

N. Y. INDEPENDENTS ARE OFF TICKET

Supreme Court Declares League Nominations Have Been Improperly Made.

New York, Oct. 27.—While the gubernatorial candidates of the republican and independence league and democratic parties were campaigning upstate yesterday, there was no death of interest in this city, where a court decision practically wiped out the local congressional, senatorial and assembly ticket of the independence league.

While today's decision directly affects the local ticket only, some concern was expressed regarding its possible effect upon the league in places where the same practice regarding nominating petitions may have been followed.

Thomsen Charge Denied. Max F. Thomsen, manager for the independence league, yesterday made a statement in which he charged that Postmaster General Cortelyou had come to New York to show Chairman Woodruff of the state republican committee how to raise an enormous corruption fund.

Chairman Woodruff of the state republican committee, promptly denying the accusation, issued the following: "The statement is absolutely false from beginning to end. The fact is that not one dollar has been received from any corporation or corporation interests."

Charles E. Hughes, republican nominee for governor, addressed three large audiences here last night. Only one meeting had been planned, but the other two were so quickly filled that Mr. Hughes agreed to speak at a third meeting in the city hall.

When Mr. Hughes and his party arrived they were welcomed at the station by several hundred people. From the depot to the hotel the route lay through the city streets.

Mr. Hughes was stopped by delegations of workmen, who came out to greet him. Mr. Hughes' reception at the hotel was most enthusiastic.

Mr. Hughes spent all of the early afternoon at Bath, where he met an audience which filled the casino, and an afternoon meeting at the city hall, where he also held a reception, meeting many civil war veterans wearing the uniform of the state soldiers' home located in Bath.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 27.—Boasts to the length of 5,000 words are heaped upon the University of Wisconsin by the legislative committee on education, the report of which was given out yesterday by order of Governor Davidson.

The report denounces the university accounting as an antiquated system as expensive, inefficient and antiquated, and lays bare the bickerings and jealousies among the faculty members and the arrogance of professors toward the students.

The report says Greek letter fraternities, but leaves them to the restraint of university authorities. The same disposition was made of football. The same is declared to be of no actual value and participated in for exercise by only a few students.

Vindication is accorded Professor G. N. Knapp, who was expelled for declaring that contracts were not properly made in the college of agriculture since 1848. A dangerous spirit of snobbery and un-American exclusiveness is fostered by the fraternities. Some of the social functions are planned solely for the richer students, the poorer ones being humiliated or compelled to spend above their means.

"Fraternities are found to cultivate exclusiveness and a spirit of aristocracy that is un-American and out of harmony with the democratic spirit that ought to prevail in state institutions. Abuses have crept into these fraternities, such as using unbecoming efforts to secure members without regard to qualifications, and a tendency to shield fellow members in their lapses and delinquencies."

"Some of the social functions, especially the junior 'prom,' are open to the same objections as the fraternities, with the added objection that only students in financial condition considerably above the average can participate in such social events."

Grant is hinted at in an order that hereafter it shall be illegal for university officers to sell goods to the institution.

Female athletics are encouraged by a recommendation that a woman's gymnasium be built.

Don't think you can cure your dyspepsia in any other way than by strengthening and toning your stomach.

That is weak and incapable of performing its functions, probably because you have imposed upon it in one way or another over and over again.

You should take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It strengthens and tones the stomach, and permanently cures dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Accept no substitute.

GRAFT FIGHTERS WIN IN FRISCO

District Attorney Langdon Is Still in Possession of Disputed Office.

San Francisco, Oct. 27.—After a day of tremendous excitement, District Attorney Langdon, who Thursday night was dismissed from office by Acting Mayor Gallagher, was apparently in a victorious position last night and had gained a temporary advantage over the city officials and politicians whom he had announced he intended to have indicted for felonies and misdemeanors.

Almost at daybreak yesterday an attorney representing Langdon appeared at the residence of Superior Judge Searl and obtained an order temporarily restraining "Boss" Abe Ruef, whom the acting mayor appointed to succeed Langdon, from interfering with the officials of the district attorney's office.

Judge Sewall set the case for hearing next Friday. Langdon and his assistant, Francis H. Heney, were not disturbed in their official capacity.

Exciting Court Tilt. The excitement of the day came with the proceedings yesterday afternoon in the court of Superior Judge Thomas Graham, where the final member of the new grand jury was chosen and where it was expected the court would settle the question of recognition of either Langdon or Ruef as district attorney.

When the desired juror had been accepted, Heney arose and made objections to the actions of a deputy sheriff, who had several times attempted to search him. Ruef said the deputy was acting under his instructions, it being Ruef's belief that Heney was not disturbed in their official capacity.

The court warned the deputy to cease annoying Mr. Heney. Ruef declared that he wished to proceed with an examination into the qualifications of certain grand jurors. Heney interrupted, saying the first thing that he intended to present to the grand jury was evidence supporting the charges of felony and misdemeanor against Ruef.

Crowd Cheers Langdon. During the proceedings, and for an hour earlier, a crowd of 3,000 had assembled. When Langdon and Heney emerged they were heartily cheered.

A few minutes later Ruef appeared and was shouted and hissed. As he was making his way to his automobile, a man who had been ejected from the courtroom attempted to strike the police officer who was guarding him. Ruef was attended in court and afterward by two detectives.

Great Day for Hughes. Corning, N. Y., Oct. 27.—Charles E. Hughes, republican candidate for governor, addressed three large audiences here last night. Only one meeting had been planned, but the other two were so quickly filled that Mr. Hughes agreed to speak at a third meeting in the city hall.

When Mr. Hughes and his party arrived they were welcomed at the station by several hundred people. From the depot to the hotel the route lay through the city streets.

Mr. Hughes was stopped by delegations of workmen, who came out to greet him. Mr. Hughes' reception at the hotel was most enthusiastic.

Mr. Hughes spent all of the early afternoon at Bath, where he met an audience which filled the casino, and an afternoon meeting at the city hall, where he also held a reception, meeting many civil war veterans wearing the uniform of the state soldiers' home located in Bath.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 27.—Boasts to the length of 5,000 words are heaped upon the University of Wisconsin by the legislative committee on education, the report of which was given out yesterday by order of Governor Davidson.

The report denounces the university accounting as an antiquated system as expensive, inefficient and antiquated, and lays bare the bickerings and jealousies among the faculty members and the arrogance of professors toward the students.

The report says Greek letter fraternities, but leaves them to the restraint of university authorities. The same disposition was made of football. The same is declared to be of no actual value and participated in for exercise by only a few students.

Vindication is accorded Professor G. N. Knapp, who was expelled for declaring that contracts were not properly made in the college of agriculture since 1848. A dangerous spirit of snobbery and un-American exclusiveness is fostered by the fraternities. Some of the social functions are planned solely for the richer students, the poorer ones being humiliated or compelled to spend above their means.

"Fraternities are found to cultivate exclusiveness and a spirit of aristocracy that is un-American and out of harmony with the democratic spirit that ought to prevail in state institutions. Abuses have crept into these fraternities, such as using unbecoming efforts to secure members without regard to qualifications, and a tendency to shield fellow members in their lapses and delinquencies."

"Some of the social functions, especially the junior 'prom,' are open to the same objections as the fraternities, with the added objection that only students in financial condition considerably above the average can participate in such social events."

Grant is hinted at in an order that hereafter it shall be illegal for university officers to sell goods to the institution.

Female athletics are encouraged by a recommendation that a woman's gymnasium be built.

Don't think you can cure your dyspepsia in any other way than by strengthening and toning your stomach.

That is weak and incapable of performing its functions, probably because you have imposed upon it in one way or another over and over again.

You should take Hood's Sarsaparilla. It strengthens and tones the stomach, and permanently cures dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Accept no substitute.

"GRAIN OF WHEAT" ON THE GRIDDLE

Yesterday's Examination at Des Moines a Hard Ordeal for Secretary Wells.

Special to The Journal. Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 27.—The hearing before the interstate commerce commission yesterday afternoon on the grain elevator situation in Iowa proved a hard ordeal for Secretary George A. Wells and other members of the Iowa Grain Dealers' association. There were several sensational passages, in which the elevator situation was discussed in detail by documentary evidence.

At one time Mr. Wells was ordered from the stand by Commissioner Clark, who charged him with attempting to mislead the commission.

The farmers and representatives of the Farmers' Co-operative association endeavored to show that the grain combine was on the habit of fixing prices and of freezing out the irregulars. Incidentally Commissioner Clark inquired into the methods of the co-operative and asked if the "dealers" did not come pretty close to fixing prices.

The Messerole Boycott. C. G. Messerole of Gowrie, who took the stand at the opening of the afternoon session, is secretary of the Farmers' Co-operative Grain Dealers' association, and one of the chief opponents of the Grain Dealers' association.

He testified that his association with the farmers' company dated from the time he had attempted to do business as an "independent" without joining the association to fix prices.

"I was out of the market for the Iowa Grain Dealers' association," he said. "Through its secretary, George A. Wells, a boycott was forced on the house, which was not a success."

Mr. Messerole said he had proof of this allegation in the hands of the commission. He testified further that some of the independents had been released from the boycott on the condition that they would discontinue the penalty clause.

Ward Case's "Cards." Ward Case of Des Moines, who regularly sends out cards quoting prices on grain, testified that he had a number of cards on attempt to fix prices. The Iowa Grain Dealers' association subscribes for the cards and circulates them among its members. In contradiction to his own testimony, Mr. Case testified that he was a member of the Farmers' Co-operative company at Norway, Iowa, last June, stating that the figures quoted on the cards were to be the prevailing prices, was rejected.

It was a "Social" Affair. Secretary Wells testified that, although the elevator situation was formerly met regularly each week, the fact that the rent was paid out of the funds of the Iowa Grain Dealers' association, the purpose of the club were merely to collect money. R. W. Harper, a prominent Des Moines grain dealer, threw a different light on this testimony by stating on the stand that the elevator club voted on what prices should prevail, and that the prices were suggested by Wells.

The Morning Hearing. That the Milwaukee railroad has assisted in establishing a virtual grain shipping monopoly at Kansas City, by placing its grain shipments from that city in the hands of the Simonds Shields Elevator company; that Shields is a partner in the company at Kansas City, and that the Milwaukee railroad has violated the terms of the contract, which is not permitted by the federal laws; these were the technical points brought out in the hearing in the morning.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

COL. M. M. PRICE IS DEAD IN PARIS

U. S. Consul and Former South Dakotan a Victim of Heart Disease.

Special to The Journal. Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 27.—The hearing before the interstate commerce commission yesterday afternoon on the grain elevator situation in Iowa proved a hard ordeal for Secretary George A. Wells and other members of the Iowa Grain Dealers' association. There were several sensational passages, in which the elevator situation was discussed in detail by documentary evidence.

At one time Mr. Wells was ordered from the stand by Commissioner Clark, who charged him with attempting to mislead the commission.

The farmers and representatives of the Farmers' Co-operative association endeavored to show that the grain combine was on the habit of fixing prices and of freezing out the irregulars. Incidentally Commissioner Clark inquired into the methods of the co-operative and asked if the "dealers" did not come pretty close to fixing prices.

The Messerole Boycott. C. G. Messerole of Gowrie, who took the stand at the opening of the afternoon session, is secretary of the Farmers' Co-operative Grain Dealers' association, and one of the chief opponents of the Grain Dealers' association.

He testified that his association with the farmers' company dated from the time he had attempted to do business as an "independent" without joining the association to fix prices.

"I was out of the market for the Iowa Grain Dealers' association," he said. "Through its secretary, George A. Wells, a boycott was forced on the house, which was not a success."

Mr. Messerole said he had proof of this allegation in the hands of the commission. He testified further that some of the independents had been released from the boycott on the condition that they would discontinue the penalty clause.

Ward Case's "Cards." Ward Case of Des Moines, who regularly sends out cards quoting prices on grain, testified that he had a number of cards on attempt to fix prices. The Iowa Grain Dealers' association subscribes for the cards and circulates them among its members. In contradiction to his own testimony, Mr. Case testified that he was a member of the Farmers' Co-operative company at Norway, Iowa, last June, stating that the figures quoted on the cards were to be the prevailing prices, was rejected.

It was a "Social" Affair. Secretary Wells testified that, although the elevator situation was formerly met regularly each week, the fact that the rent was paid out of the funds of the Iowa Grain Dealers' association, the purpose of the club were merely to collect money. R. W. Harper, a prominent Des Moines grain dealer, threw a different light on this testimony by stating on the stand that the elevator club voted on what prices should prevail, and that the prices were suggested by Wells.

The Morning Hearing. That the Milwaukee railroad has assisted in establishing a virtual grain shipping monopoly at Kansas City, by placing its grain shipments from that city in the hands of the Simonds Shields Elevator company; that Shields is a partner in the company at Kansas City, and that the Milwaukee railroad has violated the terms of the contract, which is not permitted by the federal laws; these were the technical points brought out in the hearing in the morning.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

The afternoon session, presided over by Commissioner Clark, was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon. The hearing was held in the afternoon.

LOWA POSSIBLY TAKE 3 BANDITS

Latter Made a Schoolhouse Their Fort and Fought Until Ammunition Was Gone.

Special to The Journal. Iowa City, Iowa, Oct. 27.—After an exciting all-day chase and several skirmishes in which shots were exchanged, a trio of alleged highwaymen were captured and lodged in jail here.

The men are charged with blowing the safe in the general store of Fred Hill, at Hill'siding, and in thought they came on the midnight train and went immediately to work upon the safe. They had just finished dynamiting it when Hill, who had been out later, a wedding, drove to the store and the men immediately took flight.

Hill at once aroused the town and pursuit was begun. Following to recent rains the trail of the gang was easily followed. They took refuge in the Blackstrap schoolhouse.

Here they defended themselves with a fusilade of shots. Then, when ammunition apparently giving out, they attempted a sortie. Two of them were captured, but the third got away. The posse, however, continued in pursuit and caught him about noon.

MOVING PICTURES CAUSE OF CRIME BOYS TAKE THEIR CUE FROM THE CANVAS.

Five Holdups in a Week in and Around Appleton, Wis.—Work Is Amateurs, Many Valuable Articles Having Been Overlooked by the Highwaymen.

Special to The Journal. Appleton, Wis., Oct. 27.—Five holdups occurred in this vicinity during the week, the most daring one last night on the Neenah road, and the police think it is an organized gang of young men who have taken on the life thru ideas suggested from the "moving pictures" in a local vaudeville house where such scenes are portrayed on the canvas every evening. The work is amateurish in the extreme, as the most valuable articles are overlooked.

Edward Clark and Clarence Frieberg were intercepted on the Neenah road last night and Clark lost his pocketbook, containing $25, and his watch. Frieberg was released, but the wife of a dentist, Mrs. G. E. Wilson, was grabbed Tuesday evening and robbed of her purse. A $100 diamond ring on her unengaged hand was overlooked. Three others, Margaret Hand, Joseph and Mrs. George Frank, were grabbed in dark places, but did not have their purses with them and were released.

Fortune for a Janitor. That Lawrence university janitors are prone to become illustrious is shown by the fact that the janitor of the law school, who was dismissed by Paul Smith, was notified by a New York attorney that he and his seven children had come to $100,000 in Berlin, Germany, of an amount supposed to be something like $100,000.

Paul Smith, the former janitor, won fame thru his relationship, helping freshmen over the stony path of the law. He was a janitor of the law school, and he is now in the head janitorship of the Milwaukee normal, receiving a salary of $1,400 a year.

SETTLERS FOR SAND BARRENS. Lands Once Considered Worthless Will Support Cattle Now Farming.

ASHLAND, WIS.—S. F. Salvey, president of the Duluth Land & Development company, has closed a deal for the sale of nearly six thousand acres of land in Ashland county. The lands were sold to F. W. Hahn of Monroe, Wis., who will bring in settlers next spring. The lands are known as sand barrens, and up to a few years ago were considered worthless. The purchase price was not made public.

The new Ashland flouring mill, secured by the Ashland Flouring company, is completed and will begin operations in three weeks, or as soon as the machinery is in position. The mill will produce 250 barrels of flour a day. Special machinery has been put in for grinding peas and flaxseed. J. H. Grant of Shell Lake, will have complete charge of the mill.

The fall political campaign was opened last night at Ashland by the democrats, their candidate for governor, John A. Alvord, and Michael F. Egan, their candidate for lieutenant governor. The speakers were the speakers of the rally was well attended.

Governer Davidson will be at Ashland on Sunday and hold a reception at the city hall. He will be accompanied by several candidates for state office.

DAUGHTERS CLOSE CONVENTION. Iowa Association Elects New Officers at Iowa City Meeting.

IOWA CITY, IOWA.—The seventh annual convention of the Iowa Daughters of the American Revolution, held in connection with the annual meeting of the Iowa State Fair, closed here today, with the election of the following officers:

Secretary, Mrs. W. H. McHenry, Des Moines; registrar, Mrs. W. H. McHenry, Des Moines; treasurer, Mrs. W. H. McHenry, Des Moines; and a large family of grown-up children.

Joseph Engelscheld, one of the first settlers of the West, died yesterday at his home west of this city in his eighty-ninth year.

TWO HARBOURS, MINN.—Thomas McDonald, aged 72, died at his home in this city from cancer of the liver. He was born in Inverness, Scotland, Oct. 10, 1834, and came to the United States about twenty years ago. He leaves a wife and eight children.

Mrs. C. B. Lester, aged 72, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Gattrell, and her remains were taken to Ames, Iowa, for interment.

Joseph Engelscheld, one of the first settlers of the West, died yesterday at his home west of this city in his eighty-ninth year.

CHATELAIN, MINN.—News was received here today of the death of Joseph Smith, former sheriff of this county, at his home in Humboldt, Minn., as a result of an accident which befell him while at work on a drilling machine. He was a brother of Detective Nic Smith of Minneapolis, and for four years was sheriff of this county, retiring two years ago. He will be buried next Sunday at the cemetery here.

Joseph Engelscheld, one of the first settlers of the West, died yesterday at his home west of this city in his eighty-ninth year.

CHATELAIN, MINN.—News was received here today of the death of Joseph Smith, former sheriff of this county, at his home in Humboldt, Minn., as a result of an accident which befell him while at work on a drilling machine. He was a brother of Detective Nic Smith of Minneapolis, and for four years was sheriff of this county, retiring two years ago. He will be buried next Sunday at the cemetery here.

Joseph Engelscheld, one of the first settlers of the West, died yesterday at his home west of this city in his eighty-ninth year.

A PRETTY MATRON OWES HEALTH TO PE-RU-NA.

MRS. ANNA M. KAISER. Had Suffered Severely From Pelvic Catarrh—Cannot Praise Peruna Too Highly—Read Her Letter.

Reports Her Cure. Mrs. Anna M. Kaiser, Two Rivers, Wis., was a sufferer from pelvic catarrh to such an extent that she could scarcely do her own work. In describing her symptoms, she writes: "I have such terrible backaches and pains below my shoulder blades, away down my back and across my hips, and at times pains in the pelvic organs, so that I am not able to lie down or sleep. I also have pains through my left side and an afraid I may be getting heart trouble."

After taking Peruna and following Dr. Hartman's instructions for several weeks, Mrs. Kaiser reported as follows: "I feel much stronger and do not get nervous as I used to. The pain is entirely gone, except when I am a little tired. The medicine has done me wonderful good. I am taking Peruna and Manalin. My bowels are also in good condition."

An Excellent Tonic. Mrs. Emily Perry, 118 1/2 18th Ave. N. E., Minneapolis, Minn., writes: "I have tried Peruna and found it an excellent tonic and cure for catarrhal troubles."

NORTHWEST WEDDINGS. HASTINGS, MINN.—The residence of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Hanson was the scene of a beautiful marriage last evening, when their daughter, Miss Helen Hanson, was united in marriage with William E. Poor of Staples, Minn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Frost of Hastings, Minn.

LEO VILGOLD, MINN.—The marriage of Leo Vilgold and Miss Celina LaVague of Chicago were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

FRANK GUST ELLIS, MINN.—The marriage of Frank Gust Ellis and Miss Jennie Estelle Carlson were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

LEO VILGOLD, MINN.—The marriage of Leo Vilgold and Miss Celina LaVague of Chicago were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

FRANK GUST ELLIS, MINN.—The marriage of Frank Gust Ellis and Miss Jennie Estelle Carlson were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

LEO VILGOLD, MINN.—The marriage of Leo Vilgold and Miss Celina LaVague of Chicago were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

FRANK GUST ELLIS, MINN.—The marriage of Frank Gust Ellis and Miss Jennie Estelle Carlson were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

LEO VILGOLD, MINN.—The marriage of Leo Vilgold and Miss Celina LaVague of Chicago were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

FRANK GUST ELLIS, MINN.—The marriage of Frank Gust Ellis and Miss Jennie Estelle Carlson were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

LEO VILGOLD, MINN.—The marriage of Leo Vilgold and Miss Celina LaVague of Chicago were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

FRANK GUST ELLIS, MINN.—The marriage of Frank Gust Ellis and Miss Jennie Estelle Carlson were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

LEO VILGOLD, MINN.—The marriage of Leo Vilgold and Miss Celina LaVague of Chicago were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

FRANK GUST ELLIS, MINN.—The marriage of Frank Gust Ellis and Miss Jennie Estelle Carlson were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

LEO VILGOLD, MINN.—The marriage of Leo Vilgold and Miss Celina LaVague of Chicago were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

FRANK GUST ELLIS, MINN.—The marriage of Frank Gust Ellis and Miss Jennie Estelle Carlson were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

LEO VILGOLD, MINN.—The marriage of Leo Vilgold and Miss Celina LaVague of Chicago were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

FRANK GUST ELLIS, MINN.—The marriage of Frank Gust Ellis and Miss Jennie Estelle Carlson were married at the home of the bride in the latter city.

Farming AND Fruit Growing IN Western Texas. There is nothing so certain in the world as irrigated farming. It does not make any difference how dry the season may be, the irrigated farmer is his own rain maker and he supplies his growing crops with water, while the elevation of land and at just the time when they require it.

Pecos Valley Lands. We have a large quantity of land in Ward and Loving counties, Texas, which the elevation of irrigated farming. This land lies along the Pecos river, which furnishes an abundant supply of water.

An Ideal Climate. The climate in this section of Texas is one of the most delightful in the world. The cold winters of the North are never high, while the elevation of the land and the dryness of the climate make the summer one of the most delightful seasons. These lands can be acquired at fair prices, good terms, and low rate of interest.

For Home Seekers' Rates. Apply to W. G. NEIMEYER, General Agent Sou. Pac. Co., 120 Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Ill.

W. J. BLACK, Chicago, Ill., Passenger Traffic Manager Santa Fe Railway. For general information on Pecos Valley Lands apply to J. W. MOORE, Barstow, Texas. And for maps, prices, literature, etc., to G. G. GIBBS, LAND COMMISSIONER, SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS.

ALLEN'S ULCERINE SALVE. Is a sure cure for Chronic Ulcers, Bone Ulcers, Scrofulous Ulcers, Varicose Ulcers, Mercurial Ulcers, Fever Sores, Gang