The Plymouth

Suits, Dresses and Coats

We shall close out our wash goods three weeks earlier than in previous years and tomorrow is the day set to dispose of them. Accordingly we offer about 500 wash suits and coats at a wonderfully low price. Included in this sale are garments up to $20—one of a kind—all for $3.99. Sizes 32 to 46.

Dresses of Imported Dotted Swiss.
Jacket Suits in Pure Linen.
Organdie Dresses.
English Rep Jacket Suits.
Cotton Voile Gowns.
Silk Mull Dresses in Light Colors.
Fine Madras Suits in White and Colors.
Linen Shirtwaist suits in natural colors.
Shrunk Cotton Suits.
Persian Lawn Shirtwaist Dresses.

A very few of these were placed in our Nicollet avenue window as samples. There will be a large crowd, but the suits shall be so placed as to allow easy access to all. We have given great bargains before, but none equal to this sale. Sale starts Thursday, 9 a.m.

No charges, C. O. D.'s or approvals.

Mrs. Frank N. Stacy was hostess this afternoon for Mrs. W. T. Coghlan of Morristown, N. Y., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George A. Rose, and for Mrs. Stacy's sister-in-law, Mrs. Horace Winchell, who has recently come to the city from Tuttle, Mont. The large living room was bright with gold and white, while in the dining room pink and white asters made a most effective decoration. Twenty guests were entertained.

Mrs. Winchell and Mrs. Stacy entertained at a luncheon Thursday at the home of Mrs. Winchell, 925 Sixth street S.E. The rooms were bright with garden flowers and on the table was a handsome centerpiece of California poppies. There were eighteen guests.

Mrs. F. S. Martin was hostess at a delightful luncheon today, which she gave in honor of Mrs. Henry Weimar of Hot Springs, Ark., who is the guest of Mrs. R. B. Clark of Kenwood. The luncheon was given in the Dutch room of Donaldson's tea rooms and covers were laid for six. A high centerpiece was arranged of white and lavender asters and asparagus ferns and a single blossom was laid at each plate. Friday Mrs. J. T. Thurman of Kenwood will entertain at a luncheon for Mrs. Weimar and this evening a tallyho party has been arranged in her honor.

Last evening a box party was given at the Metropolitan for her and she was entertained at a party at White Bear last week. Mrs. W. P. Cockey gave a luncheon Wednesday at Donaldson's for Mrs. Clark's guest.

Miss Allan Pelle Moran of Louisville, Ky., who is the guest of Miss Jessie Tongue, will be much entertained during her stay in the city. Tonight Mr. and Mrs. John Tongue will give a box party at the Orpheum in her honor and Saturday Miss Tongue will have twelve guests at luncheon. Next week Miss Edith Marshall of Vine place will be hostess for Miss Moran. Monday evening W. H. Sullivan gave a box party at the Metropolitan theater. After the performance supper was served at the Kaiserhof.

Miss Sue Dickey entertained for Miss Marion Ward Burt today at her home, 1701 Park avenue. Assisting Miss Dickey and Miss Burt in receiving the guests were Miss John Tongue and Miss Leila E. David of Iowa. Each guest was handed a booklet bound in green with her name inscribed in gilt on the cover. On the inside Miss Burt's name was printed, and from the letters in the guests attempted to make as many words as possible. Bouquets of white roses adorned the parlor, while pink and white asters were used in the library. The appointments in the dining room were in white and green. Centering the table was an arrangement of gladioli and hydrangea blossoms. Smilax was strewn over the white cloth and wreathed the chandelier, from which satin ribbons of green and white were suspended to the four corners of the table. Pink roses tied with ribbon of the same delicate shade marked the bride's place. Quaint colonial dolls in green and white, fashioned from clay pipes, made dainty favors, while green tapers in candelabra cast a pretty glow over the table.

Mrs. L. S. Donaldson was hostess at a luncheon today in the Dutch room of Donaldson's. A low centerpiece of white and pink asters centered the table and covers were laid for five.

Mrs. Charles T. Tweed gave a prettily appointed luncheon today at her home, 315 East Fourteenth street, in honor of Miss Belle McNear of Des Moines, Iowa. Covers were placed for twelve and the decorations were in red and white with roses in the centerpiece, and at the place of the guest of honor and red tapers in candelabra at either end of the table.

Mrs. Frances B. Potter entertained at a luncheon of eight covers today in the gold and ivory rooms at Donaldson's. In the center table an exquisite cut glass vase held a cluster of white and pink asters. Pretty souvenirs of the occasion were the tiny trays at each place.

Miss Hester Ripley entertained a group of girls at luncheon this afternoon at Donaldson's 4 parlor. Asters furnished a pretty table decoration. Miss Ripley's guests were Misses Helen Abbott, Helen Truesdell, Lucretia Bailey and Miss Corby. After luncheon they attended the matinee at the Metropolitan.

Mrs. Sarah Frances Crawford of Macon, Ga., announces the engagement of her daughter, Marie Antoinette, to William Gordon Woodside. Sept. 18 has been chosen as the date of the wedding, which will be quietly solemnized at the home of the bride. Miss Crawford received her education at Candler college, Havana, Cuba. Mr. Woodside is in business in Cuba and he and his bride will make their home there.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Brown are home from their wedding trip to the Pacific coast and thru the Canadian Rockies and will receive after Sept. 15 at 934 Fifteenth avenue S.E. Mrs. Brown was formerly Miss Florence White, and her wedding was one of the pretty affairs of June.

Miss Edith Bezanon will leave next week for Monday to attend the normal school, and Wednesday Miss Jessie Taylor of Tenth street S entertained ten young people in her honor. Games were played and there was an informal program of music by the guests. Later a light supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Hoadley will leave the last of the week on their wedding trip, going direct to New York, thence to Oyster Bay for the nuptial review Monday. Valentine Ford Greaves, Mrs. Hoadley's son, is electrician on Admiral Evans' flagship, Maine, and later will join his mother for a few days' visit. Mr. and Mrs. Hoadley will spend a week at Far Rockaway Beach, L. I., and on the return trip will visit Atlantic City, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, spending time about the middle of September. They will be at home after Oct. 1, at 2444 Garfield avenue.

Miss Minnie Seargeant and Stuart M. Wensole were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Seargeant, 325 Fourth avenue S. Rev. G. L. Morrill read the service. Mr. and Mrs. Wensole went to Velva, N. D., to reside.

Miss Mabel Carlin and Fred E. Cox were married Saturday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Jennie Carlin, 325 Fourth avenue S. Rev. G. L. Morrill read the service in the presence of the immediate relatives.

MINNEAPOLIS

Mrs. John Reagan entertained Tuesday at lunch at the Lafayette club, in honor of her guests, Miss Lawler and her friend, Miss A. Breaux of Cuba. The colors used for decorations were yellow and white. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. C. T. Thompson entertained at a dinner for her guests, Miss Lawler and her friend, Miss A. Breaux of Cuba. The colors used for decorations were yellow and white. Covers were laid for twelve.

Barton Wheelwright entertained at a dinner for her guests, Miss Lawler and her friend, Miss A. Breaux of Cuba. The colors used for decorations were yellow and white. Covers were laid for twelve.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Osborn of Minnesota Beach entertained Sunday at dinner. Covers were laid for twelve.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Langdon entertained Saturday at a dinner at the Lafayette club house in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliot of Evanston, Ill.

Amid masses of golden rod, wild sunflowers and golden glow, a delightful porch lunch was enjoyed Monday by the guests of Mrs. Ernest Grant at Minnetonka Beach. Mrs. Grant entertained Mrs. Mattie Williams of Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. H. G. Williams of Minneapolis and Miss Grant of Portland, Me.

Grandfather's Cure for Constipation

Great medicine, —the Sawbuck. Two hours a day sawing wood will keep anyone's Bowels regular.

No need of pills, Cathartics, Castor Oil, nor "Physic," if you'll only work the Sawbuck regularly.

Exercise is Nature's Cure for Constipation and —a Ten-Mile walk will do, if you haven't got a wood-pile.

But, if you will take your Exercise in an Easy Chair, there's only one way to do that, because, —there's only one kind of Artificial Exercise for the Bowels and its name is "CASCARETS."

Cascarets are the only means to exercise the Bowel Muscles without work.

They don't Purge, Grip, nor "upset your Stomach," because they don't act like "Physics."

They don't flush out your Bowels and Intestines with a costly waste of Digestive Juice, as Salts, Castor Oil, Calomel, Jalap, or Aperient Waters always do.

No Cascarets strengthen and stimulate the Bowel Muscles, that line the Food passages and that tighten up when food touches them, thus driving the food to its finish.

A Cascaret acts on your Bowel Muscles as if you had just saved a cord of wood, or walked ten miles.

Cascarets move the Food Naturally, digesting it without waste of tomorrow's Gastric Juice.

The thin, flat, Ten-Cent Box is made to fit your Vest pocket, or "My Lady's" Purse. Druggists —10 Cents a Box.

Carry it constantly with you and take a Cascaret whenever you suspect you need one.

Be very careful to get the genuine made only by the Sterling Remedy Company, and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "CCC."

Rugs Cleaned

Oriental and Expensive Imported Rugs cleaned by the Celebrated Naptha Process.

Henry Bros. Dye House 1213-15-17 HENNEPIN AVE.

The name and shape of Fels-Naptha are the only parts that can be imitated.

Fels-Naptha is more than a soap.

The woman who knows of the Fels-Naptha better and easier way of washing, and yet persists in washing the clothes the old-fashioned way, is extravagant and wasteful.

She is wasting her strength, her health, and her comeliness; and wearing the clothes out long before their time by boiling, and hard-rubbing them on the washboard.

And they are not nearly so clean and sweet as they would be washed the Fels-Naptha way.

Listen! Soap the clothes with Fels-Naptha, let them soak about thirty minutes in cold or lukewarm water, then just rub them through and rinse thoroughly. They're ready for the line.

Fels-Naptha does the work you have to do if you use any other soap. Fels-Naptha cannot harm the clothes—for unlike common laundry soaps and washing powders, it does not contain any injurious chemical. Don't forget the wrapper is red and green.

All grocers sell Fels-Naptha soap.

The essential parts of Fels-Naptha cannot be imitated.

Mrs. O'Schmidt Needs Exercise.

Mrs. Neverlearn—"For the love o' grief, what's the matter with Mrs. O'Schmidt? It looks like the funnyhouse for hers, all right!"

Anty Drudge—"That's how much you know! She uses Fels-Naptha soap, and lets that do the work you're killing yourself with right now. It's made her life so easy she has to take exercise to keep herself in trim."
