

In The Journal Next Sunday

THE HOUSE OF DEFENCE

In The Journal Next Sunday

FIFTH OF THE GREAT $150,000 NEW NOVELS

E. F. Benson's Great New Novel

It Will Be Published in The Journal During September Before It Appears in Book Form.

FIRST INSTALLMENT IN NEXT SUNDAY'S JOURNAL

PARKER HEAD OF AMERICAN BAR

Former Candidate for Presidency of the United States Is Honored.

LOS ANGELES TO BE NEXT MEETING PLACE

Clash in the American Bar Association Over Roscoe Pound's Paper.

Alton B. Parker of New York was elected president of the American Bar Association...

John Hinekey of Baltimore, Md., secretary, and Frederick E. Wadhams of Pennsylvania, N. Y. treasurer, were re-nominated and re-elected.

Election of vice presidents followed upon the nominations of the various states...

The following were named as an executive committee...

George Whitehead of Baltimore, Md., was elected as the delegate of "Congress Internationale des Avocats."

"Other Business."

Following the presentation of nominations, the association made a vigorous attack upon a paper...

A resolution authorizing the general council to establish relations with the newly organized "Association Internationale des Avocats," contained in this report...

Another section of this report provided for the creation of a standing committee on taxation.

Los Angeles Next.

Los Angeles will be the next place of meeting. F. E. James of Cincinnati presented a resolution naming Los Angeles...

George B. Wheeler of New York introduced a resolution authorizing the printing and distribution of 4,000 copies of the paper read by Roscoe Pound...

The delay in the arrival of the Charleston, probably due to foggy weather in the channel...

Urges Insurance Control.

Federal control of insurance was urged in the report of the committee on insurance...

It is natural that an aroused and angry public should demand legislation to correct the evils now disclosed...

The most conspicuous exhibition of legislative wisdom is found in the bills prepared by the Armstrong committee and passed by the New York legislature...

It is natural that an aroused and angry public should demand legislation to correct the evils now disclosed...

The most conspicuous exhibition of legislative wisdom is found in the bills prepared by the Armstrong committee and passed by the New York legislature...

It is natural that an aroused and angry public should demand legislation to correct the evils now disclosed...

The most conspicuous exhibition of legislative wisdom is found in the bills prepared by the Armstrong committee and passed by the New York legislature...

It is natural that an aroused and angry public should demand legislation to correct the evils now disclosed...

The most conspicuous exhibition of legislative wisdom is found in the bills prepared by the Armstrong committee and passed by the New York legislature...

It is natural that an aroused and angry public should demand legislation to correct the evils now disclosed...

The most conspicuous exhibition of legislative wisdom is found in the bills prepared by the Armstrong committee and passed by the New York legislature...

It is natural that an aroused and angry public should demand legislation to correct the evils now disclosed...

The most conspicuous exhibition of legislative wisdom is found in the bills prepared by the Armstrong committee and passed by the New York legislature...

It is natural that an aroused and angry public should demand legislation to correct the evils now disclosed...

The most conspicuous exhibition of legislative wisdom is found in the bills prepared by the Armstrong committee and passed by the New York legislature...

It is natural that an aroused and angry public should demand legislation to correct the evils now disclosed...

The most conspicuous exhibition of legislative wisdom is found in the bills prepared by the Armstrong committee and passed by the New York legislature...

It is natural that an aroused and angry public should demand legislation to correct the evils now disclosed...

BRYAN WOULD SEIZE NATION'S RAILROADS

BRYAN AND HEARST MAY BE THE TICKET

New Yorker's Attitude Changes and Alliance with Nebraskan Is Expected.

Journal Special Service.

New York, Aug. 31.—There has been a great deal of speculation in regard to the attitude of William Randolph Hearst towards Mr. Bryan...

There is no doubt of the fact that he will be an independent candidate for governor of New York next fall...

He does not succeed in securing the regular democratic nomination...

Until within a few days ago it was generally understood that the editor-congressman would surely be a candidate for the presidency...

Hobnobbing With Nebraskans.

Since the Bryan reception began to take definite form, however, Hearst boomers have caused the fact to be known that he will under no circumstances become a candidate for the presidency against Mr. Bryan.

When the Nebraska people, headed by Mayor Daalman of Omaha, first arrived here, they were decidedly hostile to Mr. Hearst's move...

They were received in person by Mr. Hearst and one of the most significant features of the Bryan reception has been the belief that Bryan is to be the democratic candidate for the presidency...

His outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

This outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

This outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

This outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

This outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

This outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

This outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

This outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

This outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

This outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

This outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

This outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

This outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

This outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

This outcome is distinctly unpleasant to corporation managers, who believed that Mr. Bryan's growing conservatism would make him even a safer president than Mr. Roosevelt...

They were prepared for the addition to the democratic slate of such a radical as Mr. Hearst.

OWNERSHIP ISSUE BROUGHT TO FORE

Cheered by Throng, Commoner Delivers His Message at Home-Coming Meet.

(Mr. Bryan's speech will be found on Page 14.)

Journal Special Service.

New York, Aug. 31.—Thunderous applause from 20,000 persons, each vying to outdo the heroic efforts of his neighbor, was the climax of a day of reception, such as has never been accorded a private citizen in the history of the United States...

William Jennings Bryan to tears when he arose to address the multitude that packed Madison Square Garden last night...

For eight minutes the din continued, growing stronger each second and stopping only when the throng had spent its energy in shouting, clapping hands and stamping feet.

Time and again, as Mr. Bryan reached some important point in his speech, presenting national issues as he saw them, this tumult was loosed, attaining its high tide when the speaker declared that he had been converted to the cause of government ownership of railroads.

"I favor the control of only the trunk lines by the national government," said Mr. Bryan, "and the ownership of all other railroads by state governments."

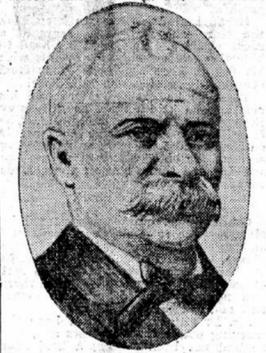

Touches Upon Older Issues.

Aside from this most important utterance, Mr. Bryan's speech dwelt principally with the older issues of the trusts, the tariff and labor questions, but his reiteration of former statements regarding these important matters elicited vociferous applause.

Declaration for government ownership is a fruit of his tour of the world and Mr. Bryan declared that careful study of the publicly owned utilities of foreign countries had convinced him of the value of the project and review of the laws of the United States had shown its feasibility.

All afternoon Mr. Bryan was besieged by a mob of persons wishing to pay respects, and his reception in the afternoon outdistanced anything of its kind in the history of this city, or the United States, when the fact that he is a private citizen is considered. But he continued on 2d Page, 3d Column.

HIS DEATH SUDDEN

EDWARD ROSEWATER. Strain of Recent Campaign Thought to Have Shortened His Days.

MOB IS THWARTED IN EXCITING CHASE

Kentucky Officers Spirit Away Negro Despite Efforts to Lynch Him.

Danville, Ky., Aug. 31.—The quick run of officers from Somerset to this city late yesterday prevented the lynching of Perry Oppenheimer, a negro who is charged with a criminal assault on the five-year-old daughter of Leonard Fairchild of Wayne county.

The negro was identified by the victim and a mob quickly gathered. He was hustled to Somerset, but the mob started to that city from Monticello, and an order from the county judge was given for the transfer of the prisoner to this city.

Feeling is high in Wayne county and the officers here will take precautions to prevent mob violence. The victim has recovered.

IMPALED ON PICKET, RELEASES SELF; LIVES

South Bend, Ind., Aug. 31.—Helen Kees, aged 6, fell from a second-story window this morning and was impaled on a picket fence. Unassisted, she helped herself to the ground and back into the house. She is still alive.

ROSEWATER DIES AS HE HAD WISHED

MOORISH THRONE IS BATTLE'S STAKE

Pretender Gathers Force for Decisive Battle with the Sultan.

Madrid, Aug. 31.—Dispatches from Melilla, Morocco, say that the pretender to the throne is concentrating 6,000 troops at Mulaya, in preparation for a decisive battle with the sultan's forces.

The pretender, it is said, expects to obtain considerable reinforcements from the Rif territory.

The sultan's forces are said to number 4,000 well-armed men.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

London, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to a news agency from Helsingfors, Finland, announces that nineteen soldiers, found guilty of participation in the recent mutiny at Sveaborg fortress, were shot today, that three civilians convicted of incitement to mutiny were hanged, and that others were sentenced to prison for terms varying from five to fifteen years.

HIS HEART FAILED WHILE HE SLEPT

Lifelong Body of the Omaha Editor Found on a Bench in a Courtroom.

Omaha, Aug. 31.—Edward Rosewater, proprietor and owner of the Omaha Bee and for forty years prominently identified with the political, financial and business affairs of Omaha and Nebraska, was found dead in district court room No. 6, on the third floor of the Bee building, early today.

He had evidently sat down on a bench in the courtroom and fallen asleep and died of heart failure.

Mr. Rosewater went to Waterloo, Neb., yesterday afternoon, where he made a speech to the old soldiers who were holding a picnic. He reached Omaha on his return at 7 p. m., and went to his room at the Bee building.

It was a habit of Mr. Rosewater to go to different parts of the building whenever his pleasure so indicated, and it is presumed he stepped into the large courtroom and sat down for a minute's repose and fell asleep. When Judge Troup, who presided over court No. 6, arrived this morning, he was shocked to find the lifeless body of Mr. Rosewater at the end of the bench, reclining easily against a radiator, his head resting on his extended arm.

In his right hand he held a handkerchief, having the convention occurred and used it to wipe the perspiration from his face.

The death of Mr. Rosewater, coming thus suddenly, was a blow to the people of Omaha, and immediately it was known, extra papers announced it to the public.

Died as He Desired.

Dr. Charles Rosewater, brother of the dead editor, said the