What the Market Affords. Pot roast of beef, 8 and 10 cents a pound. Celery root, 5 cents each. Hickory nuts, 65 cents a peck. Pound sweet apples, 35 cents a peck. Cider, 25 cents a gallon. Hot, spiced cider makes an appropriate drink for Halloween. To prepare it get good fresh cider and boil it three minutes with a little bag of cloves and allspice, two large sticks of cinnamon, and a very little sugar. Strain and serve steaming hot. Baltimore apple sauce, a favorite in ante-bellum days, is still popular in old Maryland families. To make it, rub thru a pound of sifted and warmed bread flour, two-thirds of a cup of butter and three heaping tablespoons sugar. Dissolve half a compressed yeast cake in a cup of milk that has been scalded and cooled to lukewarm. Add to the flour and mix to a stiff batter. Add again three eggs well beaten and beat the batter until very light. It needs a very stiff cover and let rise over night in a warm place. In the morning it should be nearly doubled in bulk. Divide in two portions and roll out in cakes about half an inch thick. Spread with apple sauce, pour sugar, cinnamon, and set back in the oven long enough for the sugar to melt. Eat very hot.

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY

FOR NOVEMBER. G. P. Putnam's Sons are presenting today for the attention of the reading public the second number of their new magazine. It is their hope that this number will be found to deserve the same cordial appreciation that was given to the October issue.

A NEIGHBORLY EMPEROR. Would you care to know the feeling of living peacefully next door to an Oriental Emperor? Willard Straight, late American consul to Korea, describes this unique sensation with vivid and picturesque phrases in an article illustrated from photographs and drawings by the author.

THE REAL THING. Mrs. Elizabeth W. Champney contributes a delightful story of a young man who goes in an automobile to buy as "an authentic antique" the Fountain of Love. The antique was, indeed, with the aid of a beautiful lady, "The Real Thing," as the title indicates.

FRANKLIN IN FRANCE. The second paper by Albert H. Smyth on "Franklin's Social Life in France" gives an unusually intimate view of the famous ambassador's private life abroad, and his hitherto unpublished letters to Madame Brillion show curious evidences of his struggles with the French language.

THE SHADOW OF A GREAT ROCK. The second instalment of W. R. Lighton's strong Western serial. This is the best thing that Mr. Lighton has done, and is attracting the attention that the editors of the magazine believed it would.
