The marriage of Miss Gertrude Louise Baldwin and Walter Guy Middleton took place this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Russell on Irving avenue S. Simplicity characterized the decorations, which were of garden flowers arranged with ferns. Rev. D. L. Kishie of Preston, Minn., read the service. After Dec. 1 Mr. and Mrs. Middleton will be at home at 1509 First avenue S.

A wedding that was of interest to a large circle of Minneapolis friends took place last week at Lake Washington, near Seattle. The bride was a former Minneapolis girl, Miss Julia Corinne Webster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Webster, and the bridegroom was also a twin city man, Henry Donald Campbell. The wedding was solemnized at the country home of the Websters, the Gables, and was witnessed by a large circle of friends who went out from Seattle on a chartered steamer. The decorations were charming, all in white and green. Theresa Bergelhaus, a former Minneapolis man, and Riley Allen were the ushers, and Roy E. Campbell was his brother's best man. Miss Mary Van Dusen of Minneapolis was the bridesmaid and wore a Doucet gown of pale pink tulle trimmed with garlands of pink roses. She held a shower bouquet of pink roses. Miss Barnes of Fargo, N. D., a cousin of the bride, who has visited in Minneapolis many times, was the maid of honor, and her gown was an imported affair of white silk chiffon, encrusted in pink and her bouquet was also of the Chatsway roses. The bride wore a white satin princess gown trimmed with rose point lace. The colonial helmet worn in her hair belonged to her great-grandmother and was worn as "something old." Her flowers were Golden Gate roses and her ornaments were a bracelet, the gift of the bridegroom, and a necklace, presented by her father.

At the reception which followed, a group of women from the city, or who formerly resided in Minneapolis, assisted. They were with Mrs. Webster, Mrs. George Clement, the bride's grandmother; Mrs. Thomas Campbell, the bridegroom's mother; Mrs. Frederick Van Dusen and Mrs. C. G. Church, George Van Dusen of Minneapolis was one of the guests.

Mr. Campbell and his bride went up into the mountains for their wedding trip, and they will be at home in Seattle after Sept. 15. The Websters have lived in Seattle for several years and never was a bride more entertained than Miss Webster. There were two luncheons, dinners, assist- ed affairs without end and among those who entertained were Misses Florence and Marion Blethen, daughters of A. J. Blethen, who formerly made their home in Minneapolis. Miss Van Dusen went west in time to enjoy all the gay prenuptial affairs, and with her mother and brother is now traveling in the west.

Professor and Mrs. T. L. Haecker announce the engagement of their daughter Barbara and Dr. Clayton Elmer Bartlett of Cosmopolis, Wash. The marriage will take place early in October in St. Anthony Park.

Mrs. M. E. Wood has issued the invitations for the marriage of her daughter Mabel and J. Royal Martin of Hamline, which will take place Thursday evening, Sept. 6, at the home of the bride's uncle, 2850 Oliver avenue N.

Mrs. J. F. Wilson of Harrison, Ont., announces the marriage of her daughter, Edith L., to Herbert W. Fawkes, which took place Friday in Lincoln, Neb., where Mr. Fawkes is engaged in business. Mr. and Mrs. Fawkes will make their home in Lincoln until the holidays, when they will return to Minneapolis.

The marriage of Miss Sarah Mable Gay, formerly of Winona, Minn., and Charles Henry Clarke of Seattle, Wash., took place Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dulaney, Jr., on Mount Curve avenue. The service was read by Rev. Rhodolphe Payne Thurston. Mr. and Mrs. Clarke will tour the east and south, returning to their home in Seattle after Feb. 1.

Miss Sue M. Dickey of 1701 Park avenue will entertain twenty-eight young women tomorrow for Miss Marion Burt, a September bride. Saturday Miss Minnie Troendle will be hostess for Miss Burt.

Mrs. H. M. Weston was hostess at a luncheon today at her home on Bryant avenue, given in honor of her sister, Mrs. Jesse Dillon of Mondovi, Wis. The room was brightened with the season's flowers and asters were used in the dining room. A large basket filled with the white blossoms offset with green centered the table. Covers were laid for twelve. A series of pretty affairs will be given for Mrs. Dillon during her stay in the city.

Mrs. Frank Cedarburg gave a luncheon of twenty-five covers today at Donaldson's tea rooms in honor of Mrs. C. Christianson of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. H. S. Miller, who has just returned from a trip in Europe. The table was placed in the Dutch room and was decked with garden flowers. A great basket of the gay blossoms was in the center and on either side were smaller clusters, while a cut glass candlestick held a taper at each cover. Palms banked the corners of the room and more flowers were arranged in the leafy tangle. The other guests were Mrs. E. J. Dahl, A. Nelson, C. Dahl, Peter Nelson, A. D. Aldrich, Andrew Anderson, M. Gaynor, E. Hohl, Ole Anderson, C. Tunquist, T. Anderson, A. Nelson, A. Nelson, John Lewis, Charles Johnson, N. A. Mattson, L. F. Anderson, Gus Nelson, D. Jensen, Andrew Nelson; Misses Amanda Porter and Bessie Pearson.

Mrs. Frances Potter will entertain a small group of guests at luncheon at Donaldson's tea rooms tomorrow. Mrs. Potter, who has just returned from a year in England and they are again in their home, 2412 Harriet avenue.

Mrs. A. E. Weir of 2202 Portland avenue will entertain at luncheon Thursday at Donaldson's tea rooms.

Mrs. S. A. Terhune, 2617 Girard avenue S., gave a farewell dinner to her sister, Mrs. Jesse C. Johnson, and Mrs. Emil Steffen of Chicago, last evening. The decorations were in pink and white. Among the guests were Mrs. Nathan C. Wheeler of Chicago, Mrs. Koster, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav A. Sieffin, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Koster, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley C. Bryant, James Stevenson and Charles Stevenson of St. Louis.

Miss Jennie Reese of 1424 Sixth street SE gave a matinee party Saturday in honor of her sister, Miss Anna Ulrica Larsen, of Cloquet, and Mrs. Florence Nelson.

Mrs. C. H. Perry of 3119 Clinton avenue, entertained at an informal supper Friday evening. The decorations were in yellow and gold and gold and green. In the center of the table a charming centerpiece of the table. Covers were laid for twelve. The guests of honor were Captain L. Losier of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Landis of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. Edith Linnell, Bessie Chambers, Bernice Pratt, Anna and Edith Pope and Mandana Wyatt.

The Misses Kate and Lillian Finkle of 2505 Fremont avenue N., entertained yesterday for Miss Florence Hovland, a bride of September. Covers were laid for fifteen. This is the first of a series of affairs planned for Miss Hovland.

Miss Claudia A. Pope entertained sixteen girls yesterday at her home, 2612 Park avenue, in honor of her six- teen birthday anniversary. Those present were Misses Inez, Anna, Bessie Chambers, Muriel Thayer, Hazel Crolius, Winifred Tuell, Jennie Earen- light, Laura Canahugh, Sara Murch, Neb., where Mr. Fawkes is engaged in business.
