RED CROSS REORGANIZED
SONS OF VETERANS WILL KEEP UP ORGANIZATION MADE FOR GRAND ARMY ENCAMPMENT.

Steps leading toward a permanent Red Cross organization for Minneapolis were taken last night by the Sons of Veterans meeting at Richmond hall. Great interest was shown in the organization of the permanent corps. More than fifty sons who served in the Red Cross during the encampment week participated in the organization.
Ell Torrance, past commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., gave a short talk on the proposed work of the corps, and committees that have been at work reported that the plan has been generally endorsed. It is the plan of the organizers to keep the Minneapolis Red Cross independent of the state or national Sons of Veterans Red Cross organizations. A state commission will be secured, if possible, but the organization will stand ready at all times to do such relief work as may be necessary.
The organization was completed last night with the following officers: Hospital staff officers; surgeon-in-chief, rank of major, Dr. T. W. Warham. Assistant surgeon, rank of captain, Dr. G. D. Bentley. Past assistant surgeon, rank of first lieutenant, Dr. W. J. Burns. Contract surgeons, Dr. W. G. Dawson and Dr. D. Edmond Smith. Dental surgeon, Dr. W. G. Skidmore. The officers of the corps selected were: Captain, E. J. Webber. First lieutenant, E. F. Johnson. Surgeon, L. J. Jones. Chaplain, G. L. Morrill. George W. Turner, first sergeant, pending examination.

SPLIT IN FORCES AGAINST JONES

DIVISION OF ANTI-LID CAMPAIGN FUND STARTS TROUBLE.

Word Goes Out to Slaughter Haynes in an Endeavor to Nominate Dr. U. G. Williams Over Mayor D. P. Jones, and Haynes' Friends Fight for Their Share.

Former Mayor J. C. Haynes is to be slaughtered in the house of his friends. He was entered into the mayoralty race on the democratic ticket with the understanding that he was to receive the backing of the saloon and liquor interests and of the democratic organization. The saloon interest "slush fund" to fight Mayor Jones is to be split half and half between Dr. U. G. Williams and Haynes. Furthermore, the democratic organization has failed to respond to the magic touch of the Hand-Ryan-Kitchell combination and is split between Labor Commissioner W. H. Williams on the democratic ticket, and Dr. U. G. Williams on the republican side. The only move attempted for the Haynes campaign was in the county convention last Saturday, when the W. H. Williams forces came off winners, and at the present rate the Haynes campaign seems to be dying alone and forsaken. The situation marks the beginning of the troubles of Jones' opposition. It is already divided against itself, and the split is fast increasing. An assessment has been levied on the saloon, liquor and brewing interests. A part of these interests are in favor of throwing all of the fund to Dr. Williams in an effort to defeat Mayor Jones for the nomination. Another part of these interests are in favor of not standing for the move to Dr. Williams and insisting on using the fund to help Haynes in his fight for nomination and election.

Split the Slush Fund.
Conferences have been held and the fight is growing hotter all the time. It has finally been decided to split the fund to help Dr. Williams and Haynes, and even this action has failed to heal the breach, as each side wants all for its man. Labor Commissioner W. H. Williams, who is opposing Haynes, put a new interest in the fight by announcing positively last Monday night that he would not vote for Jones, declaring that the Sunday saloon in Minneapolis is a thing of the past and that the lid is on for good.
That the democratic organization is broken and going to pieces, undermining the Haynes strength, is shown by the fact that six ward committees have already organized for Dr. Williams and have sent out word to their members to get out an fight for Dr. Williams and vote for him at the primaries. The Williams committee is paying special attention to the democratic proselyting crusade and hopes to vote a majority of them at the primaries Sept. 18. The old line democrats are opposed to this and are trying to head it off in every way. The open advice is, "Take all the Dr. Williams money you can get, then vote for Jones." There has not yet been much to show that the appeal is likely to produce anything.

Lines to Be Wiped Out.
Lines are to be torn down on everything because of the mayoralty fight. Candidates for other places are openly "plugging" for votes among the democrats. Paid democratic workers are out working for republican candidates. When attention is directed to the candidates and their friends merely say, "Others are after them and they are going to vote republican. I don't see why I am not entitled to a slice of the outside vote as well as others." The better element in both parties, among the workers who are not out for anything for themselves or friends, is against the move that is on. Already there has been talk of organizing a challenging commission to keep tab on the voters who are known to belong to one party or the other, and making an effort to stop cross voting. This has been carried even in connection with the organization of prominent republicans and democrats suggested. It is proposed to have a general organization that will go after the practice and stop it. Another suggestion on the same line is a legislative enactment this winter providing a penalty that can be applied in known cases of illegal voting. The caucus rolls and convention lists provide a reasonable line of party demarcation.

RUSHFORD PRODUCES FAMOUS PROFESSORS

John W. Olson, state superintendent of public instruction, and State Auditor Samuel G. Iverson, have participated in Rushford, where they participated in the exercises in connection with the dedication of a new $40,000 stone high school building. Rushford is Mr. Iverson's home town. Mr. Olson attended in his official capacity. For many years Mr. Rushford has an enviable reputation as an educational point, and for the production of teachers who have attained national prominence. The caucus rolls and convention lists provide a reasonable line of party demarcation.

RED CROSS FOR CADETS

REGIMENTAL SURGEON WILL LOOK AFTER THE JOURNAL SOLDIERS AND THE SANITARY CAMP.

DR. ARCH E. WILCOX, Surgeon of the Cadet Regiment, Who Will Organize a Red Cross Emergency Service for the State Fair Encampment.

JOURNAL CADETS
Tonight, 730, at The Parade. Second and Third battalions.

The 400 Journal cadets who go into camp at the state fair Monday afternoon will be carefully looked after so far as precaution can be taken. Dr. Arch E. Wilcox has been selected as regimental surgeon and will not only be at the camp daily, but has organized a Red Cross corps, with a hospital tent and trained nurse in attendance. The camp regulations will enforce a regular hour for sleep and eating. While it is intended to give the cadets opportunity for viewing the fair attractions, regular hours for sightseeing will be designated. The ladies of the Sunshine society have taken the contract for provisioning the regiment, and Rev. C. E. Haupt, vicar of St. Mark's proctor, chaplain with the regiment, will also be in camp with the boys.
One hundred tents have been provided for the cadets. In addition to a large mess tent, each cadet should send to the regimental headquarters at the Parade by tomorrow a bundle containing a blanket, heavy shirt or sweater, towels, soap, hair and toothbrushes, etc. The headquarters will be kept open all day to receive these bundles, which will be tagged and sent to the camp in wagons.
The cadets are to assemble at the Parade at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon, and after rolls have been made up to include only those entitled to go to camp by reason of faithful attendance at drills, a parade will be made down Hennepin avenue to Fourth street to Nicollet avenue, to Washington and First avenue S., where they will take special streetcars provided by The Journal, at 5 o'clock, arriving at the fair grounds at 5 o'clock. The Journal Newsboys' band of forty-two pieces accompanies the regiment.
Last night there was an attendance of seventy-five at the officers' school of instruction in extended order drill. Tonight there will be a special drill of the Second battalion under Major Mullin, and the Third battalion under Major Ives will have a flag competition drill. The usual baseball game will be omitted.

For Congress.
I thank everybody for the generous support coming daily to my candidacy. I would gladly meet every man personally or through the mails, but my means and the law's limit of expenses forbid. Hence this ad. I have set forth my political views in an address to you. Get it, read it, spread it. Headquarters are open at 112 South Fourth street. —Albert H. Hall.

SUFFRAGE RIGHT WILL COST $45,270

OFFICIALS ARE OVERHAULING ELECTION MACHINERY.

County Auditor's Clerks Are Preparing Copy of Official Ballot for Printer—Judges Have Been Appointed and Everything Is Getting in Shape for Primary—Machines to Be Used.

It is estimated that the coming primary and general elections will cost the city and county $45,270, of which the city will contribute the major portion, $33,000, and the county $12,270. The county has a fund for its share of the expense of $10,000, which is swelled $2,270 by the filing fees of political candidates.

The printing of the ballots is in charge of the county auditor. Already his clerks are busy preparing the forms for the printers. There are to be provided for city and county use 50,000 republican ballots, 40,500 democratic ballots, 17,800 prohibition ballots and 14,400 public ownership ballots. These ballots will be made up into pads of 100 ballots each. No precinct will be given less than 100 ballots of each party.

The judges of election have already been appointed. In each precinct the republicans are to have one regular judge, one special judge and one ballot judge. The democrats have one regular and one special judge. The prohibitionists have one regular judge. There are 144 voting places. In addition to the judges, there will be two clerks in each district, with the exception of thirteen districts in which voting machines will be given a trial and where the services of the clerks will not be needed.
At the primary, Sept. 18, the voting places will be open from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., and the officers of the election will receive for their work 25 cents an hour.
The primary election day is also the first day for registration. Following this, there will be two more opportunities for voters to register, Oct. 23 and 27. In event that citizens are not registered, it will be impossible for them to vote in the general election in November.
