

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE
Northwestern Paper Company—
We, the undersigned, do hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the title No. 121 of Chapter thirty-four (34) of the general statutes of 1905, and the several acts amendatory thereof—of the laws of the state of Minnesota, and adopt the following Articles of Incorporation:

ARTICLE I.
The name of this corporation shall be the Northwestern Paper Company, the general nature of the business of said corporation shall be the buying, selling, storing and handling paper, or any merchandise or novelty, also renting, buying and selling real estate or buildings.

ARTICLE II.
This corporation shall commence business Oct. 20, 1905, and shall continue twenty-five (25) years from that date.

ARTICLE III.
The amount of capital stock of this corporation shall be $50,000 and this same shall be divided into 500 shares of $100 a share. No stock shall be issued unless fully paid.

ARTICLE IV.
The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which said corporation shall at any time be subjected, shall be limited to $100,000.

ARTICLE V.
The names and residences of the persons forming this association for incorporation are as follows: L. T. SOWLE, Charles T. SOWLE and E. MEAGHER, all of Minneapolis, Minn.

ARTICLE VI.
The names of the first board of directors of said corporation are as follows: L. T. SOWLE, C. L. T. SOWLE, R. E. MEAGHER, and a treasurer, the government of said corporation and the management of its affairs shall be vested in a board of directors of not less than three or more than five, to be elected by the stockholders annually at a meeting to be held for that purpose at Minneapolis, Minn., at the hour of 10:00 o'clock a. m. on the second Monday of January, each year, until which time the successors are elected and qualified. And this board of directors shall elect a manager with such powers and authority in its affairs as they may determine. The above-named persons as directors shall constitute and be the first board of directors. The directors shall elect from their number a president, a vice president, a secretary and a treasurer, but until the first election of officers, L. T. SOWLE shall be president, R. E. MEAGHER shall be vice president, C. L. T. SOWLE shall be secretary, L. T. SOWLE shall be treasurer.

ARTICLE VII.
Should the annual meeting not be held at the time stated above, then the board of directors shall appoint some other time through their secretary by written notice to each stockholder as the names appear on the books. And in witness whereof, we have set our hands and seals this 20th day of October, 1905.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS.
The Dignity and Sacredness of Motherhood.

Think of the greatest man who has ever lived upon this earth, and then think of him as he lay, an infant, in his mother's arms. Does it seem possible that he should have grown, become great in the world's estimate and perhaps had monuments erected to perpetuate his memory, and yet that the world should have forgotten even the name of the woman who bore him? The son's work is the mother's primarily and, therefore, the recognition of the dignity and tender sacredness of motherhood should no longer be delayed. It is high time that this country's greatest treasures—THE WOMEN WHO HAVE CONTRIBUTED LARGELY TO MAKE IT WHAT IT IS—should be recognized.

Why should not these good mothers be given the right to vote and have a voice in our government—a right that is accorded to some of the most ignorant, most insignificant and vilest of men?

It has been well said that "for every monument to a great man there should be a monument to his mother and the mother's monument should be built first."

But it is not so much the purpose of this brief article to advocate the just rights and privileges due to the women of this country, although it has afforded the writer great pleasure to pen the foregoing brief tribute to their worth and just deserts, as it is to call attention to the fact that when broken down in health and strength by over-work, the too frequent bearing of children, the never ending toil, worry and care of the household, or by whatever may overtax the strength and delicacy of her sensitive system, there is one, tried and proven, safe remedy upon which she may rely to regain health, strength and the power to fully enjoy life.

That remedy is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—a remedy made wholly from the roots of native forest plants which have been proven to be most efficacious, reliable and safe in the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, periodical pains, irregularities, wasting and weakening catarrhal, pelvic drains and kindred ailments. It is a remedy, the makers of which print its formula on every bottle-wrapper and attest its completeness and correctness under oath; a remedy devised and adapted to woman's delicate constitution by an educated physician—an experienced specialist in woman's diseases; a remedy, every ingredient of which has received the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar diseases; a remedy which has more bona-fide cures to its credit than any other sold by druggists for woman's special requirements and the only one which contains no alcohol in its make up.

Delicate, weak, nervous women should especially shun the use of alcoholic medicines which, from their stimulating and exhilarating effects may seem, for a time, to do good, but which, from the inevitable effects of the alcohol in shrinking up the red corpuscles of the blood, are sure to do great and lasting harm in the long run. Besides they begot a craving for stimulants which is most deplorable. "Favorite Prescription" is the one remedy for woman's ills which contains no alcohol.

Only invigorating and nerve strengthening effects can follow the use of this famous medicine for women. It can not possibly do harm in any state or condition of the system.

If a woman has bearing down, or dragging pains, low down in the abdomen, or pelvic, backache, frequent

KERKHOVEN RAID

Cracksmen Blew the Bank's Safe Into the Streets, Then Being Frightened Away.

Special to The Journal.
Kerkhoven, Minn., Oct. 26.—A band of yeggmen is operating thru this part of the state. Early yesterday the gang was in Kerkhoven and later descended on Murdock, and still later paid its respects to the village of Spicer.

The attempt to crack the safe in the Kerkhoven bank was a complete fiasco. The robber gang invaded the town late at night and found no one up except a quartet of traveling men who were playing cards in the hotel adjoining the bank building. The leader of the band entered the hotel and leveled his pistol at the startled men, threatening that if any demonstration was made by them his associates would open fire. One bandit stood guard over the frightened prisoners while the other four proceeded to the bank.

Safe Blown into Street.
A series of fortunate happenings prevented the complete looting of the bank. It was not long before a terrific explosion shook all the adjoining buildings, and was discovered that the safe of the bank had been blown thru the plate-glass windows in the front of the building and landed right side up in the middle of the street.

The bandits rushed to the safe while the citizens, who had been aroused by the explosion, now collected rapidly in the street. Many of the latter were armed, and for a time a pitched battle was imminent. There might have been bloodshed but for the fact that those who were armed were warned not to fire lest retaliation might mean the death or serious injury of several citizens.

By this time the bandits had become alarmed at the number of men who had gathered, and started on a run for the railroad track. At Murdock, seven miles away, they robbed a grocery store of a good breakfast, taking bread, sardines, cheese and other food. Still later they took a team from a farmer and drove into the village of Spicer.

The same character of misfortunes, from their viewpoint, seems to have followed them to Spicer, for all the plunder they obtained there was hardly visible to the naked eye. All the loss in Kerkhoven was confined to the damage to the bank building and its contents.

ST. PAUL MAN WINS BRIDE
Pretty Romance in the Marriage of H. Bainbridge Evans.

Journal Special Service.
New York, Oct. 26.—Miss Marguerite Spinning of Danesville, N. Y., and H. Bainbridge Evans of St. Paul, Minn., were wedded in the marble collegiate church here last night.

The pretty romance behind this marriage began when Miss Spinning was a junior and by all odds the most beautiful student at Miss Ely's fashionable school for young women in this city.

She roomed there with Miss Blanche Lupkin, also of St. Paul, and one night, over their fudge and caramels, Miss Lupkin pledged her to "stand up" as maid of honor whenever she should be married.

The belle solemnly promised, and a few months ago she went to St. Paul to redeem. Miss Lupkin, with her fiancé, met her at the depot—and Mr. Evans was there, too. He was to be the best man. Before the bridesmaid had ridden by his side half way to her residence both were in love.
