FAIRBANKS GIVES A DAY TO McCLEARY

Vice President Speaks at Mankato and Tours Second District to Luverne.

Mankato, Minn., Oct. 15.—Vice President Fairbanks was given a hearty and enthusiastic reception on the occasion of his visit to Mankato today. The population turned out in large numbers to do him honor. Arriving at 10:40 from the east, he was accompanied to the city by his private secretary and Congressman McCleary.

A great crowd, with a band, had assembled at the station and, accompanied by the city officials and party leaders, Mr. Fairbanks was taken in an automobile to the operahouse, where he ad-dressed a vast crowd for thirty minutes. Congressman McCleary introduced him as the neighbor and friend of the late President Harrison.

The vice president spoke very kindly of McCleary's services in congress, saying that he had but one ambition, which he followed faithfully, and that wall there followed the Cognac, Berne was to advance the welfare of the states and the honor and glory of the common country. Roosevelt was paid a splendid tribute by the speaker, who said the republican party had stood by and back of him and been loyal to the trust committed to it and had redeemed every pledge made in the 1904 cam-paign. Roosevelt, he declared, was entitled to a judgment of approval and party commendation at the ballot in November.

men of judgment and who know how to promote public interest." declared Fairbanks. "There is no state in the union which has had abler men in the senate and house than Minnesota-men who not only have the willingness but capacity to do things. There is no abler man in the senate, nor one more thoroly consecrated to the interests of the country than Nelson, while Clapp, with a shorter service, has won the confidence and respect of those associated with him.

BISMARCK FAMILY ARMED FOR KAISER

Have Iron Chancellor's Memoirs to Publish as Answer to Von Hohenlohe.

ournal Special Service Berlin, Oct. 15 .- Soon there will be a conference of members of the Bismarck family and of the intimate friends of the "iron chancellor," who survive him. They will determine the weighty question whether the publication of Prince von Hohenlohe's derogatory account of the circumstances surrounding Bismarck's resignation as chancellor warrants the counter publication of the fourth volume of Bismarck's memoirs This manuscript covers the period of Bismarck's relations with the young kaiser. It lies in an iron chest in the yaults of the Bank of England, where it was placed lest the king are in it. it was placed lest the kaiser seize it.

placed on the basis of foreigners, but without the rights of privileges which other foreigners enjoy in Russia. This measure, combined with others, in the opinion of the league, will infallibly force the Jews to emigrate to a state specially created for them.

The Jews, moreover, are to be forbidden to serve in the army or navy, to study at schools or universities, to obtain government concessions, to be ships' captains or to be druggists or journalists. They are not to have votes. In regard to the agrarian question, the league adheres to the principle laid down by the present czar and his predecessor, that all property, including real estate, is to be held inviolable.

Plot Against Dowager Empress. Copenhagen, Oct. 15.—A vessel which arrived here yesterday from Russia had on board five stowaways, who were detained at the request of the Russian consulate. It is supposed they are terrorists contemplating the assassination of the dowager empress of Russia, who is now here. The police are inquiring into the identity of the stowaways.

Steal Government Arms.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, Oct. 15.—A consignment of several thousand revolvers, purchased by the Russian govvolvers, purchased by the Russian government in Berlin, recently fell into the hands of the Polish revolutionists.

Shortly after the arrival of the car containing the pistols at the Warsaw freight yards an artillery officer and a squad of soldiers appeared, presented the bills of lading and an authorization to receive these weapons which were to receive these weapons, which were loaded upon a wagon and carried away. It developed later that the soldiers were disguised revolutionists and the document forged.

Investigation shows that since last December the revolutionists have been accumulating large stocks of rifles and revolvers in Poland, the greater part of these, according to a member of the party, being purchased in Berlin.

The organization of the bureau, the secretary hopes, will lead to that closer political and commercial union which was the object of the policy inaugurated when he called the Pen American conference. when he called the Pan-American con-ference. In suggesting the reassembling of The Hague conference he intends, to quote the expression he used at Rio de Janeiro to secure "the world's formal and final acceptance of the declaration that no part of the American continents is to be deemed subject to colonization."

Plans to Boost Trade.

The reorganization of the bureau of American republics is regarded by the president and Secretary Root as the keystone of the future Pan-American political and commercial union. Upon the bureau's work depends the wide circulation of knowledge respecting the resources, the commerce and the education of Pan-America and the execution of the resolutions adopted by the various Pan-American conferences the effective preparation of a plan to simplify and make uniform the custom and consul regulations and uniformity of the bases on which the official sta-tistics of all the American countries shall be formed—in a word, the preparation of a plan under which not only will statistics and commercial data be circulated, but which will insure "the greatest development and amplification of commercial relations between Ameri can republics.

was put on the stand. Asked what was his business, the witness appealed to the court. He said the answer would tend to incriminate him and asked for immunity from future prosecution.

Attorney Phelps for the defense remarked: "Well, I guess we will have to make him immune," and the court ordered the witness to answer questions, thereby extending immunity. No more objection to answering questions was made and the witness after stating was made and the witness after stating, he was superintendent of the Lima division of the company and gave the geographical bounds of this division.

Mr. O'Brien described the process of gathering the oil from the producers' tanks into storage tanks. In the several counties comprising the Lima division the company has 500 storage tanks, each of which holds about 30,000 barrels. On the west of the division the connecting line with that of the company is the Indiana Pipe Line company. Altho Attorney Phelps said it was well known that the Indiana pipe line ran to the refinery at Whiting, Ind., the witness said he had never been to Whiting and could not testify from knowledge.

There was also an eastern connection for the lines of the Buckeye, but witless could give no details.

Voted Standard Proxy. Mr. O'Brien said he had for more than a year been a director in the Buck-eye company. He was present at the last annual meeting of the company at Lima. Witness said he voted the proxy of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey; that at this meeting there were present R. L. Bates, secretary of the Buckeye; T. A. McLaughlin; a Mr. Bell of Oil City, Pa. Witness did not remem-ber the number of shares represented by the proxy he voted.

"Don't you know that you voted all the shares of the company, except shares owned by those who were present?"

"I don't know that." "Is not that your best recollection?"
"Idon't remember."
T. A. McLaughlin of Lima, who is agent there for the Joseph Seep Pur-chasing agency, was next called by the prosecution. He described the method of purchasing oil and said this oil was mostly transferred to P. S. Trainor, altho some went to the Craig Oil com-pany at Toledo and some to the Canfield company. The latter company, he said, was not running.

Mr. McLaughlin is a director in the Buckeye Pipe Line company and in the Ohio Oil company. He did not know who voted the proxy of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey. "I will ask you if the stock of the Ohio Oil company that was voted at that meeting by some one of the gen-tlemen present was not the stock of the Replying to another question, he said that Joseph Seep paid rent for his offices, both in Findlay and Lima, to the Buckeye company. Objection to all questions was made en bloc by the defense at the conclusion of the examination of each witness. These were overruled and exceptions to these rulings made by the defense.

Every Day She Said

Early in the morning before dressing, "Now I must quit drinking coffee, I know it causes my weak heart and the ever increasing nervousness. These troubles get steadily worse and what will the end be?" But when the coffee comes on at breastfast she says, 'Well, just this one cup," and so it goes from day to day the same old round and the bodily ailments growing worse as time goes on.

The coffee habit acts like a personal demon, ever ready to offer excuses and to steadily push his victim one step down each day and laugh at the good resolutions.

But there's a way and a sure way to kill off that demon. Order the Coffee kept off the table and Postum Food Coffee served in its place. Then one can have the hot breakfast beverage with the deep seal brown of coffee, changing to a rich golden brown when cream is added, and, with a flavor all its own, the Postum comes as a strong friend in need.

The change in feeling will begin within a day or two, generally the first day. The drug of coffee (caffeine) has been cut off and the body and nerves relieved, then comes the sturdy feeling of new life and new healthy cells being built in from the rebuilding food in Postum. Gradually the old aches and ails disappear and the joy and swing of health comes again. You can prove it in your own case.
