KILLS HUSBAND; THEN HERSELF

Chicago Woman Shoots Husband While He Sleeps, Then Ends Her Own Life.

Journal Special Service. Chicago, Nov. 24 .- James Hatfield Delaney, president and treasurer of the American Shipping company, with of-fices at 324 Clark street and with branch offices at 29 Broadway, New York, and St. Louis, was shot and killed while asleep in his room at 402 La Salle avenue yesterday morning by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown Delaney, daughter of Charles Edward Brown of Willis Point, Texas, formerly proprietor of the Hotel del Prado and a member of the Union League club.

After firing one bullet into band's brain and another which buried itself in the pillow beneath his head, Mrs. Delaney, while in the attitude of prayer, placed the muzzle of the revolver in her own mouth, falling dead within a few feet of where Delaney's body lay.

The police are looking for two wo men, frequently seen in company with Mrs. Delaney, and three men, whose identity has not been established, in hope that they may give information which will explain a motive for the tragedy. May Have Quarreled.

So far the only motive which the police can ascribe for the double crime is that Delaney and his wife quarreled over some subject not yet known and that the shooting was the result of hot words and possible blows. A discol-ored eye and a bruise on the woman's forehead is declared to bear out this theory. A quart whisky bottle, nearly empty, and remnants of a lunch found in the room, the police believe, may the tragedy.

Another story is that Mrs. Delaney has been consumed with jealousy of at-tentions paid by her husband to other women.

A theory ascribing an entirely different cause for the tragedy has it that Delaney, tho supposed to be a multimillionaire and the head of a $40,000,000 concern, has actually been financially embarrassed for some time, and that his wife, knowing of their improved the control of the c pending poverty, preferred death for both. Once an Actress.

Mrs. Delaney at one time was on the stage and graduated from the Chicago musical college, but gave up her career then because of her husband's and father's objections.

ROOT ON TRADE LINES

Why the Natural Course of Events Turns Us South

Journal Special Service.

Cincinnati, Nov. 24.—Increased com-merce with the countries of South America and moral support of Panama canal construction were advocated by Secretary Root in an address at the twenty-sixth annual dinner of the Cincinnati Commercial club. Besides Mr. Root, the club had as guests Ignacio Calderon, minister from Bolivia; Enrique Cortes, minister from Colombia, and Albert Yocham, charge d'affaires of the Chilean legation.

Mr. Root opened with a word of greeting from "one of the biggest and one of the best all-round men in the world. Secretary Taft to his old cinnati Commercial club. Besides Mr.

Secretary Taft, to his old in Cincinnati." Then, speaking of trade, he said:

culties of trade with Europe and with the orient, but few people realize how serious is the present agitation of the Japanese on the Pacific coast. If it goes he feared that trade on the coast

SHIP SUBSIDY FAVORED

Secretary Bonaparte Will Take That Ground in His Report.

New York, Nov. 24.-At the naval architects' banquet last night Secretary Bonaparte of the navy department said: "In my forthcoming report I shall say that there should be a reasonable in the strength of the navy. I think we ought to be prepared to do something more than hold our own in the matter of naval construction.

"Unless our navy is sustained by the resources of an adequate merchant marine, the navy must be unavoidably and, of course, naturally increased. Not only considering this matter from a naval aspect, but from an economical stand point, I submit that it will be a wise economy for our government to that reserve of naval strength involved in the encouragement of a merchant ma-

SCANDAL AVERTED

London Case Comes to Naught-Gold Said to Have Been Used.

Journal Special Service. London, Nov. 24.—Society, while still eagerly expecting news of definite legal steps on the part of an earl whose beautiful wife is currently reported to have been in an intrigue with the least likely of all Anglo-American multi-millionaires, has been nonplussed by an announcement in the Morning Post of a totally different character. The announcement is that this particular earl and countess who for years have living a more than semi-detached ex-istence and who have never been seen about together, and rarely if ever met, had left London together for a prolonged stay in the country. Report has it, of course, that the Meurtain has been kept down by sheer weight of gold. Certain it is diamonds, weight of gold. Certain it is diamonds, sables, motor cars and sufficient cash to insure residence in country mansions are now at the disposal of this beautiful countess and her husband.
