CHARIVARI MOB WRECKS A HOME

Women as Well as Men Take Part in Brutal Attack on Wisconsin Bridal Couple.

Special to The Journal.
Chippewa Falls, Wis., Oct. 18.—Philip Bellier, a bridegroom of a day, is wondering if it pays to get married after all. Immediately after the ceremony his misery began. It was caused by the descent Tuesday night on the home of his bride, formerly Miss Elizabeth Proulx, who lives with her parents on a farm in the town of Thidauc. A mob of 100 men and women bent on giving a charivari to the newly married pair. The house was stormed when refreshments were refused, windows were broken, lace curtains torn down and trampled upon and even the bridal chamber invaded. Here the raiders seized the nuptial bed, took it to pieces and carried it away with them. Even the mattress and bedclothing were not spared.

Nor was this the end. The mob then broke into the milkhouse on the farm in search of liquor and finding none turned the milk into the creek. Hug and Kiss the Bridegroom. Finally the bridegroom, who had been in hiding, made his appearance. The mob demanded $10 to disperse. Bellier offered $4, but this offer was spurned with loud guffaws. Thereupon he was seized by the women in the party and hugged and kissed until he shrieked for mercy. He offered the twenty women who had surrounded him $2 if they would give him his freedom and they said they would, providing he gave the men $4 more.

This was still to be expected and the bridegroom, with his clothing nearly torn from his back, was released. The money satisfied the crowd, which dispersed at once. Interior of House Wrecked. The sight that greeted Bellier's eyes when he returned to the house caused him wild with anger. The whole inside of the place was a mass of wreckage. Broken furniture, window glass and trampled clothing were strewn about the floor. In a corner of one room he found his bride crying. The aged parents of the bride were terror-stricken and had been unable to come to his aid. Then Bellier decided he would have revenge. He and his mother-in-law visited the district attorney's office yesterday and as a result it is expected that nearly 100 warrants will be sworn out for the arrest of the marauders. The mother of the bride says: "The party was one of the most reckless I have ever heard of. The free use of firearms and destruction of property violates the true charivari spirit, and the ringleaders must now take the consequences."

FISH STILL HAS BATTLE AHEAD

Victory in Illinois Central Fight Yesterday May Prove Only Temporary.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Stuyvesant Fish, president of the Illinois Central railroad, won a temporary victory in his fight with E. H. Harriman for the control of the road in the annual meeting of the stockholders yesterday, but at the same time he laid the foundation for his own defeat for re-election as president when the directors meet in New York next week.

President Fish did this when he cast the 613 proxies in his possession for J. De Witt Cutting as director to succeed the late William Morton Grinnell in the face of the protest of seven of the thirteen members of the board of directors who were committed to the election of Henry W. De Forest, Mr. Harriman's choice, and a director in the Southern Pacific.

As a result of President Fish's action the Harriman interests accuse him of treachery and threaten to bring the fight into the meeting of the board of directors when they meet to elect the executive officials of the road for the ensuing year. If the proxies voted this threat and the seven directors who were overruled by President Fish today stand by Mr. Harriman, Mr. Fish will be retired from the presidency of the board, a position which he has held for nearly twenty years.

The directors who went on record yesterday as being opposed to President Fish's choice for director and favoring Mr. Harriman's man were Edward H. Harriman, Charles A. Peabody, Walter Luttgen, John W. Auchincloss, Robert Walton Goetz, Cornelius Vanderbilt and J. T. Harahan. Two of these men, Mr. Vanderbilt and Mr. Harahan, were re-elected, and all seven will be members of the board when the election of president comes up next week.

Realizes His Peril. President Fish realizes that he may be ousted from the presidency of the road and at the meeting yesterday said that with the proxies in his possession he might appoint his own friends on the board and make his election sure. "It is apparent that, throwing out the proxies sent me by what has been designated as the Harriman-Kuhn-Loeb-Peabody interests," said Mr. Fish, "I have sufficient proxies here today to elect four directors of my own choosing."

"I could follow the plan suggested by the other gentlemen and appoint my own friends and my counsel as members of this board; but that I will not do, because I am not making this fight to secure my own personal interests. I am standing for the stockholders of the road, to forestall if possible an attempt to turn over this road to those controlling the Union Pacific."

BROWER, ACQUITTED, CHEERED BY CROWD

Toms River, N. J., Oct. 18.—After a trial lasting about ten days, Dr. Frank L. Brower, indicted for the murder of his wife by poison, has been acquitted. Dr. Brower was brought in looking pale, but showing little signs of nervousness. The jury then filed into the box and the foreman announced: "We find a verdict of not guilty." "I am standing for the stockholders of the road, to forestall if possible an attempt to turn over this road to those controlling the Union Pacific."

MINOT, N. D.—Matches carried to the base are believed to have caused a fire which destroyed the barn and granary of C. E. Dresher, a farmer living south of Surrey.

Fruit Cure For Fat People

Rengo Fruit Juices Are Nature's Way of Relieving Sufferers From the Dangers of Obesity.

COSTS NOTHING TO TRY.

Taken from Life, Before and After.

Rengo fruit, one of the most luscious products of the Sunny Southland, is now declared by scientists to be Nature's own marvelous cure for obesity or excess fat. A prominent Chicago physician recently said that thousands of people in the United States are now finding relief through Rengo.

Rengo fruit, as it is placed on the market, is in highly concentrated form, containing the juices of the fruit in its natural state. None of the delicious flavor is lost by this concentration, so there is not anything unpleasant about taking Rengo Fruit.

Rengo Fruit does more than reduce the weight and get rid of the fat. It does all this without weakening the patient, or otherwise working him harm, and it positively builds up the health, giving increased strength and vitality. It brings almost immediate relief from the dangers of fatty degeneration of the heart and other fatal conditions which nearly always accompany excess fat.

There is nothing "just as good" as Rengo Fruit. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per full sized box, or, if you prefer, address The Rengo Fruit Co., 2022 Main St., Augusta, Mich., and they will gladly send you a trial package free by mail.
