THE YOUNG-QUINLAN CO.

OF FEMINE INTEREST

News of Society

The popularity of the Minnetonka Boat club was shown last night at the annual ball of the club given in Masonic Temple, as 400 guests responded to the invitation and enjoyed one of the prettiest of midwinter affairs. Red, white and blue, the club colors, were seen in the decorations and streamers of bunting found their way from pillar to pillar, over the windows, twined the rafters under the ceiling of the ball room, and made a baldaquin of gay color. Banners, ornaments, trophies of races and representative emblems of hard-won championships were suspended in long rows at both ends of the room, making a beautiful contrast in their rich coloring of gold and silver, embroidered velvet and satin. The platform was a tangle of green, for palms, ferns and Christmas green hid the orchestra from view. In the reception rooms red-shaded lights and a warm glow over appointments of red and green.

When the Minnetonka, the syndicate Class A boat, fell under the hammer, Ed C. Phinney, of Minnesota, at the Francis W. Parker school, which she founded and endowed with $1,000. When the school opened for the fall term an assistant principal was absent and Mrs. Blaine volunteered to do the work. "I like the work so much," she declared enthusiastically, "that I intend to keep it up as long as they will let me."

In the receiving group were Messrs. and Mrs. Hugh R. Landon, Floyd St. John, Fred A. Richter, E. H. Day, H. Howard, W. E. French, Karl W. Perkins and Cyril Mitchell. E. C. Phinney is the chairman of the general committee on arrangements.

Mrs. James Pyle will receive tomorrow afternoon at her home, 1001 Sixth street SE, the evening Mr. Pyle will receive with Mrs. Pyle.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schultz of New York, Herbert Bell of Philadelphia and Mr. Atkinson of Honolulu returned to New York last evening. Mrs. James P. Bell at their home on Park avenue. During their visit in Minneapolis they were delightfully entertained. Mrs. Bell gave a dinner for them and Mrs. Minnikahda club Tuesday evening, at which covers were laid for twenty-five. Preceding the dinner, the eastern guests were given a real "Minnesota" winter sports on Lake Calhoun. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Peavey entertained at a theater party for them Monday evening and also entertained, Frank T. Hefflinger also entertained, Frank T. Hefflinger at the Minnikahda club. John Gillilan gave a luncheon of fourteen covers Tuesday at the Minnetonka club.

Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Knight of Girard avenue 8 will leave tonight for Buffalo, N. Y. to be present at the marriage of their niece, Miss May Edith Knight, to Walter Meahl of Lockport, N. Y., which has been announced to take place Thursday, Dec. 27, at the home of the bride's father, William K. Knight, in Buffalo. Miss Knight is now in Minneapolis. She attended the Central high school for some time before removing to Buffalo, and was one of the popular younger girls. Dr. and Mrs. Knight will return from Buffalo about Jan. 8.

Miss Edith Moore leaves this evening for Moline, Ill., to be present at the debutante reception of Miss Marjorie Allen at Allendale, which will be given tomorrow evening. Miss Moore and Miss Allen were both Smith college girls and Miss Allen was in Minneapolis at Miss Moore's debut a month ago. Miss Moore will return Monday.

Miss Genevieve Walston's home on Blaisdell avenue was the scene of a pretty dancing party given by the members of the Pi Beta Phi sorority last evening. About sixty young people danced. The rooms were lighted with Christmas greens and red roses and the brown and silver of the sorority colors. Messrs. C. L. Bartholomew, David Gamba, A. A. Jenks and George Harrison chaperoned the party.

Miss Cora Evelyn Bartel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bartel, and Frederick P. Root were married last night at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. S. Jamieson, 3125 Dupont avenue S. Rev. P. A. Sumner read the service and Miss Cora Rickard sang, "Thou Art Like Unto a Flower." Miss Rickard also played the "Lohengrin" wedding march as the processional music. The intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "The Evening Star" were softly sounded as the vows were spoken, and after the service Miss Rickard sang "My Heart at Thy Feet" in full voice. The bride wore white silk null with trimmings of embroidered chiffon and held a bouquet of white roses. Christmas Eve.

Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago, a popular magazine published an editorial article in which the writer asserted, in substance, that all disease should be regarded as criminal. Certain it is, that much of the sickness and suffering in the world is due to the violation of certain of Nature's laws. But to say that all sickness should be regarded as criminal, must appeal to every reasonable individual as radically wrong.

It would be harsh, unsympathetic, cruel, yes criminal, to condemn the poor, weak, over-worked, and old, who sink under the heavy load of household cares and burdens, and suffers from weaknesses, various displacements of pelvic organs and other derangements peculiar to her sex.

Frequent bearing of children, with its exacting demands upon the system, coupled with the care, worry and labor of rearing a large family, is often the cause of weaknesses and derangements which are aggravated by the many household cares and the hard, and never-ending work which the mother is often called upon to perform. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription says that one of the greatest obstacles to the cure of this class of maladies is the fact that the poor, over-worked housewife, who needs rest from her many household cares and labor to enable her to secure from the use of his "Favorite Prescription" is a matter of frequent experience, he says, in his extensive practice in these cases, to meet with those in which his medicine is needed most.

With those suffering from prolapsus, ante-version and retroversion of the uterus or other displacements of the womanly organ, it is very necessary that, in addition to taking his "Favorite Prescription" they obtain from being very much out of shape, on their feet. All heavy lifting or straining of any kind should also be avoided. As much outdoor air as possible, with moderate, light exercise is also very important. Let the patient observe these rules and the "Favorite Prescription" will do the rest.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Advertiser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound.

If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held strictly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

LIKED HER WORK

MRS. EMMONS BLAINE.

Mrs. Emmons Blaine, member of the board of education, was a recent recruit in Chicago's army of school-maintenance "newcomers" at the Francis W. Parker school, which she founded and endowed with $1,000. When the school opened for the fall term an assistant principal was absent and Mrs. Blaine volunteered to do the work. "I like the work so much," she declared enthusiastically, "that I intend to keep it up as long as they will let me."

A wedding of last evening was that of Miss Mabel Florence Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Simpson, and Horace Walter Cheiman, which took place at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Cheiman, 1515 West Twenty-second street, at 8 o'clock. A cool breeze beneath a bell of white carnations which was suspended from an arch of smilax, ferns and white roses, and carnations were also used with foliage thru the rooms, with greens and holly to wreath the doorways and window. In the dining-room white roses and ribbons made the table beautiful. Miss Sadie Cheiman played the wedding music. The bride, Miss Daisy Cheiman, wore white French lawn and carried pink roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss Bernice Cheiman, in a white frock, carried the ring in the heart of a white rose. The bride wore wool taffeta over taffeta, trimmed with jet and lace and veiled tribbons, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Clarence Maher of St. Paul was the best man. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Cheiman and Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Cheiman received with the bride's parents, with Mr. and Mrs. Simpson. Mr. Cheiman and his bride went away for a trip and on their return, after Jan. 1, they will be at home at 1515 West Twenty-second street.

Miss Marjorie Peake gave an informal dinner last evening at her home on Park avenue. Her guests included Christmas bride, Miss Bessie Koons. The guests were a group of the bride's school friends and covers were placed on the table. Holly and poinsettias decked the bride's chair and the same flowers were on the sideboard, while red shaded tapers in a candelabra centered the table. A rosebud was at each cover.

Mrs. J. E. Orrin of Fremont avenue 8 entertained at dinner last evening for Miss Bertha Kinnard and Dr. Walter Lafuze, whose marriage will take place next week. Christmas bells, red roses and red shaded tapers decked the table and the favors were in white.

Miss O'Leitha Brown of Utica, Mo., and Matt McCarthy of York, N. D., were married Monday in the parlors of the Hotel Hoyer. Rev. G. L. Morrill read the service. Mr. A. McCarthy of Granite Falls and Frank McCarthy of Minneapolis were the attendants. Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy will make their home in York, N. D.

Mrs. Jackson Brown entertained at a luncheon Tuesday afternoon at her home in St. Anthony Park for the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jamieson. The day was the birthday anniversary of the hostess, and fourteen guests were present. Yellow, the club color, was used in the decoration, and the club flowers, the sunflower, were seen on the hand-painted cloth on the table. The basket filled with yellow chrysanthemums stood in the center and yellow candles burned in pretty holders. The place cards showed water color designs of sunflowers. Mrs. L. N. Sinclair, George Williams and Shea of St. Paul gave readings, vocal selections were by Rosewood, Newwood Smith and Brown, and one of the club members, who spent her childhood days at a southern plantation home, danced a plantation jig.

The Home Dramatic club last night held a rehearsal of "Apartments to Let," William Gillette's four-act comedy. Charles M. Holt, the producer, is putting the club in form for the production of which is to take place Thursday evening, Dec. 27, in Johnson School of Music.

WED LIKE THE ANCIENTS
Same Ceremony That United Cambys and Niets Used in Chicago.

Journal Special Service.
Chicago, Dec. 20.—To go back 5,000 years just to be married is enough out of the usual run of events to cause a flutter. The same ceremonial pomp, the same ritual which united Cambys, the son of Cyrus the Great of Persia, and his Egyptian bride, Niets, away back in the dawn of things, made Hooyer Mallet of Montreal and Adelaide Marsh, 333 Forty-second court, husband and wife in Chicago last night.

The modern audience was blotted out. Nothing remained to the view but the glowing, shining, the wondrous, court. Everything had gone back 5,000 years. This ceremony was the first that has occurred in the United States under the Zoroaster ritual. Dr. Hamish, who officiated, intends to make it a regular feature of his pseudo-fantastic cult.

FRIDAY—Prospect Park Mothers' circle, Mrs. Josiah Hartzell, 70 Arthur avenue, 3 p.m.

Kindergarten Celebrations.
The children of Hope kindergarten had their Christmas party today in the chapel auditorium. The big Christmas tree was gay with daisy chains and Christmas gables and laden with the gifts the children had made for their parents. For weeks the busy little fingers have been pasting and painting, making sachets, shaving balls, bookmarks and any number of other pretty and useful trifles, and today the makers proudly presented them to their friends. Christmas carols and games made a delightful program and after the gifts had been distributed there was a lunch for babies and mothers, arranged by the women of Westminster church. Mrs. Shryock, the director, was aided by a group of young women assistants.

The Riverside kindergarten Christmas party will be given tomorrow at 10 a.m., in the Riverside chapel. The little people of the kindergarten will have their fathers and mothers as guests. About 100 will be present and after a program of Christmas songs and games, the gifts will be taken from the tree and a lunch will be served.

A Christmas Program.
Tuesday afternoon the members of the Pathfinders' club were entertained by Miss Louise Kendall, leader of the club, at the residence of Mrs. M. J. Mallon, 3136 Pillsbury avenue. The club is studying Germany this year and Miss Kendall gave an interesting talk on Germany and its Christmas celebrations. A delightful musical program was given by Misses Paulson and Graves. The rooms were decorated in Christmas green and red and refreshments were served. Twenty-six of the club members were present.

CLUB NOTES.
Mrs. D. G. McMillan, president of the Minnesota branch of the Sunshine society, will speak of the work of the society at a meeting and the prospect for the year. Miss Nevada tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Josiah Hartzell. The recently organized reading club met this week with Miss Grace Stillwell at her home on Park avenue. Mrs. F. W. Nelson gave a reading of Stephen Phillips' "Herod." At the next meeting, Jan. 8, at the home of Mrs. Frederic Curtis on Stevens avenue, Mrs. Nevada will read "The Fires of St. John." Grace P. Silimery read the program, "Holding and Helping the Boys," before the Graded Union of School Teachers today. Mrs. Brett Moran, Mrs. C. M. Farnelle and Miss Grace Longfellow taught the different classes.

What the Market Affords

Smelts, 15 cents a pound; extra size, 22 cents.
Halibut, 18 cents a pound.
Cod, 20 cents a pound.
Coley, 10 cents a stalk, 15 and 25 cents a bunch.
Parsley, 4 cents a bunch, three for 10 cents.
Bar le due, 25 cents a jar.

Dresden cooks have a delicious way of stuffing large smelts. The fish are cleaned, dried and boned. Stuff with a forcemeat of bread crumbs, butter and chopped oysters, seasoned to taste. Put in a dish, cover with some chopped onion, the juice of a lemon, one-half pint of milk or white stock and an ounce of butter. Bake for half an hour. Serve with a border of parsley and more sauce made of flour, butter, milk or stock.

A luncheon timbale, recommended by Good Housekeeping is as follows: Press three-fourths of a cup of boiled beans thru a colander. Add an equal amount of grated cheese, a pinch of paprika and one-fourth teaspoon of salt. Beat the whites and yolks of four eggs separately, add the yolks to the bean and cheese mixture with half a cup of milk and beat lightly. Cut in the beaten whites of the eggs and fill well-buttered gem pans three-fourths full. Bake until brown and serve with a drawn butter sauce, to which has been added a little chopped parsley.

Falcon Pancake Flour is found at most all grocery stores. Why?

BAGLEY, MINN.—A reception was held at the residence of B. F. Brown for E. B. Horton and family, who will leave for Montana on Christmas day. Mr. and Mrs. Horton were presented with some fine pieces of silverware as tokens of esteem.
