News of Society

Mrs. Elbert L. Carpenter of Clifton avenue gave a musicale this afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Hubert G. Buchler of Lakeville, Conn. Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Buchler received alone in the handsomely appointed drawing room, and assisting were Meses. Charles C. Welles, Eugene J. Carpenter, Charles C. Webber, John R. Gillette, Alden W. Smith, Preston King, George Chase Christian, Leonard Welles, Miss Margaret Welles and Miss Marian Martin. A beautiful program was presented by Mrs. Alma Johnson Porteous and Miss Clara Williams, who sang a group of songs, and Carlo Fischer, who played cello selections. Mrs. Harriet W. Runyan furnished the accompaniments. About a hundred invitations had been issued.

Mrs. Buchler will return to her home Saturday, and she will be entertained at several charming informal affairs before her departure.

Mrs. George L. Gillette gave her second post-nuptial home to the L. S. Gillette residence, 715 Fifth street SE. Receiving with Mrs. Gillette were Miss Kate Buchanan and Miss Elizabeth Heath. In the parlors and reception hall pink chrysanthemums made a pretty setting and white and pink blossoms were in the diningroom. This evening Mr. and Mrs. Gillette will receive together.

Mrs. David E. Simpson entertained at a luncheon today at her home on Lyndale avenue for Miss Jennie Lind, who was the debutante introduced by her at the Hostesses' reception.

Mrs. Charles Cleveland and Mrs. Wesley Neill will be hostesses at a bridge party tomorrow afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Neill, 2011 Second avenue S. The hours will be from 2 to 6 o'clock and fifty women have been invited. Thursday afternoon Mrs. Neill and Mrs. Cleveland will entertain the same number of women at six-hand euchre.

Mrs. Florence S. Potter entertained the young women of the kindergarten normal school this afternoon at her home, 2212 Harriet avenue. Miss Blanche Booth gave several delightful readings from Shakespeare, and later the guests gathered about the tea table.

The first of the affairs which have been planned for Miss Bessie Koons, a Christmas bride, was given this afternoon when Miss Anna Mae Mortimer of 2104 Western avenue, entertained a group of a dozen young women at a linen shower. The decorations and appointments were in pink with carnations in the parlors, and chrysanthemums and pink tapers in candelabra in the dining room. The lights throughout were shaded in pink. Each guest brought a gift for the bride. Miss Swartz acted as mistress. Later Miss Koons was showered with dainty linen gifts from a landing in the hall. Misses Hazel Mortimer and Florence Cheney assisted the hostess.

The wedding of Miss Frederica Elizabeth Schultz and Benjamin Powers Darby of Huron, S. D., took place last evening at the home of the bride on Sixteenth street. The Rev. Irving E. Johnston read the service, in the presence of the relatives and close friends of the family. The "Lohengrin" wedding march, "Spring Song," and the Mendelssohn "Minstrel" march furnished the musical setting.

Miss Schultz wore white silk mulle over white silk, with a wide band of white lace, and her flowers were chrysanthemums. Christmas greens and southern smilax made a leafy bower in the parlors, where the vows were spoken. Mrs. Darby, who is a native of Minnesota, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Schlamann.

WOMEN CAUSE CRIME

MRS. MARY E. HOLLAND.

"The emancipation of woman, her club life and business affiliations are responsible for the increase of crimes among women. There is too little home life; the constant association with men tends to make women callous, less moral and in consequence, more reckless. Women criminals are infinitely more vicious than men, less tractable, more unmanageable, and when they become partners in crime, the woman inspires and the man executes."

This is the pretty radical statement that will be debated everywhere. But it has authority. It is the frank opinion of Mrs. Mary E. Holland, the foremost woman detective in the United States.

That the men of her craft have respect for her attainments and her opinions is best evidenced by the fact that she is present in Washington, teaching the United States Secret Service the intricacies and infallibilities of the Beggan system—the system of classifying, retaining the recidivist criminals by their finger prints. Mrs. Holland is the most expert on the system in this country.

What the Market Affords

Rabbits, 20 cents each. Creamery butter, 33 cents a pound; brick, 34 cents. Eggs, storage, 24 cents a dozen; strictly fresh, 35 cents. Cabbage, 5 cents each. Popcorn, 5 cents a pound.

Rabbits have been late in coming into the market, but now that they are beginning to arrive they will furnish variety to the table. When a rabbit is fresh the flesh should be firm and if young, the animal will have smooth and sharp claws. As the flesh is rather dry bacon is frequently used with it. To broil a rabbit cut into large joints and wrap each of them in well buttered paper. Broil them till well browned; see that the joints are turned frequently, so as to be evenly cooked. When ready remove the papers, and serve on a hot dish with small pats of butter on top of each joint.

For a light brown joint neatly, then fry light brown color in two cups of butter. Remove the joints and fry a sliced onion, add two tablespoons of curry powder, three tablespoons of chopped onion, one dessertspoon of sugar, a quarter of a pint of gravy, a quarter pint of milk, a teaspoonful of salt, one dessertspoon of flour, let this come to the boil and chop apple and the pieces of the rabbit, simmer gently for one and half hours.

FROM ELIZABETH LEE

Design for a Waist.
Dear Miss Lee: Please design for me two waists. One is a blue pongee silk, for which I have a garnet neck. I would like to have it very festive, especially if lined with white. The other is a black taffeta. How would a fagottted yoke in gold look?

It is rather difficult to design becoming waists without knowing your measurements. A pretty model, however, for the blue pongee would be to gather the material several times, making a little tucks each row, to the net yoke and then tying the waist on the shoulders with strands of pink and blue velvet.

The black taffeta, lined with white, and having a belt of the strands of velvet. Pretty full sleeves shirred to form cuffs and finished with knots of velvet will complete the very smart and festive waist.

Were you thinking of having the yoke of narrow black ribbon fagottted with gold thread? This would be effective, especially if lined with white. The lower portion could be pin-tucked to the yoke and be brought into a black belt closed with a buckle in gold and white enamel. Full puffed sleeves could be brought into cuffs matching the yoke, when the result would be a decidedly smart waist.

—Elizabeth Lee.

The Author's Study club had a Christmas frolic this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Niles Eby, 615 Fifth street SE. A luncheon was served from a table decked with a Christmas tree and poinsettias made an effective arrangement thru the rooms. Covers were placed for twenty-three and afternoon games were a feature.

Each of the guests had brought a gift, which was fastened to a pole, and with a small pair of scissors each cut a favor.

A Club Anniversary.

The Oliver Wendell Holmes club was entertained by the president, Mrs. F. E. Hobbs, 2217 Polk street NE, Thursday afternoon. The decorations were carried out in the club flowers, apple blossoms and festoons of the flowers were garlanded from the ceilings in the parlor and dining room to the tables. The place cards bore quotations from Oliver Wendell Holmes. The favors were in the club colors, pink and white, and also had quotations. As it was the twelfth anniversary of the club each year of study was represented by illustrations from the literature of the different countries studied: America, England, Greece, Italy and France. A luncheon, appointed in pink and white, was served at the close of the meeting.

Eminent Doctors Praise Its Ingredients.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John E. Frye of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonia dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator... makes for normal activity of the reproductive system. It continues in Helonia dioica, a medicinal which more fully answers the above requirements, than any other which I am acquainted with. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which is not benefited by the use of this medicinal root. Dr. Frye further says: 'The following are among the leading indications for the use of Unicorn root: Pain or soiling in the back, with leucorrhoea; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women, constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weak condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhoea (suppression) or absent monthly periods, arising from or accompanying an atonic condition of the reproductive organs and anemic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen.'

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonia, and the medicinal properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says: "It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions... and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal: "In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such a general consensus of opinion as there is in the case of Golden Seal. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal: "Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding), and congestive dysmenorrhoea (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.
