The marriage of Miss Mary Everts, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Everts, and Charles Hull Ewing, of Chicago, took place at 1 o'clock today at the summer home of the bride's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Everts, at Zumbra Heights, Lake Minnetonka. Dr. Jenkins Lloyd Jones of Chicago, a friend of Dr. Everts, read the service in the presence of the relatives of the two families. Maple and oak leaves made a beautiful setting in the parlor, where the vows were spoken under a canopy of brilliantly colored foliage. Late autumn flowers were arranged amidst the foliage and also filled the hanging baskets and vases.

Miss Everts was unattended. She wore a handsome wedding dress of sheer white material and her flowers were white roses. Dr. Everts gave his daughter in marriage. Following the service a luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Ewing left in the afternoon on a short wedding trip. They will reside in Chicago. The bride was formerly a student of the University of Minnesota and is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She was graduated from Emerson college, Boston, and until recently taught in the English and elocution departments of Iowa university. She was also dean of the women's building at Iowa university.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Ewing, the mother of the bridegroom of Chicago and an aunt, Mrs. Hull, and her daughter, also of Chicago; Mr. Ewing's sister, Mrs. Peck, and daughter Helen and Miss Katherine Everts of Boston, and Mrs. J. S. Green of Washington state, the sisters of the bride. Miss Katherine Everts will leave tomorrow for the series of readings in Minnesota and Wisconsin.

The wedding of Miss Gertrude Wallace and Melvin Thomas of Chicago took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Wallace Wood, on Seventh avenue S. About forty friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony, which was read by Rev. Irving P. Johnson. The decorations were very elaborate and palms and ferns were used in profusion to furnish a leafy setting. The doorway was graced with autumn leaves and ferns while in the parlor the window was banked with tall palms and ferns to simulate an altar. The mantel was a tangle of green in which red roses were caught. The great chandelier was red shaded and tied with a bow of red satin ribbon. The library was in pink and green and the mirrors were draped in vines held with clusters of pink roses and ribbons. In the dining room a basket of pink roses was in the center of the table and garlands of ribbons and vines fell from the chandelier to the corners of the table where they were caught with smart pink bows. Crystal holders held green-shaded tapers at each cover and the place cards had hearts pierced with arrows for decoration. The mantel was a mass of red roses and the chandelier reflected the burning tapers in the chandelier.

Miss Lavinia Judd played the "Lohengrin" bridal chorus as Mr. Johnson proceeded to the altar. There were two little attendants, Helen Robinson, who carried a basket of rose petals, and Helen Parnely, who bore the ring in a lily. The bride entered alone. She wore a blue crepe and tulle silk over blue tulle, and elaborate trim with purple lace. A wreath of flowers was in her hair and she held a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The two little attendants were in white.

At the informal reception that followed, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. E. S. Parnely, a sister of the bride, and Mrs. Frank Burdick assisted. Mr. and Mrs. Owens will leave this evening for an eastern trip and they will receive after Nov. 1 at 2431 Hennepin avenue. Mr. Owens is in the lumber business and his time is divided between Chicago and Minneapolis, so he will make his home in this city. Mrs. Owens' traveling gown is of blue broadcloth, and she will wear a rose hat.

The wedding of Miss Mary L. Rogers of Springfield, Ill., and William W. Mylne was quietly solemnized Saturday in the St. Paul cathedral. Rev. J. J. Lawler read the service.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Mase of Elliot avenue entertained at dinner last evening for Mr. and Mrs. George A. Mase, whose marriage took place at the Minnetonka last week, and for Captain J. R. Johnson and family, who left for a four months' trip to Europe. The bride is the daughter of Captain Johnson and the other guests were the members of her bridal party. Covers were placed for twelve and roses and ferns furnished an attractive decoration. Mr. and Mrs. George A. Mase left today for their wedding trip, having waited until the Johnsons went east. On their return they will occupy the Johnson home on St. Alban's way in Minneapolis this winter. Mr. Mase is a graduate of the South high school and also of the university.

Mrs. Charles J. Cole entertained at luncheon Saturday at her home, 3112 Lyndale avenue S., for the Misses Marion and Phoebe Cole, brides of the month. Covers were placed for seven and the decorations were in red and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton M. Odell will celebrate their fifth wedding anniversary tomorrow evening at their home, 4600 Upton avenue S.

A pretty affair for a bride was given at the home of Mrs. Charles Trow, on Eighteenth avenue S., Friday evening. Miss Clara Berry, whose marriage to Sinson Marchessault will take place late in October, was the guest of honor. Autumn leaves were used in decorating the rooms. The bride's place was marked at the table with a spray of autumn leaves. She was presented with a number of useful articles of granite ware. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Peter F. Dubay of 1217 East Twenty-third street, and Mrs. John Keary of 1310 East Twenty-third street, gave a grand dinner last week for Mrs. Henry Hanson at her home, 2311 Thirteenth avenue S., in honor of her tenth wedding anniversary. The decorations were in red and green. An elaborate luncheon was served in the dining room. Mrs. Hanson received many handsome presents.

Miss Ruth Potter and William Martin were married Tuesday in the Crystal Lake Catholic church at Robbinsdale. Rev. Father Klein read the service, which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hanson. A large pavilion had been erected and the 350 guests danced in the afternoon. A dinner and supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Bauer went to housekeeping on the bridegroom's farm on the Rockford road.

Professor H. W. Malcolm opened the handsome ballroom in the new Wilson

The Needlework Guild.

The annual collection of the Needlework guild began with a rush this morning, for almost the first contribution in the splendid collection of the Cassiopeia Needlework guild, 100 garments, all made by the clubwomen. The Coterie, one of the oldest literary clubs in the city, took up the guild work this year, and acted as a section in the quest of 110 garments, mostly comforters and infants' clothing. The shoe money also came in generous, and by noon there was almost $7 donated. Mrs. W. C. Wolf, president of the guild, and Mrs. H. E. Carpenter, chairman of the executive committee, had charge of the reception of the contributions in the church of the Redeemer parlors. Tomorrow the bulk of the garments will come in and it is hoped that the total number will run ahead of last year.

Sheltering Arms' Reception.

The annual reception and donation for the Sheltering Arms will be given tomorrow at the home, 2650 Emerson avenue N. Mrs. L. O. Merriam, president, and the members of the board of directors will assist the matron in receiving the friends of the institution.

MRS. SCHWAB IS ROBBED

Wife of Steel Man Victim of Hotel Thieves.

Journal Special Service.

New York, Oct. 8.—Mrs. Charles M. Schwab, wife of the former president of the United States Steel corporation, has been robbed of $10,000 worth of jewelry and other valuables, which she had been carrying to the Hotel Ansonia, at Seventy-third street and Broadway.

A fan painted by the artist, the famous artist, a high-priced silk skirt and articles of personal-adornment are among the booty obtained by the robbers. The Watteau fan is of most value, the work of the painter being well known to the public who would like to have been robbed.

The police believe that after identification of the loot already recovered by them is made, other women and men will know to the public will be found to have been robbed.

Following the arrest of two men and women, Detective Cleary has arrested Kate P. Gallagher. Cleary's investigations are said to have proved the girl had been an accomplice to the thieves.

TEACHER FIGHTS OFF A BIG BEAR

Promptly Fainted After Delivering a Blow that Put Bruin to Flight.

Special to The Journal.

Solway, Minn., Oct. 8.—Mary Mulvaney, the pretty schoolmarm who teaches in school district No. 3, north-east of this place, proved herself a heroine under trying circumstances.

The morning recess was just over and the third grade arithmetic class was reciting, the teacher standing at the blackboard with a long pointer in her hand, explaining the intricacies of multiplication and addition, when a cry of terror from a pupil on one of the back seats caused her to turn toward the door. She was horrified to see, standing in the open doorway a huge black bear, with head cocked curiously to one side and nose sniffing greedily towards the closet where the teacher and the children kept their lunch baskets.

There was instant panic among the pupils, none of whom was more than 10, and they gathered about the teacher, clinging to her skirts and huddling about her like little chicks about a mother hen. The bear paid no attention to the children, but made a bee line in the lunch closet. One of the older boys grew bold and aimed a chalk eraser at the bear, which turned about with an angry growl.

Now it started toward them with claws spread out menacingly. As it approached Miss Mulvaney brought down the heavy pointer which she held in her hand across the bridge of bruin's nose. The nose is a tender spot with bruin and the blow that Miss Mulvaney dealt was a good one. The bear which had been gained in a summer course in the harvest field, and so the bear, turning tail, scampered out of the schoolroom for the tall timber.

The danger being over, Miss Mulvaney fainted, which added to the panic of the youngsters, but some of the older ones threw a pail of water upon her and she soon revived.

PHONOGRAPH KEEPS WIFE'S DYING WORDS

Journal Special Service.

Denver, Oct. 8.—With death near at hand Mrs. Edward J. Munger, the wife of a wealthy oil operator of Postoria, talked daily into a phonograph, so that when she will have passed away, her voice might cheer her sorrowing husband.

Together the Mungers have made a tour of the world, and in each place of interest they had Mrs. Munger recorded upon the cylinder her impressions of the sights seen. Besides, much of the conversation between herself and her husband is recorded by the phonograph.

LARD IS ADULTERATED

"Pure Leaf" Contains Only Sixty Per Cent Lard, Wilson Says.

Journal Special Service.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Secretary Wilson has discovered that what is now sold at the highest price in the market as "pure leaf lard, kettle rendered," is really a compound composed of 60 per cent lard, 20 per cent beef tallow, 5 per cent hog tallow, 5 per cent peanut oil and 10 per cent cottonseed oil. Under the pure food law the word "lard" will have to be taken off the label.

Several packers have announced that they will put out pure leaf lard; but that its price will approximate that of butter and in hot weather it will be in semi-fluid state. Beef tallow, besides being cheap, gives the lard firmness.
