MESSENGER BOY AT HEAD OF COMPANY

EDWARD J. NALLY MAKES BARD ADVANCEMENT.

Man Who Is Now Manager of Postal Telegraph & Cable Company Formerly Worked for Western Union in Minneapolis—Forges to the Front by Leaps and Bounds.

Edward J. Nally, who has recently taken the position of vice president of the $100,000,000 Postal Telegraph-Cable company, spent six years in Minneapolis in the course of his sensational rise from the position of a messenger boy to that of the acting head of a big corporation.

It was in 1881 that Mr. Nally came to Minneapolis as chief clerk to Isaac McMichael, superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph company. H. A. Tuttle, now general manager of the North American Telegraph company in Minneapolis, was then an employee of the Western Union and a close friendship was formed between the young men. In 1887, a year after Mr. Tuttle left the Western Union to build and become the general superintendent of the North American, Nally approached him in search of a better position than that of chief clerk to Mr. McMichael. No place was open in the North American, but Mr. Tuttle introduced him to L. D. Parker, then superintendent of the Postal Telegraph company in Chicago. Mr. Nally went to Mr. Parker as his chief clerk and at his death succeeded to the position, which he held until his promotion on Sept. 18.

"Nally's career from the time he left Minneapolis in 1887," said Mr. Tuttle, "has been phenomenal. He has simply rushed to the front. His changing from the Western Union to the Postal Telegraph, here in Minneapolis, was really the turning point in his career and I am glad that I had some share in giving him his start."

It was as messenger boy in the St. Louis office of Colonel R. C. Clowry, now president of the Western Union Telegraph company and then its manager in Missouri and the southwest, that Nally first took up the work of telegraph service. He was then 15 years old.

It was in 1875 that Nally entered Colonel Clowry's office. He remained with him five years, during which time he learned the business of telegraphy. Then he secured a higher position with the Western Union company and held various places until 1890, when he was offered and accepted the position of assistant general superintendent of the Postal Telegraph company at Chicago. About this time Colonel Clowry was promoted to the position of general superintendent of the Western Union company in Chicago, where he found his chief rival was his former office boy.

In 1901 Mr. Nally was made general superintendent of the Postal Telegraph-Cable company of Chicago, with jurisdiction over all lines west of Pennsylvania to Arizona, his territory comprising twenty-two states. He still was holding this office when he was elevated to his new position.

JAPANESE AS OUR RIVALS

TOURIST WHO HAS STUDIED CONDITIONS IN EAST COMES OUT FOR SHIP SUBSIDY

"Japan is and will be for 100 years the commercial rival of America, not only in trade in general, but in China." "Japan's expressed ambition is to control the trade of China."

After a long trip in Japan and China, investigating commercial conditions, Champ Andrews, lawyer and politician of New York, has changed his views and utters the axioms given above.

"Since I have been in Japan I have changed my views entirely again regarding ship subsidies," he said. "I have been bitterly opposed to the ship subsidy, but I am now of the opinion that we shall have to reverse our position and give the subsidies."

Properly speaking, Mr. Andrews is known as the attorney of the New York County Medical society. He is also well-known as vice chairman of the twenty-seventh democratic party organization and is candidate for the position of chairman which James J. Martin quit when he bolted the Murphy ticket. Martin had been a leader in the party and chairman for twenty-five years, but he could not take the Hearst pill and quit.

Mr. Andrews believes the Hearst strength is underestimated, and that as between Hearst and Hughes, property interests will prefer Hughes.

"My district is the silk-stocking district, the millionaire district, extending from Thirty-eighth street," said Mr. Andrews today. "I believe the division in the democratic ranks is offset by the republican vote that has come over."

DAVE MARION'S WORK

Ho Makes the Dreamland Burlesquers a Real Success.

There are more good specialties, clever song features and funny situations crowded into the burlesques given by the Dreamland Burlesquers at the Dewey this week than in a dozen burlesque shows in the horseplay class.

The burlesques and the features that make for their success are the results of Dave Marion's originality. Marion wrote the lines, the songs, planned the specialties and plays the leading comedy role. The two acts are absolutely new and the plot is original, dealing with a trip from Broadway to Roseland. The piece calls for an elaborate outlay of scenery and costumes.

The music is catchy and there are several good voices in the chorus, which has some part in nearly every specialty. The comedy is good and well handled. Several dancing and ensemble numbers and worked into the burlesques, adding snap to the show and relieving the monotony of dialog.

In the olio Dave Marion has the leading number in his walking song, a turn that is cleverly worked up and requiring the assistance of the entire cast.

The Bijou Comedy Trio make good in their musical specialty. Harry Fox and the Twin Melnotte Sisters have a clever turn in the shows unusual versatility, and Lawrence and Thompson are good in their short sketch.

The closing burlesque is partly given over to vaudeville numbers and scenic displays.

Why Stove Putty Makes An Expensive Stove

"If the joints don't fit, daub a little stove putty in 'em."
That's the policy of most stove manufacturers, because it costs them less. But it costs you more.
Every time a piece of this putty shrinks, and drops out, there's a crack to suck in air.
Half of the heating power of soft coal and a great portion of hard coal, is gas. These valuable gases which should be burned, and a big part of the heat go up the chimney—wasted.
From $100 to $500 lost in fuel during the life of the stove.
To say nothing of the discomfort and unsatisfactory heating of the house.
Here you can see how stoves are put together.

ITCHING PAINFUL SORES ON HANDS

Suffered for a Long Time Without Relief—Had Three Doctors and Derived No Benefit—One Doctor Was Afraid to Touch Them—Soreness Disappeared and Hands Now Smooth After Application of

CUTICURA SOAP AND CUTICURA OINTMENT

"For a long time I suffered with sores on the hands which were itching, painful, and disagreeable. I had three doctors and derived no benefit from any of them. One doctor said he was afraid to touch my hands, so you must know how bad they were; another said I never could be cured; and the third said the sores were caused by the dipping of my hands in water in the dye-house where I work. I saw in the papers about the wonderful cures of the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. In three days after the application of the Cuticura Ointment my hands began to peel and were better. The soreness disappeared, and they are now smooth and clean, and I am still working in the dye-house."
"I strongly recommend Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment to any one with sore hands, and I hope that this letter will be the means of helping other sufferers. Very truly yours, Mrs. A. E. Maurer, 2340 State St., Chicago, Ill., July 1, 1905."

DOCTORS ARE BAFFLED BY MYSTERIOUS DISEASE

Amsterdam, N. Y., Oct. 9.—The best physicians here cannot name the strange disease that within twelve hours carried off William C. McDaniel, 13 years old, and Francis A. McDaniel, 10 years, fine promising boys, who usually enjoyed excellent health.
When William went home last Monday his mouth was slightly swollen; he told his mother he had struck himself accidentally.
William suddenly collapsed on Friday afternoon and died at 6 p. m. Francis' condition rapidly became more serious, but after the doctors gave him heart stimulants he seemed better. At 6 a. m. the boy arose from his bed, fell, and died before anyone could reach him.
The post mortem effects of the mysterious disease were such that the boys' bodies were buried as soon as possible.

INTERDICTION FOR PRIESTS OF FRANCE

Grenoble, France, Oct. 9.—Mgr. Henri, today at Notre Dame, declared that every priest who assisted in the formation of cultural associations under the law would be interdicted, and that every Catholic joining such associations would be excommunicated from the church. The prelate added: "Let us live poor rather than purchase liberty at the price of dishonor."

What Joy They Bring To Every Home

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature, and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty-cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.
