

TAKES MAN FOR BEAR, SHOOT HIM DEAD

Special to The Journal. Virginia, Minn., Oct. 9.—Charles Sundquist was instantly killed by Fred

Le Doux, a boy of 15, near Chisholm. The boy was hunting with a companion, Albert Headman, and mistook Sundquist for a bear. Both boys are in custody, but it is thought they will be cleared. This was the second hunting accident in this vicinity in a week, Frank Miller having been shot near Hibbing.

BUILDS HIS COFFIN; THEN KILLS HIMSELF

Journal Special Service. Litchfield, Ill., Oct. 9.—After working three weeks on his own coffin, Charles Stout, a well-known resident, shot and killed himself yesterday afternoon at his home. He was 85 years old. He left two notes explaining that he wanted to be buried in a striped shirt and overalls and the funeral was not to cost more than $5. He left $150 in his razor case.

FINDS HOME IN RUINS, HIS LOVED ONES BURNED

Steubenville, Ohio, Oct. 9.—His home destroyed by flames and the dead bodies of his aged father and two small children was the sight which met the eyes of Charles Zends, a farmer, on McIntyre creek, when he returned from a short trip to this city. The cause of the fire is a mystery.

DEATH OF HUMPHRIES UNDER PROBE. Special to The Journal. Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 9.—The inquest on the death of Thomas Humphries, who died shortly after he was ejected from the Stock Exchange hotel, Saturday night, was commenced today. Dr. Bell testified that the man's liver was ruptured. Four witnesses said they saw the row and that no one kicked or bit him to produce such a wound. Four hours' hard thinking exhausts the uses as much as ten hours of manual labor.

DAYTON'S Seventh and Nicollet DAYTON'S

Fall Opening of Women's Apparel

Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Oct. 10th, 11th, 12th.

FORMALLY presenting our display of Autumn modes, we invite you to view a display in which the three cardinal features—style, quality and exclusiveness—are faultlessly illustrated. Each garment shown is in absolute accord with the dictates of fashion for this fall season, each possesses a merit of material, making and finish that will make it eminently satisfactory to the wearer, and each has an attribute of originality which will give expression to personal individuality.

While our showing is complete in all branches, from the popular priced suit or coat, up to the most elegant evening costume, we very properly give precedence in this announcement to some of our more exclusive models.

A superb black and white chiffon costume, with black silk taffeta panel, is made up over silk. Waist has taffeta ribbon running over the shoulder. Illustration was drawn from this costume. $125

A very handsome costume in artistic design of pink chiffon silk over taffeta. The waist is hand embroidered and with Eton jacket, trimmed with silk cord. Price $175

A striking street suit is of tan colored chiffon broadcloth. Skirt is cut in a circular model with a panne velvet band on the flounce and chiffon edge. The waist is in the Eton style, lined throughout with white silk. We have marked this at $98

A magnificent Opera Cloak, is of chiffon broadcloth, with three-quarter length sleeves. A collarless model, set off with panne velvet, and with silk velvet fringe on sleeves and on shoulder. It is lined throughout with white silk. Price $115

An entirely new idea in Tailored Suits is of velvet, in combination effect, with Eton blouse and large plaid skirt. Jackets come in brown and blue imported velvets, lined with silk. It will cost $65

A broadcloth suit just received is made with a 50-inch coat and plaited skirt in a clever model. It comes in brown, wine and green, charmingly trimmed with velvet. Price $65

A new Eton Suit is made from chiffon broadcloth, in golden brown, cathedral gray and black. A new model effectively trimmed with braid. Shown at $45

A very practical suit for fall is made of broadcloth, in wine, brown, blue, green and black, with taffeta-lined jacket. Skirt comes in a new and pleasing plaited style. All sizes $35

Our Great Fall Offering of Knit Underwear

WEDNESDAY THURSDAY FRIDAY SATURDAY

THE wool market is very firm. Underwear mills are running overtime to supply the demand from all over the land. Wage scales are advancing, everything points to a considerably increased cost to manufacture knit underwear. In the face of these conditions we offer the remarkable values in reliable makes of knit underwear quoted below. We can do this because we contracted for our present stocks months ago, and it is our policy always to base our selling price on cost to us.

Women's Fall Gloves.

You Cordially Are Invited to Visit Our Glove Department and View the New Arrivals.

Empress Alexandre Princess Perrin's Trefousse Fisk's Dent's

We introduce this fall two new brands of kid gloves—The Empress and The Princess, made expressly for us by a noted French Glove maker.

The Empress Gloves are made from selected skins, cut and stitched by experts; colored with extreme care and subjected to a long and skillful course of treatment to produce perfect flexibility.

The Princess Gloves represent the maximum of merit in a glove selling at a popular price. While not quite so fine finished as the Empress, they are of splendid quality and will give ample satisfaction to the wearer.

Both Empress and Princess Gloves come in street and dress lengths in correct fall shades as well as in black and white.

La Vona Corsets

Our Own Exclusive Imported Models Demonstrated by Miss M. Kloos, Expert Fitter In Our Corset Dept.—Second Floor

The La Vona Corset is imported expressly for Dayton's and represents the latest Parisian idea of correct corseting. It is produced in the best materials; the finest of whalebone being used in its construction, together with superior linen, French Coutil, or beautiful silk brocade.

The New Fall Models include corsets for every type of figure, from the very slender to the generously proportioned. They furnish the correct foundation for this season's styles in suits and gowns.

The La Vona is Dayton's exclusive importation, shown nowhere else in the Twin Cities. Models range from $3.00 in price upward.

Lingerie.

The special exhibit and Sale of French handmade lingerie on our second floor has afforded many women of taste the opportunity to secure undergarments of dainty exclusiveness at small expense.
