S. D., Aug. 14.—A stock company headed by Alvin Crawford, the law partner of C. A. Crawford, the republican candidate for governor of South Dakota, and composed of other close friends of the next executive, has been organized and practically completed the purchase of the Huron World-Herald, a weekly newspaper which has for some time been the personal organ of C. A. Kelley, state's attorney of Beadle county.

The newspaper situation in this county, the home of Crawford, has not been to his liking for some time. The Huronite, the only daily in the city, is owned and edited by John Longstaff, a federal office holder by the grace of Senator Kittredge, and one of the most rabid "machine" supporters in the state. Longstaff hates the insurgents and their movement as he does death, and of late Kelley has been at odds with the radical Crawford following in this city and county.

Under the new management the World-Herald will use old the policies of the Crawford administration and will take up any gauntlet which Mr. Longstaff may see fit to throw down. A daily issue will not be printed for the present and may not be for some time to come, unless the exigencies of the factional fight in the state seem to demand it.

Machine men have spread the theory that Crawford was a candidate for the United States senate so industriously that it has made some impression and won the belief in some quarters that he would be a candidate for the office of governor at Washington. This theory is at radical variance with the facts. Mr. Crawford's first ambition is to be governor, not only for a first term, but a second one as well. He prefers to be held in any other position in the gift of the state.

Mr. Gamble will be elected to succeed himself and there will be ample time to take up the Kittredge succession a year or so hence. The insurgents of this part of the state haven't the slightest chance of getting the governorship of Sioux Falls senator when it comes time to do so.

Joseph Ramsey Plans New York-Chicago Line, via Pittsburg.

The Shortest Route by 108 Miles—Electric Locomotives.

Pittsburg, Aug. 14.—Papers of consolidation of three railroads in different parts of Pennsylvania will be filed at Harrisburg this week which will constitute the formal announcement of a project of prominent foreign bankers, associated with Joseph Ramsey, Jr., former president of the Washash railroad to build a low grade, double-track railroad from New York to Chicago, by the way of Pittsburg, which will cost about $150,000,000.

Complete surveys have already been made, and it is expected that work preliminary to actual grading and construction next spring will begin this fall. It is expected that the road will require three years to construct.

It is contemplated to operate with electric locomotives from the beginning. It will be known as the New York, Pittsburg, Chicago Air line and will be 65 miles shorter to New York than the Pennsylvania and 108 miles shorter than the shortest line between New York and Chicago.

Ramsey Verifies It. The new Keystone Air line will traverse the important bituminous coal fields of central Pennsylvania, now controlled by the Pennsylvania railroad and will also pierce the anthracite region throught its length. It will not only be the shortest line thru Pennsylvania but it will cross the summit of the Allegheny mountains four hundred feet lower than the Pennsylvania line and will have very easy curves and remarkably low grades for a mountain line.

Mr. Ramsey confirms the above in a telegram from New York to the Pittsburg Dispatch. The telegram says the information is correct. The route of the line between Pittsburg and New York, Mr. Ramsey says, is estimated to be between $75,000,000 and $100,000,000 all of which has been pledged, the bulk of it by foreign capitalists. The merger papers to be filed this week will provide for the consolidation of the Indiana, Clearfield and Eastern; the Pennsylvania, Tamaqua & Ashland and the Brush Creek and Crows Run railroads.

Have you seen the Pillsbury "A" Mill? UNKNOWN WOMAN SEEKS DEATH AT COMO PARK

Disrobing herself at a dark place on the boulevard, an unknown woman waded out beyond her depth to a suicidal death in the Lake Como park, St. Paul, last night. Her clothes were found about 9 p. m. but the body was not recovered till today, when it was found about twenty feet off shore. He woman was apparently between 20 and 25 years of age, and her face and clothing showed evidences of some refinement. Her body is at the St. Paul morgue.

The woman was about four feet eight inches in height, with black hair and brown eyes. She wore a black skirt and a lavender shirtwaist trimmed in black. Her hat was made in Minneapolis by Miss Blueten, a milliner on the north side of the city. The dress was made by which her identity is finally established. The woman was seen at Como Park late in the afternoon but nothing about her actions aroused suspicion or attracted any special attention.

The St. Paul police are inclined to question the significance of a message found in a bottle this morning in the lake at Como. It was addressed to Harry Linden, Tuscorora street, and read: "On account of ill health I have decided to commit suicide. Can stand it no longer." There was no signature. Linden has not yet been found, but when he is located the police intend to visit the morgue to see if the writer of the note and the dead woman were one and the same.
